Co-Operative Farming.

The co-operative labor system, which has proved so successful in manufactures, is being rapidly extended to farming, or, as they are sometimes called, agricultural associations, for which this system seems peculiarly adapted. Associations of this kind possess extraordinary advantages in the West, where land is cheap, and where breaking and fencing seems to sap the foundations of a farmer's success, if he be poor and alone. But the united efforts of many, in the form of colonies, some of whom may be engaged in mechanical pursuits for the benefit of all, seems to give, as Union always does, strength to each individual, or rather, each protects and sustains the strength of the other, so that it shall not be overcome or exhausted. An association of this character is now being completed in San Francisco, as we learn by the Times, for the settlement of large tracts of land in the southern portion of California, and with every prospect of profit to the members of this extensive co-partnership.

During the present season several of these colonies have been formed, and have located settlements on the Big Sioux and Vermillion rivers, in the eastern portion of Dakota. Farms have been cultivated, mills have been erected, and, no doubt, under proper management, those who now are only poor emigrants will, before many of the restless Americans find the good place they are seeking, be men of wealth and influence.

The St. Paul Press of the 26th states that a large number of families, with teams and agricultural implements, had started out to commence wholesale farming operations at Redwood Falls, on the Minnesota river, for a party who had located 12,000 acres of land, on what is known as the Sioux Reservation, and that it is proposed to increase this to 30,000 acres. The plan is to break a large lot of ground each year, which will be sold or rented to actual settlers, so as to enable them to raise a crop the first year, which is a decided advantage over the usual plan of spending a year after locating in making ready. This will probably become one of the most extensive farming schemes in the country, and the system adopted by the party who devises the plan might be followed in other Western States and Territories with good results. The plan is encouraging to emigrants who are induced to seek assistance in their first operations, and during the present season, when immigration is seeking the shores of America in such unusual numbers, it will result in settling and developing large tracts of the country.

A petition for appointment as Register in Bankruptcy must be signed by the merchants and business men of the county, and, if possible, the member of Congress of the District, directed to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, who if he deems the recommendation sufficient, will send the nomination to the Supreme Court of the Territory for confirmation. Further than that the Judges of the Supreme Court of the Territory have nothing to do with it.

The Senate, on the 25th, passed the House bill authorizing the Secretary of War to furnish supplies to the Illinois History Society expedition for exploring the Colorado River. We gave an abstract of the bill a few days since, together with the objects of the expedition.

The trial of Jeff. Davis will take place on the 3d inst.

P. R.

These are degenerate days, so far as honor and chivalry are connected with the manly art which was once admired and respected. The great McCool-Coburn affair, which for months has been looked forward to by the sporting community as an important affair, has resulted in a miserable fizzle; and judging from the disgust which it has created among the admirers of muscle and endurance, in the east, it will be some time again before fighting men, gamblers, turf men or any other class in the United States countenance or encourage, ~~to any extent~~, prize fighting. It seems to have been the almost unanimous opinion of the sporting men interested in the results of the fight, that it was a premeditated sell—that it was the programme arranged between these great champions to swindle, as they did, over 500 persons out of their fare on the excursion train, and that they did not intend to fight at all. It was only a little game to raise the wind. After it was learned that Coburn had been arrested, which never was done until the party had been mulcted out of the fare from Cincinnati to the chosen ground, in Indiana, the crowd showed signs of making trouble, when Barney Aaron announced everybody should have their money returned, which for the time being quieted them; but the money never was returned, neither is it likely to be. McCool's friends claim that the whole thing was "put up" on him, by Coburn and his friends; but most of the sporting men insist there never was any money really bet on the fight, except by outsiders, and that the whole affair is a disgraceful fraud. A few such terminations to what is expected as glorious contests, would do more to discourage prize-fighting than all the statutes and preachers in the United States, and the enemies of the ring may justly consider they have won the moral victory, if the principals did win all the money, in the McCool-Coburn affair.

Indians in Kansas.

On Friday last we published a special dispatch to the St. Paul Press, dated the 23rd of May, which was as follows:

Gen. Sheridan has returned to Fort Leavenworth from the west. Captain Angill arrived at Leavenworth from the Plains Wednesday, and reports that 600 Indians are at Fort Larned, and about the same number at Fort Dodge. Major Wyncoop was at Fort Larned, and invited all the Indians to meet him there to receive a communication. Many Indians had arrived with Spencer carbines, and well supplied with ammunition furnished by the government. Captain Angill does not believe that there is any danger of difficulty with the Indians at present, but if whisky is not kept from them, trouble is likely to occur.

We made a few comments on the above, at that time. Now we find the following special dispatch in the Leavenworth Times of the 28th:

ELLSWORTH, May 28, 1868.

A band of some 600 Indians came within a short distance of our town yesterday and killed a stock-herder.

They also perpetrated other outrages and drove off a large number of valuable animals.

Our citizens organized as soon as possible, and the greatest excitement prevailed. C. J.

The same paper says:

In addition to our above special we find the following intelligence in the Hays City Advance of Tuesday, May 26th:

About three o'clock this afternoon some forty Cheyennes attacked the camp of Giddings & Losee, situated one mile and a half from Coyote, shot and wounded Hugh Bay, a herder, and ran off eleven mules. The camp was defended by four herders, who gave the Indians a warm reception. The fight lasted about fifteen minutes. After taking the stock, the Indians left in direction of the Saline. The wounded man has been brought in and will be well cared for.

A party of Indians have driven in the wood choppers on Cow Creek. When last seen they were going in an easterly direction.

The Times asks, "where are the Commissioners? those angels of mercy?" It is of little consequence where they are. One thing is certain—they are far from being of any benefit to the country.

We learn from the official notice published in the Church Journal that at the consecration of Rev. Dr Bissell, of Geneva, New York, the Bishop elect of the Diocese of Vermont, which will take place on Wednesday, June 3, 1868, at Christ's Church, Montpelier, the Right Rev. Samuel Allen McCoskrey, LL.D., of Detroit, Bishop of Michigan, will be the consecrator, and the sermon will be delivered by the Right Rev. Arthur Cleveland Coxe, D.D., of Buffalo, Bishop of Western New York.

The earnings of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, for the month of April were $347,892 25. This amount being four times greater than some, and twice as large as the greatest of the other roads centering in Chicago.

The statue of Thomas H. Benton was unveiled in Lafayette Park, St. Louis, on the 27th inst., by Mrs. Gen. Fremont. The statue is of bronze, was the work of Miss Hosmer, and with platform and pedestal will cost $30,000, which is to be paid by the State of Missouri.

The merchants of San Francisco have formed a protective association for the purpose of rigidly investigating all applications for the benefits of the bankrupt law. It is thought this will have the effect of preventing fraudulent petitions, as well as secure a more equitable distribution of the property of bankrupts.

The new building which is being erected for the Chicago Tribune Company will front seventy-two feet on Dearborn street, by one hundred and twenty-one feet on Madison street. It is to be built entirely of stone, brick and iron, and will be made fire-proof: four stories high; both fronts of Athens marble. It will cost $175,000, exclusive of machinery and printing material.

Fate of the "Growler."

It may be remembered that a short time ago our San Francisco dispatches announced that the American schooner Growler had been cast ashore on the coast of Alaska. Of the fate of her crew and cargo, the Victoria, B. C., Colonist of 11th May tells the following:

"By the Oriflamme, which arrived in Victoria Saturday evening from Tongas and Stekin, without going to Sitka, we learn some additional particulars about the wreck of this vessel. A man called Frenchy informed an Italian who came down that he (Frenchy) assisted to bury the bodies. Sprague, mate and part owner of the Growler, had his throat cut in a frightful manner, literally from ear to ear. The half-breed woman Estelle, had one foot also badly cut. Besides such things previously found in the possession of the Hydah Indians, much other material has been discovered which they cannot fairly account for. The crime was committed on American soil, but we are glad to hear one of our own vessels is going up as well as the Wyanda, so that the public may rest assured this high-handed outrage will be thoroughly investigated. Mr. Sprague, mentioned above, was highly connected in America, being cousin to the wealthy and intellectual Governor of Rhode Island. It is said the Stekin and Tongas Indians are at war. The Stekin chief killed the Tongas chief, Abbott. The Tongas say positively the Hydahs killed the crew of the Growler and robbed the vessel.

Sweetwater Items.

From the Mines, of the 23rd, we gather the following. Major Baldwin, just in from Wind River Valley, presented us specimens of the agricultural products of that vale, quite refreshing to look at. Among the variety was an average spear of barley grass, thirty-two inches in length, bunch grass in seed, strawberry and gooseberry in blossom, rose and full-sized quaking asp leaves. The Major represents the valley (which is only thirty miles from South Pass City) as being a perfect Alhambra, with an Italian climate.

We are informed that a party led by Louis Robinson, a short time since, pursued and overtook four men, between Green river and Big Sandy, who had in their possession some horses that were stolen from Salt Lake a while ago. After hesitating for some time, they gave themselves up, and two of them are on their way to Salt Lake for trial. The others were allowed to pursue their journey.

A serious accident happened a few days ago on Bear River, about fifty miles from its mouth. A man by the name of Green in taking his gun out of a wagon accidentally discharged it, the charge entering his right arm just above the elbow. He was taken to Fort Bridger and his wound examined by Dr. Waters, who found it necessary to perform amputation.

Thirty-six buildings have been erected in Wind River Valley, and more are going up. The gardens about the ranches are looking well. Peas, corn, cabbage and lettuce are well out of the ground, and if the ranchmen have no drawbacks we shall soon be supplied with these desirable articles of food. We expect to see Wind River Valley thickly settled before fall.

The Summit Ditch Company broke ground yesterday, and intend to have the whole work completed inside of twelve days. The ditch will be four and a half miles in length, and is intended to supply Oregon Gulch with sufficient water for mining purposes.

Jimmy Dyer would give an exhibition in the "manly art," on the 24th.

The Financial Plank in the Chicago Platform.

Upon the subject of finance, there is marked and pleasing evidence of the growth of a healthy tone. Last year, in the vain hope of gaining votes for negro suffrage, many Republicans seemed to be running a race with the Pendletonian Democracy toward the goal of repudiation. Ardent radicals were everywhere exclaiming that it was the financial question which defeated the amendment, though it was plain enough to cool observers that their trouble was in their unwillingness to see what really had hurt us. A few months' reflection had produced good results, and in the denunciation of all forms of all forms of repudiation as national crimes, we have a distinct repulse of the seductions of Democratic financiers which cannot be misunderstood. Pendleton and company are to be allowed the patent right of all schemes for paying off the debt in greenbacks, and similar plans for bankrupting the nation, and we trust that Ben Butler and Thad. Stevens will take notice that their tentative efforts in that direction are not approved by the convention. The care with which all pettifogging interpretations of the national loans are excluded, and the broadness of the terms of the resolutions in favor of paying the public indebtedness "in the utmost good faith, to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted," will do much toward giving that confidence in the stability of the financial policy of the party which the business community need and demand. With a reasonable assurance that business shall not run the hazards of injudicious legislation, the mercantile world would not be long in finding a satisfactory way of solving our financial problem. Stability and freedom from interference in what is now demanded more than all else; and so great is the risk that any Congressional legislation would be upon a mistaken theory, that, if our best business men could be heard, we believe their earnest and united request would be, "Let us alone!" The fifteen or twenty years the bonds have yet to run will afford ample opportunity to take advantage of any facilities for reduction of interest which an easy condition of the money market might offer; and as to the currency, it is so probable that any change made would only introduce a series of vibrations from contraction to expansion, ending in an overthrow of credit, that the "let alone" policy is the most likely to subserve the best interests of the whole community for some time to come.—Cincinnati Commercial.

A Trading Post B[illegible] Indians.

We gain the following intelligence from Mr Joseph Douglas, who has just arrived here from the West. Some months ago Mr. Douglas was appointed Post Trader by the commanding officer at Fort Zarah, and his store was on Walnut Creek, very near that post. On Tuesday last, the 18th, about one hundred and twenty-five Cheyennes, accompanied by a few Arapahoes, came to the trading house and demanded whisky. They were refused, and became very much excited. It was evident, from their manner, that they had already been drinking. Not succeeding in their efforts, they resorted to all possible schemes to provoke a collision with the white men and the soldiers. They cocked their revolvers and held them at the heads of white men. Holding their revolvers in this way, some of them compelled soldiers to take cartridges and bury them in the sand, and then dig them up again. Lieutenant Shepherd is in command at Fort Zarah, but he has only twenty-five men, and if they had resented any of the insults heaped upon them, it would have resulted in the indiscriminate massacre of the entire garrison. Matters went on in this way all Tuesday afternoon, the Indians occasionally galloping up the creek to obtain whisky from some miscreant who was thus feeding them with fire.

In the evening Mr. Douglas left his store and went to the fort. At about ten o'clock the Indians were seen kindling a fire round the store, and in a minute the building was in flames. The store and all its contents, valued at $5,000, was entirely destroyed. The Indians then went away.

The general feeling in that vicinity is that the Indians mean to fight. They recently told a white man named Parker, with whom they claim to be friendly: "When you go down to Zarah, look out! Every white man is a——" They drew fifteen sacks of flour at Larned the other day and then threw it away.

It is plain that it will take only a spark to kindle this excited mass into a flame which will spread all over the plains.—Leavenworth paper.

Shooting in Ellsworth, Kansas.

ELLSWORTH, Ks., May 26, 1868.

Our town, for the past forty-eight hours, has been in one general state of excitement, but, as heretofore, the citizens of Ellsworth are able and fully equal to the exigency of any emergency, and will see that full and equal justice is administered.

A man known as Jack Cary, on Sunday last, called at Mr. Leopold Herzog's beer saloon, and called for drinks. Not having money, of course he was refused.

In order to get even, according to his idea, Cary, on the same evening, shot Mr. Herzog through the window, and it is doubtful whether the latter will recover.

Cary was arrested, and last evening some thirty of his friends made an attempt so rescue him from the calaboose.

Sheriff Kingsbury called upon the people of Ellsworth for aid, which was responded to with a will, and the roughs driven out of town.

As they were leaving, however, they concluded to have a skirmish with a squad of citizens under command of Mr. John Brennan, an old freighter, and the skirmish unfortunately resulted in the death of Mr. B., the shot being fired by Mike Gordon, of the Fort.

Gordon is under arrest, and it is generally supposed that the Vigilantes will decide his, as well as Cary's case.

The citizens are very indignant, and the loss of Mr. Brennon will be severely felt by the people of Ellsworth.—Cor. Leavenworth Times.

The Daily Evening Leader.

MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1868.

Our Shoshone Indian belles are apt imitators of the style and habits of their pale sisters, whose foreign airs they adopt very readily. We noticed two of them riding along the street yesterday, sitting gracefully on the bare backs of their horses, with one leg hanging down unsupported by a stirrup and the other raised and tucked neatly in the lap. They were manifestly proud of their accomplishment, for they rode up and down the street and their free glances sought approbation. Perhaps they found it nicer than "throwing the leg over." They have other foreign airs, too, for we occasionally see one of them carrying a papoose with light skin, brownish hair, and a suspicious tint of blue in the eyes —Nevada Paper.

Last evening a meeting of the Joint Committee of the Board of Trade and Commercial Exchange was held at the Board of Trade rooms. Mr Seneca A, Malone was in the chair, and Messrs, George N Allen and George Perle acted as secretaries It was announced that representatives were present from the Drug and Coal Exchange; also from the Woolen Manufacturers' Association. Reports were received from the several committees who are to provide for the proper entertainment of the visitors. The convention will meet at the Academy of Music, which is to be appropriately decorated. Excursions on the river and on land have been projected, and entertainments of various kinds. The land trips include one to the great coal and iron fields of Pennsylvania, to occupy about three days. The Mayor and the heads of Councils, together with the committee of the same, have been invited to co-operate with the Joint Committee of Reception Delegates will attend the convention from Denver, Colorado, St Paul, Minn; St. Louis, Mo, New Orleans, La.; Chicago, Ill.; Richmond, Va, Charleston, S. MANUFACTURERS,

Warerooms, 318 Bleecker street, N. Y. City,

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands pre-eminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted; what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance. Every part, inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt the best the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25-3m

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE.
(Patented February 20th 1866)

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Warerooms, 152 Broome St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers

RESURRECTION OF AN OLD SHIP.—We often hear of ships going down, but it is seldom that we meet with an instance of their spontaneous resurrection. Yet such a case is happening now in this city. On the north side of Clay street, between Drumm and East, a ship was sunk and built over in early times. The ground all round it is now being filled in, and the pressure of the material used for filling in is forcing the old ship out of the mud Several buildings were erected on piles right over the hull, and a portion of one of the masts, which is still standing, was used as a pile to support the houses This mast is now forcing its way upward, and, as a natural consequence, the buildings are being lifted from their foundations. As the filling goes on, we may witness the singular spectacle of a house hoisted in the air on the top of a ship's mast.—San Francisco Times.

A gentleman at Fort Buford, Dekota, who pretends to be an intelligent being, has lately given us an example of man's depravity, and woman's fickleness. During the course of the last twelve weeks, he has purchased at various figures and married as many wives from among the Indian fair Each in turn deserted him—some not even entering into the honey-moon—leaving him sans gifts, sans wives He kept up this abominable practice until he exhausted all his means, and then concluded that Dakota's fair daughters were regular "sells," at least he was "muchly sold" in his wife speculations.

Firing two shots a second, as a Repeater—Twenty shots a minute as Single Breech-Loader, of the

Winchester Repeating Arms Co.,

New Haven, Connecticut.

WE keep constantly a large stock of the above named Arms on hand, and are enabled to fill all orders. We have very carefully tried and examined the Winchester Arms, and are enabled to say, by our long experience in the gunsmith business, that there is no equal to them as in regard to accurate and quick shooting, as well as to their neatness and durability. We can recommend them to the public as the best rifle for

Indian Defense

And hunting, and invite the attention of our friends and customers, to examine them before purchasing any other kind of arms. They can be fired

Eighteen times in Succession,

Without re-loading; hence the name of

18 Shooter;

And have the great advantage over any other arms in that the Winchester Rifle can be used also as a Single Breech Loader, by inverting each cartridge which shall be fixed in the barrel, and yet having Eighteen Shots in the magazine, which can be used at the rate of Two Shots a Second.

We are prepared to sell them at the following prices:

TERRITORIAL ATTACHMENT LAW.—According to the code as amended by the Territorial Legislature last winter, from and after the first of June it is not necessary to apply to the Judge of the District Court for writs or warrants of attachment On the contrary, the application must be made before the clerk The language of the law section 183 of the new code reads as follows "Before issuing a warrant, the clerk shall require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with sufficient surety, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment, or the attachment be set aside by order of the court, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which shall be at least two hundred and fifty dollars" In accord with the above, Judge Bartlett has instructed Mr J W. Hutchinson, clerk of the District Court, to issue such writs when required

We shall publish the principal sections of the law to-morrow

—The Sheriff started to Yancton this morning, having in charge two witnesses—one in the Stickney-Black case, and one in the case of Lieut. Hughes. Both of these cases are to be heard at the present term of the U. S. Court, at Yancton. Stickney is charged with murdering and robbing Black on the road between Salt Lake and Denver, in the fall of '66. He was arrested in either Wisconsin or Illinois.

THE AFFRAY AT KELLY'S RANCH. SHOOTING AND DEATH OF J. W. HARRISON—On Friday evening last a difficulty occurred near (Kelly's Camp, on Horse Creek) between a man named Lewis Lang and Jonathan W. Harrison, resulting in the death of the latter. The particulars of the difficulty cannot be known until the examination of Lang takes place; but it is supposed to have originated in an old enmity between the parties. Lang was herding cattle for Brown, a freighter; Harrison was in the employ of Kelly. The men were alone when the affray commenced, but Lang was immediately taken in custody by some citizens and on Saturday placed in charge of a military outfit from Laramie, under command of Generals Harney and Sanborn, who brought him to this city and gave him up to the civil authorities. Dr. Corry went out to attend the wounded man, on Saturday, but the case was hopeless; the ball having entered the left side of the chest, immediately above the heart, passing out at the back. Harrison lingered, in great pain, until about six o'clock, yesterday morning, when he expired. The deceased was from the vicinity of Lexington, Missouri, where he is said to have friends living.

—Messrs. Coad & Bro. started twelve ox teams with six thousand pounds each, yesterday, for North Platte, with freight for Major Wooley. Every day teams of this kind may be seen leaving our city, bound west, which shows that Cheyenne is not dead yet.

Arrival of Generals Harney and Sanborn.

More Treaties.

Red Cloud's Ultimatum.

Generals Harney and Sanborn, with escort, arrived here from Laramie yesterday. Seventeen of the principal Minneconjous chiefs and Man-afraid-of-his-horses had come in, and signed the treaties. Red Cloud did not come in, but said he would as soon as the upper forts are abandoned. They have no doubt we shall have peace, but think it probable we may be annoyed with thieving parties occasionally, but that war parties will not be seen. The chiefs say it is impossible to restrain their young men from stealing whenever attractive plunder throws itself in their way. Gen. Sanborn started for North Platte to-day, where he expects to meet 2,000 Indians tomorrow, when further negotiations for peace will take place.

Protection.

The results of the Manufacturers' Association Convention which was held in Detroit, a couple of months ago, are already apparent That convention adopted a system of operations tending to promote the interests of eastern manufacturers at the expense of the western consumers They immediately, after adjourning, obtained a reduction in all cases, and a total repeal in others, of the tax on manufactures This of itself would naturally reduce the cost of their commodities to the consumer, if competition was kept open, but that Association adopted a subtle plan to stifle competition, thereby giving eastern capitalists a two-fold advantage over the western man who is compelled to pay a tax on everything he produces, at the same time that such tariffs are laid on foreign goods as to effectually prevent him from purchasing where he could naturally purchase cheapest Those eastern manufacturers, in pursuance, no doubt, of a policy adopted at their late conference, are now in a body flooding Congress with petitions for a greater protective tariff on manufactures This must be the result of the labors of that convention, as the facts evidence preconcerted action On the 25th of May there were presented, in the House, thirty-nine several petitions, not from the owners of works, but from the workmen in coal, iron and other branches of manufactures in Pennsylvania. These petitions are signed by men numbering from forty to two hundred each, all setting forth in a plaintive manner that owing to foreign competition their industry is greatly depressed; and they pray for additional protective tariffs. The artizans, mechanics and mill men of other States will, no doubt, soon follow in a solid body likewise, with their petitions and similar prayers

Article 4 of the Republican Platform adopted by the Chicago Convention declares: "It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as national faith will permit." It was an injustice to the aggregate labor "of the nation" on the part of Congress in removing the tax on certain manufactures without making a similar reduction in all other branches of trade and labor. It would be an additional injustice to the labor "of the nation" to so increase the protective tariff on articles manufactured in the eastern States as to double the actual burden of the majority of the people "of the nation" for the purpose of enriching a few eastern capitalists.

The tax really comes out of the laborer's brow and no act of greater injustice could be committed than to raise the men of a few States by depressing those of the majority That article of the Platform which proposes to equalize taxation is one of the shortest but most important rules in the science of government, and the present Congress and administration might adopt this article with credit to themselves and benefit to the labor "of the nation." Let the people of the West raise up their voices against legislative partiality and favors fatal to the prosperity of the nation.

On the 28th, the nomination of Sol. P. McCurdy, as Chief Justice of Utah, was rejected by the Senate. Mr. McCurdy has been for three years, and still is, District Judge of the Third Judicial District—the southern portion—of Utah, and was nominated by the President to succeed John Titus as Chief Justice of that Territory. It is not yet known who will be appointed to the position.

The Bankrupt Act.

The New York Tribune of May 26th says, "An impression prevails very generally that Congress has passed an act extending the operation of what is known as the 'fifty per cent clause' of the bankrupt act to the 1st of January, 1869. This is an error, however, which may lead many into very fatal delay. The Judiciary committee have never reported the bill, and we have reason to believe will not report it All petitions therefore under which the bankrupts are unable to show assets to the amount of fifty cents on the dollar, must be filed during the present week or not at all." It will be seen that the "fifty per cent. clause" is not a saving clause and that from this date no petition in bankruptcy will lie unless the petitioner is able to show assets amounting to fifty per cent. of his indebtedness

The Deficiency Appropriation.

The deficiency bill, which passed the House on the 25th of May, appropriates $12,960 to supply deficiencies for the compensation of officers, clerks, messengers and others, receiving an annual salary in the service of the House, $25,000 for folding documents, including mails, $10,000 for miscellaneous items, $1,890,000 to supply a deficiency in the appropriation for the collection of revenue from customs for the half year ending June 30th, 1868, $60,000 to facilitate the payment of soldiers and sailor's bounties, and $5,000 to supply the deficiency in the office of the Paymaster General, for books, stationery, binding, etc; the total amount of the appropriation being $1,012,960 In the debate on the bill, letters were read from the clerk of the House, Paymaster General, and Secretary of the Treasury, explaining the various deficiencies in a comprehensive manner. After some discussion, the bill was engrossed and passed

Some excitement was created in Richmond, Virginia, on the 27th by a street assault by Hon. James Zangar, on Van Winkle, United States Marshal. The fight was stopped by the Mayor, in time to prevent serious damage.

The Sioux City Register says: "A large number of emigrant wagons are arriving in our city every day, and the reports are that still more are coming. The influx of population this spring is much in excess of that of any previous year, and from present indications the farming population of our county will be doubled during the present summer."

The "Local" of an Iowa paper gets off the following: "We would say to the young ladies (?) who had so much sport laughing at the patch on the seat of our unmentionables, a few evenings ago, while passing down the side walk just behind us, that if their dad will pay us what he owes us, we will be enabled to buy a new pair." Afternoon Report.

Death of James Buchanan.

Schofield in the War Office.

Vote of Thanks to Stanton.

Gen. Grant's Letter Accepting His Nomination.

LANCASTER, June 1—James Buchanan died at Wheatland to-day in the seventy-seventh year of his age.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Schofield took possession of the War Office to-day. The President accompanied him and remained a few minutes Gen. Grant subsequently had a short interview with the new Secretary.

In the Senate, Edwards offered a resolution of thanks to Stanton. It was discussed at some length, and Henderson offered an amendment voting thanks to the Chief Justice for his conduct during the impeachment trial. This was rejected by a vote of 11 to 39, Ross, Henderson and Fowler, voting for the amendment. Several Senators condemned the amendment as in bad taste and not relevant to the matter under discussion. The resolution was finally adopted—37 to 11.

The bill for the admission of Arkansas was taken up. Drake and Johnson spoke at length on the bill,

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The following is General Grant's reply to his notice of nomination by the Chicago Convention:

WASHINGTON, May 29, 1868.

GENERAL JAMES R. HAWLEY,

President National Union Republican Convention:

In formally accepting the nomination by the National Union Republican Convention, of the 21st, it seems proper that some statement of my views, beyond mere acceptance of the nomination, should be made. The proceedings of the Convention were marked with wisdom, moderation and patriotism, and, I believe, express the feelings of the great mass of those who sustained the country through its troubles. I indorse their resolutions, and, if elected to the office of President of the United States, it will be my endeavor to administer all the laws of the government with economy, and with a view to giving peace, quiet and protection everywhere. In times like these, it is impossible or improper to lay down a policy to be adhered to, right or wrong, through an administration of four years. New political issues, not foreseen, are continually arising, and the views of the public upon old ones are continually changing, and as a purely administrative officer should always be left to execute the will of the people, which I always have respected, and always shall. Peace and universal prosperity, its sequence, with economy of administration, will lighten the burden of taxation, while it constantly reduces the National Debt. Let us have peace.

With great respect, your obedient servant, U. S GRANT.

A joint resolution extending the time for the completion of the Northern Pacific R. R. has passed the Senate.

The Senate had a short executive session, after which the Arkansas bill was taken up.

Frelinghuysen called attention to the fact that the House bill requires Arkansas never to place any restrictions upon suffrage. Buckalew made a long speech against the bill. Doolittle argued that States were not self-governing or republican in form if they could not take the qualification for their own voters. Trumbull said he would vote for the House bill, Hardships of Soldiers on the Western Frontier.

The St. Louis Republican publishes the following extract from a letter from a private soldier, dated Fort Stephenson, Dakota Territory, April 10th:

"Our long and dreary winter seems at length to be coming to a close and we have had a hard winter of it indeed. Sickness has been rife throughout the camp, though no case has yet proved fatal. One morning in February no less than thirty men were on sick report out of these three companies. Scurvy is the most common disease among us I never witnessed any cases of this kind before coming up the river. The disease afflicts the sufferers in different ways. The feet of some swell to an enormous size, their flesh becomes soft and flabby, and assume blue and yellowish tints, while if you press the part affected with your finger, on withdrawing it the impression still remains. Other patients become fearfully emaciated. Teeth fall out and gums become sore in every case We suffered terribly during the latter part of November and the cold month of December Never shall I forget the cold, cold nights we passed, the thermometer at eighteen degrees below zero, and nothing to protect us from the cutting wind but a thin flap of canvas We got into our new built quarters about the first of January. I believe that the want of vegetables, exposure and poor rations were the principal causes of scurvy at this post.

To the casual visitor, or military inspector, who remains a day or two at these distant posts, matters appear all right, but let the latter throw off for a few minutes the frigid dignity of a regular army officer and address a few pertinent questions to the privates of the companies which he may be inspecting, he will then discover whether the soldier actually gets the rations intended for him by the government or whether a small ration of beans or rice, rancid pork and watery coffee, are likely to bring on scurvy during the ensuing winter It is a curious but undeniable fact that the disease has been confined to the private soldiers, while the citizens around the post not in government employ have been entirely free from it.

I wonder how the thousands of feet of pine lumber which were burned for firewood last winter, will be accounted for, and the piles of oats which lay exposed to the weather for months on the banks of the Missouri River, below the post

What made that crowd of soldiers throng around the bakery each day, eagerly demanding a loaf of bread for ten cents? Did these men receive the plentiful rations allowed by Uncle Sam, or were their appetites increased to voracity by pursuing on foot the wild creatures of the West? I beheld the same sights at Fort Rice, D. T., in the spring of 1867, a struggling, writhing crowd of men around the bakery, resembling more a pack of wolves around the carcass of a buffalo than a party of well-disciplined regular army soldiers

You, my friend, who have been on the frontier, know the real state of things, but there are thousands, yes, millions, in the United States, who are not aware of the unnecessary privations and hardships to which we are daily subjected."

Flowers of the Desert.

We take the following list of flowers of the "Great American Desert," from the Rio Virgen, (Utah) Times, a litle sheet published in the extreme south-western portion of Utah, on the confines of Arizona, and in the very heart of the most arid district of the American Continent.

In these our mountain deserts we find a rare collection, that princes might envy. The sweet-scented snow-white chalice-shaped Datura,—the huge lily-scented Yucca,—the many-tinted Pentstemon, from white to scarlet and dark purple,—the honey-scented Adronia,—the Delphinium with its white and blue.— The gaudy satin of of the cactus the modest daisy, the spreading purple verbena. The lemon tinted Eschscoltzia, the wax-like Phlox, the twilight-expanding white and yellow Primrose, the tri-colored, jewel-shaped Columbine, the clear scarlet Malva, the delicate Sweet Pea, the many-flowered Lupins of deep azure, the lovely purple Mirabilis jalapa, the golden Chrysanthemum, the bright orange Butterfly weed, the clustering flower of the long pendulous-leaved Catalpa, the Rose, Dandelions and thousand others as yet nameless flowers, in grand profusion abound

A steamer down from Alaska to San Francisco brought, besides 238 packages furs and $80,000 treasure, four packages of brandy. Was it from Victoria, on the sly?—Virginia Trespas.

Extracts From the New Attachment Law.

The following extracts from the Attachment Law contain the more material changes. It is too long to publish in full, and we omit those sections relating to judgment, as in that particular, the published statutes will reach us, before it is necessary—and also that portion relating to the kinds of property which may be attached, as the law in that respect is not materially altered.

SECTION 180. In an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, or in an action for the wrongful conversion of personal property, against a corporation created by or under the laws of any other State, government or country, or against a defendant who is not a resident of this Territory, or against a defendant who has absconded or concealed himself, or whenever any person or corporation is about to remove any of his or its property from the Territory, or has assigned, disposed of, secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of or secrete any of his or its property, with intent to defraud creditors as hereinafter mentioned, the plaintiff, at the time of issuing the summons, or any time afterwards, may have the property of such defendant, or corporation, attached, in the manner hereinafter presented, as a security for the satisfaction of such judgment as the plaintiff may recover; and for the purposes of this section an action may be deemed commenced when the summons is issued; provided, however, that personal service of such summons shall be made, or publication thereof commenced, within thirty days.

Sec. 182. * * The warrant may be issued whenever it shall appear by affidavit that a cause of action exists against such defendant, specifying the amount of the claim and the grounds thereof, and that the defendant is either a foreign corporation, or not a resident of this Territory, or has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors or to avoid the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed therein with the like intent, or that such corporation or person has removed, or is about to remove, any of his or its property from this Territory with intent to defraud his or its creditors, or has assigned, disposed of or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of or secrete any of his or its property, with the like intent, whether such defendant be a resident of this Territory or not.

Sec. 183. * * Before issuing the warrant, the —— clerk shall require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with sufficient surety, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment, or the attachment be set aside by order of the court, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the affidavit which shall be at least two hundred and fifty dollars.

Sec. 184. The warrant shall be directed to the Sheriff of any county in which property of such defendant may be, and shall require him to attach and safely keep all the property of such defendant within his county, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, together with costs and expenses, the amount of which must be stated in conformity with the complaint, together with costs and expenses. Several warrants may be issued at the same time to the Sheriffs of different counties.

Sec. 185 The Sheriff to whom such warrant of attachment is directed and delivered shall proceed thereon in all respects in the manner required of him by law in case of attachments against absent debtors; shall make and return an inventory, and shall keep the property seized by him, or the proceeds of such as shall have been sold, to answer any judgment which may be obtained in such action; and shall, subject to the court or judge, collect and receive into his posession, all debts, credits and effects of the defendant. The Sheriff may, also, take such legal proceedings, either in his own name, or in the name of such defendant, as may be necessary for that purpose, and discontinue the same, at such times and on such terms as the court or judge may direct.

* * * * * * *

Sec. 191. The actions herein authorized to be brought by the Sheriff, may be prosecuted by the plaintiff, or under his direction, upon the delivery by him to the Sheriff of an undertaking, executed by two sufficient sureties, to the effect that he will indemnify the Sheriff from all damages, costs and expenses, on account thereof, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars in any one action. Such sureties shall, in all cases when required by the Sheriff, justify by making an affidavit that each is a householder, and worth double the amount of the penalty of the bond, over and above all demands and liabilities.

A Marriage of Mutes.

The bridegroom was Mr. Robert T. Bailey, a clerk in the Surrogate's office, a good-looking young gentleman, and the bride was Miss Harriett Cornell, a niece of Mr. Charles Cornell, well known in New York local politics. The bride was neatly—nay, tastefully attired in a light traveling dress, and the gentleman wore the conventional swallow-tail, peculiar to all happy bridegrooms. Bride and bridegroom were both under twenty-five years of age, and were a well-matched and handsome couple. Bouquets were plentiful in the church, and beautified the edifice by their sweet odor.

The bride and bridegroom, though both deaf could speak a little. Miss Cornell, when a young and beautiful girl, lost her hearing and hair by a terrible attack of the scarlet fever. The Rev. Thomas Gallaudet performed the marriage cerremony, assisted by the Rev. E. Benjamin, rector of the Free Church of the Holy Light It was a solemn scene that, when the modestly-attired bride, in her quiet traveling dress, and the young gentleman stepped out of the pew, and walking up the aisle, stood under the rays of the stained altarpiece, to be made man and wife—for better or for worse These two young people, loving each other so well, and never hearing the sound of each other's voices, now to joined in matrimony's bands until death doth put them asunder Ah, what a blessing had been vouchsafed to them in the gift of the language of the eyes! No need for them to speak; love is stronger than words. Then in after life the serenity of silence, without sound of difference to mar their perfect bliss. The clergyman, attired in his white surplice, came on the altar and invoked the spirit of the Holy Ghost upon all present. Then did the priest ask the man "Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinances in the holy state of matrimony?" And, as the clergyman asked the question in the vernacular, Mr. Gallaudet made the mute signs across his fingers, and by similar signs the bride and bridegroom assented to the solemn questions destined to make them one. And the ring was put on at a sign from the priest, and troth was plighted as it has been plighted in the hearts of those who have lived for 1800 years, and in silence the couple went out of the church to the street, and there, while taking their carriages to convey them to their home in Brooklyn, the handkerchiefs of many fair ladies were saturated with tears, for it seems that young ladies are always affected to copiousness at a marriage.—Cor. San Francisco Times.

G. & H. BARMORE,

PIANO FORTE

MANUFACTURERS,

Ware rooms, 318 Bleecker street, N. Y. City.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands pre-eminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last; the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part, inside and out, is honestly faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) insomuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit, Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25-3m

SCHUTZE & LUDOLFF,

(ESTABLISHED IN 1855)

Manufacturers of the New Patent

DOUBLE IRON FRAME,

MONITOR PLATE,

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE.

(Patented February 20th 1866)

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS

Warerooms, 452 Broome St., N Y,

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers.

Agreeable Business.

Oh, the felicity of editing a paper. Charming, agreeable business, in a horn! Fascinating, attractive occupation, but difficult to appreciate How nicely and smoothly one gets along without any "onpleasantness!" For instance, in a recent issue we referred directly to a ruffian known as Capt Presscott, and incidentally to a guerilla named Al Cage. We did this in justice to ourselves and the community at large. The other day, while quietly seated in our sanctum, taxing our brain for "more copy," in response to the everlasting cry of the "devil," the two above named villians, one of them armed with a hatchet, and the other with a bowie-knife of large dimensions, made a violent attack upon our person The only alternative was to fight or die. We accordingly seized a large knife, about two feet long, used for cutting paper, and bled our assailants pretty freely They sued for mercy, we spared their worthless lives and told them to dust, and they got up and dusted We would take this occasion to state that if ever they or anyone else attack us with the intention of doing bodily harm, we will shoot them dead in their tracks, or cut their throats from ear to ear.—Owyhee Avalanche.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 80 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. PERSONAL.—Gen. Harney, Joseph F. Nounnan, of the Miners' National Bank, Salt Lake, and A. J. Botsford, from Sweetwater, went East on this morning's train. Mr. Botsford takes three hundred pounds of samples of assorted ores from the Sweetwater mines to be tested in New York. These samples—not specimens—are from the "Miners' Delight," "Racine," "New York," and other lodes. Mr. Nounnan states that Brigham had sent a large number of men to commence work on the grade at Echo Canyon, and it was the impression at Salt Lake City that cars would run to the Salt Lake valley by the 1st of January, 1869

—Immediately in the vicinity of the passenger depot there are pools and puddles and mud and dirty water and sour-smelling slops which should be filled up, cleaned up or dried up, for the sake of general appearances, if not for the health, comfort and convenience of persons whose business makes it necessary for them to frequent that locality.

FURNITURE! FURNITURE!!! A large and general stock of furniture will be closed out at reduced prices, at E Sheffer's, one door east of S. F. Nuckolls', Cheyenne. June 1st, 1868   tf

—The telegraphic line from Fort Russell to Laramie has not been in working condition for the past week.

—These days are favorable for soda water and linen dusters.

CHANGE OF NAME.—The name of the Dixie (Utah) Times has been changed to the Rio Virgin Times. It is published in a land of cactus and sand. It is certainly a gritty little sheet, which is determined, apparently, to produce something in spite of the natural difficulties of unproductiveness of the surroundings of nature in its neighborhood.

FIFTY OX TEAMS WANTED.—I wish to hire fifty ox teams. Steady work will be given for the entire season. For particulars enquire at McDonald & Henry's, corner Sixteenth and Eddy streets, Cheyenne,

JOHN H. YOUNG.

CHEYENNE, June 1, 1868.   j1-1w

—Messrs. Hoyer & Co., in the Molsen building, on Thomes street, are doing an immense business in the tin and sheet iron business. They manufacture every thing in their line, to order, upon the shortest notice.

TAKE NOTICE.—Dr. Clark, the celebrated dentist, leaves about the middle of this month. All who want work done in his line had better call immediately, at his office, in the old City Hall building.   je2-tf

—The Metropolitan Gift Enterprise after receiving over $5,000 worth of new goods of every kind and description, re-opens Tuesday evening, June 2nd, and will be pleased to see everybody. Seventeenth street, between Eddy and Tholmes. J. F. Pickering, business manager. Remember, all prizes and no blanks.   j1-2t

ARGUING FROM OPPOSITE PREMISES.—This afternoon the peace and business of steady-going Eddy street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, was aroused to a high pitch of excitement by a few striking observations made by the collision of a couple of opposite dealers in the staff of life on the one side, and implements of destruction on the other. It was a word, a blow, a scuffle, a fall, a rough-and-tumble, a watch spilled, a separation, a few kicks at the retreating human form divine, the force of which (kicks) was expended in unresisting air, and that was all. And then they

> "Parted without the least regret > Except that they had ever met."

—Joseph & Sager, to keep up with the times, have found it necessary to remove to more convenient and extensive quarters, and to-day take a store on Eddy street formerly occupied by Westheimer & Co. A book store is what has long been needed in this city, and we are glad to learn that J. & S. are about to supply that want.

—We have noticed some changes, recently, in real estate. Yesterday Messrs Deitsch & Co. purchased the premises which they now occupy, rather than pay two hundred dollars per month rent. The new City Hall property was also purchased yesterday, by a gentleman of means who has recently come from the east with money to invest. We are glad to see such enterprise among us. One of our best citizens wishes us to say that he has a few thousand dollars to invest with any one of the croakers who have city property to dispose of.

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY.—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R. Converse, Sixteenth street.   m30tf

—A train of fifteen ox teams, four yoke to the wagon, went west this morning, to haul ties. These cattle were selected and bought, out of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s big herd.

—Judging from the number and style of the "boys in blue" patroling the streets, the paymaster has been in the vicinity of Ft. Russell.

—In compliance with instructions by telegraph from Superintendent W. Snyder, City Surveyor Winsor is today engaged in ascertaining the relative positions of the freight and passenger depots with Hill and Ferguson streets. It is rumored these operations have some connection with determining the location of the machine shops, etc.

Modern Democracy.

The Irish Republic, the leading and most able Irish-American newspaper published in this country, has the following answers and questions as to what is Democracy;

Who compose this miscalled Democratic party that has kept the nation in the throes of dissolution since the close of the war?

There is not a man in the land who raised his sword to strike down liberty that is not arrayed in its ranks! There is not a man who secretly prayed and plotted for the success of the rebellion that is not a member of it! There is not a ruffian who roamed the cities of the North, when treason lifted its coward hand to stab the nation in the back—howling like a savage for blood, and murdering all who by their color or exalted principles excited his barbarian ferocity—but is a member of the party.

Democracy, that once was pure as the Goddess of Liberty, has become the "social evil" of the body politic. She arrays herself in the robes of the harlot, and painted in shamelessness, goes into the dens of vice and sells her person to gain popularity with the vulgar. She is cheered in the rat-pit. She is befouled in the embraces of the brutal bully of the prize-ring. The dainty-gloved gambler, who handles the dice-box, or cuts a throat, is her fancy man. In a word, she is the idol of crime, and her home is the sewers of the cities and the sinks of the nation.

Opening of Telegraphic Communication between Denver and Pueblo, Colorado.

From the Denver Tribune, May 31st

It is with no little satisfaction that we announce the connection, by telegraph, of Denver with Pueblo, and the certainty of the line soon being extended on to the south. The event is one of no little importance to Denver, and to Southern Colorado, and to all our friends there we send greeting. The following are our first dispatches:

PUEBLO, May 30, 1868

To R. W. Woodbury:

Pueblo greets the commercial metropolis by telegraph. The first section is completed. We shall reach Trinidad within ten days.

WOODWARD.

PUEBLO, May 30, 1868.

To Editors Tribune:

The citizens and "common scoundrels" of Pueblo send greetings to the Mayor and Common Council of Denver. Hurrah! H. A. E. PICKARD.

LAND OFFICE BUSINESS.—The business done at the U. S. Land Office in Vermillion, D. T., for the present month, bids fair to exceed that for any previous month. Already over 20,000 acres have been taken by actual settlers. Clay county is ahead this month in the number of acres of land taken, and we would not be surprised to see it continue ahead for months to come, for there yet remains in this county some of the best vacant land in the Territory.—Dakota Republican, 23 ult.

Deputy Sheriff's Letter.

MR. EDITOR, Permit me to occupy a brief space in your columns to remark that I shall not assume so much, as that the individual to whom I "tendered" a benefit in Saturday's edition of the Leader is about to hie away to the East, in consequence thereof, but nevertheless the fact is, and facts are stubborn things, he great "Chief" will shortly repair to Yankton, armed with ample proof of his fidelity to the dear people, whom he delights to serve, and also to other counter statements, rebutting certain of those contained in my communication above referred to.

In order to accomplish one object—that of presenting a "favorable showing" in regard to how far his actions were concerned in the Burtis affair—he has "cooked up" a few affidavits, equal in style, if not superior, to some of his intellectual omelettes that he claims to have served up for the edification of his "numerous readers" while he had the honor of running a paper in Nevada, as he is pleased sometimes to remark.

I will not inflict upon your readers the perusal of more concerning the Burtis' matter, nor of how, and in what manner, the incorruptible county official I spoke of will procure his affidavits and counter-statements, but inasmuch as the Great Chief seems so tenacious of his honor, and resorts to so much pains-taking in regard to it, I desire that he shall have the benefit of something, in addition to what I have already tendered him,—capital upon which to operate—and perhaps the narration of a few other facts concerning his dereliction of duty may afford the gentleman some delight, and should he desire to make a favorable "showing" at Yankton, as he proposes to do, he may as well tell the whole of the story. I will commence with the case of "Shorty," the youth charged with murder, and who is now in the Sheriff's custody, awaiting his trial in August. Nor would I advert to this fact, were it not for the additional one, that he has taken "Shorty" into his confidence—as an advisor perhaps, and will exhibit to those in authority at Yankton, as he has to various parties here, the affidavit of that delectable young criminal, which sets forth, among other things, that I had something to do with his, "Shorty's" escape, some weeks since. Until the Sheriff openly charges me with such assisting a prisoner to escape, I will say nought of it, but I do charge the Sheriff and one of his Dale City deputies, with having used the most willful and corrupt means to defeat the ends of justice and I can prove by indubitable evidence that Laird advised one of his underlings to receive $1,000 from "Shorty's" friends, (it was ascertained that that much money could be obtained from the boy's sister,) and they would wink at his confederates "spiriting him away." One part of the programme was that "Shorty" should be retained (hid away) in the Black Hills, until the $1,000 arrived, but as that event never happened, the boy was again placed in durance vile, where he now remains, and is one of Laird's supporters to figure in the next drama. Another official of the county will testify that when rearrested, "Shorty" informed him that no person or persons, other than those referred to, L. and his deputy, had ever counselled or advised him to escape, but now the boy complains of L's not fulfilling certain of his promises, and has concluded to give him 'one more trial'—hence has agreed to depose and say so and so, but I apprehend any such subornation of perjury, will avail Mr. L nothing. Laird will perhaps think me very kindly for letting the "dear people" know that it can also be proved beyond a doubt that Howard, another desperate character, was permitted to escape after having paid over to his custodian the sum of $30, and the promise of a horse, but L has never gotten possession of the quadruped, from the fact that he was most afraid to go after him and sell him, fearing that by so doing, it would work an exposure.

One of the best "jokes" of the season is an event in Cheyenne Real Life that occurred several months since, which might, with great propriety, be termed a case of genteel robbery. The facts in the case are about as follows. A character, whose cognomen is Thos O'Neil alias "Antelope," was arrested on the charge of attempting to shoot one of our citizens, and $60 75 taken from him, by Laird. "Antelope" escaped some time afterward, but was recaptured by a deputy and brought back to the city again, a captive. "Antelope" drew $20 00 from Laird, and subsequently an overcoat was purchased for his use that cost $6 00, making $26 00 in all that was received by "Antelope." On the occasion of "Antelope's" examination on the charge of shooting, he gave his Attorney an order on Laird for $34 75, due him from Laird, but when the order was presented he (Laird) with great effrontery and displaying much natural cheek, said, "Mr. ——, I have a receipt for the whole of that money; you must know that I gave my deputy a large proportion of that sum for bringing "Antelope" back again." He could not, however produce a receipt at that time, but afterwards said he had it. If he did have one, it was forged, for O'Neil was ready and willing that day, and is now, to make oath that he never gave any receipt whatever, for any sum, and Laird may thank fortune that O'Neil could not raise the wind to prosecute him for embezzlement. It required money to pay costs in advance, but "L" anticipated something of the sort, and of course would not give O'Neil a "stick to break his own head with."

This Laird, whom the Legislature unfortunately and unluckily placed over the people of Laramie county, is a queer genius and never goes out upon the streets unless accompanied by his body guard, no doubt fearing that some one, or more, of the victims of his cruelty and robbery may wreak vengeance upon him. Other acts of official misconduct on the part of the pure and honest Sheriff, might be enumerated, but I will not farther tax the patience of your readers by reciting them, yet I might still remark that it must be a consolation to the tax-payers of Laramie county to know that such a biped as Jas. L. Laird has the power to collect from them the taxes due from them to the county, and many will wonder, perhaps, in what manner the funds will be applied. Rumor has it that he will never show his face here again; if that should be, it will prove a great blessing to this community, and they will have cause to rejoice that a fellow like him is to be removed from their midst. That he has no friends is demonstrated from the fact that his bondsmen have deserted him, and consequently all his acts are, and have been for some time, illegal.

Affidavits in support of the truth of what I have above stated, have been made by reliable parties and forwarded to headquarters, for the benefit of Laird.

H. M. CASTLE, alias "MONTE,"
Late Deputy Sheriff Laramie Co., D. T.

From Sweetwater.

Mr. D. Whitmer, who arrived here yesterday from South Pass City, furnishes us some interesting items from that place and the road from there here Mr. W., with a company consisting of about one hundred and fifty persons, left South Pass a week ago last Sunday Some of the party were from California and other points west, from whence they started to Sweetwater, with the ultimate intention of continuing on to the States, "if they did n't find anything to suit them" and others came out to obtain work on the railroad Some prospecting was being done between South Pass and the head of Green river, where it is thought diggings would be struck. A party of men had returned from north of Sweetwater and reported they had found gold near the three Buttes, which, if water could be obtained, would pay twenty to twenty-five dollars per day to the hand. Since the advent of Washakie, many of the settlers in Wind River Valley had become alarmed and returned to South Pass Washakie had a little white girl with his band which he claimed was the daughter of a squaw and a white man; but the child was very fair in complexion, and had auburn hair She did not bear any resemblance to a half-breed. The Chief was offered horses and ponies for her, but he absolutely refused to part with her. She appeared to be seven or eight years of age.

A number of remarkably good buildings were being erected at South Pass, one a saloon, built for Joe Blanch, a Montana man, would cost $8,000 when completed A good many had grown impatient and were starting out in all directions; some prospecting, some going east, some to work on the railroad, and others going to Montana and Idaho, while many more were determined to remain in the Wind and Green River country this year.

At North Platte, on the way down, the party had fourteen head of mules and horses stolen, by Indians, on the west side of the river. On the same night a Mormon train, camped at the old crossing—stage road—lost eighteen head of cattle

The town of North Platte is now at the ferry, but this is within the military reservation which has been laid off by Col. Dodge, commanding at that Fort, and the town is under provost guard Everything in the shape of law is military. The railroad will cross North Platte about two miles below the present crossing, and a railroad city will be laid off by the company in about ten days. The military reservation here embraces a tract four miles along the course of the river, and three and one half miles in width The railway is completed to Rock Creek, which is about 220 miles from Sweetwater

THE RIO VIRGIN.—This river is one of the principal tributaries of the Colorado, whose waters empty into the Gulf of California, and is navigable for steamers up to the junction of the Rio Virgin, about one hundred miles south of this place. St. George is situated at the confluence of the Santa Clara and Rio Virgin, 350 miles south of Salt Lake City, and outside of the rim of the Great Basin.—Utah Times.

A vote was taken on Edmunds' amendment recommitting the bill to the Judiciary committee, with instructions to require Arkansas to first adopt the 14th amendment, rejected, without a division. Ferris' amendment, striking out all fundamental conditions, was lost, by 20 against 21. Henderson gave notice of an amendment forbidding any discrimination of race or color or of denial to any class participating in the benefits of the funds raised for educational purposes Adjourned.

HOUSE.—After an animated debate, a resolution was adopted to place Wooley in custody of the sergeant-at-arms, thereby to relieve the Speaker from any further duty in the matter. The counsel and family physicians have free access to him during the proceedings. A telegram received by Wooley yesterday was read, having been subsequently forwarded by Wooley to Butler, evidently, Butler said, for the purpose of insulting him It was from Geo. O. Jones, New York, addressing Wooley as a citizen and sovereign, imprisoned by order of tyrants and cowards in the Capitol of America, and exhorting him to stand firm A provision was made that no sealed communication be given to Wooley, except through his counsel.

After discussing the Indian appropriation bill in committee of the whole, and striking out the section authorizing an issue of bonds to the Choctaws, the bill passed, and the House again went into committee.

Ashley introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, providing that the President shall not be eligible to re-election, abolishing the office of Vice President, and for a thorough revision to be made in electing the President. Ashley made a speech in support of his proposition and in opposition to the present system of voting by electors.

Morgan spoke on general political matters Adjourned.

PARIS, June 1.—The French Senate passed the law regulating public meetings.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Business in the Departments is generally suspended to-day throughout the country, and the day spent in decorating the graves of Union soldiers.

Gen. Scofield arrived to-day, and will assume charge of the War Department on Monday. He will not resign his position in the army, but will receive a leave of absence while he remains Secretary of War. The following nominations were sent the Senate to-day: Harry Beckwith, Superintendent of the Branch Mint, San Francisco; C. C. Davis, Melter and Refiner of the Branch Mint, Denver, John P. Ferson, Assessor of Internal Revenue for the District of Columbia.

Rear Admiral Turner has been ordered to relieve Admiral Dahlgreen, commanding the South Pacific Squadron.

Secretary Seward has called the attention of the Prussian Minister, Baron Geralt, to the recent duel between Gen Lawrence, our Minister to Costa Rica, and Baron Von Kasseukow, the Prussian Secretary of Legation, stating it was a violation of an act of Congress, but the Prussian attaches being protected by the law of nations from prosecution, he requests Baron Geralt to call the attention of his government thereto, that it may take proper action. Minister Lawrence has been promptly recalled, with the privilege of leaving Costa Rica before the arrival of his successor.

RICHMOND, June 1.—It is now probable that the trial of Jeff Davis will be postponed until October. The counsel on both sides have agreed on that time. Witnesses had been subpœnaed for next Wednesday.

BOSTON, June 1.—The Common Council met to-day to invite Mr. Burlingame and the Chinese Embassy to visit Boston, and accept the hospitality of the city

CHICAGO, June 1.—Specials say Stoneman is now commanding the District of Petersburg, and the next officer in rank to Schofield will be placed in command at Richmond. Rousseau's friends are strongly urging him for that command. Gordon Granger is trying to have Howard sent there, so as to have himself placed in command of the Freedman's Bureau

Seward, on Friday, informed a leading diplomatist he had tendered his resignation. Information from other quarters confirms this

Senate.—The Judicial Committee reported adverse to the confirmation of Stansberry as Attorney General. It is said the President will nominate Reverdy Johnson Minister to England, and Groesbeck as Secretary of the Treasury.

Drake offered an amendment to the Arkansas bill, providing Arkansas shall be admitted on condition there shall be no denial or abridgement of the right of suffrage or any other right, except in case of Indians not taxed After a miscellaneous discussion, and several other amendments having been rejected, Drake's amendment was adopted, and the bill passed by 34 to 8 Adjourned

NEW YORK, June 1—The Herald's London special says the steamer Naioa with a new cable to connect Cuba with Florida, sailed to-day.

The bark Marco Palo, from Bremen, has arrived, bringing four hundred passengers. Twenty-four children died from scarletina on the passage

Morgan read a letter from Miss Vinnie Ream, the sculptress, who now occupies the room directed to be used for a guard room for Wooley, stating that to remove her model of Lincoln would destroy a whole year's work, and offered a resolution suspending the execution of the resolution directing the room to be vacated. Laid on table.

The House went into Committee of the Whole and considered the Internal Revenue bill. Kelly favored a reduction of the tax on whisky fifty or even forty cents

Washburne has withdrawn all charges against Donnelly

The President issued orders to-day assigning General Stoneman, according to his brevet rank of Major General, as commander of the District of Virginia.

The Republican members have agreed to take no action on the subject of adjournment till it can be seen whether the tax bill can be passed this session.

The late discovery of a cure for whooping-cough by inhaling the odors of a gas-house, is found to be of real benefit It has been tried by some Hartford (Conn.) physicians, and it is said with success. The children are taken to the Gas Works where they breathe the not very pleasant air there produced, and there is something in the chemical combination that cures whooping-cough. The people at the Gas Works state that during the last twelve months three hundred cases of whooping-cough have been thus experimented upon. Owing to the scarcity of whooping-cough in Cheyenne (every other man is a gas factory) there is no chance to try this remedy.

The First Steamboat.

In Latrobe's "Sketches of America" we find the following:

In October, 1811, the greatest event of the Western country took place This was the commencement of steamboat navigation Fulton's steamboat, called the "New Orleans," left Pittsburg at the above date, and late at night on the fourth day after starting she arrived at Louisville, having been but seventy hours in descending over 700 miles. The novel appearance of the vessel, and the rapidity with which it made its passages over the broad reaches of the river, excited a mixture of terror and surprise among many of the settlers, whom the rumor of such an invention had never reached; and it is related that on an unexpected arrival of the boat before Louisville, in the course of a fine moonlight night, the extraordinary sound which filled the air as the pent up steam was suffered to escape from the valves on rounding to, produced a general alarm, and multitudes in the town arose from their beds to ascertain the cause. I have heard it said that the general impression among the Kentuckians was that a comet had fallen into the Ohio.

Thomas Sunderland, leading spirit of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad projection, has been in San Francisco for some days, understood to be on business for the company Monday, the steamer New York, of the China line, reached San Francisco with seven hundred Chinese from Hong Kong. Very likely Sunderland was expecting them, and has made arrangements to set at least a portion of the cargo at work. A large portion of the work at both extremities of the road has been laid off, and is ready for the graders Chinamen, properly managed, make excellent hands for that work.—Virginia Trespass

Ware rooms, 318 Bleecker street, N. Y. City.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the BEST manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers; and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, which the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part, inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibration, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25-3m

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs From long experience and superior facilities of manufacturing we are enabled to offer our Pianos at a few prices as are asked by inferior makers.

The Daily Evening Leader.

Female Reporters.

The anniversary meetings at New York last week brought up some extraordinary things, and among the most remarkable were three female reporters The Woman's Rights Convention was attended by three ladies, the reportorial representatives of Woman's Rights newspapers for different parts of the country. Two of the three wore strong-minded bloomers, and the other had discarded hoops and "sich," and appeared in a meek, retiring dress, The Sun reporter gives the following spicy description of the force at work:

"Miss Ada Fessenden Craig, of Chicago, was garbed in tight-fitting black silk pants, green silk double-breasted vest, and grey paletot, which reached a little lower than her hips When she got warm at her work, she opened her paletot, crossed her legs—placing her right foot on the left knee, and upon the elevated limb she placed her paper and plied her calling with the utmost nonchalance The other was dressed in orange-colored silk—Knickerbocker pants, loose vest, and flowing tunic tightened around the waist The Knickerbocker pants are finished by elastics, the remainder of the leg (a very brawn, by the way) encased in thin flesh-colored skin-tight stockings The third reporter belongs to the Revolution, dresses in black, without hoops, immense Panama hat, dishevelled hair, green stockings and prunella gaiters She's said to be a brick of a local"

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said county, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. City Marshal's Notice!

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City D J SWEENY,

RAILROAD ACCIDENT—Yesterday afternoon, about half past three, a wheel of a caboose attached to a freight train broke, about five miles east of Laramie, throwing the car from the track, and turning it completely over There were six men, employees of the road, in the caboose at the time, all of whom were somewhat injured. Assistant Superintendent Campbell had just left the car and gone forward to the locomotive. The injured men were taken to Laramie and placed under the attendance of a physician from whom Mr. Campbell this morning received a dispatch stating they were all doing well. The report that one or two were killed is incorrect. The names of the men under the Doctor's care are Patrick Dowling, Michael Manahan, Charles Nowlan and John Murphy.

—A shameful case of neglect has been brought to the knowledge of some of our people, recently. A man was sent to this city in a dying condition, last Friday, and was received by one of the homes for the sick, in this city, where he died the same evening, and was suffered to lie, without burial, from Friday evening to Tuesday evening. Some think this a hard place to live in, but unless a man fortunately strikes a streak of luck, it may be, as in the above case, a bad place to die in. Let us hear of no more such neglect, or you will hear from us in earnest

—See the City Marshal's notice of the ordinance relating to nuisances

—Mr. Tom Pitt has arrived here from Salt Lake. He has a train of forty-six wagons, which he will load for Wells, Fargo & Co. at Salt Lake.

—Messrs. Joseph & Sager have just received at their new store, on Eddy street, a large and elegant assortment of wall paper, stationery, blank books, miscellaneous and school books, notions, toilet articles, &c., which they are selling at prices to suit the times.

From a private source we learn that the renegade Cheyenneites are returning from Laramie to that burg, with their wives, who will enter the dance houses for the purpose of earning an "honest living."—Denver Gazette 31st ult

The Denver Gazette, the Democratic organ of Denver, Col., is published by F J Stanton. He has a wife and two daughters, who it is said do the type sticking for his paper Hardly a number of that obscene sheet is published without a disgusting, indecent paragraph slandering the wives and daughters of Cheyenne The above extract is the least objectionable of anything of the kind which has been published in that paper for weeks What the man must be, what the family must be that delights in banqueting on such filth as the above, which is served up to them by that execrable scavenger, that outlaw from decent society, that groveler in his own nastiness, C V Arnold, who—fortunately for them—abandoned his own wife and child to the necessity of obtaining any kind of a living, by any means, is a question for the consideration of those, if any such there are, who countenance and sustain such indecent publications as the paper above mentioned.

Wyoming.

The bill introduced, last winter, by Senator Yates, providing for the organization of Wyoming, has passed the Senate, and will, no doubt, soon be acted upon by the House The Hon Mr Ashley, of Ohio, in the House, seems to be opposed to the organization of any more Territories until after the expiration of Johnson's term His reasons for that are, no doubt, that he does n't desire to give Johnson an opportunity to make new appointments, which would become necessary by the organization of this Territory, and creation of several new offices So we may look for the opposition of Ashley, and perhaps of a few kindred spirits, who may vote with him, but it is altogether probable the bill will pass and be sent to the President before the adjournment of Congress Inasmuch as the only legal election ever held in Wyoming—that in Cheyenne, last December—was claimed as largely Democratic in results, Johnson could hardly be expected to hesitate for a moment on a bill which might give him an opportunity to oblige the party, and rid himself of a number of clamorers for office Neither is it reasonable to suppose that the prominent citizens and officials of Cheyenne who have been, now are or may immediately be in Washington, have neglected to impress upon the obdurate intellects of influential politicians the importance, nay the necessity for seeing to it that none but their friends, those of unsuspected principles, receive appointments or confirmation. On the whole, we may look for a speedy organization, and an abundance of officials to ride Wyoming and her revenues safely and expeditiously out of the wilderness.

Reconstruction of Revenue.

The new tax bill which is one of the most important measures now engaging the attention of Congress, proposes to make some very material additions and alterations in the present tax tariff, or revenue laws. One of the most striking features of the bill is that it proposes to erect the revenues of the country into Department, which should have the power of working independent, in a measure, of any other department in the government. The bill provides for a Chief Commissioner of Revenue, with assistant deputies, clerks, messengers and laborers, and defines their positions and duties, and fixes their salaries. All the present existing tax laws are to be repealed, and the whole system consolidated in the new bill. A tax or license is provided for every branch of trade, profession and occupation. Everything, from peddlers to passports, is included in the list of taxable commodities. Such luxuries as carriages, omnibuses, watches, gold and silver plate, are by no means overlooked. Lotteries and gift enterprises come in for a liberal notice. Bowling alleys, billiard tables, pawnbrokers, playing-cards, grinders of coffee and spices, butchers, horse-dealers, cattle brokers, patent medicines, engineers, architects, owners of jacks and stallions, jugglers, and amusements of every description are provided for.

The tax on tobacco is twisted and cut and dried in such a manner that it would appear to be taxable every time a revenue officer sets eyes upon it. The whisky tax is two dollars per gallon, and on every distillery with a capacity for manufacturing not more than three hundred gallons, three dollars per day, with an addition of one dollar for every additional capacity of one hundred gallons. There are no material changes in stamp duties or incomes. It is somewhat doubtful that the bill will pass during the present session, owing to the fact that it is one of those laws the full force and effect of which do not very quickly and clearly present themselves to the legislative mind.

Rail-ery.

The railway epidemic is rapidly spreading over the face of the land. It has seized upon the people as they were a unit. The rapid progress and success of the Union Pacific from Cheyenne to Omaha and Salt Lake, has created a furor, a popular, a general and universal excitement on the subject of railway communications from any known important point to any unknown unimportant termination. A Congressman who has no bills from his constituents asking the loan of government credit, and a donation of government lands for the construction of an independent railway from the town pump to the town hay scale, or from the cross-roads to the Sandwich Islands, is, in fact, no benefit to his district, and is unworthy the name of patriot. Railways are demanded by the people of every State, county, town and village in the United States. They insist on being in direct communication with the wealth of the Pacific. They desire railways to Mauna Loa, that they may be present at the eruption of volcanos, and that they may feel the quaking earth trembling beneath their feet They insist on being within three days' travel of Japan, that they may represent their country at the interesting exhibitions of hari kari, which many of those pig-tailed, moon-eyed relations of Chinamen are to be officially invited to perform A railway is required from the deacon's house to Alaska, to the end that such intellectual luxuries as "A Voice from Purgatory" and "No Hope for Sinners" may be forwarded to the wofully ignorant inhabitants of our latest purchase. Government is expected to assist these enterprises because government is a good fellow and they are for the moral and intellectual advancement and physical cleansing of barbarians We are to have a North Pacific, a South Pacific, a Missouri Pacific, a Minnesota Pacific, an Arkansas Pacific, a Texas Pacific—in short, a railroad running through each tier of sections of land from one side of the continent to the other is insisted upon as absolutely indespensable to the prosperity of the nation and the welfare and moral advancement of the people, to say nothing about Indians and soldiers That the sections through which these roads are to run are all of the most desirable routes for government uses and the most valuable for settlers, is unquestionable, and government, old boy, come down with the bonds and the land, and have as many railways as there are diversity of individual opinions and individual interests within the boundaries of Uncle Sam's broad domain

* * *

The January number of the Report of the Department of Agriculture furnishes a curious statement in explanation of the art and mystery of "Roquefort cheese" It appears that in the neighborhood of Roquefort, France, 8,000,000 of cheese is made each year from about 4,000,000 sheep of a native breed, which are all that can be kept there. The factory is called a cave, and is niched high up in the rocky table land. The sheep are milked twice a day. The milk stands a short time, is then warmed and partly skimmed for butter, made into cheese, sprinkled with wheat flour, inoculated with a bit of old cheese, and carefully deposited in the old "cave" Either from some peculiarity of feed or influence of the scent of the cave, this cheese is inimitable, and other sections near by have failed in all their attempts to produce the genuine Roquefort cheese.

The Deseret News of the 27th says the stage coaches were delayed, owing to the washing away of the bridge over Weber river at Ogden.

The Central City Register says John T. Herrick has made arrangements to purchase all the first class ore of the Terrible lode at the rate of $500 per ton.

The thirty or forty prisoners who escaped from confinement near San Francisco, a short time ago, have been going about the country committing all sorts of depredations.

Col Utley, of the Racine Journal, says that Johnson's acquittal "will not have any great effect on our politics, but it will give our religion an awful strain."

Charles Watson and Frank Hudson who said they were deserters from the regular army, were recently hanged on the Arkansas river, in Colorado, about fifty miles below Fort Lyon, for stealing horses from Lewis Conly, near Pueblo. So says the Chieftain.

On the 30th ult, the graves of Union soldiers at all the principal cities of the Union, were strewed with flowers and otherwise decorated, and the day was generally observed as an important occasion, the ceremonies, in all cases, being solemn and impressive.

A Fort Benton correspondent of the Montana Post says, under date of May 17th A soldier of Co K was drowned here last night. Four more of Co C deserted on the same night Last night eight horses were taken from the night herd. To-day forty head were taken from the Indians, which will be held until the others are returned.

The San Francisco Times records an instance where, on the 18th ult, a child was saved from drowning by a Newfoundland dog. The child was playing on the wharf when a man and his dog were passing The child lots its balance and fell into the bay, when the frantic mother screamed and the dog jumped into the water and caught the dress of the little one in his teeth and held on till assistance arrived.

The One-term Principle.

In a conversation which took place on Monday last, between Gen Grant, at his headquarters, and the editor of this paper, the General, of his own accord, introduced the subject of the single Presidential term, and not only declared himself in favor of it, but expressed the opinion that the passage of a constitutional amendment effecting the reform is absolutely necessary to the preservation of our liberties. On the previous Monday evening, the editor had a similar conversation with Senator Wade, when the latter expressed himself to the same effect, and promised that he would seek an early opportunity to call his own bill for such amendment from the Judiciary Committee, of which Senator Trumbull is chairman, and bring it before the body of the Senate. Here are two men who, at the time they made these statements, knew that the prospects of their personal ambition would be directly limited by the operation of this bill; yet both of them patriotically desired to have it carried. These men are of the stamp that may be trusted.—Wilkes Spirit of the Times.

An Important Patent—Great Lawsuits Ahead.

One of the most important pieces of apparatus employed in the operations of magnetic telegraph in this country, called the automatic circuit-breaker, was invented by Prof. Chas. G. Page, formerly one of the examiners in the Patent Office, but who departed this life on the 5th inst. From his official position he was not permitted to take out a patent for the invention, and it has been used by all our American telegraphers, for many years, without compensation. Shortly before his death, however, Congress, by a special act, removed the disability under which he labored, and granted him the requisite patent, which is now vested in his heirs for fourteen years to come. Henceforth, no company or individual can use the circuit-breaker without paying these heirs for the privilege; and thus the reward of Prof. Page's ingenuity, denied to him in person, seems likely to be reaped by those he leaves behind him.

To the general reader, unacquainted with the practical details of telegraphy, it is impossible to fully describe the nature of the invention we refer to and the extent to which it applies to the business of our telegraph companies. We can only quote the admission of the Journal of the Telegraph, which is the organ of the Western Union Telegraph Company, to the effect that the bill granting the patent to Prof. Page practically puts American telegraphy into the hands of his heirs It says: "All automatic closers, repeaters, local circuits, registers, printing machines, &c, are covered by this sweeping patent" "Circuit-breakers in actual use, or manufactured April 15, are exempt from its operation; but no machinery after that date can be employed without the consent of the patentees." So that these patentees can dictate their own terms, and make our American telegraph companies pay them almost any price they choose to ask for permission to make use of the invention It is not likely that so immense a claim will be conceded without resistance. When Ross Winans undertook to enforce his sixteen-wheel car patent, all the railroad companies in the country banded together to contest it, and succeeded in showing that it was invalid for want of entire novelty. So it may yet possibly be proved that Professor Page was not the first man to devise the automatic circuit-breaker, but that the idea was already known before it occurred to him We may, therefore, expect some interesting litigation on the subject, and a rummaging among old telegraphic literature, which has not taken place since the suits brought by Samuel F B. Morse, and in which he was defeated, upon his patent for the general application of wires and magnetism to telegraphic purposes —N. Y Sun, May 20.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from $400 to $800,00 my25 3m

The Daily Evening Leader.

The Lime Light.

The arrangements for supplying Perth Barracks with the lime light are being rapidly proceeded with, and before long we hope to see it demonstrated there that this beautiful illumination is as applicable on private buildings, and in a small way, as it has hitherto proved on an extended scale. Its principle is exactly the same as that known as the Drummond light, but some slight improvements have recently been introduced into its working. Three substances are concerned in the production of the light—viz, two gases, oxygen and hydrogen, and a solid—lime. The mode in which these are used is as follows. A jet of hydrogen being lighted, a jet of oxygen is then turned on so as to mix with it, and the solid, incombustible lime being arranged so as to be exposed to the intense heat, it emits a light so pure and so powerful that it is only rivalled by that of the sun. The method of using and lighting the jet is precisely the same as with a common gas burner, so that no special knowledge or instruction is requisite for its management. Where the consumption of the lime light gases does not exceed one and a half foot per hour, the light produced is equal to four gas lights each burning five feet per hour. Six feet per hour gives a light equal to sixty gas lights, so that six feet are equal to three hundred feet of gas. The two gases may be easily produced, and a very small main would be sufficient to convey them them through the streets for the lighting of dwelling houses, a purpose for which this light is singularly well fitted, as its products of combustion are quite innoxious, and have no tarnishing effects. Various towns in Scotland are adapting the light, and if, as will doubtless be the case, the experiment at Perth proves satisfactory, it is expected that the lime li ht will gradually supersede the use of gas.

AN ASTONISHINGLY LAZY MAN.—The Oregon Unionist is responsible for the following, concerning a Democratic notable of the Webfoot county

An old acquaintance of his states that when residing in Pike, our Democratic friend, Ben Hayden, was regarded as the laziest man west of the Alleghanies When only an urchin, Ben, being too lazy to gather walnuts, agreed with some other boys that if that if they would supply him with half a bushel of nuts, he would climb a sapling, and permit them to cut him down! The bargain was concluded, Ben shinned up, and the youngsters cut the tree down, coon-fashion, and broke one of his legs! Two or three doctors were sent for, and reconstructed the limb, but the elder Hayden never found out the peculiar circumstances of the catastrophe

The Japan Times, of April 25th, says it has information from a trustworthy source that the Mikado has addressed to the Foreign Ministers letters, in which he proposes to throw open the whole of Japan to foreign trade and travel. There can be no doubt that the Mikado and his party are extremely anxious to conciliate the foreigners; but it may be doubted whether they have the power, in the face of the prejudices of a large portion of the people, to carry out such a sweeping measure, without much difficulty. Much depends upon the conduct of the foreigners now resident in Japan, and the character of the men sent there to represent foreign nations A firm, wise and just course on their part will soon result in bringing Japan fully into the great family of nations —*S. NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. There will be a term of the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the Territory of Dakota, held at the Court House, in the City of Cheyenne, in and for Laramie County, in the Territory aforesaid, beginning on the 3rd day of August, A. D. 1868, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

ARA BARTLETT,
Judge and Chief Justice of j4td Dakota Territory.

City Marshal's Notice!

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. POLICE COURT.—Justice Moore presiding. John Dyer pleaded guilty to breaking the peace. The breach was repaired by a ten dollar greenback.

James Gaffney was charged with a flight of his imagination, caused by conviviality, which soft impeachment he denied. His denial availed not, but $5 was his sentence by the inexorable court

Pisano nce Mexicano; baracho anoche se cinquo pesos; se pego.

Patrick Welsh, drunk as a lord—$5 and costs.

Mr Innaman, for permitting a dead ox to rest within the city limits, was fined $25 and costs. Upon showing he had engaged a man and paid him for hauling the obn-ox-ious defunct motive power of Missouri away to leeward, $20 of the fine was remitted

An ex-policeman was fined $25 for disturbance and drawing a deadly weapon and threatening to kill.

TAKE NOTICE—Dr Clark, the celebrated dentist, leaves about the middle of this month. All who want work done in his line had better call immediately, at his office, in the old City Hall building. je2-tf

COLORADO CHIEFTAIN is the name of a nice weekly, published by Beshoar & McBride, at Pueblo, Colorado, the receipt of the first number of which is acknowledged The Chieftain is gotten up in good style, both intellectually and mechanically, and as a newspaper, is deserving of success. Politically it has, as is always the case with Democrats, made a great mistake at the outset, and should be converted before it brings ruin and remorse on its own head. McBride is a practical printer, and was formerly foreman of the Argus in this city.

DARING BURGLARY.—Between midnight and three o'clock this morning the post office was entered by a burglar, and a gold watch and chain, a revolver, a lot of stamps and some currency from Bob Beers' news depot, and other valuables taken, amounting in all to at least $250 The entrance to the building was effected through the sash of the Ferguson street door, by removing portions of a light of glass, about one-third of which had been broken out several days previous. The clothing of the men sleeping in the back room had been removed to the front and the pockets rifled The thief went out by the Seventeenth street door which he unlocked by means of the key which was in the lock inside. Several drawers were opened and packages examined, but no letters or packages were taken. A number of registered letters, supposed to be valuable, were not discovered by the thief. He also took a lot of mutilated currency, which Bob says no one would take, and which he feared must remain on his hands forever. There were three men asleep in the back room, none of whom were awakened, until a policeman, finding the door open, entered and aroused them. This was one of the most daring robberies which has ever occurred in this city.

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY.—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R Converse, Sixteenth street. m30tf

A lawyer in San Francisco has commenced action against several insurance and loan societies, for $12,900, for his services in lobbying bills for them in the State Legislature during the last session. The system of buying legislation seems to have become prevalent in other places than Washington. In the Albany Legislature there are evidences of the most outrageous frauds and corruption. In this case in Sacramento the lobbyist was to have had a commission on certain bills, which would have made him $150,000. But after having succeeded in pressing them through the House they were defeated in the Senate; and having failed to earn his commission, this worthy now sues for the first above amount for his services as far as they went. There is no longer any attempt at concealment of these practices of legislative bribery.

—The freight business between the Quartermaster's depot of Fort Russell and other points, is daily increasing A train of cars go up every day, and wagon trains are constantly loading to carry the freight to other posts on the plains There is a great demand for teamsters here now, and freighting to the west is increasing in activity Business is good, and former prices still hold.

—M. Sternberger, Esq., of Philadelphia, left us to-day for his home Mr S, during his short stay with us, has made many friends, whose good wishes he carries with him

Communicated.

EDITOR LEADER: Your notice in last evening's paper, of a "shameful neglect" having occurred at "one of the homes for the sick in this city," is rather indefinite There are two hospitals in the city—the "Cheyenne City Hospital," by Drs. Irwin & Graham, and another, started a few weeks ago, by Drs. Latham & Corry When you notify the public in the above manner, you cast suspicion on the innocent as well as the guilty

Will you please state to the public what "home for the sick" you allude to.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. Fenianals.

The Canadian government never was thoroughly frightened till now. The news from Canada indicates that the utmost excitement and consternation exists, both among the authorities and the people Every man who has brogue on his tongue, freckles on his face or hair of sanguinary hue, is looked upon as a character whose personal liberty endangers the lives of public men, and the peace of the Dominion Every bag, bottle, cask and package which is landed at the Custom House, or sent through the mail, is regarded with suspicion, and looked upon as containing nitro-glycerine, Greek fire or condensed lightning A dispatch from Montreal, the 29th ult, says

"Last night dispatches were received by the General commanding, conveying information of the gathering of a considerable body of men at Buffalo, and another body at St Albans As the result, telegraphs were sent to Toronto to call out the volunteers at a moment's notice, and a battery of the royal artillery was at once ordered to the front. Barracks for the accommodation of 3,000 men have been erected at St Johns The volunteers along the front have been under arms all day in expectation of a Fenian invasion Two companies of the city guard left this afternoon for St Johns. The number of Fenians at St Albans is said to be 200. They are described as powerful men, and orderly. They are not uniformed, but it is understood that uniforms are to be sent from Boston, and that the necessary arms are in the hands of Irish farmers. A seizure of blasting fuse was made at one of the lower wharves here last night. A man who had the case in charge ran away upon being interrogated, after endeavoring to stab a policeman The government refuses to divulge particulars The authorities are very reticent. A rumor has got abroad to the effect that many of the volunteers are Fenians, and that they have been ordered by O'Neill to fire upon their officers whenever an engagement commences.

Another from Buffalo, of the same date, has the following, which, if true, indicates the Fenians are determined to annoy the authorities, if they do nothing more:

"The British gunboat Biltomarte went ashore at Windmill Point, almost opposite this city, at 10.30 this forenoon. Notwithstanding the prohibition by the Canadian Government of the circulation of the Fenian Volunteer in the Dominion, the regular issue of that paper and five hundred extra copies were sent to Canada from this city, and according to a previous public boast of the publishers, copies were placed on the Capitol steps at Ottawa, and on the streets in other cities."

The following is from Prescott:

"Some excitement has been caused in this town by the alleged discovery of disaffection among the British soldiers in garrison here. Four men deserted last night and went over to Ogdensburg. One of them was induced to come aboard the ferry boat, and was captured at the landing on this side."

The Toronto Leader thinks, however, there is nothing of a serious character to be apprehended from Fenians, owing to their want of money and lack of efficient order and discipline; but the majority of the people are certainly alarmed, and daily expect that a raid will be made from the American side, which will put an end to their suspense and mortal fear and suffering

The Dubuque papers tell of three emigrant families arriving in that city direct from Franklin, Massachusetts, having traveled the whole distance—twelve hundred miles—by wagon. That sounds olden. In connection with this, we might state that we were told a few days ago that one of the most prominent citizens of Burlington emigrated to that place from Maine, his wife riding the whole distance on horseback. Such a thing, in these days of steam, seems impossible.—Des Moines Register.

Number Eighty.

The special order for the abandonment of the upper posts has been made public, and the method of removing the supplies and forces are explained as follows:

HDQR'S DEP'T OF THE PLATTE, }
Omaha, Neb, May 19, 1868 }
Special Orders, No 80.

1. Under orders from the General-in Chief, the military posts of C. F. Smith, Phil Kearney and Reno, on what is known as the Powder River route, will be abandoned.

The public property of Fort C. F. Smith will be sold at public auction, and that at Forts Phil. Kearney and Reno—commencing and finishing first with the former—will be transferred to such of the lower posts as the Chief Quartermaster of the Department shall direct

2 Upon the sale of the property at Fort C. F. Smith, the troops there will be transferred to Fort Phil Kearney. When the property is removed from the latter post, the troops will go to Fort Reno, and remain until the stores are removed, when the whole command will proceed to convenient camp on the railroad, near Fort D A. Russell, and await further orders.

3 As soon as transportation arrives at Fort Phil Kearney, the commanding officer will send Major Smith and two companies of the 27th Infantry to relieve the 18th Infantry at Fort Reno.

4. On being relieved at Fort Reno by the 27th Infantry, Major Van Voast, 18th Infantry, with the portion of his regiment at that post, will proceed direct to Fort Russell, and report for further orders

5 Brevet Major E B Grimes, Assistant Quartermaster, will proceed to Fort Phil Kearney, and in conjunction with Brevet Major-General John E Smith, Colonel United States Infantry, will carefully inspect all public property at those posts, and condemn all not worth transportation Major Grimes is further charged, under special instructions from the Chief Quartermaster of the Department, with a supervision of the packing, loading and transporting of all the stores at the aforesaid posts.

By order of Brevet Maj Gen Augur.

A biography of Hon. Schuyler Colfax is soon to appear, written by Rev O G. Moore, now of Denver, Colorado He was for twelve years the fellow townsman of Mr. Colfax, at South Bend, Indiana, and pastor of his church there. He began this biography two or three years ago, so that it is not one of the hurried and ephemeral publications so common in election years.

On Saturday last the Treasury Department at Washington received a letter containing two one-thousand dollar 7-30 notes. It was conscience money. The letter contained no explanation, except the words in print—which had evidently been cut from a newspaper notice of a conscience case—"This money rightfully belongs to the United States." It was post-marked New York.

The Chicago Tribune has the following in relation to the late diamond robbery in that city: "Most of our readers will remember the account that was given in these columns several weeks since of the robbery of a ring, valued at $3,000, from Jacobs' store, on the corner of Randolph and State streets. A reward of $1,000, and "no questions asked," was offered for its recovery. A few mornings since a man called at the establishment, asked if Mr. Jacobs was willing to fulfil his agreement, and receiving an affirmative response, produced the ring, received his money, and walked away.

Callicott, who has been convicted of frauds in the revenue department, was Collector for the Third District of New York. It was proven that he was implicated in removing from a bonded warehouse one lot of 400 barrels of spirits, the tax on which should have been $40,000. If Government can be swindled out of that amount of money in one little transaction between a Collector, a warehouse man and a purchaser of the whisky, there is no cause for wonder that the present tax on whisky is a loss instead of a profit to the Treasury.

MORNING REPORT.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—A large number of bills were introduced, mostly of a private nature.

The House refused to concur in the Senate amendment to the Arkansas bill. A committee of conference was asked.

The House went into Committee of the Whole, on the tax bill. Miller, Maynard and Allison spoke in favor of the bill—the latter favoring a reduction of the tax on distilled spirits to 70 or 60 cents. The committee proceeded to consider the bill in detail. Blaine moved to strike out the first section, which creates an independent revenue department. A lengthy debate ensued on the motion, and several amendments were offered, after which the House took a recess.

Evening Session.—Blaine withdrew his motion to strike out the first section

Farnsworth renewed his motion, which was rejected

Judd offered an amendment that the Commissioners be subject to suspension or removal, with the advice and consent of the Senate Adopted.

SENATE—George C. Gorham was elected Secretary of the Senate without a ballot.

Buckalew announced the death of James Buchanan, whereupon the Senate adjourned

CONCORD, N. H, June 4.—Governor Harriman was inaugurated to-day. His message was brief and devoted mainly to local affairs

The State debt is reduced to three and a half millions.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4—The National Board of Trade Convention is now in session in this city. It adopted a Constitution for permanent organization to-day.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4th.—The College of California held its last commencement yesterday. Hereafter it will be observed in the State University, the regents for which have been appointed by Gov. Haight

The Course of Immigration.

From the Indianapolis Journal.

The Cincinnati Enquirer notices the fact, that of a large number of immigrants who enter that State by railways, few settle there, and recommends the employment of an agent by the State to look after her interests among the immigrants. The same fact is true of Indiana, the number of foreigners settling within our borders being but a small fraction compared to those who pass beyond; but we doubt whether the appointment of agents by the State with a view to attract immigration would change the current.

The people who leave Europe to find homes in the United States were generally either farmers, mechanics, or operatives in manufacturing establishments, at home. For the latter class there is comparatively little employment to be found in Ohio and Indiana; they constantly seek the manufacturing States. With farmers, the object is to get where good lands can be purchased cheaply. These they find in the newer States and Territories, and no amount of drumming by State Agents could stop them in their onward journey.

Compared with crowded Europe, lands are cheap in the eastern belt of the Western States, but they cost much more than the same quality of lands can be bought for in Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri and Nebraska. We cannot hope, therefore, to induce any very large proportion of the old world farmers to settle in this State. A heavy increase of the manufacturing industry of Ohio and Indiana, would attract to them a foreign population of artisans and operatives. In that way we could divide with Massachusetts Connecticut, New York and Pennsylvania, the large immigration that annually flocks to these States because there is plenty of work to be had, and of the sort they understand.

Begging for immigration will effect nothing. We must be able to offer them better inducements than other States, before we can tempt them to settle here.

Our consul at Fayal, on the first of November last, wrote the Department of State that he was about to send to Boston by the Portugese brig Evarista, eighty-seven American seamen. On the 25th of January he writes that no tidings of the arrival of the vessel had reached him. On the 31st of March he again writes: "With profound regret I have the honor to inform you that there are no tidings of the Portuguese brig Evarista, that left this port on the 16th of November last, with eighty-seven American seamen, bound to Boston."—Advertiser.

A Ritualistic Victory in the New Jersey Episcopal Convention.

From the New York Express, May 29.

The Ritualistic party in the Episcopal Church achieved a remarkable victory yesterday, in the New Jersey Diocesan Convention—and the fact is worth noting, as another sign of the remarkable progress of that branch of the Church towards "development."

In his annual charge to the clergy, the Bishop (Odenheimer) took the "highest" possible ground. He counselled obedience to the canon laws, as embodying the will of God. He also denounced the growing tendency to argue the abstract merits of the law, instead of readily submitting to it. This was understood to refer to the Tyng case. This stirred up the Evangelical, or Low Church party to a demonstration in the other direction which took the form of a series of resolutions, of which the following are the most remarkable:

Resolved, That this Convention deplores the introduction of said changes in the manner of worshipping God, by whatever ancient practice in any other Church the same may have been recognized, and whatever their intrinsic merit, and expressing its fervent hope that the same may cease from among us.

Resolved, That among the practices to which allusion is made, this convention will particularize the following Bowing at the name of Jesus at other times than when occurring in the Creed; turning especially to the East, or to the Communion-table, when making ascription of praise to Almighty God, or to any person of the Holy Trinity; intoning the prayers of the Psalter; singing any portion of the Liturgy which the Rubrics do not expressly permit to be sung; the use by any minister, not a bishop, of any ministerial garments or decorations in divine worship, excepting the gown, surplice, stole and bands, the use of Communion-tables constructed in any manner more to resemble an altar than a table; the placing of crosses or crucifixes thereupon, or of candles or candlesticks, or different coverings as part of the ornaments or furniture thereof; the intentional elevation of the bread or wine in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper; the use of incense, the practice of crossing the person; ceremonial processions immediately before, after or during divine worship, and generally all acts, intentional postures and conduct in the celebration of divine worship which tend to make the same resemble, in outward seeming, that of the Church of Rome.

After an animated debate, the resolutions were rejected by the following very decisive vote:

	Clergy.	Laity.

Forty Persons Poisoned by the First Ice Cream of the Season.

We learn by a gentleman from Helena, of a frightful occurrence, which had thrown consternation and intense excitement over the city. Over forty persons were poisoned by partaking of ice cream last Wednesday, and it was feared a number of them would die. They were in a critical condition, and the entire community was greatly agitated.

The particulars that we were able to gather are briefly as follows. The proprietor of the ice cream saloon, a Frenchman, made up a large quantity of ice cream, the first of the season, and it was distributed gratis, and freely partaken of by his friends. Shortly afterward, all who tasted the cream were seized with violent pain, and the most of them were prostrated and in a critical condition when our informant passed the city. Four members of the Frenchman's family were among those afflicted.

Mr. Coolidge, the telegraph operator, and his wife, were both down, and the recovery of the latter was considered doubtful.

A bucket full of the ice cream had been sent to the female college, and freely partaken of by the young ladies, and they were all dangerously taken down. Various others were likewise afflicted.

The doctors had analyzed some of the cream, and pronounced the poison to be arsenic. There were no well defined conjectures in regard to the cause of the terrible affair. Whether it was the work of some malicious fiend, or one of those terrible accidents which decimate and appal a whole community, are questions which future investigations may answer, but in the meantime the catastrophe remains unexplained.—Memphis Avalanche.

Nitro Glycerine, it is reported, has been reduced to a solid by precipitation. This result was obtained by a Prussian chemist after a long series of experiments. The combustibility of this dangerously explosive fluid, it is asserted, is considerably diminished, while its force remains unimpaired. As the utmost caution has heretofore been absolutely necessary in handling nitro-glycerine, the value of the discovery is exceedingly important.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years we can afford to sell a first-class Piano at from $50 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last; the materials to every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance. Every part, inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day, inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $[illegible] to [illegible] my25-3m

Warerooms, 152 Broome St, N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano. By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivaled for Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior ones.

The Daily Evening Leader.

Appalling Tragedy at Cavendish, Vermont.

The Bellows Falls Times of Friday contains the following details of the fearful death of two young women by drowning at Cavendish, Vt.

"Mrs. Albina Knights, wife of Horatio Knights, and Miss Ellen McCary, both operatives in James Felton's woolen mill, proposed the exploit of crossing the mill pond in a boat, the water being high and the current strong from so large a flow over the dam. Being ready to start, they urged other friends to ride with them, who not only refused, but earnestly urged them not to make the attempt. They did not, however, share in the fears of their friends, and pushed off their boat, waving their handkerchiefs in salutation and bidding 'good-bye' to those on shore. Then followed one of the most painful and thrilling scenes which ever occurred in Vermont. They had got but a short distance when it was perceived the current was carrying them down, but they did not appear to notice it. Nearer and nearer they approached the dam, till Miss Cary rose and jumped out of the boat. The strong current immediately carried her over. Mrs Knight remained in the boat, and just before it made the fatal plunge, seemed to faint and fall back as it went over, carrying her to a watery grave with her friend, or possibly she may have thrown herself into the bottom of the boat, with possible hope that in that condition she might escape. Both were seen once several rods below the dam, the current carrying them very rapidly down into the rocky gorge known as Cavendish Falls. The feelings of those who witnessed this scene who were utterly powerless to render assistance cannot be described."

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner of or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. —We are informed the Railroad Directors will arrive here next week, and the work of building the shops and round-houses will be commenced at once. Mr. Cummins, who built the new post office, has already been engaged to superintend the necessary carpenter work on the buildings, the walls of which are to be of stone.

FIFTY OX TEAMS WANTED.—I wish to hire fifty ox teams. Steady work will be given for the entire season. For particulars enquire at McDonald & Henry's, corner Sixteenth and Eddy streets, Cheyenne.

—The Argus of this morning has an item promising, in a threatening manner, to publish a correct statement of the hospital affair. Every true friend of Doctors Latham and Corry would be gratified to see that matter so explained as to satisfy the public that there had been no neglect in the case

TAKE NOTICE.—Dr Clark, the celebrated dentist, leaves about the middle of this month All who want work done in his line had better call immediately, at his office, in the old City Hall building. je2-tf

—Bishop Simpson and a number of other delegates to the Methodist General Conference, held at Chicago, arrived here from the East on the train yesterday, and went through to Laramie. It is expected they will return to-morrow, and that Bishop Simpson will preach here on Sunday

—No mail west of Laramie has arrived for the past two days, owing probably to high water in the streams crossed by the stage road.

—It was time for Uncle Ned to relinquish his primitive agricultural implements, when such reapers and mowers can be had as are for sale by Geo Tritch & Co.

—Lumber and castings for the railway buildings at Laramie, went up yesterday evening.

—Timbers for the bridge across Medicine Bow river came up on the train this morning. Medicine Bow is quite a considerable stream, and if the bridge over it is not so large as that over Dale Creek, it will nevertheless be a Bridge of Size.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—An exhibition will be given by the pupils of District School No. 1 this evening. A number of children will "speak their pieces" and sing several songs. A choir, with the organ, will assist in making the exercises agreeable to visitors. The parents of pupils, and all others interested in the progress of the school, are invited by Mr. Scriber, the Principal, to attend.

—Tom Smith, who has the brewery, at the Lake Ranch, six miles west of this city, says he has had a boat built on the lake, so visitors from the city may have an opportunity for fishing or ducking or any other aquatic amusements.

—We are under obligations for a complimentary Family ticket of admission to the "Sixteenth National Horse Fair, and Equestrian Exhibition," which begins at Denver on the 30th instant, and continues for five days. Large numbers of the citizens of Cheyenne contemplate being present upon that occasion, which will doubtless be an exhibition of extraordinary interest to admirers of the equine species.

NEW TO-DAY.

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,042,425.50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement.

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864 - -	$3,658,755 55 - -	$1,005,217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919 70 - -	1,223,161.15
1866 - -	6,727,816.65 - -	1,845,896.95
1867 - -	8,771,326 01 - -	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known 'Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10 000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments, his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

HIS LIFE POLICY

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows.

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment, when all is paid

FOR PRESIDENT,
ULYSSES S. GRANT,
OF ILLINOIS
For Vice President,
Schuyler Colfax,
OF INDIANA

Amendments to the Constitution.

On the 30th ult, Mr Ashley, of Ohio, introduced into the House a bill providing for several very important amendments to the National Constitution in the matter of Vice President, an office which it proposes to abolish, and in the election of President by the popular vote instead of by the electoral college It is claimed, and with unimpeachable truth, that the office of Vice President is not only unnecessary and dangerous, but that the office is frequently filled more with the intention of gratifying some jealous locality than with a proper regard to the ability or qualifications of the individual who is to preside over the actions of the Senate Presiding in the Senate being the only duties of consequence which the Vice President is required to perform, it is believed such an officer might better be selected by the members of that body, as the Speaker is elected by the House. In the event of the death or resignation of the President, his successor should be elected by the Senate and House conjointly, each member having one vote. The cases of Jefferson and Burr in 1801, of Harrison and Tyler, of Taylor and Fillmore, and latterly of Lincoln and Johnson, are cited as cases where much difficulty and danger have been brought upon the country—in the first case by the terrible contests created by the office, and in the others by weak or unprincipled men obtaining the position through the death of the Chief Magistrate.

The abolition of electoral colleges is a measure of undoubted benefits Under the present system, the absence of one or two electors, or their refusal to vote, may throw the election into the House of Representatives, as has already twice been the case, when a President might be elected who would altogether fail to represent the man or policy for which a majority of the popular vote had been cast. In electoral colleges this is also the case. Although a certain number of electors may be chosen by the popular vote to elect a certain candidate, yet there is no assurance they will vote in the electoral college as the people might desire Corrupt men might be bought; and as it frequently occurs that two or three electors decide the question, it perhaps would not always be impossible to financially argue the required number of electors into the belief that the choice of the people was a wrong one, and that they knew who to elect better than did the people. There would certainly be a greater degree of independence for the "Sovereign" to poll his ballot direct and finally for the man of his choice than to intrust that decision to a proxy, who might be tempted to abuse his privilege and barter his power. It is also claimed this amendment would create some desirable improvements in caucuses and conventions, which are generally controlled throughout their whole workings by the influence of electors. The bill is an important one, and will be carefully canvassed before any final action is taken thereon, which will hardly be during the present session.

According to the reports of the several religious societies the sums donated to them for the past year, amount to $4,000,000.

At a meeting of prominent Democrats in Albany, on the 29th ult., Seymour made a speech favoring the nomination of Chase, by the Democratic Convention, as a man who would control a larger popular vote than Pendleton, who he thought might become the future leader of the party.

A Glimpse Behind the Scenes.

Our dispatches from the east have announced that Sanborn, President of the Indian Peace Commission, had telegraphed to the Department at Washington that Red Cloud had signed the treaties at Laramie, which from reliable information, we believe to be incorrect Red Cloud did not attend the council. He sent in several messengers bearing commands to the Commissioners, but he did not appear He sent them this message.

"You said you would move the forts when the grass came—when the grass came you said you would move them when it was so big, oxen could eat it—now the grass is big for oxen, and you say—'move 'em bime by.' You move the forts away, and there shall be peace. Red Cloud will then fight the Crows, the Blackfeet, Arapahoes or Cheyennes."

This was Red Cloud's message. There were about 2,000 Indians, squaws and papooses at the council, and there was a 'house full" of blankets, overcoats and other presents distributed to them Widowed squaws with papooses were in demand, owing to the many extra advantages allowed them in the new reservations on the Missouri. Extra land, farming implements and stock are to be given to these afflicted widows, and it is not to be wondered at that those interesting creatures predominate in an alarming degree When Man-afraid-of-his-Horses signed the treaty he insisted on having one of the sutlers sign with him After the two worthies had affixed their autographs to the document, the noble red man asked his white friend if he (the sutler) would surely "go straight." Upon being assured he intended to run a transit line of rectitude in his future negotiations with Indians, the chief said, "I stole some mules from you and the government has paid you for them, but I will give you back a portion of them for friendship and then we will be all right again" This proposition was agreed to, and everything between whites and copperskins immediately assumed an air of superlative loveliness Now government has sent out into the heart of the Sioux tribe trains consisting of several hundred draught animals, and if the followers of Red Cloud fail to capture a good portion of them we may look for a peace of some duration. The fact is, Red Cloud is the supreme ruler of all the Indians between the Platte and Missouri rivers, and though all but he might sign treaties, one word from him for war would dispel all their recollections of promises of peace. We do not wish to unnecessarily agitate the Indian question, but as there appears to have been an error in the reports which have been made of the council at Laramie, we give the above as the plain facts, over which a romantic official statement might be thrown. Stripped of its veil of official nonsense, it is really no treaty at all. The signers of it do not consider themselves responsible, but sign because their chief is at present indifferent to what they do, knowing that at any moment by a single word he can undo it all.

News Gatherings.

A man was kicked to death by a party of roughs in Cleveland, on Tuesday last

On the 2nd inst, a party consisting of two young ladies aged about 18, and two young gentlemen aged about 23 years, were carried in a boat over a dam in the river at South Bend, Ind., and all drowned.

Joseph Brown, who murdered Angie Stewart, a girl twelve years of age, to obtain $5,000, the amount of a life insurance which he had effected on her, was hanged at Hudson, N. Y., on the 29th ult. The evidence was entirely circumstantial in character.

A man in Chicago, on the 2nd, who had his pocket-book stolen from his bed-room by a burglar, was arrested in bed, the same night, and lodged in the calaboose on a charge of burglary, caused by his wallet, with his name on it, having been dropped by the thief, while leaving another house which he was going through, when he awakened the inmates, and fled.

General Schofield, the new Secretary of War, is a native of the State of New York; was born in 1831, appointed to West Point in 1849; graduated in 1853; served in the Florida war till 1853. This year he was appointed Assistant Professor of Philosophy in the Military Academy, and held the position till 1860, when he obtained leave of absence for one year to accept a Professorship in the Washington University at St. Louis. He returned to military life on the breaking out of the war, organized troops and fought often and well.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Leader

MORNING REPORT.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—J. Ross Brown left Washington yesterday for New York, en-route to China. He had a long interview with Burlingame previous to his departure.

NEW YORK, June 5—A Herald's London special says only six natives, not six hundred, were drowned by the flood in Abyssinia.

ROME, June 4—A banquet was given here on Tuesday, to Buchanan Read, at which ex-Minister Adams and a number of American residents were present

A Herald's Montreal special says the Fenian scare throughout the Dominion is increasing. The authorities increase the general alarm by extensive preparations making in this city Several persons have been arrested as Fenian spies A Herald's Malone special says Fenian fairs will be gotten up at St. Albans, Vermont, for the purpose of covering up a collection of men for the coming raid into Canada Large numbers of arms are rapidly arriving at all points on the frontier. Prominent Fenians declare that within the coming month they will have a large force and a firm footing in the Dominion.

LIVERPOOL, June 4—John Bright was entertained this morning at a breakfast by prominent member of the Liberal party. Bright made a powerful speech After reviewing the policy of the various Tory Administrations up to the present, on the question of the Irish Church, he drew a strong contrast between the course of the present Premier and that of Gladstone, in dealing with this matter. He advised the Liberals to exert all their strength to carry the next Parliamentary election. With great earnestness he exhorted the people to support the Liberal party, declaring the success of its policy was the only means of adjusting the dissensions in Ireland, and in perfecting a union with England.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 5.—Buchanan's funeral yesterday was the most imposing ceremony ever witnessed in this county A number of delegations from distant cities were present. About three thousand persons walked in the procession, and business universally was suspended. Buchanan's estate is estimated at three hundred thousand dollars. It is understood he left a legacy for the poor of Lancaster

CHICAGO, June 5—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Northwestern Railroad yesterday, Henry Keep, of New York, was elected President, Wm. B. Ogden declining a re-election. It is generally believed an entire new course of policy in regard to the management of the road will be adopted The Pennsylvania Central, and Pittsburg and Fort Wayne and Chicago Railways are about to be consolidated.

Afternoon Report.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—A State Sunday School Convention is now in session here.

Some citizens of Nevada and California have organized a company to build a railroad from a point on the Central Pacific Railroad on the Humboldt river, in eastern Nevada, to the head of navigation on the Colorado river, connecting with the line of the Southern Pacific. The capital stock is a million and a half dollars. The length of the road will be about two hundred and fifty miles. The number of passengers arrived from New York by steamer, last month in San Francisco, was six thousand — the largest number ever known in the same length of time.

The Labor Exchange has furnished employment to all new comers seeking it, free of charge. Applications for labor number two thousand; situations filled, about eighteen hundred, mostly in the country.

Sailed — the steamer Nebraska, for Panama, with two hundred and four passengers, and one hundred and eighteen thousand dollars in silver bullion.

SENATE, June 6.—The Senate insisted upon the amendments to the Arkansas bill, and ordered a Committee of Conference. Trumbull called up the House bill to admit North Carolina, etc.; explained that, in the substitute bill, the committee had stricken out Alabama and Florida, which had been in the bill by mistake and contrary to the opinion of the majority of the committee, though he personally favored it. Drake thought the bill had better be laid aside until the Conference Committee reported upon the fundamental conditions to be inserted. A long debate ensued, after which, the Senate went into executive session, and adjourned.

HOUSE.—Blair, from the Committee of Conference on the Army Appropriation bill, made a report, which was agreed to, and the House proceeded to consider private bills.

A joint resolution was passed to advance Capt. Thomas N. Stevens 21 numbers on the list of Captains in the navy, for services during the war.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the tax bill, the sixth section being under consideration, which gives the Commissioner of Internal Revenue the power to appoint and remove all revenue officers, without responsibility to anybody. After a lengthy discussion, and several amendments having been offered, and rejected, Garfield moved to strike out the section, which was agreed to, by 64 to 45

The seventh section passed, being slightly amended. Logan moved to strike out the eighth section, which recognizes the bonded warehouse system and provides for the appointment of warehouse store-keepers The debate on this section lasted a great part of the evening session The motion to strike out was finally withdrawn, with the understanding this section should be reserved for final amendment The bill was considered up to the 22d section, when the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Burlingame and the Chinese Embassy were formally presented to the President to-day. Brief remarks were made by the President and Burlingame A large numder of ladies and gentlemen witnessed the presentation ceremonies.

The following are the nominations made to-day: Martin McMahon, of New York, as Minister Resident in Paraguay, and W. H Parker, Secretary of the Territory of Idaho. The Senate confirmed H G Worthington, of Nevada, as Minister Resident in the Argentine Republic, Alfred Allen, of Kentucky, Consul to Foo Chow (?), Commodore Thomas Turner, to be Rear Admiral; Capt. J. L. Worden, to be Commodore; Rear Admiral Craven, to be detached from the command of the Navy Yard at Mare Island, August 1st, and ordered to command the North Pacific Squadron, and Commodore James Alden to succeed him in command at Mare Island.

The Senate to-day passed the bill legalizing all contracts hereafter to be made for payment in gold.

The Secretary of the Treasury (Navy?) sent fresh instructions to New Orleans for detention of the iron-clads Oresta and Catawba, it being stated they intend to leave there professedly on an experimental trip, but really for Peru.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The Ocean Queen brings Panama dates to the 28th ult. Two hundred persons are dying daily by yellow fever at Callao.

CINCINNATI, June 5.—The river steamer Thompson Dean was successfully launched to-day. She has a carrying capacity of three thousand tons, being greater than any steamer on the western rivers.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Ex-Collector Callicott has been sentenced to pay a fine of ten thousand dollars and be imprisoned two years in the Albany penitentiary, for defrauding the government. R. C. Enwright, twenty-five hundred dollars and eighteen months imprisonment; John S. Allen, two thousand dollars and one year imprisonment.

WORCESTER, MASS., June 5. A riotous demonstration among striking shoemakers was made yesterday, but was suppressed by the authorities.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The Rock Island Railroad difficulties are finally settled The New York stockholders who have been fighting President Tracy in regard to the issue of forty-nine thousand new shares, have entirely succumbed. They met in this city yesterday and passed resolutions endorsing the issue of the bonds, and re-elected Tracy President and agreed to prompt action for the completion of the road to the Missouri river. Chicago will soon have three direct connections with the Union Pacific Road.

LONDON, June 5.—In the House of Commons this evening an amendment to the suspensory bill was offered, placing the tenure of office under the Maynooth College-grant on the same basis as livings in the Irish church. The amendment was opposed as destructive instead of suspensory, and not in accordance with the character of the bill under consideration. It was rejected. The House then voted in favor of permitting new appointment to be made to the Maynooth College. The suspensory bill then passed in the committee. The announcement of the result was received with cheers.

The Emperor of Austria asserts he had to make a choice of two alternatives. Either of signing the late laws hostile to the concordant, or abdicate his throne; and he chose the former. This explanation is intended to soften the resentment of the people for the violation of the concordant.

Ground was broken at Nebraska city for the Midland Pacific Railroad, on the 2d inst.

One hundred and fifty singers are rehearsing in Chicago for the approaching Saengerbund.

The fare from Boston to New York is now only one dollar; and it is thought if the opposition continues with the railway companies, meals will be included.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the BEST manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers; and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25-3m

Warerooms, 152 Broome St N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano. By this means the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers

—Mr Wemple, who a short time since was severely wounded by the robbers who attacked him and murdered his pardner, near Dale City, went east this morning on business connected with the house of Marsh, Wemple & Co , of which he is a member.

MOSS AGATES and other rare stones and jewels will be cut and set, to order, at the watch and jewelry store of John Kupfer, Eddy street 1t

TAKE NOTICE.—Dr Clark, the celebrated dentist, leaves about the middle of this month. All who want work done in his line had better call immediately, at his office, in the old City Hall building, jc2-tf

PANORAMA OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS —The New York dailies contain glowing descriptions of a Panorama of the War, got up by A E Mathews, the artist. Mr Mathews is now getting up a Panorama of the Rocky Mountains which is said to be superior to it in artistic merit The subject, too, is one that admits of displaying to advantage the highest order of talent

—This being Saturday evening, those who want fresh butter and eggs, or any kind of groceries, should call on Whipple Bros., as they don't open on Sunday. 1t

SCHOOL EXERCISES —The schoolhouse was well filled last evening with parents of the pupils and friends of education to witness the exercises of the children. This was the first entertainment of the kind ever given in Wyoming, and it certainly was a strange contrast to the scenes which might have been exhibited on this spot less than a year ago, when the prairie was the undisputed home of wolves and buffalo. The exercises were opened by the choir singing the national anthem "America." Mr Scriber then introduced singly and in the respective order of their songs and recitations, the little masters and misses, who sung and delivered their declamations in a manner agreeable to their audience, creditable to their teacher, and no doubt satisfactory to themselves. These little entertainments, when given as last night, are pleasing to parents as well as encouraging to the children, and should be encouraged and occasionally repeated

—Laramie must have a pleasant climate. Snow there yesterday, and frost every night

—A party of soldiers, who were patroling for absentees, last night, fired about a dozen shots from their carbines, while passing through the upper portion of the city. The balls were heard to whistle, in a disagreeable manner, near the heads of persons a couple of blocks off.

—The Grand Lodge of Free Masons of the United States commenced its session in New York on the 2nd inst

—Two drunks, one fast driving, and one nuisance pleaded guilty, in the Police Court, this morning, and were moderately fined

—Bob Beers is moving the heavy portion of his stock to the new post office building to-day. The post office will be moved Monday. The old post office will be open from seven till eight o'clock on Monday morning. Monday has been selected for the removal because no mails arrive here on that day.

—The best music in Cheyenne is produced nightly at the Grotto Hall, by that accomplished violinist James W. Baker, who is well known at Salt Lake and in the northern mines. Those who wish to hear good playing at any hour of the day or night, step in and see him.

—The excursionists of the Chicago General Methodist Conference, went east, this morning, with the expedition of Bishop Simpson, who, as will be seen by notice elsewhere, will remain over Sabbath and deliver a discourse to-morrow.

Oats, Corn, Flour,

—Every description of eastern and native jewelry on hand and made to order by Joslin & Park, who also have a large assortment of watches. Corner of Ferguson and Sixteenth streets. 1t

—Fort Steele is the name of the new government post at the railroad crossing of North Platte.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES OF THE M. E. CHURCH.—The ~~first~~ Quarterly Meeting of the M E Church, in Cheyenne, will be held in the school room, on the 7th of June. Sacramental services at 2½ o'clock No Sabbath school Bishop Simpson will preach at 8 o'clock, p m The Rev. W. M Smith is expected to be present. D W SCOTT.

A REPETITION of the post office burglary was perpetrated on Humphrey Bros., last night Some one entered their store, by the window, and, like the Arabs, folded a tent which they stole silently away with This accomplished thief, whoever he may be, appears to be a perfect gentleman, as he takes nothing but what he wants, leaving everything else undisturbed He destroys nothing which belongs to others. He took a few things out of the post office, early Thursday morning, and it appears he had no place to put them until he stole the tent last night Perhaps he has no stoves; if such should be the case it might be advisable for the unsuspecting slumberers of Cheyenne to keep their stoves red hot, if they think them worth saving.

NEW TO-DAY,

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '68, $1,642,425 50.

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864 - -	$4,658,755 55 - -	$1,065,217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919.70 - -	1,223,164.15
1866 - -	6,727,816 65 - -	1,845,896 95
1867 - -	8,771 323 01 - -	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788 69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known 'Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim , and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments, his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment, when all is paid

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits

SEC. 9 If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. The Chicago Excursionists.

It was a jolly crowd, consisting of the stockholders of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway and their invited guests, numbering in all about 150 ladies and gentlemen, that arrived by special train at eleven o'clock last night This is the ninth annual excursion of the C & N W men, from which it might be supposed they are a lot of chaps who are addicted to periodically enjoying themselves in a rational manner Their guests are principally editors and correspondents of papers in all parts of the eastern, western and middle States They started from Chicago on Friday morning in a train consisting of five Pullman palace cars and expected to be absent about ten days They are provided with everything good to eat and drink, and have a band of trombone troubadors along to furnish music They left here this morning for the end of the track, whither they go to witness tracklaying as that useful and beautiful science is practically demonstrated by the Casement family, who bu everything from the Missouri to the Great Dead Sea of America and the harem of the Father of the Faithful We wish the excursionists a high old time (they are bound to have it, anyhow), hope they'll see track-laying, save their scalps, and keep out of the guard-house, that they'll get home in time to vote for the best man, is Grant-ed

Newspaper Monopoly in New England.

The Boston correspondent of the Springfield Republican says. "Our periodical dealers are to be consolidated into one great company, which threatens to monopolize the business of selling papers and periodicals throughout New England The new concern is to be styled, I believe, the New England News Company Three of our principal houses join the coalition—A. Williams & Co , J. J Dyer & Co., and Charles Fletcher The stock of the company will be one thousand shares, which will be divided as follows: American News Company of New York, three hundred , A. Williams & Co,, three hundred; J. J. Dyer & Co , three hundred, Fletcher one hundred. J J Dyer is to be President; George Dexter of New York, Vice President, A. Williams, Treasurer, and James Tent (of A. W. & Co.) Superintendent. A handsome building is now going up on Court street which will be occupied by the company A consolidation has been contemplated for some time. In April, 1867, arrangements were made for it, but failed of execution. The retail dealers in periodicals generally quietly acquiesced in the new order of things; but Frost & Armstrong, who do a very large retail business, hold themselves aloof, telling the company that if their scale of prices is satisfactory, they will buy of them, otherwise, not. The profits made by the periodical dealers may be illustrated as follows: a wholesale house, like Williams & Co., pay for Harper's Weekly $7 per 100, 5 per cent off; the retail dealers pay $8. Thus the former makes a profit of $1.35 per 100 and the latter $2"

A number of prominent citizens of Dona Anna County, New Mexico, including the United States, county and judicial officers, have gotten up a petition to Gen Grant to station a sufficient mounted force in that county to protect them from Indians. They say that within sixty days, many of their best citizens will be either murdered or wounded, by Indians, and the country is nearly stripped of stock, and that there is no security whatever for life or property.

From Sweetwater.

From the Mines of the 30th ult, we glean the following:

The Indian Commissioners were expected at Bridger on the 3d inst., to treat Washakie for Wind River Valley.——The arastra on Willow Creek would be ready for grinding rock in a few days.——Great preparations are being made for mining on Rock creek, ——The California Placer Mining Co.'s claims are turning out very well, considering the amount of water they have (only about ten inches), They took out $187 50 one day this week, working three hands. This result we saw ourselves and can vouch for——We saw on Thursday last upwards of $1 200 in gold dust weighed out at the store of J. A. Nye & Co , on Washington street, which was taken from the Wyoming Ditch Company's in this city, and from the placer claims in California District, near the Miner's Delight ledge The quality of the gold was A No 1 Nothing better was ever mined, not excepting the far famed Yuba gold of California—— Week before last, as Albert LeQuatte, a brother of H B LeQuatte, Esq , Vice President of the South Pass Bank, was passing in front of a pair of oxen, which were standing before his father's residence in Illinois, they started, and his back being turned, one of their horns pierced him in the back, passing through and into the lower part of the body, making a ghastly and fatal wound He lingered in great pain till the second day after receiving the injury

Financial Resources.

In the House debate on the Internal Tax bill, last Tuesday, Mr. Kelly read from the report of the Special Commissioner of Revenue, Mr. Wells, "that the United States is the only one of the leading nations of the world which is at present materially diminishing its debt, and reducing its taxes" The figures of the report show that from the 31st of August, 1865, to the 31st of October, 1867, the national debt was reduced by a sum of over "two hundred and sixty-six millions, making an average of over ten millions per month." The report further shows that a reduction of taxation made by the first and second sessions of the Thirty-Ninth Congress, which reduction amounted to about one hundred millions, yet the internal revenue did not fall off, as might naturally be expected, from abating the rate of taxation, but on the contrary the total amount of revenue exhibited a nett gain of about twenty millions.

These facts show the healthy condition of the country, and indicate a growth of surpassing strength. The population is increasing, and the resources of the country are being developed in a corresponding ratio Emigration and the native population alike instead of seeking a bare existence in the large cities of the east, are pressing their way into the far west, subduing the wilderness, adding to the wealth of the country, and paying taxes and revenue on every article they consume. The addition to our population by foreign immigration alone is estimated at three hundred thousand, nearly all of which seek a home in the west The agricultural resources of the west are as great or greater than those of the eastern States, while the mineral wealth of the United States, the products of which exceed that of any other country, is nearly all situated west of the Missouri river. Large parties of emigrants are daily arriving in Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico, to plow and dig out contributions to the public wealth.

The past eight years in the history of America, under the guidance of Republican principles, has done more to increase the prosperity, to demonstrate and firmly establish the power and resources of the Union, than any other era in our history since the close of the first war with Great Britain. The Republican party are the authors of the homestead law; the Union Pacific Railroad and the international naturalization law, three achievements which have done and are doing more for the west and the Union than the rebellion of a dozen States could effect against it. It is essensially a party of advancing and liberal views and and should be endorsed and sustained by every true friend to America.

An appropriation of $3,000 per day would be required to maintain the provisional government of Virginia.

Over thirty persons were injured in the riots at Washington, after the election on the 1st instant. One man who was cut in the arm bled to death before assistance could be rendered.

MORNING REPORT.

A dispatch from Oregon announces the completion of the telegraph from Portland to Dallas.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—A nugget of gold and quartz worth $20,000 has been found at Remington Hill; Nevada county.

HAVANA, June 6.—The revenue of the Mexican Republic for the coming year is estimated at $18,000,000. The Mexican army is to be re-organized. It will consist of four divisions of four thousand each.

WASHINGTON, June 6 —The Senate yesterday rejected McClellan's nomination of Minister to England;

House.—A bill to grant certain swamp lands to Wisconsin passed.

DUBLIN, June 6.—Sullivan, one of the Dublin editors, has been released; Pigot is still in close confinement

LONDON, June 6. — The released English captives have arrived at Suez from Abyssinia.

OTTAWA, June 6 —A cavern or grotto, said to rival the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky, has been discovered, twenty miles north of this city.

ST. LOUIS, June 8th.—The Leavenworth Conservative, of yesterday, has the following

"Yesterday morning, Governor Crawford at Topeka, received a dispatch from Sheriff Beales, of Junction City, saying that information had just been received, from Major Stover, Agent of the Kaw Indians, that several hundred Cheyennes were fighting the Kaws upon the reservation of the latter. The dispatches also stated that the authorities at Fort Riley, refused to send troops to the scene of action. Sheriff Beales, with ten men from Junction City, was about starting, at the latest dispatches

Afternoon Report.

BRUSSELS, June 7.—The opinion prevails that war will break out in Europe before the close of autumn

BERLIN, June 7 —Bismarck urges all maritime nations to adopt a uniform system of measuring the tonnage of shipping.

ST PETERSBURG, June 7 —The Emperor has pardoned all foreigners who are in exile in Siberia; also all the Russian-Polanders sentenced for less than twenty years

UTICA, N Y , June 7.—A terrible storm passed over this place on Saturday A chimney eighty feet high was blown upon the roof of a machine shop, killing one man and wounding several.

A Herald's Washington dispatch says another big Indian land job came to light on Wednesday. The Osage nation was induced, by promises and intimidations on the part of the Commission which was headed by Indian Commissioner Taylor, to sell eight million acres of land on their reservation, for twenty cents per acre, payable in fifteen years, to a private party, while numerous better bids were made for the same by other parties. News Gatherings.

A company in Salt Lake is hiring men to work on the rail way grade in Echo Canyon.

The seven-year locusts suddenly appeared in Philadelphia, on the 3rd inst

In Sacramento a man caned a woman as she was going aboard a steamer with another man.

It is claimed that the Midland Pacific Railway from Nebraska City via Lincoln, the capital of the State to a junction with the Union Pacific, will save 149 miles in distance between San Francisco and New York. The road is to be completed in two years.

A "Free Religious Association," which was established last fall held its first public meeting in Boston, on the 30th ult. This institution believes in the nebular theory and that Christ was a good man, but really an ordinary mortal, like a good John Smith or Peter Robinson; it also denounces all belief in the possibility of miracles. It is to be a purely scientific religion.

A correspondent of the London Times says Magdala, the capital of Abyssinia, consisted of nothing but a collection of huts made of grass and wood with thatched conical roofs The palace of Theodorus was of the same class, but two stories in height, dark, and dirty. In England it would not be considered fit for a stable. The British troops burnt the city, and secured the crown, which is to be sent to Victoria.

Western Items.

For the following items of general interest, we are under obligations to George Barnett, Esq., an old knight of the quill, who has just returned from a business visit to North Platte:

There are nearly 1000 people at North Platte, exclusive of the military; and a town has sprung up on a low flat on the south bank of the river. The buildings consist only of logs and canvas roofs, so that they can be easily removed in case the U P. R. R. should lay out a town site Lieut Colonel Bartlett [illegible]ty, has been in command of the post during the temporary absence of Col Dodge. He has been called upon on several occasions to settle disputes between citizens, as well as to keep order in the new city His decisions have given general satisfaction.

General Augur and staff, escorted by Company F, of the 2nd Cavalry, under Lieut. Norton, and General Gibbon and Colonel Dodge, arrived at North Platte on Wednesday last. The two latter officers will proceed to the North Park to ascertain the most available point to obtain a supply of good timber for building purposes. Gen Augur left on Thursday morning for the west, as far as Salt Lake City. He will probably be absent three or four weeks Before leaving he decided that the fort should be built on the opposite side of the river from where the town and camp are at present situated The new post is to be known as Fort Fred Steele. It will accommodate five or six companies of troops, and it is reported that Gen Stevenson will command, and that the headquarters of the 30th Infantry will be moved there. An officer of engineers is now on the ground, surveying the proposed site Company B, of the 30th Infantry, and a portion of K Company of the 2nd Cavalry, are on the ground

Work had not been commenced on the railroad bridge over the North Platte, and the stream has swoolen considerably. It can only be crossed with the ferry boat.

Generals Buford, Blair, and Dr White, government surveyors, have been up the track as far as Rock Creek, and have accepted another section of forty miles from the railroad contractors. The 620 mile-post from Omaha, was set up on Saturday afternoon. The track is laid five or six miles further west; and the construction cars now run to three miles beyond Rock Creek, or within sixty-six miles of the North Platte River. It is expected the cars will run to the banks of the stream by the 20th of the ensuing month.

There are some heavy stocks of merchandize at North Platte, and a good business is being done

Brig General Alvord has been up the road, paying off the troops stationed between Fort Sanders and North Platte. He has returned to Omaha.

A woman has just been arrested in New York, disguised in male attire; an apparel which she has worn for four years, passing as the nephew of a worthy banker who has been her protector during that time. She has been a frequenter of the best and other society, breaking the hearts of the belles of the city and fashionable watering places, giving champaign suppers, driving fast horses and the finest buggies, and spending the banker's money in truly magnificent style. Her arrest, which was made as she was leaving one of the "fashionable" resorts of the demi-monde, has created quite a sensation among the young ladies who have been endeavoring to effect matrimonial engagements with the darling humbug.

ABYSSINIA.—Magdala has been taken, and Theodorus, killed by his own hand, lies, under guard of a British sentinel, in the last and strongest of the wondrous series of his strongholds It would be affectation to pity a tyrant who himself knew no pity, who was unscrupulous and crafty as he was cruel, and who had indeed every reason to style himself the "Scourge of God sent to punish the people."

Yesterday nothing was left to the imagination; the tragedy was forced in all its naked horror upon our revolted senses A strange smell, for which there was no apparent cause, made some of our party look over the edge of a steep cliff, almost within a few yards of the spot from which the guns were beginning to play upon Magdala, and there on a ledge about fifty feet below them, lay two large heaps of mangled human bodies, closely piled upon each other in ghastly confusion, their limbs protruding from the mass in all sorts of repulsive attitudes and contortions, and presenting altogether a scene of horror such as no pen could adequately describe, could any pen be found to undertake the task.—Cor. London Times April 14th.

Trotting Match at Chicago.

On Thursday last the great trotting match, best three in [illegible] of $10,000, between Bashaw, jr., and Rockey Jim, took place in Chicago. The race was to wagons, and owing to a heavy rain which fell during the race, the drawing was perhaps heavier for the horses than any race ever before contested; nevertheless, they made good time, and everything considered, extraordinary time, the score being:

First Heat [illegible]
Second H[illegible]
Third [illegible]

The race was [illegible] who before the day had the call. There were about 1,800 persons present to witness the contest, and the ladies' stand was nearly filled The first heat Bashaw, jr., was driven by Conover, and the heat was won by Rocky. Fawcett, the owner of the stallion, then put Perry on the wagon, with the result of winning the three following heats. Bashaw, jr., is an Iowa horse, and is now about eight years old. He was purchased by Fawcett last summer for $15,000. Rocky is about the same age as the other, and came from Kentucky last fall, where he was purchased by Mr. E. Price for $7,000. Another race is to take place between the same horses.

The Daily Evening Leader.

MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1868.

A light-house keeper on an island in Lake Superior was left before the commencement of the winter with a small supply of provisions, and the steamer being unable to return to his rescue, on account of the ice, he starved to death at the post of duty. His body has just been recovered The telegram from Collingwood, announcing his fate says, with simple pathos: "Poor Ned is dead. I got his body. Make preparations for funeral." The deceased leaves a wife and family at Brockville, Canada, where he will be buried.

W. Ross Keithly, of this city, has received a photograph of Miss Kate Keithly, probably a relative of his The interesting young lady is twenty-three years old, only six feet two inches high, and don't weigh any more than seven hundred and twenty-two pounds. Her photograph indicates these figures—of weight, at all events—to be correct. She is called the Missouri Giantess, and at last accounts was at Cheyenne City, connected with a show. Miss Kate would make a fine run in the Fort Yuma country, where the mercury rarely gets below one hundred and twenty degrees in the shade.

Last winter, a large number of sluices for catching sulphurets were washed away and destroyed. We notice that many of the old claims are being resluiced, and many new ones being built. This business has become an important item of prosperity, affording employment to a large number of men who earn over average wages in working tailings run from the mills as worthless Over one million dollars were saved in this and Lyon county during the last year, and this season the amount will be increased. It is only about two years ago that the blanket sluice went into use, so some estimate can be formed of the vast sums of metal that have for the five years previously floated down the canyons, to the Carson river. There is no doubt but $20,000,000 have been forever lost to commerce through inability to save metal in the early experience of milling ores —Virginia Trespass

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last; the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt the best the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $100 to $800,00 my25-3m

A Hint to Bald-Headed People.

Frederick Kemp writes from the silver mines of Montana to the Herald of Health, giving the following hint in reference to a cure for his baldheadedness "A friend of mine who had the misfortune to be bald-headed, knowing that there is a wonderful invigorating power in the sun's rays, last spring threw away his hat, and worked in the gulch all spring, summer and fall bareheaded, and also for the first few days at mid-day. For a few days the rays of the hot sun on his head were almost unendurable; after that time he experienced no uneasiness whatever The result was that in the fall he had a good head of hair. And in this experiment he was not alone—several of his acquaintances who were bald-headed having followed the same plan, they were all fortunate enough to experience the same result" The editor adds that a similar case once came under his own observation, and professes to have no doubt that 'the exposure of the skin to the air and sunshine, under proper circumstances, stimulates it to a healthy action, and with it those glands upon which the growth of the hair depends"

* * *

Somebody has been hoaxing the Church Wardens of Exeter, England A bogus official paper, containing a series of questions, was sent to them, which they were required to fill up and return. The following are some of the questions: "Have you, at the expense of the parish, provided an amice, a ceasuble, an alb, a stole, a masuple, a zucchetto and boretta?" "Are these vestments white—according to a recent recommendation of the Archdeacon—or colored?" "Is the communion table removed, and an altar of stone substituted for it?" "Is there an incense pot?" "Does your priest know when to join his fingers, when to stick his elbows into his sides, when to bow, when to turn north, south, east, west" "Does he burn incense at the proper time?" "If so, how does it smell?" "Does he wash his fingers in the ablutions, as directed, and then swallow them?" "Does he wash the corporal?"

THE

NEW YORK Life Insurance COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '68, $1,612,125 59

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217,63
1865	4,881,919.70	1,223,161 15
1866	6,727,816 65	1,845,896 95
1867	8,771,326 01	2,043,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,758.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its fund, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large number of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10,000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured, amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 5,000
And so on until the tenth annual payment, when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a pure mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured

Local Affairs.

☞ADVERTISERS, READ!—THE ☞CHEYENNE DAILY EVENING ☞LEADER has a bona fide paying ☞Circulation outnumbering any ☞other paper in this Territory

☞ADVERTISEMENTS IN THIS COLUMN, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER LINE, EACH INSERTION

TAKE NOTICE—Dr. Clark, the celebrated dentist, leaves about the middle of this month. All who want work done in his line had better call immediately, at his office, in the old City Hall building, je2-tf

The Union Pacific Railway is about to erect great hotels, ranging in cost from fifteen to fifty thousand dollars, at Cheyenne, Laramie, North Platte and Green River, for the accommodation and comfort of passengers, in the event of being delayed or desiring to rest at any time while making the journey across the plains by this route. These hotels will be fitted up in first class style, and supplied with an abundant commissariat, so as to insure plenty for any number

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY.—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A R Converse, Sixteenth street. m30tf

—The first green peas and cucumbers were in market yesterday

—The Record of Saturday, says.

"Ex-President Buchanan is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Lancaster He is confined to his bed, and his physician allows no one to visit him Owing to his advanced age, it is feared his prostration may terminate fatally"

Considering he was buried on Thursday, the above is an interesting piece of information It might really be called news

THE LAST CHANCE—The Metropolitan Gift Enterprise closes this week. All who want magnificent prizes for ONE DOLLAR will please take notice. je8-tf

—Although the post office business has been closed against the public for to-day, Bob Beers, who has also moved into the new building, is "opener" than ever. He has more goods on his shelves, more and better cigars in the case, more and later papers on his counter, and more customers to buy them. Bob has just received a fine lot of new goods for the occasion of the removal, and they are also open. Those who want any imaginable article in the paper, book, stationery, toilet, smoking, or yankee notion line, should make a requisition on Bob Beers and he will furnish it. Those who imagine they don't want anything should not go or they will certainly see something which will cause them to change their minds and greenbacks

POLICE COURT REPORT—A. B More Presiding.—This morning a number of individuals—eight—were brought before His Honor, and their cases disposed of as follows: Oliver Veo, disturbing the peace, fined $10 and costs. Five individuals received an introduction to Judge More, that cost each a V and costs of case. The next case called was that of Chas. Prescott, charged with creating a nuisance in the city limits by depositing filth and rubbish therein; fine $5 and costs. J. Davidson, same, fine $5 and costs Stevenson, same, same fine. D. W. Williamson, same, same fine. The proprietor of a certain dance house in this city, received a ten-dollar "knock-down" to his favor for discharging fire-arms within the city limits. One of our "oldest citizens" was complained of for creating a disturbance. Plea of guilty interposed, by his proxy, and a fine of $5 and costs imposed.

COURT MARTIAL.—A general Court Martial is ordered at Fort D. A. Russell this week, consisting of Brevet Brigadier General Wessells, Brevet Brigadier General A. Slemmer, commanding Fort Laramie; Brevet Brigadier General L. C. Hunt, from Fort Sedgwick; Col. Perrine, Maj. Morris, Maj. Jackson, Capt. Proctor, Capt. Miller, and Capt. Welles. Judge Advocate, Lt. Col. Merrill.

—The Postoffice was removed to the new building, which has been erected and just completed for Thos. E. McLeland, our postmaster. The new building is a great improvement on the old one in point of size, as well as finish This postoffice, which last fall was established in a candle-box, which held all the letters, very comfortably, is now one of the most important offices west of Chicago, two clerks and the postmaster being required to perform the labors connected with it, which they have done with general satisfaction to both Department and the public. The upper story will be reserved as a hall for concerts, balls, etc. Owing to the removal and the fact that no mail arrives from the east, to-day, the office will not be open till 7 o'clock to-morrow morning, when and from that time, the office and mails will be regulated as per the time-table published in another column

—Remember that the Metropolitan Gift Enterprise closes this week.
je8-tf

A VALUABLE WORK—A pamphlet entitled "Six Months on the Plains," has just been published by Rev. E B Tuttle, Post Chaplain at Fort Russell, and is for sale at the Postoffice building This little work contains a vast amount of really valuable information on the country west of the Missouri, and would be found of considerable service to people in the east who desire to know of the country and contemplate emigrating Send one to your friends; they cost only 25 cents.

MILITARY.—From the following, special from Omaha, we learn that Brev Brig. General H W Wessells, Lieut. Col 18th U S Infantry, arrived from Fort Fetterman at Fort Russell, with the regiment The destination of the 27th, enroute from Fort C. F Smith, is said to be Omaha Brev Brig. General J. H Potter, commanding at Fort Sedgwick, will remove, as we learn, to Fort Sanders, and take charge of that post A new post will be constructed at the Platte, also, by the same genius that planned Fort Russell

MARRIED,

In this city, June 6th, 1868, By Rev. G S. Allen, Mr William M Bamberge to Miss L M. Burgo, all of Cheyenne

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8 It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9 If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. The Last Sensation.

The American nation would undoubtedly pine away, and in a few generations become extinct, without a regular recurrence of public sensations. The Burlingame-Chinese Embassy is the last sensation which has captured the senses of the people If they were delighted with Dickens, they are frantic with joy over the advent of a few opium-consuming, saffron-colored, pig-tailed, moon-eyed Mongolians, whose Emperor is said to be Pater familias of the sun, moon and stars Banquets await them at every way station from San Francisco to New York, the waterfall chignon will give way, in the fashionable world, to the tail, and chop-sticks will supersede knives and forks at fashionable entertainments The American world is in love with China and Chinamen Burlingame, who went as an American Ambassador to China, has been reformed, and converted from the error of his American ways, so that he returns a Chinese Ambassador to America. Another Hannibal at the gates of Carthage, for $55,000 a year Right here is where our admiration gives way, for a moment, to our curiosity; what is the object of his mission? What great diplomatic feat is he to perform for this $15,000? It cannot be that, like Little Tommy, and the other great Japs, they come to give us permission to go to China and purchase what they have for sale. We already do that; the ports of China are open to the world, and surely America has been sufficiently open to Chinamen; there are more than 50,000 of them in California It may be they have come to examine our monitors, or teach us the art of properly cooking tea. Whatever it is, Burlingame refuses to speak, and the Chinamen are unable to. All the dinners in America would be no inducement for the embassy to utter their secret, except in the reliable ear of Washington Mr Burlingame did not dare to partake of the banquet offered him in New York until he had unbosomed himself in Washington. Now the "Specials" will have work to do. The Times will send us word what rumors have been believed and contradicted, to the disappointment of the American public Mr. B.'s valet has been closeted with the reporter of the Herald, and startling disclosures were made by him to the effect that the Chinese government meditated revenge for the barbarous treatment of the Sons of the Celestial Empire in California, and this embassy was sent to spy out our vulnerable points, to estimate our strength, and secretly prepare the way for a sudden attack and total destruction of the United States. In the meantime poor Dickens and Dolby are forgotten. So far as present fame is concerned, they have never visited America. Dickens, in a sensational point of view, is no more. While a few visit Cheyenne and the Black Hills, the masses are throwing themselves at the feet of those devourers of last year's birds' nests, the ambassadors, and praying that they might be—after death, if not before—transformed to Chinamen 'Jenny Lind, Kossuth, the Prince of Wales, the Japs, the Rebellion, the Fenians, Geo. Francis Train, the Crystal Palace, the Atlantic Cable, Laramie City, Brigham Young, the Impeachment, and all other terrestrial affairs, are metaphorically swallowed by Burlingame, ex-Chinese embassy. This cannot last forever; who'll come next?

Three times more passengers arrive at San Francisco than depart by the Panama steamers.

A Profitable Transaction.

Our dispatches yesterday announced that it had been discovered that the Indian Commission appointed to make a treaty with the Osages for the purchase of their reservation in Kansas, had induced that tribe to dispose of their lands for twenty cents per acre, payable in fifteen years. The reservation is a valuable one, consisting of a tract of 800,000 acres, through the centre of which runs the Kansas Pacific Railway These lands, at twenty cents per acre, amount to $160,000 They would readily sell at an average of one dollar per acre, which would amount to $800,000. This sum at five per cent annual interest earns $40 000, which, without compounding, would pay for the land in four years, leaving the $800,000 as a clear gain from no capital except the cost of obtaining an appointment. The lands are really worth more than one dollar per acre, as it is said to be one of the finest tracts in all Kansas, and the government price of the reserved sections through which the Pacific roads pass, is $2 50 per acre. It may be a pleasant thing to be a President, but so far as profit is concerned an appointment as Indian Commissioner is no bad thing to take. Of course this last treaty with the Osages, now that the fraud has been discovered, will not be ratified by the government, and without it no title will hold, but it is a nice job spoiled only by accident

Commercial Colleges.

There is an institution in Sandusky, Ohio, which sets forth, in a circular that a thorough business telegraphic and phonographic education will be furnished in a few months tuition, and that a paying and permanent situation will be furnished all graduates Guaranteeing also the situation to be worth from sixty to one hundred and twenty dollars per month, with a certainty also of obtaining free transportation for a visit to Russia, Cuba, Salt Lake, or San Francisco, or all of them, as the fortunate graduating telegrapher may elect. In fact, the circular holds forth that railroads, express companies, steamboats, hotels, and public amusements are always open and free to the graduates of this benevolent institution Such is the circular. the facts are fully explained in the following letter from the President of the college to the Superintendant of a telegraph line:

THE GREAT SYSTEM OF ACTUAL BUSINESS TRAINING

> OFFICE BUCKEYE BUSINESS, TELEGRAPH, AND PHONOGRAPHIC COLLEGE, SANDUSKY, O., April 27
>
> To ——, Superintendent Telegraph:
>
> DEAR SIR. I have a practical telegraph college here, and have on hand about sixty students that I graduate at receiving twenty-five words per minute, and as you have been highly spoken of to me I think I would like to make arrangements with you to to give or get situations for my graduates I have one young man that is now ready. I will give you $10 for every situation you get for me. I care not whether it is a night or day office, what the salaries are, or if the student is not kept longer than a week, just so it is a situation.
>
> I would like you to take the contract to furnish all of the sixty students employment as soon as they have graduated. I assure you I will not send you a man, unless he is a No. 1 business man as well as a good, sound business operator. I have worked twelve years at telegraphing, and believe I know when a man is fit for a railroad or commercial office.
>
> Hoping to hear from you very soon on this matter, I remain, sir, with much respect, very truly yours,
>
> S. P. HALE, President.

This is one of those institutions that the press can afford to advertise gratuitously.

Total Eclipse.

We saw yesterday, at the San Francisco Bakery, some specimens of quartz that eclipse everything that has heretofore been produced in the Territory. They were from the claim of S. Mitchell, Esq., on the Paymaster lode at the head of St. Louis gulch. One of these specimens weighed six and a half ounces, at least five and a half ounces of it being solid gold It had the appearance of a golden sea fan growing upon and branching out from a small piece of soft quartz rock This beautiful specimen was a portion of the yield from the claim referred to on Friday last, upon which day Mr. Mitchell pounded up and panned out $600 from 275 pounds of rock. In three weeks he alone has, with the simple aid of shovel, pick, mortar and pan, extracted $3,000 from his claims. When first discovered, the Paymaster ledge was but half an inch in width, but it now, at a depth of 15 feet, discloses a 6 to 12 inch crevice of quartz, which is increasing in richness the further down it is traced. If any country in the world can beat this, let it now speak or forever hold its peace. Montana challenges them all.—Montana Post.

MORNING REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Advices from [illegible]ico represent the condition of the interior much demoralized. Crime and violence is everywhere prevalent

The steamer Continental, from Oregon, brings fuller returns of the late elections. The election of Smith (Democrat) to Congress by 750 majority, is conceded; also the Democratic majority in the Legislature.

WASHINGTON June 8.—In the House a large number of bills and resolutions were introduced, after which the resolution offered last Monday by Holman, and which Stevens then moved to table, was taken up, as follows "Resolved, In the judgment of the House, bonds and other securities issued by the United States which are exempt from State and municipal taxation, ought to be taxed for National purposes, in an amount substantially equal to the average tax imposed on the several States for local purposes, in such a manner as may substantially equalize taxation, the tax to be deducted from coupons as they become due, and the Committee on Ways and Means be instructed to report a bill for the purpose above specified Stevens' motion was lost—yeas 10, nays 100. Blaine moved to refer the bill to the Committee on Ways and Means Carried.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—In the Senate, Corbett introduced a bill to authorize the establishment of custom ports on the Pacific coast Referred to the Committee on Commerce

The bill to admit North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana and Florida was taken up.

The question in the amendment of Wilson, to include Alabama, was put. An extended debate followed.

Norton gave notice that when it is in order he will move to insert additional provisions, first making it the duty of the officers commanding the district to allow all officers elected under the new constitutions and not disqualified, to be installed within 120 days after election; and to protect them in the discharge of their duties. Said officers shall be deemed provisional only, and subject to the United States authority until the provisions of this act are complied with Second, providing in case any person be elected to an office who would be disqualified under the constitutions when adopted, the person receiving the highest number of votes shall be entitled to discharge the duties of the office until a new election is held under the provisions of the constitution of the State. During the discussion, the signing of the bill to admit Arkansas was announced by the Chair. It goes to the President for his signature.

The German Sængerfest.

The preparations for the Sixteenth Festival of the First German Sængerbund of North America, to be held in Chicago on the 17th, 18th, 19th 20th, and 21st insts, which are very extensive, and far superior to any that have been made since the Sængerbund was inaugurated, are nearly completed. Last evening a meeting of the Central Committee was held at Uhlich's Hall, on North Clark street President Claussenius occupied the chair.

The several committees reported that the work was being rapidly pushed forward, and would be completed in a few days From the several reports are gathered the following particulars

Two arches, costing $1,000 apiece, are to be erected—one extending across the street in front of the Wabash Avenue Rink, and the other in front of Uhlich's block, on the North Side, On the 17th a reception of the visiting singing societies will take place in the Court House Square. The Rink will be beautifully decorated with flags, evergreens, etc.; the amount to be expended in decorating it being $4,000, several rooms have been rented for the accommodation of the visitors. It is estimated that the arrangements, when everything is completed, will have cost $25,000. As this will be the first festival of the kind ever held in Chicago, our citizens will, no doubt, take a deep interest in all that occurs Several foreign Mænnerchors will be represented, and the chorusses will be rendered by fifteen hundred voices —Chicago Tribune.

A dispute having arisen between some persons in this city relative to the proper pronunciation of the name of our candidate for Vice President, one of them addressed him a letter of inquiry. A portion contended that it was pronouced Colfax, others claiming that it was simply Coalfax The Speaker's reply reads as follows:

> WASHINGTON, May 26.
>
> "My first name is pronounced as if written Skyler, and the last as if written Colfax. The "a" doubtless dropped out in crossing the ocean."—Des Moines Register.

A gold brick valued at $11,050 is on exhibition at the First National Bank in Helena, Montana.

News Gatherings.

It is reported that a newspaper is about to be started at Reno, the new town on the Central Pacific.

The Post and Herald of Helena, M. T., have been badly sold by a bogus poet styling himself Charles King He copied his effusions from "cheap" story papers.

The remains of Stephen A. Douglas have been removed from the grave where they have lain since his death, to the new mausoleum which has been erected for them in Chicago.

An Iowa chap wants to know if the "lay representation" which is making so much fuss and feathers and cackle in the Chicago General Conference will affect the egg market.

Wells, Fargo & Co. compel the editors of Montana to pay their fare when they ride to Fort Benton The editors demand that this "outrage on the traveling public" be remedied at once That's biz.

A junk dealer in Chicago was fined $25 for not keeping a record of his daily transactions. If he doesn't understand book-keeping, and cannot afford to hire it done, he will have to sell out to somebody that can.

The Rio Virgen (Utah) Times says: There is a natural curiosity about six miles from this city. An arch one hundred feet long, fifty feet high, and about fifteen feet thick at the base. One can climb up and go over as on a bridge.

The Commercial Exchange Association of Philadelphia has asked Congress to reduce the tax on whisky to twenty cents, to be collected before the animal is let out of the distillery. The New York Chamber of Commerce wants it fifty cents.

The New York Tribune says of the Presidential election. "Upon the heavy electoral vote of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio depends the result of the contest The Republican party must win, if it carries either. The Democratic party may win if it carries all"

The Montana Post, of the 29th ult. says a party of seven Indians went to the cabin of two men near Lincoln Gulch, and compelled the unfortunate whites to prepare their breakfast After having eaten the breakfast cooked for them, they went out of the cabin and leisurely drove off every hoof of stock about the premises. A party, as soon as possible, went in pursuit, and if the gentle savages are round they will be put out of circulation.

Foundlings.

A "special" from Montreal to an eastern paper says: The report of the General Foundling Hospital, of this city, shows a shocking state of things. The number of children received during the last year was 652, and the number of deaths 519. Of the deaths 36 were under a week, 368 under a month; 583 under one year; 317 under five years; leaving only two deaths among all the foundlings in the establishment between the ages of five and twelve. The report further shows that 424 infants were received only half clothed; 8 were absolutely naked; 18 had not even been washed, and 15 were bleeding for want of the necessary attentions at birth; 46 were tainted with the special disease of infancy; 8 had been wounded by instruments; 7 were more or less frozen, and a large number covered with vermin. One was sent from the United States in a carpet-bag; another at the bottom of a basket; another in a water bucket, two came squeezed and bruised, another strongly nailed up in a box; another with a pin stuck through the flesh. The sufferings of eight infants, as well as their chance of life, had been lessened by doses of opium. It is no wonder, therefore, that three were dead when received, twenty-eight dying, and 157 in actual disease. Most of the remainder perished through the wretched constitution inflicted on them by their parents.

This institution is in charge of the ladies of the Grey Nunnery, and Doctors Larocque and Carpenter, of the Sanitary Association, who promulgate this report, repeat their assertion that the Sisters do their very best to preserve the lives of these unfortunate beings, who have struggled into the world against the will of their natural parents.

An army worm, so fatal to the cotton crops, has appeared already in different and widely separated parts of Louisiana; in the Felicianas, some distance to the east of the Mississippi river, in St. Landry, far west of it, and in Rapides, on Red River. It has also made its appearance on many plantations in Fort Bend county, Texas, and is rapidly destroying the young cotton to such an extent that many persons are plowing up their cotton and planting corn. There are similar reports from Brazoria, Wharton and Polk counties, Texas.

Heavy Blast.

A correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin gives the following description of a blast on the site of the new fort which is being erected at Lime Point, near the entrance of the bay of San Francisco.

The straight face of a rocky hill rising out of the water to the height of about 250 feet; the face of the hill standing, not vertical, but at a slope somewhat steeper than forty-five degrees

Imagine a small tunnel bored straight into this hill about twenty feet above the water. The tunnel goes into the hill a distance of sixty feet; it then turns at right angles and runs parallel to the face of the hill for a like distance of sixty feet. At the end of the tunnel a chamber is excavated and a charge of 4,000 pounds of powder is put into it. The tunnel is then filled up with clay and sand for a distance of forty-five feet, where another chamber had been excavated, which receives a charge of 3,500 pounds of blasting powder. This being in position, and a wire led from each charge through the tunnel to the outside, the whole tunnel was filled up with clay and sand to its mouth

The wires from the mines were led away to a small box called Beardslee's Magneto-Electric machine, which had been placed in a secure position, the object being to fire both charges simultaneously.

Here, then, we have two charges of powder, one of 4,000 pounds, the other of 3,500 pounds, placed forty-five feet apart, and fifty feet from the face of a rocky hill, the hill rising some 250 feet above the powder We are going to explode them at the same instant of time, and see what will happen. It has been our good fortune to have seen much heavy blasting in our lifetime. We have witnessed the construction of the Baltimore and Ohio, and the Hudson River Railroads, many portions of which roads were blasted out of the solid rock, and we have heard the artillery of the Central Pacific Railroad in the Sierra Nevadas; but never before had we seen a blast like the one now to be made The subject had been fully investigated by Colonel Mendell, and the quantity of powder duly proportioned to the work to be done; but still, before the explosion, the whole thing was looked upon as an experimental blast Everything being in readiness, the wires were connected with the little box, the machine set in motion, and the connections made, when lo! the mountains were seen to labor There was no explosion in the popular sense of that term A little smoke and flame was seen to escape through the moving mass of rock, and the whole face of the hill in front of the charges was seen to move outwards, falling down into the sea And then was seen a sight rarely witnessed—a hill without a foundation, giving way and tumbling into the depths below

There was no noise from the powder and not a stone was thrown fifty feet from its position by the force of the explosion, yet the sight was grand, and being unaccompanied by any visible cause, was awful from its very silence. For about half a minute of time the masses of rock above came rolling down the face of the hill, to seek their watery grave below, presenting to the mind such a prolonged period of instability that one involuntarily looked beneath him to see if he too was not in motion When the rock above had broken away to the height of about 175 feet above the water, the motion ceased, being renewed, however, from time to time, for several hours, as still other masses above, finding themselves unsupported, broke away and rolled down into the deep

The result of this experimental blast in an engineering view, was very satisfactory. There was neither too much nor too little powder; the simultaneous explosions of the two charges was effected perfectly, and the work that was intended to be done was perfectly accomplished A visit to the locality yesterday, revealed the fact that about 40,000 cubic yards—say 80,000 tons of rock—had been removed by the blast. Of course all of this was not thrown down into the sea; much of it will have to be yet rolled down by hand. Still, the result was very striking—7,500 lbs. of powder moved 80,000 tons of stone, or more than ten tons per lb. of powder.

The economic view is perhaps more striking. We are informed by Col. Mendell that the cost of the tunnel, powder, tamping, etc, was about $2,000; therefore we have 40,000 cubic yards, or 80,000 tons of stone, moved, that is, shook up and broken to pieces, for $2,000, which gives the cost per cubic yard 5 cents, and per ton 2½ cents.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at [illegible] less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is done its faithfull, and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and [illegible] all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt the best, the most [illegible], consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from [illegible] my25-3m

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.
Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000
Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,125 50.

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement.

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864--	$3,658,755 55--	$1,005,217,63
1865--	4,881,919.70--	1,223,164.15
1866--	6,727,816 05--	1,845,896.95
1867--	8,771,323 01--	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known 'Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy,' in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10,000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,0 0 (amount insured), amounting to $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment, when all is paid

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured

☞ADVERTISEMENTS IN THIS COLUMN, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER LINE, EACH INSERTION

✓—The Union Pacific Railway Company has had an engine—No 100—built at Providence, weighing 72,500 pounds. It is said to be capable of drawing one hundred heavily laden cars. It is now being tested on the Providence & Worcester Railroad.

—Remember that the Metropolitan Gift Enterprise closes this week. jo8-tf

—A stage line has been put on to run three times a week from the end of the track to North Platte.

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY.—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R. Converse, Sixteenth street. m30tf

—An immense amount of railroad ties are cut on the banks of North Platte above the railroad crossing, awaiting high water, to be floated down.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE—Closing out sale of Clothing and men's Boots and Shoes, at less than cost. Also, the lot and buildings thereon occupied by us

G. W. SMITH & Co.,
my18eod-tf cor. Eddy and 18th Sts.

—The stage fare from Cheyenne to Colorado is, to Denver, $15, to Golden City, $18, to Central, $21; to Georgetown, $23

—Some men like to tell an untruth better than to eat. An official stated yesterday that we attempted to induce him to change his mind in a certain case. We did nothing of the sort. We visited his office, at the request of a friend, and upon interrogation by the aforesaid official, answered upon the matter in controversy in a spirit of entire impartiality, and even indifference. Truth is a blessed thing, and if you keep it on your side you may defy the devil, while a contrary course will excite naught but disrespect and pity.

—Remember the Grand FANCY DRESS BALL, next Friday evening, at Giotto Hall. je8-5t

—During their stay this morning, the excursionists made a perfect raid on the jewelers for moss agates, quartz specimens and other native jewelry.

THE LAST CHANCE.—The Metropolitan Gift Enterprise closes this week. All who want magnificent prizes for ONE DOLLAR will please take notice. je8-tf

—It is said Gen. Stephenson goes to North Platte, and Gen. Wessells will take command of Fort Russell.

—Several fishing parties up Crow and Pole creeks, are talked of in town. It is said fine trout abound in Pole Creek.

—The Chicago excursionists returned from the end of the track at about half-past five this morning, and started for home at about seven.

✓—There are a number of fine looking gardens on the creek south of the deep cut, about six miles east of the city. Potatoes, peas and tomatoes are looking well, and thus far irrigation has not been necessary, although ditches have been dug from the creek so that water may be carried on the ground if required.

✓—The Fort Fetterman outfit is expected here this evening.

—A file of half a dozen soldiers with muskets have been going around town for the last two days looking as though they had lost something.

—We are prepared to execute in as fine style as can be done anywhere outside of Chicago, every kind of commercial printing, and in order to do away with the necessity of our business men sending their work east, we have determined to do it for them at such rates as will cover merely eastern printers' charges and expressage. No argument, on the score of cheapness can therefore stand in the way of keeping your work and money at home, and we hope to receive the hearty encouragement of every citizen having printing to be done. We acknowledge no superiors here in the style and excellence of printing, and now defy competition in price! Remember the cheapest place!

—Sam Ryan, noted in this city as being one of the finest banjo players in the country, proposes visiting Denver in a few weeks. He will instruct pupils in banjo playing, at a moderate price. 1t

✓—The window frames and other minor portions of the Episcopal Church are being made here by S. M. Preshaw. The lumber for the building is expected now daily.

—A train which went west this afternoon, required two six-driver engines to haul it.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.—"Minnie A."—No, we would not advise you to act immediately upon so grave and important a matter as marriage. Your age, fifteen, is quite young, and then in this new country a few weeks' acquaintance with the gentleman you admire can not have revealed to you sufficiently his true character. If he is importunate, be cautious of him, and the sequel may show you that you did well in making haste slowly.

"Saloon Keeper"—We are aware of no method by which you can collect your debt. Whisky bills are some like doctor bills—hard to get. Unless you require "pay upon delivery," your present custom will eventuate in a forced removal to North Platte, or some other spot where water is plentier.

"Attorney" says he is lonesome, and thinks we must be so, because we are sailing in the same stream with him. The inference is perhaps excusable, but we sail in a more sea worthy craft than he, and fair weather and propitious breezes waft us pleasantly along in the journey, whereas his vessel is wretched and used up with age, being something after the style of a Chinese junk in appearance, imperfectly put together, leaky at the seams, and sure to swamp in the first eddy of the stream. No wonder he is lonesome and broken in spirit. We have naught to comfort thee with, brother, and can only tender a hurried, long farewell!

"Actor," we have received a letter from a representative of histrionic art, inquiring as to the probabilities of a theatre paying here. We can only answer that we think a good one might be a success, provided, they pay the printer. Several "affidavits," calling themselves theatres, have tried, but failed, all because they forgot their duty to the printers. Forewarned is forearmed, so you may venture

Mr Wallace, of the firm of Wallace & Wilson, or the other of the twain, says the Sacramento Reporter of the 19th, favored us yesterday with a public exhibition of their conquest in the matter of training horses. He drove, through the city, a horse attached to a buggy by simply a girth connecting with the fills. He was driven without lines, being guided simply by a touch of the whip, which is applied gently or emphatically as circumstances require.

Joseph A. Rowe, a well known and veteran circus manager, who has been in reduced circumstances for some time, and lately filled the position of a supernumerary in connection with Stickney's Circus, has had an almost overpowering "streak of luck" come across him. The recent demise of his father has put him in possession of a fortune of $150,000. Before he had fairly got braced to bear this great pecuniary burden, he received intelligence that an interest held by him in an eastern circus for a long time, had grown in value until it was worth $50,000. This last piece of information capsized poor Joe. He went and "exhilliated" himself, and somebody, envious of his overflowing happiness, complimented him with a black eye. The instance serves to illustrate that a man may be overturned with good luck as well as bad. Just now Joe's ambition is to invest his teeming thousands in the getting up of the "all-firedist, biggest arenic show that ever canvas was stretched over.—S. F. Dramatic Chronicle.

City Marshal's Notice!

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the City, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. Territorial Organization.

Hon J. S Casement, the Delegate from the proposed Territory of Wyoming, came down from the end of the track this morning Upon invitation the General met, at Messrs. Whitehead & Corlett's office, with a quite a large number of the leading citizens who were desirous to ascertain from Mr Casement his views as to the best means which might aid in securing an immediate organization of our Territory by Congress, as well as in regard to minor measures necessary to secure relief, at all events, in the matter of courts, representation in legislative council, etc

Mr. Casement favored those present with an extended statement of his views upon the "situation," explaining minutely the reasons that were urged, both for and against the measure.

The meeting then resolved itself into a formal session, and upon motion it was determined to appoint a suitable person to visit Washington and urge the vital matter of organization of our Territory upon the attention of Congress at once. Dr. H. Latham was made the unanimous choice of the meeting, to represent us in Washington, and a committee consisting of Messrs. Whitehead, Baker, Henry, Hamilton and Campbell were appointed to prepare the necessary information relative to population, resources, and trade, together with an exhibit of the peculiar and urgent necessities which constitute the cause for demanding a change in our condition. The committee were empowered to solicit pecuniary aid towards defraying the expenses of a delegate, and we hope our business men will cheerfully assist in this matter of securing a separate organization for ourselves, to the end that we may become something more than mere satellites to that colony of settlers, huddled together away down there at Yancton.

A more energetic worker, and a person carrying greater influence than Dr. Latham, could not have been selected for this mission, and, as it will be unjust to ask the Dr. to bear the entire burden of the expenses of the same, we hope our business men will respond cheerfully to the solicitations of the committee. They will call at the principal business places of the city to morrow.

A WALLA WALLA SHARPER.—We have often heard of bilks, but seldom hear of a real genuine bilker. As they are rather scarce, we devote this space in order that our hero may not be inconvenienced in the future to make his real profession known The circumstances are related to us as follows: A man by the name of G. G Richardson, being rather unsuccessful financially in Walla Walla, concluded to flood the Idaho market with bacon, and immediately purchased, on credit, and shipped a large quantity to Boise City. As soon as it arrived here, he disposed of it for from ten to fifteen cents per pound, pocketed the chink, and took boot passage in the Overland coach, assuming the name of Wm. Wilkinson. Parties in Walla Walla hold his promise to pay for from ten to fifteen thousand dollars. Some of the stock is in the Boise market for sale cheap for cash Richardson alias Wilkinson is perhaps at Salt Lake or on the road to Sweetwater. Will our cotemporaries pass him around, and check him in his wild career.—Idaho Statesman.

The Deseret News says the first ship load of Mormon emigrants was to have left Liverpool on the 4th inst. ——Smith & Young have a contract for grading in Echo Canyon.

A fearful wind storm "went through" Saint Joseph, of Missouri, on the 4th inst. The Herald has a column and a half of houses unroofed and other casualties resulting from it.

Road Agents.

The Idaho Statesman of the 30th ult., received from Mr. Mullany, one of the passengers who was on the coach at the time, gives an account of the late robbery of one of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s stages between Port Neuf and Snake River, on the road from Montana to Salt Lake. As the stage was crossing Dry Creek three masked road agents, with shot-guns and Henry rifles leveled at the driver, brought the team to a halt They then ordered the driver to deliver the treasure-box He threw out the Virginia box which contained about $1,000. Having rescued this, they commanded Mr Abraham Polak, the only other passenger with Mullany, to deliver, which he did to the amount of $850 Mr Mullany was also told to "come out," but he assured them he had n't a cent, and he stuck to the denial until they believed it and let him go He had at the time $300 in greenbacks. It is doubtful if he could be made to believe that honesty was the best policy in his case. The Helena treasure-box, containing about $10,000, was in the boot at the time, but the robbers were apparently new hands at the business, as they were satisfied with the Virginia box, which contained only one-tenth the value of the other Mr Polak had been trading in the mines, and was on his way to Chicago with his money. These are supposed to be the same robbers who murdered Mr. Welch, last fall, while he was traveling from Salmon river to Boise. Six mounted men started from the next station in pursuit of the highwaymen, a few hours after the forcing of the loan

From Sweetwater.

The Mines of the 3rd says. The first birth chronicled in Sweetwater was on the 31st ult.——The Wyoming Ditch Company, after a four days' run cleaned up twenty-four ounces of dust.——Wells, Fargo & Co. will put on a line of coaches from South Pass City, connecting with the main line at Point of Rocks Station (on Bitter Creek).——Geo. Dixon, formerly in the post office in this city, has opened a store in South Pass ——Mining prospects are improving

Green River City. ✓

A new city has been laid out on Green river, and as a result of a "little on-pleasantness" a new cemetery has also been commenced, by two graves near the same place. Of the new city and its surroundings, the Sweetwater Mines of the 3rd says:

The city of Green River is laid out about a mile above the stage crossing, where the railroad will cross Green river; a city company has been formed with H. M. Hook, Esq., formerly Mayor of Cheyenne, and now one of its leading business men, as President, and Frank B Gilbert, Esq, formerly of the firm of Gilbert & Sons, Salt Lake City, as Secretary. The greater number of share-holders in the company are railroad, stage men, &c.—men who have been long looking forward to this point, as one where the Territories of Utah, Idaho and Montana would have to look for their supplies the coming season. Heavy grading will have to be done near the city, at an estimated cost of $400 00) The town site is said to be very pleasantly situated, and right in this vicinity some of the heaviest grading will have to be done, and some of the deepest cuts will have to be made, on the whole route. There are three gangs, comprising about four hundred men, now at work on the road, at and near the city, and some six hundred are engaged in getting out lumber, ties and building material. The timber for forty miles up the river, is claimed by right of pre-emption.

Indian Difficulty.

[From the St. Paul Press]

A correspondent from Brunswick, Kennebec county, Minnesota, sends us the details of a scrimmage, on the 10th, at Mud Lake, between one Thos. Kirby and two Chippewa squaws who appeared at a lumber camp in the sole charge of Kirby, in the usual condition of clamorous hunger. At this point we give way to the narrator:

"Kirby tried to put them out of the camp, but in the scuffle threw one of them on the stove. They then procured clubs and were about to attack him again, when he seized a gun and drove them away. They went away declaring that he would be killed that night. Kirby watched until nearly dark before he saw anything suspicious, and was about supper, when he discovered an Indian behind a tree, and from his motions judged that this Indian was about to fire upon him. He sprang into the tent for his gun just as the Indian fired, and the shot rattled around lively. He seized his gun, returned the shot, threw down his gun, and ran for Brunswick, where he arrived about ten o'clock the same evening."

The New Orleans Picayune editorially advocates a general amnesty proclamation, and urges President Johnson to issue one at once.

MORNING REPORT.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—House.—During the reading of the journal the Chinese Embassy was announced and escorted in and introduced to the Speaker, who made an appropriate welcoming speech. Minister Burlingame responded, after which they were introduced to the individual members of the House. Several Senators were present.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The Herald prints a private letter from Judge Chase, in which he says he wasn't a partizan on either side of the impeachment. He neither expects nor desires to be a candidate for the office again. It would, however, gratify him if the Democratic party would take the ground against all attempts to subvert the principles of universal suffrage.

The St Louis Democrat learns from a responsible source that the recent treaty with the Osage Indians by which 8,000,000 of land were ceded to the Leavenworth, Lawrence & Galveston Railroad Company, for twenty-five cents per acre, meets with government disfavor. Other perfectly responsible parties had made more favorable propositions which were refused by the Commissioners

The Greek government has recognized Crete as part of the Greek nation, which will probably lead to war between Turkey and Greece

WASHINGTON, June 9—Senate—The amendment to admit Alabama was agreed to by 22 to 21.

House.—Beaman, of the Committee on Reconstruction, reported, by bill, in favor of making two additional States out of the territory of the State of Texas Ordered printed and recommitted. Paine, from the same committee, reported back the bill to provide for the inauguration of State officers in Arkansas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana, and for the meeting of the Legislatures. Passed by a party vote of 113 to 31.

Butler, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the Senate amendment to the House bill for relief of the Navajo Indians, and moved that the bill and amendments be tabled. The motion prevailed.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to enquire whether the action of the Mexican government, in establishing free ports at Matamoras and other points, on the Rio Grande, was not a violation of the commercial rights of this country.

Griswold presented a petition signed by sixty officers of the leading railroad companies, in favor of extending the subsidy to the U P. R R, E D

The House then went into the consideration of the tax bill.

NEW HAVEN, June 9—The Democratic State Convention elected delegates to the National Convention, and instructed them to vote as a unit, unless equally divided.

PROVIDENCE, June 9.—Wm. S. Sprague was to-day re-elected U. S. Senator without opposition.

WATERFORD, June 6.—By the explosion of a boiler in the Lymburner steam saw mill, yesterday, one person was killed.

NEW YORK, June 9—J. Ross Browne, Minister to China, sailed to-day for California.

The steamship Nevada, hence for Vera Cruz, was wrecked off Hatteras. All except one were saved The vessel was valued at $400,000, and the cargo as much more—both insured.

PARIS, June 9.—Baron Stakelberg, the new Russian Minister, had a formal reception at Court yesterday.

LONDON, June 9.—In the Commons to-night enquiries were made by government concerning measures for opening the territory of British North America for settlement. Adderly, under Secretary of the Colonial Department, explained that without negotiations first with the Hudson Bay Company, no steps could be taken by government in that direction.

Afternoon Report.

BOSTON, June 10.—A project is on foot here to give a complimentary dinner to Senator Fessenden, for the purpose of endorsing his integrity, independence and purity as a statesman. Governor Bullock will preside. Ex-Governor Washburne, President Hill, of Harvard College, James Russell Lowell, and other distinguished gentlemen will participate.

Gen. Meade is to be in Washington to-day, having been summoned to consult with Grant in regard to the inauguration of State affairs in the States of his district

Another special states that a host of whisky men, principally from New York and the West, arrived in anticipation of legislation on the tax-bill relating to whisky.

Wyoming. ✓

The discussion in the Senate on the 3rd instant on the bill to provide a temporary government for the territory of Wyoming seemed more on the selection of a name than any other question. The report of the Senate's proceedings says:

"Mr. Sumner suggested the propriety of adhering to the usage of adopting Indian names for new Territories, as being more beautiful,

Mr. Yates said that the choice of the name of Lincoln had been unanimously made by the committee, because of the great services and the circumstances attending the death of President Lincoln

Mr Sherman suggested 'Cheyenne,' the name of a tribe of Indians in that vicinity.

Mr. Yates agreed that that would be more popular in the Territory.

Messrs Pomeroy and Morton opposed calling the Territory by the name of any individual, as establishing a bad precedent, the latter favored "Wyoming" as a pretty name, saying that Cheyenne, the first syllable pronounced "Shy" was one of those words that would never sound dignified.

In the course of the discussion, it was stated by Mr. Sherman that the word Cheyenne signified 'Prairie-dog.'

Mr. Yates called attention to the fact that the term Chicago had been very well received, though, signifying an animal too odious to be named here.

Mr Corbett objected to Cheyenne, as being liable to be called "Cayenne."

Mr. Saulsbury said that as there seemed to be some doubt about it, he thought it would be well to call it 'ad interim.' [Laughter.]

Mr Conkling held that the name Wyoming is peculiarly appropriate to this extensive country, signifying a large or wide plain.

Mr. Yates moved to strike out the word Lincoln, and insert Cheyenne.

After some further debate on the subject, both amendments were withdrawd. The bill, which was an elaborate one, was then considered in detail and amended.

Mr Hendricks moved to strike out a provision, making the Governor of the Territory, Superintendent of Indian affairs, ex officio He said Governors of Territories invariably sought the favor of the white man for political preferment, and the poor Indians frequently suffered in consequence.

Mr. Stewart said he would support the amendment, and hoped the Senator would go for turning the Indians over to the control of the War Department, and for withdrawing the soldiers from the Indian country, leaving some good army officers there with power to call out volunteers, if necessary.

Mr. Morton characterized the present management of Indian affairs as a bloody and costly failure, and advocated the transfer to the War Department, so as to relieve them from the control of men whose only object was to make money, and who generally succeeded in doing so.

Mr. Cole referred to the Chivington massacre to show the unfitness of the War Department for the trust.

Mr. Howard opposed the amendment, as making too radical a change in a system that has existed since the formation of the Government, and has, on the whole, worked well

Mr. Yates opposed it also, on the goound that to put Indian affairs in the hands of a separate superintendent would be to produce antagonism.

The amendment was rejected, and the bill passed."

It would seem that Saulsbury and Yates were both in the debate. Yates has reformed, and therefore there is nothing surprising in his appearance, but how Saulsbury managed to get to his feet to make the little joke, is one of those mysteries in which Congress occasionally delights. How did Saulsbury know what they were talking about? Perhaps he was only thinking of the uncertainty of his own condition, which reminded him of ad interim affairs. The name for the Territory seems to have been a serious question, and the only wonder is that it did not defeat the bill entirely. Indian affairs receive a little attention, to be sure, but how that question may be settled in Congress is of little consequence, as there is but one way to settle it on the plains, and that plan will some day be adopted, but not until a few thousand more whites have been sacrificed to establish the fact that the Indian must be whipped before he can be civilized.

A man was fined $25 in San Francisco, the other day, for talking to a juror in behalf of his friend who was charged with forgery.

—The rumor prevalent on our streets to-day to the effect that Brigham Young was dead, doubtless is incorrect. No news of the occurrence has been received at the telegraph office here. What rumor will some chap start next? just to see it go.

The Salt Lake Reporter says twenty wagons of emigrants from Grand Ronde Valley, Oregon, are on their way east.

A Democratic paper says "one reason why Grant and Colfax won't run well in the east, is because they are both from States—Indiana and Illinois—west of the Mississippi river!" That's all right.

THE RAILROAD.—We met Bishop Sharp to-day in from Weber Canyon to procure stores and supplies for the men engaged by Sharp & Young on the railroad. He informed us that no point had been determined upon when he left, for commencing the work on the line, although the lines have been run on both sides of the river to get up to Devil's Gate; and his men had commenced to make a road around the slide at the mouth, praparatory to building the foundation of the railroad in the river. He expected that by the time he got back this evening to where the men have been at work, the point will be determined for commencing the railroad there, and the men will start work on it to-morrow morning. Sharp & Young will hire men as fast as they can get tools for them. They have sixty hands at work now, who have been occupied since Monday morning as described.—Deseret News, 3d inst.

Terrible Mining Accident—A Miner Decapitated.

[From the Virginia (Nev.) Trespass, 25th ult.]

Last night at 8 o'clock one of the most horrible mining accidents it has ever been our duty to chronicle occurr d at the new shaft of the Hale & Norcross mine, and by which a miner named John Russell, a native of Nova Scotia, met with instant death. We paid a visit to the mine this morning and gather the following particulars from gentlemen who were present when the accident occurred. The workmen were employed at the third station—a distance of 815 feet from the surface—substituting new station timbers for the one used temporarily in opening out at that level. The ground at that point is very heavy, and while some of the timbers were being moved, commenced to cave from the outside towards the shaft Each man tried to take care of himself, and Russell, together with a fellow miner named McCarty, jumped upon the cage which was hanging in the shaft at that point. Some one told them to get off or they would be hurt, but Russell, instead of getting off, climbed up the cage and thence to the top of the guide, of which he got astride, facing the timbers at the north of the shaft, then he spoke to McCarty, who remained below, and told him to "ring up" and they would "get out of there." [The guide on which he climbed is used in sinking so as to direct the cage in the proper place before the timbers are set. It is of wood and the cross-piece at the top is about fifteen inches in width and a distance of twelve feet above the top of the cage.] McCarty did as directed, gave the signal, and the cage started up the shaft, Russell saying he was "all right" When the cage came within four sets of timbers of the second station, Russell cried out, "stop!" An instant after the cage came in sight of the station man, who was horrified at seeing the headless body of Russell astride the cross-piece of the cage-guide, his hands clutching the timber and the blood spouting from the body Instantly he stopped the cage. An examination was made, and it was found that the pantaloons and drawers of the unfortunate man were caught between the cage-guide and the guides in the shaft, his pants partially torn off, and one of his boots almost drawn from his foot. The cage was hoisted a few feet further and the body disengaged by cutting the timbers of the shaft, the hands were unclasped from the guide timber, and the body taken into the second station and then transferred to the cage in the next compartment and raised to the surface. The manner of the accident is explained easily from the position in which the body was found. Russell, in coming up, by some means got his clothing entangled in the guide; he cried out "Stop!" and at the same time stooped forward to relinquish his leg from the guide. In stooping he extended his head so far that the cross-beam struck him, and instantly severed the head from the body, which, so suddenly bereft of life, was held in the place where found, by the convulsive grasp of the hands to the guide. A subsequent examination of the timbers of the shaft showed the beam which caught his head, and which was smeared with blood and matted hair, while on the set below was found scattered fragments of the brains of the unfortunate man. Mr. McCarty, who was below on the cage, was drenched with blood, which at the time he supposed to be water dripping from the shaft. The guide and the cage in the other compartment, as well as the timbers, were also covered with blood. Immediate search for the head was made, but it could not be found. Doubtless it was crushed in pieces and fell to the bottom of the shaft, and was covered with the falling earth, several tons of which afterwards became detached and went to the bottom. In all probability it will never be recovered, except as an occasional remnant may be dug out during future excavations. The deceased had been at work in the mine for about six months, and bore an excellent reputation as a faithful workman and genial companion. He was twenty-five years of age, and leaves a wife in his native place The accident, although one of the most terrible in the already sanguinary list of this country, was the result of his own unfortunate carelesness.

Ware rooms, 348 Bleecker street, N. Y. City.
32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the BEST manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.
They are, without doubt, the best the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from $90 to $500,00 my23-3m

DOUBLE IRON FRAME,
MONITOR PLATE,
PIANO FORTES.
A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE.
(Patented February 20th 1866)
WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.
Warerooms, 452 Broome St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.
These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $2,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,125 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement.

	Assets.	Increase of assets over previous year
1864 - -	$3,658,755 55 - -	$1,005,217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919.70 - -	1,223,164 15
1866 - -	6,727,816 65 - -	1,845,896 95
1867 - -	8,771,326.01 - -	2,043,509 36
Total increase.		$6,120,788 69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10,000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to . . . $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to . . . 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . . 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . . 5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment, when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured

ARSON.—Last evening, a little after nine o'clock, a building near the crossing of Crow Creek, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, was discovered to be on fire, and in spite of the endeavors of the Hook-and-Ladder companies it was soon in ashes. It was originally known as Bartholomew's planing mill, but latterly had been used as a stable A dwelling stood about fifty yards off, but owing to the fact there was no wind, it was saved by the exertions of the fire department and other citizens The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. The loss was comparatively small

—Remember the Grand FANCY DRESS BALL, next Friday evening, at Grotto Hall. je8-5t

—A wash-woman attacked a full-grown man yesterday, near the upper end of Main street, with a hoe, because he failed to pay his wash bill She proposed to give him a hoeing down.—Col Register.

What mining community would that remind you of, Mr. Register? Give it up? Why, a Wash-ho settlement, of course Don't you see? No cards.

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY.—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A R. Converse, Sixteenth street m30tf

—Editors in nearly all the eastern cities are constantly receiving complimentary invitations to strawberry festivals given by the ladies Wouldn't a few strawberry festivals be of advantage to Cheyenne.

—Yesterday's Index says two men at Wyoming station, named Peter Reed and Henry Nables, decided to fight a duel on Saturday evening last, to settle a dispute; each fired four rounds in quick succession, when Nables dropped dead, being shot three times.

—We desire to direct the attention of business men to the advertisement of The New York Life Insurance Co in another column. Quarter of a century of age and ten millions of capital safely invested, are sufficient guarantees of its stability. We learn that Col. Hawes, general agent of the Co., will leave for Colorado, in a few days, leaving Maj. R. C. Miller to represent its interests in Cheyenne. There is no better, safer or more solid company than the old New York Life.

—The U. P. R. R. government Commissioners will receive another section of the road on Saturday next.

A GOLD CHAIN FOUND at the Jewelry store of Joslin & Park, proves to have been manufactured from native gold for a citizen of Cheyenne. Those who want domestic or imported jewelry should give Joslin & Park a call. je10-1t

—Thomas Mathews, who was drowned in North Platte, had a brother in Salt Lake named Richard Mathews.

—A cow which was run over and had a leg amputated by a gravel train, in April last, lingered until about two weeks ago, when she died, between the depot and engine house, where she has since lain. It is a nuisance, within the city and the jurisdiction of municipal officers. This is a fine case, as somebody should find.

FREE LUNCH from 11 a. m. till 2 p. m., and from 9 till 12 o'clock every night, at the Eagle Saloon, on Sixteenth street. Bass's english ale constantly on hand. je10-wfs

THE CHICAGO EXCURSIONISTS made a heavy draw on John Kupfer for Moss Agates and other Jewelry but [illegible] cheap.

[illegible] Perry or Antelope, as before reported. We are prepared for another change of name for that new "city" whenever it may be deemed necessary. The stage time from Denver to Monument is forty-two hours.

The Denver News of the 8th says: Two men named Morgan, living on Clear Creek, returned from Salt Lake a day or two ago, and report that Jim Baker, the well known mountaineer, was killed in the Sweetwater country a short time since by the Snake Indians.

THE

NEW YORK Life Insurance COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9 000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217,63
1865	4,881,919,70	1,223,164 15
1866	6,727,816.65	1 845,896 95
1867	8,771,326 01	2,046,509.36
Total increase		$6,120,788.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to . . . 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . . 5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment, when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

Chief Justice Chase and the Democratic Nomination.

[Washington Correspondence (June 2,) of the New York Herald

The Chief Justice frankly admits that the Radical party and himself differ widely in their views; and as parties are now organized he is for the Democratic party. He differs from them upon only one point—that of universal manhood suffrage. He is agreed with them on all other of the great issues Incidentally he remarked if he were elected by that party to the Presidency, while he would certainly carry out their policy faithfully, he would labor to make the party one of permanent usefulness, upon the broad ground of nationality and material progress

In the opinion of the Chief Justice the deplorable condition of the Southern States demands not only the proper consideration of Congress, but also material aid from the general government The war has been ended for three years, and those States should be in practical relations with the government There is no constitutional authority to hold them in subjugation and if there were, it would be alike unwise and unjust He favored the enfranchisement of every white man in the South, and removing the political disabilities of every man in the nation He thinks freedom and manhood suffrage should be an unquestioned right, but he controverts the idea that any other power than the States themselves can confer it He holds that the general government has no control over the question, and that the power rests in the States, where alone it should reside

The Chief Justice would remove the political disabilities imposed on the people of the South by the fourteenth amendment But as those States, as organized, will undoubtedly ratify it, he proposes a general amnesty as a mode of relief, and also as an act which would tend towards the reconciliation of the two sections. Furthermore he regards this as absolutely necessary, as the provisions of that amendment exclude thousands from office, both under the government and the States, and this will lead to complications which should be avoided

Mr. Chase urges that the most liberal aid should be extended to the South in improving their railroad system and also their navagable rivers He thinks aid should be given to repair the levees on the Mississippi, build new ones wherever they are required, even from Cairo to the Gulf That the millions of acres of land which would be reclaimed in the Valley of the Mississippi by a judicious levee system, would quadruple the producing power of that section, and add correspondingly to the wealth and prosperity of the country.

Mr Chase strenuously urges the early return to specie payments He believes it could be done without damage to any interests, and in a comparatively short period of time; it would not matter whether the bonds were paid in greenbacks or gold, as the public credit would be re-established and greenbacks be worth par value.

Is it Justice?

[Communicated]

ED. LEADER:—Are our executive city officials in with the police, or the police in with the Mayor, ad interim? It appears that the police may arrest a man upon any pretext,—they having discretionary power to arrest without warrant—and let the defence be what it may, it is "tin dollars and costs." A friend of mine attempted to dump a load of manure a few feet inside the city limits, being perfectly ignorant of the location of the city limits, or of a law to prevent such dumping. When the load was half off, an M. P. took my friend under arrest, and despite the proposition to reload the manure, he was marched off to "Lock-up," and, next morning, five dollars and costs allowed him to go his way rejoicing, and try to make an honest living, whilst our worthy city officials adjourned to the nearest whisky mill, to spend the honest earnings of that friend. I ask, in all candor, if that is justice. COMMON SENSE.

Afternoon Report.

NEW ORLEANS, June 10.—Mayor Heath refused to surrender his office to-day to Conway, claiming his appointment was confirmed by Congress, and declining to recognize Gen Buchanan's authority to remove him. He was subsequently arrested, but was released on giving up the keys. Considerable excitement prevails

BERLIN, June 10.—The North German Confederation propose to the Great Powers of Europe and America the adoption of an international guarantee of absolute security from the seizure of private property on the high seas, in time of war

The Prussian government is about to commence work for the extensive strengthening of the fortifications of Cologne.

VIENNA, June 10.—Reichsrath has adopted a bill providing for the sale of the State domains.

WASHINGTON, June 10—The Chinese embassy, accompanied by Secretaries Seward and McCulloch, visited Mt. Vernon to-day.

The Evening Star says information has been received that the Prussian Government is endeavoring to obtain a post or naval station in the Caribbean sea and had sent the sloop of war Augusta on a reconnoisance The port of Timon, Costa Rica, was selected. The Costa Rica Government, however, refused to accede, and made pointed allusions to the Monroe Doctrine. The result of the affair is considered in diplomatic circles as decidedly complimentary to Seward's diplomacy.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—A bill has passed authorizing the Post Master General to contract with an American steamship company to carry the mails to Europe.

The House then went into the consideration of the tax bill. The paragraph imposing special tax on cotton brokers, and the paragraph relating to proprietors of bowling alleys and billiard rooms, were amended by making the tax twenty-five dollars instead of ten. The paragraph relating to jewelers is amended by including in the description, persons who manufacture goods or wares of gold or silver, and the paragraph relating to manufactures of gold and silver are stricken out. The paragraph relating to warehouses was amended so as to read, proprietors of U. S. bonded warehouses for the storage of articles in bond. Several verbal amendments were made to the paragraph relating to dealers in leaf tobacco On motion of Washburn, of Massachusetts, the first sentence of that paragraph was so amended as to read, dealers in leaf tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed $1,000 shall each pay twenty-five dollars, and if the annual sales exceed $1,000, for every additional $1,000 in excess they shall pay $2 Several amendments to the paragraph relating to cigar makers, were rejected. Finally, a substitute was agreed to, imposing a penalty on a manufacturer who employs unregistered cigar makers. The first sentence of the last paragraph in relation to manufacturers not otherwise charged, was amended to read Manufacturers whose annual sales do not exceed $5,000 shall each pay $10, and if no specific or stamp tax is imposed on their products they shall pay in addition $2 for each $1,000 in excess of $5,000, provided no person shall be regarded as manufacturer, who simply makes butter, cheese, or either of them, for their own consumption, or for market.

Sailed in the steamship Henry Chauncey for Aspinwall, New Zealand and Cuba, June 9th, '68, for California and China, Hon. J. Ross Browne, wife and two daughters, G. R. Wilson, P. Saunders and wife, C. S Curtiss and wife, A. T. Bird, W. H. Cloudman and others

It is stated on good authority that the majority of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs are in favor of recommending an immediate appropriation for the payment of Alaska.

It is understood the President has tendered the office of Secretary of the Treasury to W. S. Groesbeck.

Feudalism in America—A Curious History.

From the Newark Advertiser of the 20th ult:

Stephen Van Rensselaer, the Patroon of Albany, died yesterday in that city, in the 80th year of his age. His death is interesting, principally because he, with his estate, was one of the last vestiges of feudalism, and of the old relation of lord and vassal, in the United States.

In 1630, and subsequently, Kiliaen Van Rensselaer purchased land in the immediate vicinity of Fort Orange, now Albany, forming a tract of twenty-four miles in breadth by forty-eight in length. This estate was ceded upon the old conditions of the feudal tenure Its lord and master was known as a Patroon, was entailed upon the successive oldest sons and nearest of kin. The system of tenantry was that which prevailed over Europe at the time, and which still exists on the "Manor of Rensselaes wyck."

The tenant was almost a vassal, belonging to the soil His lease ran, in some cases, "while trees grow and waters run;" in others for ninety-nine years; and in others still for two or three lives. The rent was not to be paid in money, but in tribute Each year the tenant was to deliver at the mills of the Patroon as many bushels of wheat, etc., and at his kitchen door, hat in hand, as many chickens and eggs, and as much of each of the various kinds of farm produce. At the time the terms were liberal, and even generous. The tenants knew no other mode of life The Lord of the Manor was the object of their highest veneration, and a happier, more stupid set of people never lived than those who dwelt upon the Manor of Rensselaer wyck The happiness has long since departed. The stupidity in part remains Yet there was never any unkindness on the part of the Patroon. He was moderate in hard times, and in all money matters; but exacted a subservience and homage of demeanor which, however suited to colonial times, became decidedly unfashionable after the era of the American Republic. Men who vote expect that office holders shall take off their hats.

However, the estate went on. The courts sustained the leases, and no serious trouble occurred until twenty-five or thirty years ago, when the tenants found themselves discontented. The old formalities had died out with the advancing democracy of the age, but the manner of paying the rent was troublesome and childish. Even when this was to a large extent compromised, tenants insisted that the land, on which they and their ancesters had lived for two centuries, belonged to them by right of long holding; that the whole tenure of the Patroon was unrepublican, unsuited to the age, a vestige of feudality, and a general nuisance which ought to be removed. The cry of "Down with the rent" was raised Tenants refused to pay in any shape. Sheriffs who went out to levy upon property to enforce the collection of the Patroon's legal claims, came back with fewer clothes and more tar and feathers than they had when they started. Now and then an officer was killed, yet all the time the Patroon was legally right. Finally, a Mr. Philip Church, from Alleghany county, New York, came upon the scene. Through him a reconciliation was effected; just how, we do not know, but we imagine that he framed the entire estate, and made generous concessions to the tenants. So the Manor of Rensselaerwyck was saved, and the "anti-rent war" was ended.

Of the succession of Patroons, Stephen, who died yesterday, was the sixth in lineal descent. Up to the Revolutionary War none of the Van Rensselaers seem to have been conspicuous, aside from their wealth and dignity. In that crisis of the nation, Stephen, the fifth (and father of him who died yesterday), was too young to take a part. He was a student at Princeton, and was removed thence to Harvard, on account of the proximity of the British army, a fact which shows the republican sentiment of the family. After the Revolutionary War he served in many offices, was one of the fathers of the Erie Canal, served with gallantry in the war of 1812, endowed the Rensselaer Institute, and died, as even rich men must, in 1839, at the age of seventy-five.

His successor, the subject of this sketch, had enough on his hands to manage his refractory tenants, who were just then getting troublesome, without taking any part in public affairs. His death has no especial moral, but his estate and—as the prayer-book says—his "condition in life" are an anomaly in our political institutions worthy of some remark. His warfare of life was the "Anti Rent War;" his only enemies were the "Indians," as the disguised anti-renters were called. Requiescat in pace.

Gallant Indian Fight in Surprise Valley.

[We gratefully acknowledge the kindness of Col. Sherburne, A. A. G. Department of California, who furnishes the following details of a gallant action, which lasted four hours, fought in Surprise Valley, on the 7th of May, between United States troops and a band of hostile Indians.]

HEADQ'RS CAMP BIDWELL, CAL.,
SURPRISE VALLEY, May 15.

Col. John P. Sherburne, A. A. G., Headquarters Department of California—Sir: I have the honor to report that I left camp on the 28th of April, with Lieut. DeLany and thirty-one enlisted men of Company C, Ninth Infantry, nineteen enlisted men of Company G, Eighth Cavalry, Post Surgeon and guide.

On the 7th of May we discovered a party of thirty or forty Indians on the side of a mountain, about thirty-five miles northeast of this camp. We attacked them at once, and drove them slowly toward the top (some three miles). On arriving at the summit they attempted to hold it, but we pressed forward, and they scattered and fled in different directions.

The fight lasted four hours, with a loss on our side of the Post guide, (killed); Lieut DeLany, wounded, (shot through the arm); and private Charles Amstedt, Co G, 8th U S. Infantry, (shot in the leg).

Several of the Indians were killed, but I am unable to report the exact number, as it was almost dark when we reached the summit, and the extent and nature of the ground, and the exhaustion of the men, prevented any search for their dead.

The band was a new one in this part of the country Nearly all had rifles and were dressed in citizens clothing, and five of their horses that we shot on the trail at the commencement of the fight were shod, and had not been long in their possession.

Mr. Daniel Hoag, the guide who was killed, had been under my command in three different skirmishes and in many long and successful marches, and had so well and cheerfully performed his duty that he was beloved by all in the command.

I would respectfully call the attention of the General commanding the Department to the good conduct of Lieut. DeLany, who showed great promptness, energy and bravery.

Very resp'y, your ob't serv't,
S. MUNSON,
Capt 9th U. S. Inf'y Com'g Post.

A Mary Harris Case—A Young Woman Shoots a Former Lover.

Considerable stir took place in our city, caused by the report on Tuesday night, that a policeman had been shot by a woman. The report proved true. We give the main facts as current on the streets. It appears that Charles Gagan had been paying attentions to Miss Bridget Durgan—a sister of a brother policeman—and it is alleged had seduced her under promise of marriage, and sent her a short time to Cincinnati, promising to meet her there and fulfill his promise to marry her. Instead of doing which, the city papers of last week announced his marriage on Sunday, the 17th, to another. Miss Durgan, learning of this fact, returned to this place, and met Gagan on Main street, Tuesday evening, and after some conversation he started to escort to escort her to her home on Green street, between eight and nine o'clock. When near the north end of that street, as they were about to separate, she drew a pistol and shot him in the breast, the ball lodging in or near the left lung. But one person witnessed the deed. He attempted to arrest her, but she warned him to desist at his peril—advice which he deemed it prudent to follow, and she coolly walked on. We learn she has since disappeared. Gagan was carried to a house, and lies in a very critical condition. It has thus far been found impossible to extract the ball, and it is not likely he can recover. We give the facts as we have received them, and leave the reader to draw his own moral and make his own comments.—Richmond (Ind.) Republican.

Virginia City, Nevada, has had an earthquake. The Daily Trespass of May 30th says:

The first shock of an earthquake ever felt in this State since its settlement by whites visited us last night—and stirred up things quite lively. The first intimation of telluric colic was a very faint tremor of the earth about 8 56 o'clock p m., followed by another, a little more distinct, at 9:05; twelve minutes and a half afterwards a severe shock was felt, which caused buildings to rock and creak, chandeliers to oscillate violently, table lamps to dance, and excited people to rush into the streets. At 9:27 another, equally severe but of less duration—a short, sudden jump up, as it were, of the whole surface of the earth—sent everybody pell-mell into the streets, women and children screaming, men running in all directions, and dogs howling piteously. Two other slight tremors were felt, one at 9.30 and the other at 10:08 o'clock—being the sixth and last. The first of these was so slight that it was barely discernible to persons sitting quietly in a still room; the second was quite distinct to persons similarly situated, but was noticed by but few and not taken for an earthquake by any—because such a thing was so unexpected in this part of the country. The third shock was the longest and severest of all—lasting about three seconds—and consisted of a violent and indefinable 'shake,' a sudden movement of the earth four or five inches to the northeast, with a kind of jerk, a terrible rumbling noise, and quivering farewell The fourth was violent and noisy, and produced upon persons standing square upon their heels on solid ground the same sensation as if standing upon a floor when a blow is struck from beneath with a heavy hammer The fifth and sixth were lighter than the second, and would not have been noticed at all if every nerve had not been strained to catch the slightest perceptible oscillation of the earth. The shake was felt at Sacramento, Washoe, Silver City, Gold Hill, Fort Churchill, and Austin—apparently running from the southwest to the northeast—and was felt (so far as heard from) along this belt for about four hundred miles. The shock was felt at Carson at 9·11, and at Reno at 9·04.

Indian Murders.

From the Owyhee Avalanche, May 30th:

Last Saturday afternoon, about half past two o'clock, a small band of Indians, the number not exactly known, but supposed to be from five to eight, attacked a party of four men, who were riding along in a wagon between the Sheep Ranch and Inskip's, about four and a half miles from the latter place. From two of the party attacked, Hosea Eastman and Ben Abbott, we learn they were riding leisurely along in a wagon, never dreaming of danger, some one observing, however, that it would be a favorable place for Indians to make an attack, when three or four of the bloodthirsty fiends fired from the rocks not more than five yards distant. A horse which was tied behind the wagon, broke loose and was immediately taken possession of by the Indians. Eastman, who was driving, whipped up the team and made good time for some distance, when looking behind he observed Ben Abbott running for dear life with an Indian close at his heels and another farther behind making rapid strides. Instantly comprehending the situation, Eastman seized his Spencer rifle and ran towards Abbott, who was unarmed. While running, Eastman discharged his rifle at the Indian nearest Abbott, probably not hitting the red devil, but causing him to drop down among the sagebrush and give up the chase. A better aim was taken at the other pursuer, who also immediately disappeared in the brush; but judging from the way the fellow acted, it is thought that a Spencer bullet made him very sick. Upon returning to the wagon it was found that one of the party, named David Smith, was severely wounded. A large sized bullet had entered his right nipple and passed out at his side. The back part of the neck of David Wooden was also creased with a bullet, causing a slight but painful wound. Ben Abbott had received a bullet through his coat sleeve, and one of the horses in the team was wounded, completing the list of casualties. It appears that Abbott was so much taken by surprise that he leaped from the wagon at the first fire, without a weapon of any kind in his hands although there were a Spencer and Henry rifle, besides several pistols, in the wagon.

We would gladly quit this recital, but not half the bloody tale is told. Fearing that the red devils might attack the up stage, which was expected along in a short time, Eastman and party proceeded to with the utmost speed to Inskip's Ranch in order to inform the soldiers stationed there, who immediately started for the scene of the outrage, but too late to prevent the stage from being attacked. About an hour after the first attack the stage came along, and when exactly in the same rocky pass it was fired into, and the driver, Nathan Dixon, was instantly killed. A young man named J. W. Patton, who was beside Dixon on the seat, seized the reins, the horses sprang forward, one of the wheels struck a rock, crash went the axle and precipitated Patton headlong to the ground. By this time the passengers, ten in number, were tumbling out of the stage. Some of them being well armed commenced shooting at the Indians who were whooping and yelling around them in the rocks, evidently astonished at seeing so many passengers, as the curtains were down when the Indians made the attack. The passengers, among whom were Chas. S. Peck, of this place, and Samuel Black, of Flint, besides a lady, behaved with commendable coolness and bravery during the whole affair. Several shots were fired at the savages, who immediately betook themselves to flight. To guard against surprise, the passengers proceeded to the summit of an adjacent eminence, and Patton started for Inskip's for a wagon, meeting the soldiers mentioned above. In the hurry to escape, one of the Indians left the ramrod to his gun and his hat on the ground. The hat is kept as a trophy by the lady passenger. A wagon was procured at Inskip's, and all hands arrived in town the next afternoon. Dixon's body was also brought in.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBER down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. 32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers; and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted; what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance. Every part, inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25-3m

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE.

(Patented February 20th 1866.)

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Warerooms, 452 Broome St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano. By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers.

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement:

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217.63
1865	4,881,919 70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816 65	1,845,896 95
1867	8,774,326.01	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788,09

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to . . . 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . . 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . . 5,000
And so on, until the tenth annual payment, which all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.—Closing out sale of Clothing and men's Boots and Shoes, at less than cost. Also, the lot and buildings thereon occupied by us.

DECIDEDLY MEAN.—There are a few migratory mortals who, having North Platte or some other out-of-the-world place in their mind's eye, as a point of destination, have left town owing us a week or more subscription for our paper Their poverty-stricken condition must be pitiable indeed, when it makes them forgetful of the insignificant sum of sixty cents per week, due for their daily serving of news. Go, dear brethren, and we will offer naught but the charitable wish that fortune may materially improve your memory and consciences, as well as your pockets!

—Remember the Grand FANCY DRESS BALL, next Friday evening, at Grotto Hall. je8-5t

—An emigrant train, from Iowa and Illinois, consisting of thirty teams and fifty men, twenty-five women, and any number of little ones, passed through our city this morning, bound for California and Oregon Their stock is in splendid condition and their outfits very complete

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY.—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R. Converse, Sixteenth street m30tf

—It is stated upon authority of a letter from Hon. Schuyler Colfax that he will visit Colorado this summer, and will be in Denver in August next.

—Buggy riding has become so common in Denver that if one would be distinguished he must ride horseback or walk.—News.

—E. P. Snow, Esq., merchant, has been in town for a few days. He returned to North Platte last evening. There is but little money there, but building is progressing quite steadily and her citizens hope for brisk times.

—About two or three weeks ago a gay and festive couple called upon Judge ——, of this city, to perform a marriage ceremony, which His Honor did in the most approved style. All went on "merry as a marriage bell;" but a few days ago the gay young hubby was unexpectedly called to North Platte, leaving his weeping wife anxiously awaiting his return Yesterday's mail brought to the city a letter addressed to the said husband, and the lady supposing it might be on business, took the liberty of opening it, when, imagine her surprise on finding it written by a lady to her "Dear Husband," informing her that they—herself and children—were all well. The bride called upon the Judge this morning to have undone what he had done; but His Honor informed her that the best thing she could do would be to consign her deceiver to the fond care and embrace of Brigham Young.

—The Colorado salt works are now yeilding saline satisfaction to the minds of its owners to the extent of 4,000 pounds per day.

—The Episcopal "Mite" Society met, last evening, at the house of Mrs. McMurray. Guests to the number of nearly fifty, joined with them, and spent two or three very pleasant hours in social intercourse. Mrs. McMurray, sister and husband favored the company with some fine and well executed songs. The supper was excellent, and every one seemed to be in fine spirits. Among the guests were several of the Methodist friends. This interchange of social intercourse between members of different societies is conducive of much good.

—That sprightly little newspaper, the Hays City Advance, has again reached our table. We however find little news in it that would be of interest to readers here. From the import of the column of "chips" we infer business there is not very lively.

—Can some kind reader tell us what has become of the Good Templar Society recently talked of in this city. We have in our mind's eye some who might be benefitted by its influence. Let the good work go on.

—Many were disappointed in not having a suicide item this morning. A cyprian, "not unknown to fame," was reported last night in a dying condition, from the effect of cold pison administered by her own hand, but luckily for her she is herself again this morning.

—A good work was done in the way of building side-walks, on our principal streets, which adds much to the comfort and convenience of pedestrians; and we are pleased now to see some of our more enterprising business firms erecting good and substantial awnings in front of their places of business. We hope to see more of it

—We notice some more shade trees set out recently; but we fear is a little too late.

—A good many of our citizens are going to Denver the last of this month, to see the great horse show, and several intend starting down soon enough to be there on the 24th, to attend the Masonic celebration.

—We are pleased to notice the familiar face of S. F. Nuckolls, Esq., again on our streets He has been absent east for several weeks, and brings his family with him to reside in this city.

—A good time may be expected at the Grotto Hall, to-morrow night, at the Fancy Dress Ball. They always do things up in good style there.

PERSONAL.—Will R. A. Duffield or James Duffield please call at the Rollins Hotel, Cheyenne City, where they will find their brother.

11-2t DAVID DUFFIELD.

—Letters have been received here, stating that specimens of the poisonous weed, that killed numbers of cattle here, recently, had been received at the Department of Agriculture, and examined, and that a report upon the same, together with the means proper to employ in cases of cattle poisoning by it, would soon be forthcoming

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,64?,425.50.

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement:

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217,63
1865	4,881,919.70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816.65	1,845,896.95
1867	8,774,326.01	2,046,509 36
Total Increase		$6,120,788 69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment ☞

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows.

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. City Marshal's Notice!

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under those sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal, shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. FOR PRESIDENT,

ULYSSES S. GRANT,

OF ILLINOIS

For Vice President,

Schuyler Colfax,

OF INDIANA.

Colfax and the Soldiers.

That the Democracy would seize with avidity upon any past errors that might have occurred in the actions, or public service of the Republican nominees, and apply them as reasons for denunciations and detraction from the merits of our candidates, was of course expected, and something new and peculiarly suited to aid them in the task of weakening the ticket will doubtless be hatched up each week from now until the time of election

In Indiana the Democratic press have been industriously giving wide circulation to various statements regarding Mr Colfax, to the effect that he had refused to render any assistance to soldiers during the war Were the truth of these statements established, the brave men who imperilled their lives in the late war to preserve the national integrity, would, of course, have cause to withhold their sympathies and support from a man who had shown indifference to their sufferings and sacrifices. So far from the latter being the case, however, on the contrary it is shown by a published card from Chaplain Lozier, formerly financial agent of the Indiana State Sanitary Commission, that Mr Colfax donated over eight hundred dollars to the funds of the Commission, and also gave in aid of the same cause the gross proceeds of a number of his lectures. So much for that howl And thus will result, as we hope and believe, all efforts of the opposition to injure the standing of Mr. Colfax with the soldiers and the loyal people of the country generally. We predict that he will pass through the ordeal of the present political tempest of diverse opinions and influences with a greater triumph perhaps, than any candidate for the same honors has yet done in our history, and that he will stand higher in the esteem of the people, at its close, and with a brighter political character than any man that has been before the people's attention for many a year.

"What a beautiful place heaven is!" said a little boy not four years old "Why do you think so?" said his mother. "Because," said he, pointing to the stars, "the nails on the floor are so beautiful."

An exchange gives the following advice to a numerous class of newspaper thieves who infest every community:

Drop that paper Yes, drop it. Too niggardly and mean to subscribe and pay for your county paper, which is steadily laboring for the promotion of the welfare of society—for your welfare—you have been sponging upon your neighbors ever since it was established. You are always eager to read it, and frequently before it reaches the hands of its honorable owner, it is crumbled and torn by your filching fingers Drop it! Never pick it up and read it again, unless you can do so with the proud consciousness that you have the right—a right secured in a legitimate way If you are too poor to aid in sustaining it, let us know, and we will send you the paper gratuitously. But it is downright meanness in you, when you are as able to pay for it as your neighbor, to send your children to borrow it.

The Masons of Denver are making arrangements for a celebration of St. John's day—June 24th. It is designed to have a procession in the afternoon, and an address at the Methodist Church. Grand Master Henry M. Teller has been invited to deliver the address. In the evening, a reception will take place at the lodge room, to be followed by a collation. The exercises at the church will be open to the public; those at the lodge room to members of the fraternity, their wives, daughters and lady friends.

Ladies in New York patronize the street boot-blacks.

From North Platte.

Through the kindness of Mr. W. A. Hodgman, who has just returned from North Platte, we are placed in possession of some items that may interest many of our readers North Platte has now about one hundred and twenty-five buildings, of various kinds, shapes and sizes People there now draw their main solace and comfort from the hope of something better in the future. Money is extremely scarce there at present, although it was expected that an agreeable relief in that particular would be afforded by the disbursements of the 20th instant, that being the pay day of the contractors The piles are being driven for the railroad bridge over the Platte. Timber and ties in large quantities will be floated down that stream, to the crossing The body of one of the two men drowned at that point, some days since, has been recovered. A man named Smith was shot, a day or two ago. Men gambled over his body, betting various sums upon the question as to whether he was dead or not.

The track of the U P R. R. is now about seven miles beyond Rock creek, and the building of a bridge over a small gulch has delayed the laying of the track several days The probabilities are that the track laying will be detained not longer than over night at North Platte, so that there will be little reason to expect much of a town there, nor indeed anywhere this side of Salt Lake. With all the means of information that we are in possession of, we can see no likelihood of a more important place than Cheyenne will be, anywhere between Omaha and Salt Lake City This is our belief now, and it ever has been; and we have proved our sincerity in this avowal by our actions Let none despond, but wait a brief time with patience

A Monster of the Air.

Yesterday, about 5 o'clock p. m., when every one had finished work at this mine (Garm mine), and the workmen in a group were awaiting their evening meal, we saw coming through the air a gigantic bird, which at first sight we supposed to be a cloud surrounded by the atmosphere, and divided from its companions by a chance current of air

As the object in question came nearer, filling us with a very natural feeling of surprise, we were able to note that it was an unknown creature of the air—the roc of the "Thousand and one Nights" perhaps, or possibly a leviathan of the deserts Whence did it come? Where was it going? Its direction was from northeast to southwest, its flight rapid and in a direct line. On passing a short distance, and over our heads, we were able to note the rare structure of its body. Its great wings were clothed with a brown plumage, the head of the monster was in shape similar to that of the grasshopper, with enormous eyes wide open and brilliant as stars, and covered with something like hair or bristles; the body, lengthening itself out like that of a serpent, was covered with brilliant scales, which emitted metallic sounds as the strange animal moved itself along.

Surprise resolved itself into fear among the workmen, in the presence of such a strange phenomenon. The whole stock of ornithological science possessed by the good miners, was in vain exhausted to find the name and qualities of the strange bird which had just passed without leaving a sign. Some assert that in those moments they perceived a detestable smell, like that given out by arsenic on being burned. Others, that their senses were not offended by any unusual odor. The superstitious believe it is the devil in person they have just seen pass, while others recollect having been witness, some years ago, in the same place, of the passage of a similar monstrous bird.

As the whole affair is in the extreme curious, we have thought it our duty to communicate it to you, withholding all useless comments, for the truth is that we cannot explain satisfactorily to ourselves what we have seen for the first and probably the last time in our lives. Can it be possible that in the desert or the Cordilleras, nature pleases to give life to those monstrosities, and rears them in solitude for many years, and when they have attained sufficient strength, they commence their flight through space and the earth guard their skeletons, to the confusion of sages, who, on meeting them, believe they have found antediluvian remains.—Chili (S. A.) paper, March 26.

During a recent performance of "Romeo and Juliet," at Marblehead, the fair Juliet's question in the soliloquy before taking the sleeping draught, "What if this mixture does not work well?" was answered by an urchin in the pit—"Then take a dose of pills." The effect upon the audience can be imagined.

Tobacco, one of the luxuries of modern times, is being used more and more both in this country and in this country and in Great Britain. Statistics just published show that in the United Kingdom its consumption has increased from 13¾ ounces per head of population, in 1841, to one pound five ounces per head in 1867.

MORNING REPORT.

TORONTO, June 11.—A dispatch from Ottawa says there is a prevalent rumor that the English government wishes to stipulate that the Canadian government shall not increase the public debt, until the guaranteed loan to build the International railroad is repaid It is believed that this condition will be complied with. The question will occupy the attention of the minister of finance, while in England. A moveable column, composed of the first battalion rifle brigade, 43d volunteer battalion, Ottawa field battery, and Frontenac's cavalry, is held in readiness to march at an hour's notice

NEW YORK, June 11—Four pieces of Fenian artillery left here for parts unknown, Three cases of muskets arrived at Chetaquay yesterday

BELGRADE, SERVIA, June 9.—At five o'clock this afternoon, Michael, the reigning Prince of Servia, while walking in Fapschadore Park, was shot down by three men with revolvers. There is great excitement over the assassination He belonged to the Abrenovitch family, the reigning dynasty of Servia

LONDON, June 11—The particulars of the assassination of Prince Michael at Belgrade yesterday are, that the Prince was shot at the first fire, and expired immediately The Prince's cousin was also killed, and the daughter of the latter received a wound. Some of the attendants were also wounded One of the assassins was captured.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11—The California Foundry, on Market street, was destroyed by fire to-day. Loss $30,000 Much of the machinery was saved. It is supposed to be the work of incendiarism.

The overland coach, coming from Austin, Nevada, was attacked and robbed last night within six miles of Virginia City, by three robbers armed with shotguns, who secured three bars of silver, worth $3,584, and a small amount of coin, besides $1,000 and two gold watches, taken from passengers. Nobody hurt. No clue to the robbers

The general trade of San Francisco is wonderfully active Mining stocks weak and declining.

There is a great demand for laborers at 'Change, still long in excess of the supply

THE TAX BILL AGAIN.

Colorado Bill Introduced.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Prince Michael's Assassin Found.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—HOUSE.—The bill for the incorporation of the National Art Union Association, after a brief discussion, was tabled.

Hunter offered a resolution reciting allegations founded upon the fact of Father McMahon's having been flogged in the Kingston, Canada, penitentiary, because an Irish-American Fenian paper was found in his possession. The resolution directed the Committee on Foreign Affairs to enquire into the facts.

The Speaker presented a message from the President communicating information in reference to the recent treaty for the Osage Indian lands. Referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs, with power to send for persons and papers.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the tax bill.

An amendment was offered last night exempting from special tax, dealers in manufactured lumber and breadstuffs This was rejected.

An amendment exempting manufacturers of sugar from beets was also rejected. A proviso that breadstuffs shall not be classed as manufactures was rejected. A long discussion took place in reference to the payment of a special tax on the transfer of business from one party to another. An amendment was offered that no such second payment shall be necessary, which was agreed to.

Holmes moved to amend section 95, by including among those to be taxed as manufacturers or dealers, persons who make sugar and molasses from sorghum. Agreed to.

At three o'clock the Committee rose, to allow Butler to offer the following:

Resolved, That Chas. W. Woolley having appeared before the Committee of Investigation and answered all questions, and thus purged himself of contempt of the House, be discharged from arrest. Butler added that the witness had answered fully and distinctly all the questions put to him. The resolution was adopted and the consideration of the tax bill resumed.

A motion to strike out from the one hundred and second section containing schedule (B) stamp taxes, the first paragraph, taxing agreements or contracts, was discussed at length, and finally rejected. A motion to amend the paragraph taxing assignments or transfers of mortgages by making a uniform tax of twenty-five cents [illegible] adopted. The [illegible] resolution dispensing with an evening session was adopted.

The Senate amendments to the bill to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama to representation in Congress, was referred to the Committee on Reconstruction. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Yates, from the Territorial Committee, reported a bill admitting Colorado.

A joint resolution granting permission to officers and soldiers to wear badges of the corps in which they served during the war, passed.

A bill for the relief of certain contractors was considered. Hendrick's amendment making it full discharge of all claims on account of vessels upon which the auditory board made allowance in their report, was adopted and the bill passed.

Sumner moved the reconsideration of the vote on the passage of the bill admitting rebel States, to allow Yates to make a speech. Yates then spoke in favor of the doctrine of equal rights to all. Sumner then withdrew the motion, and the bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was taken up Hendricks got the floor, and spoke in opposition to the bill and characterized it as an attempt to continue political domination, saying that the people will condemn that as well as other reconstruction measures

Drake called the speech a plea for Democratic candidacy The debate was continued for some time, by Wilson, Patterson, Davis and others, without voting.

The bill relieving the political disabilities of Roderick A Butler, of Tennesee, was taken up The Committee on the Judiciary reported a substitute relieving disabilities, requiring as a prerequisite to holding office an oath simply to support the Constitution of the United States, and give full allegiance to the same, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office, passed, 23 to 5. Adjourned.

TORONTO, June 10—The city authorities have received intructions to prepare billets for fifteen thousand men This measure is only to be acted upon in an event of the volunteers being called out.

LONDON, June 11.—The official returns of the Bank of England show that its specie has increased a quarter of a million pounds since the last report.

PARIS, June 11.—The Moniteur states the Czar made a proposal to Napoleon that France and Russia unite in an effort to induce all civilized nations to abandon the use of torpedoes and explosive projectiles in time of war. The Moniteur adds that this humane proposition meets the approval of the Emperor, who, however, thinks it may be necessary to employ torpedoes for defensive purposes.

LONDON, June 11.—The last dispatch from Belgrade represent the excitement as intense. No outbreak, however, had occurred. Two assassins had been arrested. It is assertained that a father and two sons are the assassins, and one of the latter is still at large.

Somebody Else Talks.

[Communicated.]

EDITOR LEADER: In your issue of last evening I find a communication signed "Common Sense." This letter of "Common Sense," for its unaffected simplicity and audacity fairly took away my breath. Do, but for one moment, consider the preposterous complaints and expectations of the man! Look, for instance, at the air of helpless, injured innocence with which he asks, "Are our executive city officials in with the police, or the police in with the Mayor ad interim?" Why, my precious Rip Van Winkle, when did you awake? What, in the name of that by which you delight to call yourself—what in the name of "Common Sense" do you mean Would you restrain the "city officials" in the exercise of their sacred, Cheyenne-given privilege to do as they will with their own? And if they find a man "sinning," or doing anything else out of which by a trifle of ingenuity they can work up a "charge," is he not thenceforward body, soul and breeches their own, until "sich" time as he dumps down the stamps? What! would you have the city officials confined in their operations such vulgar considerations as right and reason, when by only a slight disregard of these they can put a little money in the purse—of the Public, of course? Why, "Common Sense," thou common scold, where next will thy extraordinary audacity lead thee? I tell thee if this thing of "Common Sense" asking impudent questions be not at once put a stop to, there is no sphere of official action in Cheyenne safe for a moment in the enjoyment of its most cherished privileges and immunities I address this argument to all whom it may concern:

Gentlemen, be up and doing! Remember [illegible] price [illegible] of liberty [illegible] as eggs are eggs, this same pestilent fellow, if suffered unhindered to go about the city, will stir up those of the baser sort to rob and despoil the "city officials" of their most revered and vested rights! Yes! his next demand will be that the fees of the officials shall be regulated and charged, not according to the sense of the officials themselves, of the value of those services, but according to the fee bill provided by law! that prisoners charged with the gravest offenses known to society shall be safely kept till duly disposed of by trial! And so on, will he go through the whole category of official duties! Nay, to such an extent will this thing be carried, that "common Sense" will next ask that the decisions and judgments of our City and County Courts shall be rendered, not according to the will and wishes, and discretions, etc., of the presiding officers, but according to the testimony and the law in such cases, made and provided. Is chaos to come again? Up, up, ye "city officials," "awake," I say, "arise, or be forever fallen!" And for you, "Common Sense," I ask you, because your friend, your "humpty dumpty" got a great fall, "shall there be" for the 'city officials' "no more cakes and ale?" No further adjournings, after laborious and faithful discharge of official functions, to the "whiskey mill?" Down with your "Common Sense," away with your "Justice!" For, as certain as fate, the moment "Common Sense" and "Justice" are allowed to play their vagaries and antics in Cheyenne, that moment "Othello's occupation's gone"—the most valued privileges and opportunities thereof will topple to a fatal, irretrievable and abyssmal fall! "Common Sense," I blush for you! Where are your manners, thus to flout your betters? Confess the corn,—make a clean breast of it, and acknowledge that in going against the things you do, in thus seeking to upset the ordinary course of things in Cheyenne, you have no more right to arrogate to and claim for yourself the quality of "Common Sense," than I have to sign myself

Buried with a Hammer.

A carpenter named Pierre Rochean, and residing on the outskirts of Paris, declared to his friends that when he died he should like to be buried with his hammer by his side in the coffin that should contain his body. "Why so?" was the repeated question. But Pierre would only smile and answer "You shall see I have always had a certain presentiment." One day, while sawing a board, the carpenter suddenly clapped his hammer to his breast, and fell motionless upon the floor. The doctors were sent for—they looked wise and said, "Heart disease." So Pierre's coffin was made, and he was buried with his hammer by his side, as he desired. He had laid up some money in the bank—two or three thousand francs or thereabouts—and although it was suspected that he had left a will, no will could be found. This caused a quarrel among his relatives when they met at his house. Each one declared that Pierre had often told him (the speaker), that he should have the money when its owner died From words these loving creatures almost came to blows; but in the midst of their quarrel the door opened and Pierre Rocheau himself very coolly walked into the room. "I have been listening at the door," said he, "and now I have to inform you," he added, with a grim smile, "that being the nearest relative to the owner of the francs, I shall claim the money myself You were in a great hurry to bury me," he added, "as I always suspected would be the case, and that was why I wanted to have my hammer by my side Not being dead, as the doctors declared I was, and as you doubtless were glad to believe, on account of those francs, I came to my senses soon after being put into the coffin and knocked up the lid with my hammer" Let every man with francs in the bank be buried with his hammer by his side

Everybody asks what "S T.—1860—X" means or signifies. An Oregon paper gives the most satisfactory interpretation we have heard, viz "Democracy is the S-same T-thing it was in 1860, X-actly."

Horace Greeley said at a Grant ratification meeting at New York, held last week, that Colfax was the first person ever nominated for President or Vice President, who was born in that city, and that he had known him for a long time, and recollecting helping him to mount a barrel, when he was only nineteen years of age, that he might speak for Henry Clay, in front of the old National Hall.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 60 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense BAILEY & SINCLAIR.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the BEST manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers; and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at 100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best the most lasting and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25 m

DOUBLE IRON FRAME,

MONITOR PLATE,

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE,

(Patented February 5th 1866)

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS

Warerooms, 152 Broome St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding-board than to be possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers.

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000.000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,425.50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,735 53	$1,005,217.63
1865	4,881,919.70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816 65	1,845,896 95
1867	8,771,328 01	2,046,509.36
Total increase		$6,120,788.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in the well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reason and objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment "]

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,0 0 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

—Being busily engaged in preparing to remove the office of the LEADER, we shall not be able to give our readers quite as much reading matter as common for two or three days, but upon again becoming settled in our permanent quarters we will make due amends for the present omission.

—Court martial is progressing at Fort Russell. Particulars soon.

—To-day has been the most sultry of the season thus far. It was almost a physical impossibility to keep cool at all, even with the aid of the lightest fabrics of clothing, and iced drinks, soda water, etc. A little rain would be an agreeable variety these afternoons. We could stand a foot or more of it on a level, and not complain.

—Very little fuel will suffice to generate the necessary steam in the U. P. R. R. locomotives, if the hot weather continues. Old Sol's rays are exceedingly fervent.

SUICIDE.—About noon to-day our citizens were startled with the painful news of another case of self-destruction. Mr. J. K. Rutledge, formerly from Central City, Colorado, has been employed in the government service at Fort Russell until a few weeks since, when he accepted a position as private night watchman upon one of the principal business blocks of this city. He was on duty last night, as usual, but about eleven o'clock this morning he repaired to his home on Eddy street, and taking his revolver, placed it to his right ear, and fired the fatal shot. A gentleman passing heard the shot, and going into the house found him in the last death struggle. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his sad death. Mr. Rutledge was a member of Rocky Mountain Lodge of F. & A. Masons, Central City, Colorado, and was always esteemed a man of upright character. Probably the only reason for his committing the terrible act was the fact that he had become tired of this life and weary with battling with the adversities of the world. His funeral occurs to-morrow.

—Lizzie Brown, alias "Black Hawk," died to-day.

—Four drunks only were the occasion of adding to the city coffers today, before His Honor Judge Moore.

A farmer wrote as follows to a distinguished scientific agriculturalist, to whom he felt under obligations for introducing a new variety of swine. "Respected Sir, I went yesterday to the cattle show. I found several pigs of your species. There was a great variety of hogs, and I was surprised at not finding you there."

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement:

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year.
1864 - -	$3,658,755 55 - -	$1,005,217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919 70 - -	1,223,164 15
1866 - -	6,727,816.65 - -	1 845,896 95
1867 - -	8,774,326 01 - -	2,046,509.36
	Total Increase	$6,120,788 69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim , and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment when all is paid

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. The Denver Pacific R. R.

Of late there has been considerable discussion between the Argus and our Denver cotemporaries, the News and Tribune, as to the junction of the Denver Branch with the Pacific R R Judging from present indications, the question will be open for discussion a year or two hence, but "as it's gwine" it might be well enough for us to have our say with the others The decision in the matter will finally be disposed of by the Board of Directors of the Union Pacific Rail road, and in such a manner as the Board may consider for the best interests of the Company. The Board of Directors, not Mr. Durant, has finally decided to build at Cheyenne, depots, machine shops, roundhouses, hotels and such other buildings as may be found necessary for what is to be an important terminus of two divisions of 500 miles each; one from Omaha, and the other from Salt Lake That Cheyenne will be that terminus is a fact fixed by the Company as well as by nature, and being so, having all the appliances necessary for the purposes and objects of a terminus, it is not very probable that a few dollars more or less in the expense of making the grade, would be of much consideration as against the construction of another set of expensive buildings within forty miles of these. There is no extraordinary difference between the grade from the Platte to Pine Bluffs or to Cheyenne, while there would be an extraordinary difference to the Company in ultimate results These facts must be apparent to the Company as well as to the people of Denver; and a reasonable consideration of all the circumstances must make it evident that the animosity of the acknowledged enemy to Cheyenne should make the Board of Directors suspicious of his opinion or advice on the important subject.

Mines and Finances.

The new tax bill has drawn out a considerable discussion in the House on taxing the mines, or working them by [illegible] for the benefit of the government. Mr. Wood, in the debate on the tax bill, on the 3rd inst., concluded government was an idiot for being in debt when it owned a boundless supply of precious metals which we purchased from Mexico, in 1847, and which can, by a "little effort," be converted into coin. The Hon. gentleman said that after one year of preparation $100,000,000 could be made; this could be trebled in two years more, and that at the expiration of five years it could be increased to an incalculable amount. That this product would decrease the necessity for deriving revenue from other sources, and that at the end of ten years the public debt would be paid, specie payments resumed, and taxes, except to a trifling extent, abolished. Mr. Wood thought there could be no difficulty or doubt about the success of this government mining, because the $2,000,000,000 which has been produced in the United States since 1848, was all taken from government lands, at a cost, as he asserted, of only ten per cent., and that though a trifling tax of five dollars per acre had been placed by Congress, in 1866, upon all mineral lands, the miner had utterly disregarded the law, and was getting rich really at government expense. Government, the gentleman went on to say, could work the mines profitably, because Russia, Germany, Spain, Mexico, Brazil and Peru had worked mines, that the first duty of government was to itself; and "then let the citizens take care of themselves"

This is an excellent theory for paying the public debt. Government is such a good business man, economical and frugal and industrious, that where practical hard working miners lose money, Government would make a profit. But, if the cost of getting a dollar from a government quartz mill into the Treasury was at all in proportion to the cost of making Indian treaties, capturing scalps, or collecting the tax on a gallon of whiskey, the public debt would soon undergo a very material, if not alarming change. The opening of one mine would send the country to the Court of Bankruptcy for relief It would prove an undermining affair to the public credit, unless managed differently than other public enterprises. The inhabitants of the western States and Territories have long been looked upon as the natural enemies of the United States, but a careful examination would show the mining population has contributed more to the wealth and prosperity of the Union than all the government mines that could be opened. Of what value would the public lands of California, Nevada, Colorado, Idaho or Montana be, were it not for the mines? What portion of the country opens such fields for the indigent laborers of the eastern States and foreign emigration, as these same States and Territories? What portion of the Union pays more taxes, or pays them more willingly, than the mining communities of the Great West? And yet we are told the mines are at present of no actual benefit to the Government, because the five dollar tax meets with but little favor among men whose only capital to commence on is a pick and shovel. The entire West is already taxed beyond their eastern neighbors, and yet it is proposed to work the mines by government, so as, if possible, to reduce the miner's chance of encouragement or profit. How many mines would now be open if it depended on government to do the prospecting? But Mr. Wood don't propose to take mines away from present occupants—only take what are not claimed at present, so as to prevent the prospector from robbing the Government in future.

For the Celebrated

Winchester's Patent

Repeating Rifles and Carbines,

Firing two shots a second, as a Repeater—Twenty shots a minute as Single Breech-Loader, of the

Winchester Repeating Arms Co.,

New Haven, Connecticut.

WE keep constantly a large stock of the above named Arms on hand, and are enabled to fill all orders We have very carefully tried and examined the Winchester Arms, and are enabled to say, by our long experience in the gunsmith business, that there is no equal to them as in regard to accurate and quick shooting, as well as to their neatness and durability. We can recommend them to the public as the best rifle for

Indian Defense

And hunting, and invite the attention of our friends and customers, to examine them before purchasing any other kind of arms. They can be fired

Eighteen times in Succession,

Without re-loading, hence the name of

18 Shooter;

And have the great advantage over any other guns in that the Winchester Rifle can be used also as a Single Breech-Loader, by inserting each cartridge which shall be fixed in the barrel, and yet having Eighteen Shots in the magazine, which can be used at the rate of Two Shots a Second.

We are prepared to sell them at the following prices:

PIANO FORTE

MANUFACTURERS,

Ware rooms, 318 Bleecker street, N. Y. City.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $50 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last; the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25-3m

SCHUTZE & LUDOLFF,

(ESTABLISHED IN 1853)

Manufacturers of the New Patent

DOUBLE IRON FRAME,

MONITOR PLATE,

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE

(Patented February 20th 1866)

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS

Warerooms, 452 Broome St, N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a first number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs, From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers.

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '60, $1,612,125 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005 217,63
1865	4,881,919.70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816.67	1,845,896.95
1867	8,771,320 01	2,046,309 36
Total Increase		$6,120,788.69

This Increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,0 0 (amount insured), amounting to $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets.	Increase of assets over previous year
1864 - -	$3,658,755 55 - -	$1,005,217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919.70 - -	1,223,164 15
1866 - -	6,727,816.65 - -	1,845,896.95
1867 - -	8,771,326.01 - -	2,046,509 36
	Total Increase	$6,120,788 69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,0 0 (amount insured), amounting to . . . $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,00) (amount insured) amounting to . 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . 5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured,

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. Overland Mail.

The services of a man like Ben Holliday are more frequently felt than seen The dispatches state that in the bids which have just been opened for carrying the overland mail, Wells, Fargo & Co lost all contracts by being the highest bidders This may be true, and still they may be in with the lowest responsible bidders Things are very often fixed up in that style; but one thing is certain—if Ben Holliday was a bidder, he would have the contract anyhow, and if the present carriers have lost the contract, they may attribute the loss to the absence of the invincible log-roller. The contract for the last two years has been a remarkably profitable one, as a great distance of the road has been covered by the Central Pacific Rail way, on the west, and the Union Pacific on the eastern end, which carry the mails the length of the finished portions of their roads, at cheap rates under a sub-contract from Wells, Fargo & Co, thus reducing the actual expense of stages and horses for at least eight hundred miles Next year the roads may be joined, so that after 1869 the mails will be carried to Utah, Nevada, California and probably to Colorado, by rail Stages then will only be required from Salt Lake to Montana and Idaho, and from California to Oregon If the new contracts are let at the present actual cost of carriage, the reduction in the expenses in another year will be a handsome profit, and as W F & Co have the roads well stocked, and know the actual value and profit of carrying the mails at present, and what they may be carried for another year, it is quite probable they have the contract, or an interest in it The Railway and express company have things on the plains pretty well their own way.

What Our Neighbors Think.

The following, from the Denver Tribune, is so well said, for the Tribune, for Cheyenne and for ourselves, that for once we suspend our rule of never copying complimentary notices, and at the same time commend the hint contained in the article to those who think that a town is not judged of by the papers it supports

We are always glad to give credit to our newspaper brethren whenever they display an enterprise and ability in their calling, which is deserving of commendation, and this is the case with the Leader and Argus of Cheyenne. Both are deserving of a liberal patronage, and are as good papers as any city of the size of Cheyenne, either east or west, can boast of. We doubt not but that they are permanent fixtures of that town, as it is a permanent town—unlike its predecessors along the railroad line. Cheyenne will always be a point of considerable importance, and the Argus and Leader give tone to its character.

It is proposed to give Fessenden a banquet in Boston for his vote on impeachment.

A Catholic priest, who refused to give testimony in a mob case in Frankfort, Ky., has been imprisoned for contempt. This was a case where the priest was called upon by the civil authorities to endeavor to dissuade the mob from taking a negro from the jail and hanging him. The priest entered the jail and for a time succeeded, but becoming exhausted, he was obliged to retire During his absence the negro was hung. Now the court demands the priest shall tell who composed the mob, rather than do which he goes to jail.

On the Rampage.

Advices from Minnesota state that a letter received from Fort Stevenson reports more Indian outrages in that vicinity. General Trobriand, commandant at that point, is very apprehensive that the mail carriers, Chas. McDonald and Joseph Hamlin, have been murdered by savages. They left with the mails for Fort Totten on the 17th of May, and have not since been heard from. Two other carriers left Stevenson on the 24th. When about half way they were surprised by forty Indians, captured and robbed of their clothing. The Indians showed them a coat belonging to McDonald, which was full of bullet holes. The Indians bragged of having killed McDonald and Hamlin The two captured carriers managed to escape.

"Leading Mormons."

One of the coolest pieces of Mormon impudence which has yet been made public, is told in a special of the 11th inst, which says

"A large and enthusiastic railroad meeting was held yesterday in the Tabernacle, and addressed by Brigham Young, Colonel Head, General O'Connor, and other leading Mormons. Resolutions were adopted to the effect that the interest of the Pacific Railroad and Salt Lake City are identical, and the road must inevitably pass south of the lake, Brigham Young said a false impression existed abroad that the people of Utah are averse to the construction of the Pacific Railroad On the contrary, Utah strongly desires the railroad, and will help build it, and so far from dreading contact with outsiders, is anxious to become one of the stars on the American flag He hopes to be better liked when he becomes better and more widely known."

Brigham and other leading mormons say the road must pass south of the lake, that is, within less than a dozen miles of the city. This, no doubt, is true, if we may believe other reports, one of which is that it was the settled policy of the railroad company to give large contracts to Brigham, that other parties in Utah were willing and anxious to take the same contracts at one third less than what they were let to the Mormons for Who General O'Connor may be, we have no means of knowing, but the Colonel who is classed among other "leading mormons" was sent to Utah as Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Utah, which is probably the reason why he is found in the Tabernacle with Brigham, asserting that "Utah is anxious to become one of the stars on the American flag" So Utah has been anxious for years, but it does not appear the American flag reciprocated this virtuous anxiety. Let them have the railroad by all means, and let them also become a star, so that Brigham may be estimated in the same proportion as he becomes known.

The total amount of cash premiums to be distributed at the Illinois State Fair, which is to be held at Quincy in September next, is $9,000; and 268 silver medals, valued at $1,500; making a total of $10,500 to be awarded to successful competitors

A queer case has come up in St. Louis, which is stated as follows: Two weeks ago a farmer named Buchanan killed a man named Cheetenham. The widow of the deceased man brings suit for $25,000 against Buchanan for the loss of her husband. After the murder was committed, Buchanan fled, and has not been heard from since. His farm, valued at $70,000, has been attached to await the result of the trial.

NOON REPORT.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—A call has been issued for a convention of colored Republicans of the border States, in Baltimore, on the 4th of August, for the purpose of the organization of the colored people in these States, to agitate the question of equal rights.

LONDON, June 13—It is believed D'Israeli has determined to appeal to the electors, and that the new Parliament will meet in December.

NEW YORK, June 13—The North Carolina Democratic Convention of the 8th, elected delegates to the New York Convention Among them were Wade Hampton and R B. Rhett, jr.

The disloyal element is constantly showing itself in Washington with such bitterness that a motion will be introduced to remove the Capital.

WASHINGTON, June 14—The opinion continues to prevail among members of Congress that the tax bill will not pass, owing to want of time for both houses to act upon the measure. It is thought, however, that several sections with regard to whisky and tobacco will be embodied in a separate bill and become a law

LONDON, June 14—The Sultan and new Cabinet are maturing a plan to permit persons of foreign birth residing in Turkey to legally hold property, which right is guaranteed by treaties with foreign powers.

It is now generally understood that the Ministry will make an appeal to the country on the questions at issue, between them and the House of Commons.

WASHINGTON, June 14—Two companies of Fenians were mustered into service last night

CHICAGO, June 14.—The entire business portion of Marquette, Michigan, was burned on Friday night Loss, one million dollars

CHARLESTON, June 14.—The South Carolina returns, complete from thirty-one districts, indicate that the Radicals carried fifteen and the Democrats sixteen districts

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Post Office Department awarded the contract for carrying the overland mails, to the California Stage Company, at about one hundred dollars per day, between the termini of the Pacific Railroad.

LONDON, June 13—Henry W Longfellow, who arrived in England by the steamship Russia, on Saturday, has been the recipient of marked attention and a congratulatory address on the part of the Mechanic's Institute of Carlisle.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The President to-day nominated Reverdy Johnson as Minister to England, Joseph Corry, Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of California; Alex. M Maher, U S Attorney for Montana, and B. J Dennison, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Washington Territory

The President accepted the report of the Commissioners on that section of the Union Pacific Railroad between the five hundred and eightieth and six hundredth mile post, and ordered the issue of bonds and patents for lands on account thereof.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Reverdy Johnson as Minister to England without the formality of reference to a Committee.

Butler reported a bill appropriating one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in aid of the Indian Peace Commissioners.

TORONNO, June 12—The Globe professes to have information, on authority beyond dispute, that the Fenian movement upon Canada has actually commenced. Forces are being gradually concentrated at Buffalo and other points. Forty Fenians went from Port Huron to Buffalo, via the Grand Trunk, on Tuesday. A raid is possible any day after the 20th instant, The Globe calls on government to order into the field at once the whole volunteer and regular force of the country.

MONTREAL, June 12.—A seizure of arms at St. Albans, yesterday, is reported. Guards from the Grand Trunk Brigade, well armed, are stationed at each end of the Victoria bridge. The fifty-third regiment has been ordered to leave London on the 15th, for Quebec.

BUFFALO, June 13.—Reports from Canada having gained circulation to the effect that Fenians are concentrating at this point for a raid on the neighboring Provinces, it is proper to contradict such statements. No unusual gathering of Fenians has occurred here, and it is not believed there is a single member of the organization here, outside of the citizens of Buffalo.

BALTIMORE, June 13—By an explosion at Cumberland, Maryland, on Wednesday, three persons were instantly killed and two badly injured.

BELGRADE, June 13.—The nephew of the murdered Prince Michael was duly proclaimed Prince of Servia, to-day

TORONTO, June 13.—Dispatches from Montreal say officers of the U. S army are said to be on the frontier between Rouse's Point and Ogdensburg with instructions from Grant to ascertain the correctness of the report that Fenian arms are being secreted there BOTHWELL, Canada, June 13—A party of volunteers returning from drill last evening, was attacked by men supposed to be Fenians One of the volunteers is not expected to recover. An unsuccessful attempt was made, later at night, to break open the drill shed and get arms.

Prospects of Green River.

How the Mormons Work on the Railway.

SALT LAKE CITY,
June 8, 1868

The advent of the railroad agents, and the contracts recently let to Brigham, have given affairs here a better appearance for some time past, but it is probably more in appearance than reality, as it is not easy to see how the railway is to benefit the masses of the Territory. As is every other speculation in the country which is worth a cent, Brigham absorbs the profits. The work is apportioned among the people, as follows: (first explaining that the whole Territory is divided into Church "wards," each of which is presided over by a Bishop who has complete control over the people, and who himself is amenable to Brigham), Each ward is required to furnish ten, twenty, thirty or more men, according to the population, to work on the grade; one of the number being appointed to as overseer or captain, each company working independent of the others, and at the prices which have been established by Brigham Each man is also ordered to carry with him all the provision necessary for his subsistance; this work to be measured monthly, but twenty per cent. of their earnings are retained until the completion of all the work required of them Their pay consists of orders partly on the tithing store, which is stocked by the earnings of the people, and a few orders on the merchants in the city with whom Brigham has made special contracts for their acceptance, whereby they allow him a liberal percentage for the cash to cancel the orders. To make the settlement final, and completely Mormon, ten per cent of the entire earnings of the laborer is deducted for tithing to "the Church," which is another name for Brigham Young. A few sometimes, who are "weak in the faith" assert, with almost Gentile independence, they won't do it; but when they are called they feel as weak in independence as in faith; and go "like the quarry slave scourged to his dungeon." Brother Brigham holds the whip as well as the reins, and whither he would drive they go; although it may be in unwilling silence.

The general belief here is that Green river will be winter quarters of the Union Pacific Railway, and that the road will be completed to that point by the first of September; but that the road will be finished up to Bridger in the early winter months, and by the first of May, 1869, cars will be running into the Great Salt Lake Valley.

But little has been developed in the Seveire mines since my last; but the men are still hopeful and vigorously at work. Good prospects are obtained, and it is thought rich pay will be found on the bed rock. Indians are troublesome down in that country, so that it is dangerous to travel except in parties of ten or twenty.

The weather here is delightful, the grasshopper excitement is considerably abased, and there are hopes of a good harvest, which we trust may be fulfilled. MARK.

The Daily Evening Leader
MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1868.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Leader

Last Night's Report.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The bark Dana brings later news from Australia. An intense anti-Fenian excitement prevailed in New Zealand. The task of forming the new Ministry of Melbourne had been abandoned. Seditious movements were reported in various parts of the colony.

HARRISBURG, June 12.—The State Medical Association resolution to admit female physicians was defeated by thirty-seven to forty-five.

MONTREAL, June 12.—Arrangements have been made by the military authorities for the association of troops at Richmond, in the Province of Quebec.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Vera Cruz dates are received which state the Prefects of La Paz, Lower California, and of San Luis Potosi, are to be prosecuted for malfeasance in office. Escobedo was at San Luis, on his way to quell the rebellion in Quereroy and Guerrero. General Porforio Diaz has been granted leave of absence for two years.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Havana dates to the 6th state the United States steamer De Soto entered the harbor without saluting the Spanish flag. An understanding between Commodore Boggs and Consul De La Reinlay is supposed to account for this proceeding. Santa Anna is said to have introduced his mistress at one of the Mexican refugee reunions, and in consequence was forbidden permission to come again.

A Lima, Peru, letter to May 22nd says ex-President Prado will be called soon to resume the reins of government. Trouble with Chili is increasing, and an early renewal of war with Spain is expected. The military imprisonments are very harsh and unpopular. The yellow fever is abating. Chilian advices state the frontier is being fortified; twenty-five Chilian soldiers have been massacred by Indians.

St. Domingo dates to May 30th state the revolution is steadily gaining ground. Salnave has found himself cooped in his capital and abandoned by his Minister, Delorane, who escaped to England. Incendiary fires are frequent. Foreigners attribute them to the President's vindictiveness, as he repeatedly threatened to burn the town sooner than allow the rebels to get possession.

The Tribune says bids for carrying the overland mail were opened yesterday, by which it appears Wells, Fargo & Co., who have been the contractors for the last four years, have lost all the contracts, they being the highest bidders.

32 Years Established and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands prominently [illegible] of other makers and from the [illegible] success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at [illegible] per cent less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for [illegible] Years, and to give Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials [illegible] thoroughly seasoned [illegible] of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted, which the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance. Every part inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day, inasmuch as it is round and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.
Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000
Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,642,425 50.

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement:

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217,63
1865	4,881,919.70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816.65	1,845,896,95
1867	8,771,3[illegible].01	2,0[illegible],509 36
Total increase...		$6,120,768.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10,000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to ... $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to ... 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 5,000
And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

NEW TO-DAY.

AN ORDINANCE

Concerning Dogs.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cheyenne:

SEC. 1 That no dog, bitch or whelp shall be permitted or allowed to run or to be at large within the limits of the City of Cheyenne, unless the owner, keeper, or person having charge of such dog, bitch, or whelp, shall, before the first day of July, pay to the City Clerk, for the use and benefit of the City, the sum of three dollars for each and every male dog, and the sum of five dollars for each and every bitch, owned or kept by such person, and shall also place upon the neck of every such dog, bitch, or whelp, a collar, made of durable material, with the name of the owner, keeper, or person having charge of such dog, bitch, or whelp, legibly printed or engraved thereon.

ED ORPEN, City Clerk
Cheyenne, D. T. June 15th 1868

Foreclosure of Mortgage.

BY virtue of a power of sale contained in a chattel mortgage executed on the 21st day of May, 1868, in favor of the undersigned, and given to secure the payment of a certain promissory note for the sum and costs of $230 00, with interest thereon at the rate of two per cent per month after maturity, which note is now due and unpaid, I will expose to sale, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the office of the Commercial Record, on O'Niel street, Cheyenne City, on the 25th day of June, 1868, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, the following described personal property, to-wit. One Taylor's Hand Printing Press, two desks and tables, one spring revolving chair, five wooden chairs, one cabinet, one black walnut stand, one bed stead and matress, three revolving office stools, one map of the United States, one map of Cheyenne, one map of the Great West, one map of the World, 600 pounds of type, four reams printing paper, twenty reams of bill and writing paper, one silver bell, two printer's stands, twenty-four printer's cases, two stoves and pipe, three tables, six lamps. Terms of sale, cash.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A. T. DRAKE, ... Business Agent.

Local Affairs.

ADVERTISERS, READ!—THE CHEYENNE DAILY EVENING LEADER has a bona fide paying Circulation outnumbering any other paper in this Territory.

ADVERTISEMENTS IN THIS COLUMN, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER LINE, EACH INSERTION.

—A good lot of Ladies' Dress Goods, Saques, Parasols, Hose and Dress Trimmings, for sale, regardless of cost, at G. W Smith & Co's, corner of Eddy and Eighteenth streets. 3t

BURGLARS.—We learn that some burglars attempted to effect an entrance to the residence of a family in the upper portion of the city, on Friday night, and were only discovered as they were preparing to step in through the window It would be well for our citizens to prepare a double-barreled dose of buckshot for such visitors, and be sure they get it every time they apply for it

THE CHAMPION CUE—ENTRIES—All entries to contest for the champion billiard cue for Nebraska, Dakota and Colorado, must be made at Brunswick Hall, Omaha, by the tenth day of July, 1868.

Dakota, Cheyenne and Colorado papers please copy je13-3t

—Mayor L. Murrin, after an absence of some weeks in the east, looking after the interests of Cheyenne, returned to the city yesterday, better satisfied with his mountain home than ever He looks well, and we only regret that Mrs. Mayor did not come too

—We learn upon good authority that Col Ford, of Galesburg, Ill, has positive assurance of his appointment as Chief Justice of the new Territory of Wyoming.

AXES—Best made, large assortment, at Geo. Tritch & Co's Hardware Store. je15-tf

—In other cities, societies for preventing cruelty to animals are formed and may be considered good institutions; but in Cheyenne a humanitarian society, to prevent cruelty to poor, unfortunate individuals who happen to fall into the hands of some of our police, might be better. On Saturday night, about eleven o'clock, a man by the name of Duffield was unfortunate enough to be arrested for misdemeanor, near the Rollins House. The poor fellow made but little resistance, when two of our worthy police fell upon him with clubs and pistols, and his life was saved only by the captain of police, "Monte," appearing in time to prevent farther brutality. Will the Council keep such men on the police force?

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY —The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R. Converse, Sixteenth street. m30tf

IMPORTANT LAWSUIT.—James H. Gildrsleeve commenced suit to-day in our District Court against Wells, Fargo & Co. for the recovery of $30,000 damages for personal injuries he received, in July last, by the upsetting of one of their coaches near Bear River, in Utah He had one of his legs broken by the accident. McLaughlin & Isaacs are the Attorneys for Mr. Gildersleeve.

—We were regaled yesterday evening with some of Reithmann's Roman punch. It's good—try some.

—In the Police Court, this morning, a few d. d's., the result of Sunday's amusements, who contributed to the exchequer of the city, was about all the business before His Honor.

A MOVING ADDRESS. The world moves—so does the LEADER. On Saturday we commenced moving and succeeded in getting as far as J. M. Pyper's, corner of Ferguson and Sixteenth streets, where we may be found until our own building, which is now on wheels, arrives and is located upon the lot on Ferguson street in the rear of our present temporary quarters. In the meantime, if providence, the telegraph, and local items, stand by us in proportion to our good intention, we shall furnish a good deal of news, a little romance, and do job printing in first class style, at the lowest possible living rates. To conclude, we move that delinquents advance with back charges.

GOIN' AG'IN THE STAR.—A train of emigrants from the west—the first of the season—about twenty Oregon families, arrived in this city yesterday, on their way east. They think there is no place like home, but it must be admitted they are going against the majority, as well as against the Star of Empire and the opinion of George Francis Train.

—The largest stock of ladies' Serge and Kid Gaiters west of Chicago for sale, at cost, at G. W. Smith & Co.'s, corner of Eddy and Eighteenth sts 3t

SHOCKING SUICIDE.

Death by Railway Cars

A Man Ground to Pieces.

This morning, about ten o'clock, a man committed suicide by throwing himself under an approaching train of cars, at the crossing of Eddy street, in this city. The train was backing at the time, and although a brakesman signaled the engineer immediately, before the train could be stopped six freight cars had passed over him, mutilating the body in a horrible manner The bones of the neck were so broken and crushed that the head was held on to the body by the skin alone; the left arm and side, and both legs, were ground to a shapeless mass of hideous flesh, portions of the ribs and other bones being scattered along the banks for a considerable distance A. B More, acting Coroner, was immediately sent for, and upon arriving, he summoned a jury, which rendered a verdict according to the following evidence, which appeared in the examination

C W Miller knew deceased for two years, his name is S W. Hall, he is 27 years of age, a son of Rev. Wm. Hall, Salamanca, New York, and a brother-in-law of Lieut Halleck, of the 27th Infantry His father wanted him to go home, sent him $150 to bear his expenses home; he was a single man. Some time ago he said he would commit suicide, he wanted a revolver; did not consider him rational

W. H Downard said he knew deceased, had seen him at his house frequently, he has been drunk for some time, saw him yesterday, did not think he was in his right mind thought he would kill himself, as he never ate anything, was always drinking.

C H Venando, engineer on the switch engine—Saw a man standing beside the track, and saw a signal from the brakesman, then heard a man was run over, the cars were ahead of the engine, rang the bell all the way up the track, six cars ran over him

Fred Darling, switchman in the yard—Saw the man pitch himself upon the track, all the cars ran over him, pass so many men no attention was paid to him, there was nothing unusual in his appearance.

The above are the facts in the case, so near as can be ascertained, from which it appears to have been simply another case of death by whisky, the unfortunate victim of which was undoubtedly a man of natural sound mind, and of a good and respectable family This is a second instance of the kind which has occurred here within a week, and if these terrible warnings are allowed to pass unheeded, sermons are useless

—A number of "Lo's" and Lo'esses and juvenile Lo's are straggling about town, picking up little things, and swapping when they can't steal

—"SIX MONTHS ON THE PLAINS," &c —This book having been missent, has caused a delay quite unexpected in its being received here It will come by express to-morrow evening, and be for sale at Beers'. A large demand at the east leaves only about 500 copies of the first edition for this city. je15tf

SHOOTING AT FT. SANDERS

An Officer Shot by One of His Own Men.

The Soldier Shot by His Comrades.

A shooting occurred at Sanders yesterday, resulting in the death of 1st Lieut. W. W. Bell, of the 18th Inf'y, and —— Brown, a private in the same regiment, the circumstances of which as we have been informed, are as follows: Brown was behaving in a disorderly manner, when the Lieutenant ordered him, as punishment, to carry a knapsack, whereupon the soldier seized a musket and shot the officer dead. Brown was immediately arrested, and in a short time was shot by twenty-four of his own comrades. The body of the Lieutenant arrived here this afternoon, and was met at the depot by an escort consisting of detachments from several companies of the 18th Infantry, under command of 1st Lieut. H. B Counselman, of Company F, 18th Infantry. The remains were conveyed to Fort Russell.

BORN.

Reviving.

A feverish excitement, followed by a depressed reaction in a corresponding ratio, is one of the characteristics of new mines of gold and silver But after the excitement and depression have both passed away, a state of healthy activity and confidence sets in, if the mines are at all valuable, and the permanent prosperity of the surrounding country, as well as the diggings is insured, and slowly and gradually the community increases in numbers and wealth The Sweetwater mines have completely passed the first stage of this existence, as it might be called; the hugging, tumbling, and excited comments attendant upon the birth of all infants of great promise or of fashionable families, and it also fell into the second or alarming measles—and cholera infantum—period of its existence succeeded by great prostration from which it is now recovering and showin signs of real value and future greatness. Those who rushed to the mines as soon as they were discovered, with the hope of finding fortunes and establishing mints without trouble, soon became disgusted, and leaving, scattered their dissatisfaction broadcast wherever their names were heard. So Sweetwater was said to be "a bilk;" "old Californians" said so, and then it was forgotten that "old Californians" said the same thing of California; it was forgotten that the same thing was said of Colorado and Washoe, years ago, and later of Idaho, and of Montana, too. Now we learn, not from the newspapers published there, but from private sources, that Sweetwater will be a success Within three months gold bricks will be shipped from Sweetwater, such as are unsurpassed by any mine in any country. New discoveries of surface diggings are every day being made, and it will soon be shown that the richness of that place has been not exaggerated, but entirely undervalued. Men who have spent a number of weeks in prospecting and examing, go now for mills, and the mills will soon be in the mines and hard at work. A few weeks of actual work shows different and greater results than was anticipated; and it is found—a rare thing now a days—that those mines improve upon acquaintance. The longer they are known the more extensively they will be worked, and the greater will be the profits they return.

Some Montana sapphires were sent to London, in order to ascertain their value, which proved them not to be sapphires at all, or anything else of any value.

The total eclipse of the sun which is to take place on the 18th of August next, will present such a long duration of darkness that astronomers are anticipating it with unusual interest From near Aden the central line of the eclipse extends to the southern coast of New Guinea, crossing Hindoostan, the Bay of Bengal, the Malayan peninsula, and the Gulf of Siam on the way; and at certain places on this line the duration of total darkness will be at 6.46. At the date in question the moon will not be more than six hours from its perigee, while the sun will not be far from its apogee; a twofold condition which increases the apparent diameter of the moon, and shows the apparent diameter of the sun, nearly at the smallest. Hence the prolonged darkness. Such a chance occurs but rarely, and we cannot wonder that a strong desire exists to make the most of is in endeavors to solve certain highly important questions in physical science. Unluckily, the southwest monsoon will be at its full blast on the 10th of August, which, with its heavy clouds, will render observation either uncertain or impossible, except on the eastern side of the mountain ranges

On the evening of the election in Gold Hill, Nevada, the Democratic candidates were so certain of success that they made speeches and treated their voting supporters On the official tally being completed, the election was found to be a complete Union victory; then the Democrats didn't treat.

The Sweetwater Mines of the 6th says The Wyoming Ditch Company cleaned up twenty-five ounces of dust in two days' run ——Miners are beginning to complain of the difficulty of exchanging gold duct for currency or coin.——Several now discoveries of placer diggings are reported this week

An eastern paper says: "Fighting Joe Hooker" would hardly be recognized by his comrades in arms—a confirmed invalid, the victim of paralysis, dependent on others His return to America without improvement in health is a subject of deep regret, not only to his warm personal friends but to all who remember the heroism of American leaders with pride.

The Salt Lake Reporter says: An impression has obtained in many quarters that there was but one contract let here by the U. P. R. R, and that Brigham Young got it The truth of the matter is that there were two contracts let, of about fifty miles each, and Nounnan & Co (Gentiles) took one and Brigham the other. Brigham's commences at the mouth of Weber and runs to the head of Echo. Nounnan & Co.'s commences at the head of Echo, and runs in the direction of Bridger.

The Salt Lake News has the following standing notice: Messrs Joseph A. Young, Brigham Young junr, and John W Young, agents for President Brigham Young, left this city on the 8th inst., for the head of Echo Canyon, to let contracts for grading on the Union Pacific Railroad, and will begin the lettings on Thursday, the 11th inst. Parties wishing contracts on that road can now start their men, provisions, tools, &c., as fast as they can get ready. As soon as the line is all located, about 10,000 men will be wanted.

Mr. Barber arrived last evening from Brigham Canyon and reports everything quiet in that locality. Some claims are paying well and others are fast approaching that desirable condition.

A prisoner in Solano, Cal, was sentenced to seven years in the States Prison, for manslaughter. After the Judge had concluded his remarks, the prisoner arose and said: "Judge, it has been charged that I was desirous of escaping. Had such been my purpose it would have been accomplished. I have had the power to escape up to the time I was brought before you for sentence. In order to convince you what I say is true, only look here," at the same time throwing on the floor the bolts that had been in the hinges to the door of his cell. The prisoner could have escaped without any difficulty.

Indian Depredations on the Muscleshell.

Captain Gibson, who has just arrived in town from the copper mines of the Muscleshell, informs us the Indians are in force in that vicinity, and committing numerous depredations. On the 25th ult., they paid Copperopolis a visit, and run off all the stock. They met with a stubborn resistance from the few miners encamped there, which resulted in the premature decease of several of the "Pets," and the wounding of three white men. Mr. Crittenden received a slight wound in the head; Capt. Jenkerson received two arrow wounds in the left hip; and Capt. Byan had two arrow wounds—one in the left leg, and one in the right shoulder. Our informant states that the redskins are so numerous it is not safe for less than twenty-five men, well armed, to venture from the mines to the mouth of the Muscleshell. Verily, the fruits of the Peace Commission do ripen rapidly.—Helena, M. T., Herald, 2nd inst

MORNING REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—The fact has just transpired that the act of the last legislature, alienating the Yosemite grant, which passed over Governor Height's veto, was not certified to the Secretary of State as legally received, and is therefore, not a law.

NOON REPORT.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 15.—Twenty-three lives were lost on the bark Istria, wrecked off Hattaras.

TORONTO, June 15.—Volunteers and regulars are actively preparing for any emergency. In consequence of Fenian rumors a brigade will be stationed at Toronto, Hamilton and London, and a force at Collingwood and other exposed points.

LONDON, June 15.—In the Commons this evening, the Secretary of Foreign affairs, Lord Stanley, said that the Egyptian government entertained a plan for the establishment of courts of law to protect the rights of residents of Egypt of foreign birth, and that the Viceroy was desirous to carry the measure into effect

WASHINGTON, June 15—The Intelligencer of this a. m. has an article calling on Secretary McCulloch to resign. It is very bitter on the Secretary, and is supposed to be inspired by the President.

Reverdy Johnson, the new Minister to England, will leave about the middle of July. No change will be made in the Secretaryship of Legation.

WASHINGTON, June 16—A delegation of distillers from Kentucky, Illinois and Indiana are here urging the Ways and Means Committee to reduce the tax on whisky to fifty cents per gallon. They state that by the reduction of the tax to this figure, government will receive from those States alone more revenue in three months than thus far has been received from the whole United States. At this figure they say it will be impossible for illicit distillers to ply their vocation further if the tax is reduced; and government would at once realize forty millions from the whisky now held back from market by themselves and other large distillers who can't compete with illicit distillers who defraud government of the tax and sell whiskky at low rates. The committee are already of the opinion the tax should be reduced, but have not yet settled on the figures to be incorporated in the bill now before the House.

Prominent Democrats assert the President will not make any Cabinet changes until the fourth of July Convention has declared its principles. If Pendleton is nominated appointments will be given exclusively to Democrats; but if Chase is nominated, then many must be tendered to Republicans who thereby could be induced to support him also. Many who profess to believe that Johnson will be nominated, claim he will go into the convention with nearly all the southern votes, and that many at the north who do not like either Pendleton or Chase could be induced to support him. Certain it is that such a movement is on foot and already has been actively canvassed here.

Witness Woolley has been finally discharged from further attendance before the impeachment investigating committee, and left the city this evening.

NEW YORK, June 16.—John D. Loomis' planing mill in Brooklyn, and several other buildings, were burned last night. Loss, sixty thousand dollars.

A Herald correspondent from Richmond says he is authorized to state that Chase will accept the Democratic nomination on a platform embodying universal suffrage. The Chief Justice is now in Richmond, and receives numerous letters daily from Republicans of the North, offering co-operation with the Democratic party in case he is nominated, and the platform is of the kind set forth.

A Herald's Port Au Prince correspondent says Salnave, in a recent interview with the United States, French and English Ministers, declared his determination not to yield to his antagonists, and to hold his position at Port Au Prince under every circumstance.

Salnave set fire to the northern and northeastern part of the suburbs. On the 5th, he sent deputations of his Generals to the army of the southern revolutionists to effect a compromise. He proposed to retain his office three years, and give his Ministry to his southern Generals, and that the army of the south would enter immediately into the city and join with him in repelling Cacos. These propositions were indignantly refused.

LONDON, June 15.—The daily News says the long experience training and high character of Reverdy Johnson guarantees that he will well represent the United States as a whole, and not sectionally. The Times says no envoy could be sent here who would be hailed with more confidence as a statesman of a great nation. The unanimous ratification of his nomination is an unexampled testimonial of his integrity.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The award of the contract for conveying the overland mails to California was to Carlton Spaides, of Chicago, the rate being one thousand dollars per day for the length of the line of 1,095 miles.

Senator Doolittle did not attend the Chase meeting at Philadelphia

The Democratic and Conservative members of Congress did n't feel at liberty to take active measures in advance of the Convention, relative to the candidate to be nominated.

Senate.—The currency bill question was on the amendment of Morrill, of Vermont, as follows: That on an issue of any increase of the national circulation, the Secretary of, the Treasury is hereby authorized and required to permanently withdraw an equal amount of U S. notes.

In the House Logan moved the suspension of the rules to enable him to offer a preamble and resolutions, providing for the appointment of a committee of five to inquire into the propriety and expediency of removing the seat of general government to a point nearer the geographical centre of the Republic. The House refused, by yeas 43, nays 67.

Robinson, with unanimous consent, offered a resolution requesting the President to take measures to secure the release from imprisonment of Warren and Costello, convicted and sentenced in Great Britain for words and acts spoken and done in the United States; and to take measures to secure their return to the flag with such ceremonies as may be appropriate to the occasion. The resolution was adopted.

Ashley, of Ohio, moved to suspend the rules for the purpose of offering a resolution relating to the assassination of Solomon Dill and other persons, in South Carolina.

Pending the vote, the House adjourned.

There have been immense landslides in Provo Canyon, completely filling up the river, in some cases.

During the month of May there were thirty-one alarms of fire in San Francisco. Twenty-seven of these were actual conflagrations, caused as follows: Attempts, two; ashes, one; children playing with matches, two; carelessness with fire, two; carelessness with candle, one, defective chimneys, three; defective stove pipes, one; gas lights, one; incendiary, eight; supposed carelessness with matches, two; spontaneous combustion, one; unknown, five; chimneys, one; rekindling, one.

A Nevada paper says: "At nine o'clock last night a light shock of an earthquake was felt here. It was of short duration and resembled the shock and vibration of a heavy blast We expect next to see old Mount Davidson vomiting forth fire, smoke and "burning lather," as Mrs. Partington would call it. For a young State we are doing well. We can get up about as large earthquakes as they can raise anywhere; all we want now is a first-class volcano—we are just about sick for a volcano."

The New York Citizen, edited by the gallant Miles O'Reilly, has the following:

Grant and Colfax make a ticket hard to beat. The wonderful military success of the one, and the great political ability of the other, cannot be written down or belittled by newspaper editors; and the attempt to do so is a folly only worthy of the late management of the Democratic party. The Daily Evening Leader

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1868.

John Paul writes from New York: "A considerable curiosity has been expressed to know what the subject of the woman's club is, and what is going on there. Have patience, good public, and you shall know. The married women will tell their husbands all about it, and, some of them being editors, it will get into the papers. There's Mrs. Paul, for instance, I've got nothing out of her yet, but the thing's working. The treatment which she is undergoing never fails. I affect to have no curiosity at all; scarcely mention the club, in fact, except to say, when the appointed day comes: 'Well, my dear, this is your club night; you'll want my latch key, I suppose. Don't let that horribly dissipated Mrs. Brown persuade you to drink more than's good for you, and if I've retired when you get home, come up stairs as softly as you can, and don't get into bed with your boots on—be particular about that.' She assumes a very mysterious air about her 'club,' and tries to provoke me into questions—which, of course, if I asked, she would refuse to answer. As it is, in the face of my indifference to know, it is evident that she is dying to tell. The other night she put her night-capped face close to mine, and began, 'Oh John, if I was only sure you wouldn't tell about the Sorosis, I'd —' But I simply said, 'Don't dear, I'm so sleepy.' However, I intend to let her tell me at an early day; for, plainly, the thing is on her mind, and she must have it off. It is a clear case of feminine noblesse oblige—tell or die. I shall soon know as much about the Sorosis as I could were I a Sorose myself."

The Daily Evening Leader.

In the city of Buenos Ayres, the bulls and bears meet on the Bourse every day at ten o'clock, and work there faithfully till two p. m., and every hour the price of their paper dollar is fixed by these disinterested gentlemen, and disseminated through the city. The price there ranges from four to five cents for the paper dollar, and whatever it happens to stand at when two o'clock comes is the price for all the merchants and storekeepers till the following morning at ten.

The following riddle was written by Archbishop Whately, who offered in vain £50 to any one who would guess it:

When from the Ark's capacious round
The world came forth in pairs
Who was it that first heard the sound
Of boots upon the stairs?

An ingenious correspondent of a cotemporary now solves the enigma thus—

To him who cons the matter o'er
A little thought reveals
He heard it first who went before
Two pairs of soles and heels.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times makes the following statement regarding Mr. Chase's chances for the Democratic nomination for President:

"The movement to make Judge Chase the Democratic nominee for President continues to gather strength. Mr. Chase sent last week for his family, and they went to Richmond yesterday to join him there. He will probably go further south with them. He is receiving considerable attention from the white people, but none from the colored folks. Nearly every Democratic member of Congress here is either for Chase openly, or disavows hostility to his nomination, while those who have been backing Pendleton are now considering how they can best make terms with Chase."

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,125 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement.

	Assets.	Increase of assets over previous year.
1864	$3,658,755,55	$1,085,217,63
1865	4,861,919.70	1,223,164 15
1866	6,727,516.65	1,845,596 95
1867	8,771,125.01	2,046,509 38
Total Increase.		$6,120,788.69

This Increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860; and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid, as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances, or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants' and,

WHEREAS, the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all, the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains;

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs. L. MURRIN, Mayor.

CHEYENNE, D.T.,

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1868

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

A. T. DRAKE, ... Business Agent.

Local Affairs.

ADVERTISERS, READ!—THE CHEYENNE DAILY EVENING LEADER has a bona fide paying Circulation outnumbering any other paper in this Territory.

ADVERTISEMENTS IN THIS COLUMN, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER LINE, EACH INSERTION

—A good lot of Ladies' Dress Goods, Saques, Parasols, Hose and Dress Trimmings, for sale, regardless of cost, at G. W. Smith & Co.'s, corner of Eddy and Eighteenth streets. 3t

—A distinguished citizen of Cheyenne, while at a dinner party in St. Louis recently, was asked his opinion of the future of our country, when, in his hibernian style, he informed them his opinion was that in ten years from now there would be three large cities in the United States, and upon being asked what three he had reference to, promptly replied, New York, Chicago and Cheyenne. He was then asked what he thought of St. Louis He said it was too far from Cheyenne to amount to anything

THE CHAMPION CUE—ENTRIES—All entries to contest for the champion billiard cue for Nebraska, Dakota and Colorado, must be made at Brunswick Hall, Omaha, by the tenth day of July, 1868.

Dakota, Cheyenne and Colorado papers please copy. je13-3t

AXES.—Best made, large assortment, at Geo. Tritch & Co.'s Hardware Store. je15-tf

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R Converse, Sixteenth street. m30tf

—The largest stock of ladies' Serge and Kid Gaiters west of Chicago for sale, at cost, at G. W. Smith & Co.'s corner of Eddy and Eighteenth sts. 3t

—"SIX MONTHS ON THE PLAINS," &c.—This book having been missent, has caused a delay quite unexpected in its being received here It will come by express to-morrow evening, and be for sale at Beers'. A large demand at the east leaves only about 500 copies of the first edition for this city je15tf

—Billy Downard has rented his saloon to another party, and leaves today for North Platte.

CELEBRATE.—Cheyenne has never had a Fourth of July yet, but an opportunity will soon be afforded for a Fourth, and it should be a celebrated one Every other important city is already making preparations for "keeping the Fourth," and it is high time the Magic City was moving in the same direction Our eastern neighbors are so fond of visiting the Black Hills, that perhaps some of them might happen along in time to take a hand with us. There is not much fun nor genuine patriotism either in gunpowder or whisky, but there are rational amusements, entertainments and sports from which innocent and lasting happiness may be derived and pleasantly remembered. Who will be the first to act upon this suggestion, and get up a Fourth of July in this portion of the Rocky Mountains?

FURNISHED HOTEL TO RENT.—Will take the rent in board. Terms reasonable. Apply to Abney & Reel, Eighteenth street.

Cheyenne, June 16, 1868. je16tf

—A canvasser, of some experience and good reference as to character, wanted. Address "A," at this office.

—Letters from Denver state work on the D. P. R. R. has been suspended and will probably not be resumed until the Union Pacific comes to the assistance of the work, which will probably not be this year.

—The Deseret (Salt Lake) News congratulates "Legh" of the Index that he was the first to favor Brigham for President of the United States. It is difficult to see who this is intended to flatter. Is it Brigham, or the United States, or the Index?

—The man who was so badly beaten by the police on Sunday night, lies at the Rollins House in a critical condition.

In the Queen's book, Her Majesty, in describing her incognita visit to the inn at Dalwinnie, does not mention one incident connected with the trip. The Queen proposed to visit Castle Grant, and consulted the innkeeper, Mrs. Glass, about the project. "The family are at home," said the worthy hostess, "and dinna care about strangers. But if ye wad just gae in aboot, an' speer for the housekeeper, an' gie her my compliments, nae doot but ye'll see through the Castle."

NOTICE.

I HEREBY notify all concerned that the Ordinance passed February 4th, by the City Council, respecting Licenses, will strictly be put in force from and after the 20th instant. By order

THE

NEW YORK Life Insurance COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,042,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets.	Increase of assets over previous year.
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217,63
1865	4,881,919,70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816.65	1,845,896.95
1867	8,774,326.01	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788.09

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known 'Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10 000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment when all is paid

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a pure mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured

The Situation.

A great deal or a little—it is of no consequence which—anxiety and solicitude seems to be felt by disinterested parties abroad as to the future of Cheyenne. Some have expressed the opinion that because trains now run beyond this city, this city must soon disappear; as was the case at North Platte and Julesburg. This is not so If the Union Pacific Railway, from Omaha to its most western point of completion, were torn up and never again replaced, there would always be a city where Cheyenne now stands Being situated upon the line where the plains and mountains meet, and being in the heart of one of the finest grazing countries that ever laid out of doors, once established it must stand forever. Those who know the country best know it will be so. A town is as necessary half way between Salt Lake and the Missouri, as it is at either the Missouri or Salt Lake This is the changing point between Omaha and the City of the Saints, as certainly as the latter is the changing point between Salt Lake and the Sierra Nevadas. Mines are being discovered in the adjoining hills, and with plenty of water at hand this can be made as good an agricultural country as the northern portions of Utah, and has the advantages of being near a market But it is to stock-raising and mining that these vast plains, lying in the heart of the continent, must look for their future The mountains are full of ore of precious and baser metals, and they are gradually being brought to the surface. The valleys are specially adapted to grazing, and they will, before long, be covered with cattle Believing in Cheyenne, we have set ourselves down here to grow with it. We have purchased a lot and a house, and are now preparing the same for our permanent residence and place of business We have faith in the place, and shall contribute all we can to make it a permanent and prosperous settlement. We follow no railway nor other excitements, but came to Cheyenne knowing it to be a favored location, and with Cheyenne we are content to remain.

The "Tanners" are a new organization at Ogdensburg, N. Y., for the purpose of furthering the success of General Grant. The regalia or uniform consists of a leather apron and other paraphernalia commemorative of the business in which Gen. Grant was engaged at the time the rebellion broke out In joining the army the General did not abandon his business, but kept on tanning the hides of the rebels till the end of the war. The Tanners now propose to do for the Democracy what Grant did for the rebels.

A Curiosity.

From the Auburn (Cal.) Stars and Stripes:

In washing away the gravel in the "Home Ticket mining claim at Gold Run, in Placer county, the trunk of a tree about eight feet in diameter and about forty feet in length, has been uncovered about one hundred feet below the surface of the original ground. The wood is petrified, one side being rock and the other is iron, the surface of which is very beautifully crystalized. There are no such large trees now in that vicinity. Where did it come from? and how was it buried so deep down in the earth? Who can answer?

Grading on the U. P. R. R., in the vicinity of Green river is progressing rapidly. Mr. Carmichael has 500 men at work on his contract, on Bitter Creek. The new town of Green River is located on the east side of the stream, directly opposite the stage station. –Salt Lake Reporter.

A Pleasant Excursion.

In a few years any well-to-do citizen of the United States will blush to say he had not seen the Rocky Mountains. Excursion parties from the east to the end of the track have been growing in frequency, of late, and no doubt by another year the scenery, the air and the many mineral springs of unequaled medicinal virtues which abound throughout the mountains of the great west, will prove to be a greater attraction to pleasure seekers, and a greater benefit to invalids than the crowded, dusty, cholera-breeding, fashionable summer resorts in the eastern States, where there is nothing to admire but everything to create disgust The editorial excursion to the Rocky Mountains last fall was the first party of any consequence which, made up of representatives of nearly every State, and some from Europe, came to and beyond the end of the track for no other purpose than to see what our country was made of, and that party has been succeeded by so many others, that it is safe to say the West is already the greatest point of attraction for pleasure seekers as well as emigrants The National Horse Fair, which is to be held in Denver, commencing on the 30th of June and continuing until the 4th of July, will undoubtedly be the means of drawing still greater attention to the beauties and advantages of the Rocky Mountain region Our Denver neighbors are pretty certain of having a good and extensive celebration of our National Holiday, and as the journey from the east could easily be a pleasant and profitable one we do not doubt that the National Horse Fair at Denver will be attended by many a party of jolly excursionists

A Brilliant Correspondent.

[From the Gold Hill, Nevada, News.]

The Frontier Index, published at Laramie City, has had a brilliant correspondent on a tour from San Francisco, via Donner Lake route and Overland, to the new city in the Rocky Mountain region. A large portion of a late issue of the Index is occupied by reference to the letter of this invaluable correspondent, whose name is 'Legh." Of his "remarkable power of description," some idea may be formed from the following extracts from his much lauded letter.

On leaving San Francisco and crossing the bay, with Oakland and Alameda in their accustomed position on the right, he saw a vessel steaming to the southwest to get into the mouth of the San Joaquin river. If this had happened after the late earthquake, instead of early in April, we might account for the geographical discombobulation At Sacramento he found a population of fifty thousand souls, and ten thousand Chinamen—probably without souls. We imagine that even the Union, Bee, or Record, would scarcely claim for their city a population exceeding twenty thousand, including Chinamen, with or without souls Leaving Sacramento, he saw old Sutter Fort in the suburbs, and a little further along the old mill where Marshall and Warner first struck gold in California Considering that the railroad line is about forty miles from this latter object, and that the intervening space consists of a densely timbered and hilly country, the correspondent must be allowed to be not only possessed of "remarkable powers of description," but remarkably far-seeing and penetrating as well. Sacramentans will be surprised to learn that he saw their town "flooded in some parts as high as the second stories of the houses" in April

Sierra Nevada, he says, means a series of snowy mountains, that's why they call them the Sierras, and this he says seriously, not in imitation of Mark Twain, of whom he admits he is no admirer.

But the point on which this correspondent furnishes the most valuable information, is in connection with railroad construction. He claims that the cost of building the Central Pacific is far greater than that of the Union Pacific, from the fact that their machinery and material is all transported across the Isthmus of Panama. Whether it is thus transported as Express matter, fast or slow freight, we are not informed, but in either case the cost must be enormous, and we would call the especial attention of the Sacramento Union, submitting whether this extra cost on the transportation may not partially offset the greater cost of fuel on the Platte and other barren spots on the Union Pacific road.

TO CLEAN LEADED DUST.—The following recipe for this purpose, which we clip from an exchange, may not be familiar to all our readers:

Put the dust on a shovel or pan, heat it red-hot, then put on grease and let it blaze till all is burnt dry; next put it in strong vinegar or acid, and let remain twenty-four hours, when it will be clean and bright.

—Judge J. P. Bartlett leaves to-day to attend to business at North Platte as U. S. Court Commissioner. We only hope the Judge will find it to his advantage to return soon to Cheyenne, his first love.

The people of Denver believe a subsidy will be granted the Eastern Division to enable that road to build the line to Colorado.

Owing to the number of persons who have been bitten by a rattlesnake in Kansas, the inhabitants of that State have taken to drinking whisky as a preventive.

A machine has been made and is at work in Wisconsin, which cuts from 800 to 1000 tons of peat per day. It is thought if the peat don't "peatre" it will prove a good thing.

Timothy, a brother of John C Heenan, received twelve shots in the abdomen, during an "altercation" (there is n't any more rows) in New York, on the 11th There is a chance for him to pass in his checks.

Senorita Filomeno, a Chilian girl but fourteen years of age, has been creating a furore among the musical critics of St. Louis, who declare her performance on the piano and violin to excel everybody. She goes from St. Louis to Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, and other cities

The Leavenworth Times says: Three persons have been bitten this spring by rattlesnakes, in Linn county, Kansas, and one died, In one instance a snake crawled into a cradle where a child was, and bit it in several places. The child, unconscious of danger, was playing with the snake Whisky was poured down the child, and its life was saved.

A party of high-toned Englishmen are on Solomon's Fork of the Republican river, in Kansas, amusing themselves shooting buffalo, elk and antelope. They intend to spend the summer in this destruction, and no doubt when they return home they will account for all Indian difficulties by stating the American settlers are driving the game away.

On the morning of the 10th inst. an attempt was made to throw the St. Louis mail train from the track about three miles from Leavenworth, by piling ties upon the track. Only the locomotive and tender were thrown off without injury During the delay caused by the murderous affair, a mail bag was stolen, but it contained only papers. It is supposed the affair was intended for robbery, at the expense of the lives of the passengers.

Safety of Travel.

The verdict of $20,000 damages which was recently given in the Supreme Court of New York, in favor of a passenger who brought an action against the New Jersey Steamboat Company, to recover that amount in compensation for his permanent physical injury, consequent upon the explosion of the boiler of the steamer St. John, in October, 1865, will be received with hearty satisfaction by the traveling community. The infliction of severe pecuniary penalties upon the managers and directors of the lines of public travel—both afloat and ashore—in every case where life is destroyed or limb injured through their negligence, is the sure method of bringing them to a sense of their obligations. This strict accountability for damages resulting from carelessness on the part of their employees, or negligence on their own part, insisted on, we shall not be shocked so often as we have been by the recurrence of such easily preventible horrors as those which are not yet generally forgotten as having happened at Angola and at Carr's Rock.—N. Y. Times

The Stockton (Cal.) Independent, of June 3d, has the following account of a singular case of surgery:

Yesterday Dr. Sposati was called upon to perform a surgical operation seldom done in California. A man who left Central America about seven weeks ago, and who is employed on a farm a short distance from this city, was obliged to stop work on account of a sore arm, a chigre having tunneled into the flesh and nearly reached the bone The surgeon made an incision with a lance, and with forceps brought the gimlet-nosed depredator from its hiding place. The ugly thing is nearly three-quarters of an inch in length, and thick in proportion. It is spiral in form, and had taken up its quarters in the man's left arm, midway between the elbow and the shoulder, and close to the main artery. The man informed us that he had frequently felt the jigger move and eating his flesh.

The Railroad Meeting in Utah.

From the Salt Lake Reporter, 11th inst.

On Monday evening last an impromptu meeting was held in the bank building, on the corner of Main and Second South streets. J. M. Carter, Esq., was elected chairman, and Mr. A. W. White, secretary. The meeting was quite spirited, and expressed a strong preference for the Main Line of the Overland Railroad to pass through this city. The proceedings were conducted after the manner in which such things are done in America; a set of resolutions were adopted, and arrangements were made, by the appointment of committees, etc, for a Mass Meeting to be held on Wednesday (yesterday) evening at seven o'clock, in front of the Salt Lake House.

By a process unknown in localities where the people are the sovereigns, this primary meeting and all its doings were expunged, rubbed out, squelched, and a meeting ordered by Brigham Young in the new Tabernacle at 5 p. m of the same day on which the one was to be held in front of the Salt Lake House. During the day runners were dispatched throughout the city to deliver the order for the people to assemble, and at the appointed time there was a large crowd at the Tabernacle. At about half-past five Mr. Hussey was called to the stand After a little bustle among the managers, Mr. Hussey nominated Brigham president of the meeting and he was unanimously elected Col Head was made vice-president, and Mr Pomeroy, secretary. Messrs. A W Street and Thos Marshall were called to the stand by Brigham and came forward and took seats on it. Messrs. J. R. Walker, J. M. Carter and R. H. Robertson were also called, but did not respond. A committee on resolutions was appointed, which retired to perform its duties, and in its absence several speeches were made. Brigham made the first. He said he was in for the R R and always had been, and he wanted it to come to Salt Lake City, and he would help build it, provided he was well paid He gave his full and unqualified assent to the building of a road across the continent. We felt much better after he did that: we feared he might not be willing and we'd never have a road. After Brigham, came Mr. Head, whose eloquence was commensurate, perhaps a little more than commensurate, with the mighty topic. He enveloped the great project in a luxurious oriental style that was quite charming in these matter-of-fact times, but he forgot entirely to mention the little circumstance that the route by the north end of the Lake is seventy miles shorter than that by the south end, and indeed this small item was entirely overlooked by all the speakers; perhaps its consideration would have spoiled the rhetoric Facts are ugly things when they don't lean to our side.

As Mr H concluded, the committee on resolutions appeared, and made their report. The resolutions, which were adopted without debate, welcome the U. P. R R. to the borders of Utah; ask that the road may be brought to this city; promise ground for a depot and shops, and want the railroad to be a national benefit—not a means of enriching individuals.

After the vote on the resolutions, Thomas Marshall, Esq., was called out and made a speech, containing much of the Fourth of July oratory which is always so highly relished by American citizens. Mr. J. Taylor next read a quite able and commendable speech

In answer to loud calls Mr. Hussey appeared at the speaker's stand and said he was like Grant, and bowed himself away. Geo. A. Smith then swallowed the railroad quite gracefully, and made a neat, witty little speech, quite in contrast with the lumbersome sermon he preached last Sunday. Geo. Q. Cannon closed up the affair with a re-hash of his yesterday's editorial.

The meeting adjourned, sine die.

S. H. Winsor, Services rendered as City Civil Engineer, 4 months,	$333 33

Ordered that warrants be drawn on the Treasurer for the foregoing amounts

Ald. Hamilton and Liddell, the Committee appointed at last meeting to visit City Hospital, and report on the best mode of disposing of the patients therein, belonging to the City reported verbally that they had, through the kind assistance of Superintendent Snyder, of the U. P. R. R., shipped the patients to Omaha and relatives. On motion the report was received, and a vote of thanks tendered to Dr. Hamilton and the U. P. R. R. Co.

W. A. Hodgeman, Foreman of the Pioneer Hook and Ladder Company, presented a communication informing the Council that Mr. A. M. Appel had been unanimously elected second Engineer, and asking for his endorsement by the Council.

Ald. McDonald moved that the report be received, and 2nd Engineer confirmed. Motion granted.

The City Marshal sent in a report on matters of a private character on which he was instructed at last meeting to report.

On motion the report was received.

Ald. Hamilton moved that the City Clerk be instructed to furnish a report of all names ——— collected by him, to the Council on the first regular meeting in each month. Motion adopted

Ald. Wise presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Heretofore to-wit: on the 2nd day of June, 1868, the seat of Charles Sternberger, as a member of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Cheyenne was declared vacant because of the said Sternberger having removed from the city, therefore

Resolved, That a special election be and is hereby ordained by the Board of Aldermen, the Mayor concurring, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Charles Sternberger, late Alderman of the City of Cheyenne, said election to take place on the 29th day of June, 1868, and that a Poll be opened at the City Hall, in said city for said election of a member of the Board of Aldermen in place of said Charles Sternberger.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Alds Hodgeman and Wise brought forward the following resolution:

Resolved, That the present police force be reduced from seven (7) to four (4)

After considerable discussion, the resolution was laid over for future action.

Ald. Liddell moved that the Committee on Police, and the Marshal, be instructed to investigate into the conduct of the member of the police force accused of maltreating prisoners when in custody, and report the result of their inquiries by next meeting, with such suggestions regarding the reduction of the force as they may deem prudent, and recommend to the Mayor four or five suitable men to be retained. Motion adopted.

Ald. P. McDonald moved that the men doing duty as Policemen that have not been endorsed by the Council be discharged immediately, and warrants drawn for their pay. Motion carried.

Life

Death of a Notorious Desperado.

Some time last winter a man named Riley killed the Sheriff of Ormsby county, Nevada, and escaped. A reward amounting to $2,000 or $2,500 was offered for his capture at the time, but months passed and nothing was heard of him until the 2nd inst., when he was discovered, followed, and attacked near St. Clair's Station, on Carson river, in Nevada. How he was attacked, fought, and died, is best told by the Virginia Trespass of the 4th inst., as follows:

"They overtook Riley, and he turned and fought them like a tiger. One of the men was armed with a shot gun, and at a distance of twenty feet discharged both barrels at Riley, the charge missing him but taking effect in the neck of the beast he rode, which fell dead. At this time, Riley had discharged every barrel of his revolver, and was unarmed. He went to the carcass of his horse, untied from the saddle a sack or bag (subsequently ascertained to be stored with powder, balls, caps, tea, coffee, sugar, rice, flour, candles, Boulogna sausage, dried beef, salt, pepper, matches, a razor, etc.—in fact, everything essential to an extended camping tour), slung it over his shoulder, and cursing the men who were afraid to grapple with him, went behind a clump of bushes and loaded his revolver, occupying a space of at least half an hour. After his revolver was charged, he came out and advanced towards his pursuers, daring them to approach him, and flourishing his pistol, swore he could whip them all. They told him that he might as well yield; that more force was coming (those four men had sent after an additional force), and escape was impossible.

He waited a few moments, went to the side of his dead horse, cocked his revolver, put the muzzle in his mouth, and discharged the pistol. A subsequent examination showed that the bullet passed entirely through his head, scattering his brain, and of course causing immediate death.

The four, valiant (?) pursuers stood guard; time fled, and others came and stood guard. Riley's dead corpse remained (so Chief Strouse informs us) for hours, until at last five men, with cocked shotguns, advanced upon the inanimate dust, yet fearful of a "possum game," and took possession of the mortal remains of Thomas Riley. Coroner Allen was summoned, a jury convened, and an inquest held at the place where Riley met death by his own hand, in the flat about four miles east of St. Clair's Station, on the Carson river. The verdict was, that "the name of the deceased was Thomas Riley, and that he came to his death by his own hand."

Neither history or romance records a more desperate resistance nor reckless regard of death than was exhibited in the above case.

MANUFACTURERS,

Ware rooms, 348 Bleecker street, N. Y. City.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the [illegible] manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands pre-eminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last; the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance. Every part, inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most rigid examination. They differ from the [illegible] to most others (which [illegible] in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as the [illegible] Frame, parts its vibrations, definitions [illegible] capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and [illegible] the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $[illegible] to $[illegible]. my[illegible]m

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE.

(Patented February [illegible])

Warerooms, 152 Greene St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Piano, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the [illegible] plank being supplied by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding-board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano, and by this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers.

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,042,125 50.

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement:

	Assets.	Increase of assets over previous year.
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217 63
1865	4,881,919 79	1,223,164 15
1866	6,727,816 65	1,845,896 95
1867	8,774,326 01	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788 69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10,000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to... ... $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to ... 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to... 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to ... 5,000
And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

—A good lot of Ladies' Dress Goods, Saques, Parasols, Hose and Dress Trimmings, for sale, regardless of cost, at G. W. Smith & Co's, corner of Eddy and Eighteenth streets. 3t

AXES.—Best made, large assortment, at Geo Tritch & Co's Hardware Store   je15-tf

—The largest stock of ladies' Serge and Kid Gaiters west of Chicago for sale, at cost, at G W Smith & Co's corner of Eddy and Eighteenth sts. 3t

—"SIX MONTHS ON THE PLAINS," &c.—This book having been missent, has caused a delay quite unexpected in its being received here It will come by express to-morrow evening, and be for sale at Beers'. A large demand at the east leaves only about 500 copies of the first edition for this city.   je15tf

FURNISHED HOTEL TO RENT—Will take the rent in board Terms reasonable Apply to Abney & Reel, Eighteenth street.

Cheyenne, June 16, 1868   je16tf

—A canvasser, of some experience and good reference as to character, wanted. Address "A," at this office

—Owners, friends and relatives of "dorgs" of whichever sex, would do well to read the "Ordinance concerning Dogs," which is published in another column. Also read the proclamation concerning nuisances

—Attention is called to the advertisement of M E. Marshall, under head of "New to-day" Mr M. therein claims ownership of severa animals taken up by L D. Livingston, several weeks since

—A train consisting of twenty-seven wagons of emigrant families, arrived here from the Missouri river yesterday afternoon They are bound for California

—The track was laid to Medicine Bow yesterday. This is within forty-five miles of North Platte.

A SERIOUS QUESTION.—Now that the Commercial Record has ended its short and brilliant career, what is to become of the Board of Trade? As that paper was supposed by that organization, to have established, maintained and represented the commercial interests of Cheyenne, the daily papers couldn't do it it required a weakly, and as that paper and its lesser satellite are both dead, what is to be done? Yerily what!!!

—Upon inquiry, we learn that our informant who gave us the information concerning the appointment of Chief Justice of the new Territory of Wyoming had reference to Col. Geo E. Ford, of Peoria, Ill., and not of Galesburg. We are happy to learn that this Col. Ford did acquire a military title during the late "Fratricidal War."

—The telegraph line has been down since yesterday afternoon consequently we have no dispatches to-day.

—A report was in circulation yesterday that the graders and a train of Mormons had a difficulty beyond North Platte, that the Mormons hung an Irishman, that a large party of Irishman had stolen all the stock of the Mormons, and that martial law had been declared. There is every reason to consider the story doubtful at present.

A PRESENT-I-MENT.—Yesterday we felt as if something was going to happen, unless something happened to prevent it. With this foreboding snoozing upon our throne of reason, and feeling an irresistable inclination to enter the post office, we inclined that way immediately. As soon as the light of our benevolent countenance illuminated the news depot, Bob Beers called us by our pet name, and without further cause or provocation, presented us with a neat set of tablets in a morocco case, and suiting words to the action, in a "neat and appropriate speech" he referred to our brilliant career, virtuous modesty, our distinguished ability and the innumerable acts of public and private benevolence which have become associated with our name, and besecched us to accept the little token as an assurance of his admiration of our character and public services. We thereupon accepted his apology and present, and assured him his words should be engraven upon the tablets of our memory, and photographed by the sensitive camera of our grateful heart. Don't see how anybody can get along without tablets.

—Sheriff J. L. Laird returned this evening.

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R. Converse, Sixteenth street.   m30tf

—The government contract for supplying beef to all the posts from Fort Kearney to Fort Steele, inclusive, was let to I. W. Iliff.

—The fame of Joslin & Park, as manufacturers of Native Jewelry, has spread abroad, and they are now receiving orders from the East for every description of Jewelry. 1t

S M PRESHAW, contractor and builder, is prepared to do all kinds of carpenter work, at the shortest notice and on reasonable terms 1t

—One of the most remarkable cures which has ever been effected in this country, will be found certified to in another column. Doctor Innes will shortly leave for the east, and those who wish to avail themselves of his method should do so soon.

JEWELRY of every description, and watches and clocks, can be bought cheap, at John Kupfer's, on Eddy street. 1t

—A report of the Council proceedings, of the session last evening, appears in to-day's paper. So it seems the public may now know of the doings of our city fathers. A square move, and, gentlemen, you have our thanks therefor.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances, or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants; and,

WHEREAS, the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all, the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains;

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs.   L MURRIN, Mayor.

A Testimonial.

CHEYENNE, D T, June 17th, 1868

To all my Friends and the Public—I hereby testify to the great ability of Dr. S. B. INNES, as a Physician.

I was confined to my bed, from December 12th, 1867, until May 29th, 1868, at which time I applied to Dr Innes. During my illness, I was treated by six, of what they call the most eminent Physicians of Cheyenne; and, if this is doubted, I can give their names Some of them would say that I had this disease, others that I had some other disease, but none of them could cure me I at last was induced by Mrs. Evans, on Ferguson street, to try Dr. Innes, as he had cured other ladies of her acquaintance. My husband made inquiry concerning the Dr, and found that his success was spoken of by almost everyone; and with all his patients his praise was unbounded. We at length sent for him, and in three weeks he has cured me. I am at this time doing all my own work, after lying in bed for six months. Every person wishing further information can find me on Thomes street, between 15th and 16th.

It is at the Dr.'s request that I refrain from giving the Doctors' names that treated me so unsuccessfully. Hoping that other victims of such men may read this and profit by it, I am, with respect,

MRS. ELIZABETH WALK.

WM. WALK (husband of the above).

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 17th day of June, 1868.

Salt Lake and the Railway.

There seems to be a diversity of opinion as to the route which may be adopted by the Union Pacific Railway through Utah. It is claimed on one hand that the route by the north end of the Lake is at least sixty miles shorter than that by the city, while those who are interested in having the main line run through the metropolis of the Territory are exerting all their influence in having the line located by the south side of the Lake The latter route is the choice of Brigham, and there is little doubt that will decide the question There is more political strength and influence united in him than in any other one person in America. Had he but attempted to have impeached Johnson, Andy would not now have the Presidential chair to fall back on And when the railroad agents went to Salt Lake to consult—as they thought—Brigham upon the country, the contracts and the most favorable route, they really went there to submit to his decision

The natural route for the road would have been up Green River to the old Lander route, thence by the way of Soda Springs, Fort Hall and the eastern base of the Goose Creek Mountains, into the Hymboldt Valley. This is an easy grade through a country of fine agricultural lands, and besides would have been the most direct and shortest route to California, as well as affording at Bear or Snake rivers the most favorable junc*tion for the contemplated branches to* California, and it is somewhat surprising the Central Pacific do not (they yet may) insist upon this route. "It is the settled policy of the Union Pacific to go by Salt Lake, and give Brigham whatever advantages may be derived from the building of the road. After the road has been built to Salt Lake, what revenue will the company derive from it? The Mormons do not raise anything which they can afford to ship to any market Montana and Idaho have heretofore purchased the surplus Mormon produce, but now those Territories themselves produce all they require. The air of romance in which Utah is supposed to be enveloped exists nowhere except in the disordered imaginations of bilious correspondents and milk-and-water Federal officers who go out there, as Governor Durkee said he went: "to love the Mormon people; to love you all." The travel to Salt Lake will never amount to much Their emigrants will always be forwarded by ox teams, and even the emigration will not be great after this year. The missionaries have been ordered home, and the world outside of Utah has been condemned by Brigham to go on, for the future, in ignorance of Mormon blessings and to die in darkness and be damned. The working of mines is discouraged, if not prohibited; and really there is nothing to export from Utah. The Mormons are to become an independent, self-supporting institution, producing everything they need, and needing everything they produce. There never can be any commerce between Utah and any other portion of the country, and after Brigham has made all that can be made out of the Union Pacific Railway and its agents, he will wash his hands of the business and counsel his followers to build walls around their harems, take all they can get from travelers and never throw the cars off the track unless they wish to obey the commands of God by destroying their enemies wholesale.

News Gatherings.

A Republican ratification meeting in Grundy Centre, Iowa, last week, "Resolved unanimously Old Grimes is dead"

It is said a Chase organ is to be established at Washington, under the editorial direction of Geo. Alfred Townsend.

The "local" of the Des Moines Register speaks of a picnic which he attended as a "bug" affair. He seems to have been delighted with it.

Little Lotta, the actress, had $60,000 stolen from her by her father, but she recovered and invested it so that he can have no further control over it.

"Mack" writes the Cincinnati Commercial, from Washington, that Montgomery Blair is vigorously working against Hancock, and in favor of his brother, General Frank P Blair, as the Democratic candidate for President. He has discovered that in 1865 Hancock endorsed Stanton in a speech in New York, and that he is therefore unfit to be the candidate of the Democracy The advices here, by men who pretend to have accurate information, is that the Missouri delegation are for Pendleton, and that Blair will not get even a complimentary vote for the Presidency, though the delegation from his State may unite in his favor for the Vice Presidency

Pennsylvania makes two-thirds of all the glass manufactured in the United States In Pittsburg there are sixty-eight glass-works, devoted in about equal proportions to bottle, window-glass and flint glass work Their annual products comprise 70,000,000 bottles. 600,000 boxes of window-glass, and 3,800 tons of glassware—worth, in the aggregate, nearly $7,000,000.

Great Storm in Dakota.

From the Yankton Union & Dakotian, June 6th

* * * * * *

Perhaps the most awful feature of the storm was the sudden rising of Emanuel and Choteau creeks, in Bon Homme county. We learn from Major Congar, who conversed with two or three eye-witnesses, that on the night in question nine freight and emigrant wagons were standing near the banks of the Emanuel, one or two of which were occupied by men sleeping in them During the night a terrible roaring awoke one of the men, who lifted the wagon cover to ascertain whence the sound came, and by the flashes of lightning saw approaching what appeared to be a great wall of water some fifteen or twenty feet in height Giving the alarm to his companions, they instantly jumped from the wagons, almost naked, and ran toward a neighboring bluff, though about three feet of solid water struck them before they got entirely out of its reach The nine wagons were instantly taken away when the water struck them, and were washed into the Missouri some three miles further down. Two trunks were taken with the wagons, each containing one thousand dollars in greenbacks One of them, only, belonging to a Mr. Preemore, was recovered.

Mr. McDaniels and family, who have recently built a very substantial log house on the east bank of the Emanuel, were also awakened by the "roar of many waters." One of the boys jumped up and ran to the door, and favored by the frequent flashes of lightning, also saw the water approaching, looking like a great wall moving rapidly toward him. He instantly climbed the door and mounted to the roof of the house, closing the door as best he could, and then tearing off the dirt and sod of which the roof was composed, made an aperture sufficiently large to admit of the escape of the remainder of the family, who were yet in the cabin, which was fast filling with water. Providentially the whole family escaped to the roof, and were there compelled to stay in their night clothes through the long dreadful hours of that night, and also throughout the whole of the following day, not obtaining a release until near evening, when the water subsided so that they were enabled to again occupy their dwelling. Our informant, Maj. Congar, mentions in corroboration of these stories that the marks left by the water show that these narrations are not at all exaggerated.

After the water had subsided, dead pickerel were found along the banks of the Emanuel, and what is most remarkable about this matter is that no one can tell where they came from. It is a species of fish that have never been caught in any of the streams of Southern Dakota.

It is very difficult to account for the sudden and unprecedented rise of these streams. It could hardly have been caused by the heavy rains, and even if we accept this as the most reasonable solution, how are we to account for the appearance of pickerel in the streams? It seems to us that something like a huge water spout had passed over the northern country, sucking up water and fish from the lakes and streams of Northern Dakota, and had poured itself out on the sources of these streams, thus instantly submerging their valleys, as it will be remembered that the rise was not gradual, but when first observed was some fifteen or twenty feet in height. moving rapidly down the valley of the Emanuel,

Reported Expressly for the Daily Leader

NOON REPORT.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—The Southwestern Pacific Railroad was regularly transferred yesterday by the Governor to the Company, and the work of construction will be begun at once. It will be vigorously prosecuted.

CHICAGO, June 16 —Preparations for the sixteenth annual Sængerfest of the North American Sængerbund, which formally opens to-morrow in this city, are being made on a magnificent scale. Delegations will be present from all parts of the United States. Several representatives from Germany will also be present

WASHINGTON, June 16.—SENATE—Sherman introduced a bill to promote commerce among the several States, and to cheapen the transportation of mails, munitions of war, and naval stores It proposes the construction of several railroads in different directions from Washington Referred to the Select Committee.

Stewart called up the House bill to relieve the disabilities of certain citizens of North Carolina Doolittle moved to insert the names of Joseph W. Terrill and Jas Kerron, of Webster Co, N C. After discussion, they were rejected—Cole, Terry, Sprague and Henderson voting with the Democrats

Henderson moved to insert the name of George W. Jones, of Tennessee, agreed to The name of Thomas J. Mackey, of South Carolina, was also inserted, and the bill passed.

The bill in regard to the National Currency was taken up. Question was had on the amendment of Davis proposing to withdraw a pro rata amount from the States having an excess of banking capital and distribute it among those requiring it to place them on an equal footing with the former.

The Ways and Means Committee, after a long session this morning, agreed to carry out the instructions of the House in regard to bringing in the new tax bill covering only whisky and tobacco.

Sherman's bill provides for a separate incorporation of a Washington & New York Railroad, Washington & Cleveland Railroad and Telegraph Company, and Washington & Cincinnati Railroad and Telegraph Company.

The Cabinet had a long session, said to be on the subject of vetoing the omnibus reconstruction bill. The major portion of the cabinet advised the President not to veto the bill, but allow it to become a law by expiration of the days provided in the Constitution.

OGDENSBURG N. Y, June 17 —The reports about the storage of guns and arms and the gathering of Fenian warriors in these neighborhoods, are pure fabrications, and are ascertained to be so by officers of the Government who were sent here on an investigation.

PORTLAND, ME., June 17.—The State Fenian Convention met here yesterday. Twenty-five circles were represented. Gen. O'Neil delivered an address explanatory of the war movement, of which he is the recognized leader. Men and money were pledged by the delegates present, and several officers and graduates of West Point offered their services.

CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND, June 16.—The University of Cambridge to-day confirmed the Degree of Doctor of Laws upon Henry W. Longfellow. The Vice-Chancellor, on conferring the degree, made an address, in which he alluded in suitable terms to the poet's life, character and works. He also spoke of the generous reception of Dickens by the American people, and after expressing gratification at the appointment of Reverdy Johnson to represent the United States in England, concluded by expressing a national desire for an enduring friendship between the two nations.

BERLIN, June 16.—Bismarck has retired from office on leave of absence, and to-day left Berlin for his estate in Pomerania, where he will remain three or four months to recruit his health. Herr Von Eull, Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs takes his place at the head of the foreign office.

WASHINGTON.—The Intelligencer renews the assault on Secretary McCulloch with even more bitterness than yesterday. It asserts his retention of the office is opposed by every true friend of the President, and his purpose and position in the Cabinet is similar to that so long held by Stanton, and equally hostile to the Administration.

JACKSON, June 16.—Gen. Humphreys has been removed, and Maj. General Adelbert Ames appointed provisional Governor. Attorney General Hooker was relieved by Captain Joe Myers Both appointees were officers of the Federal army.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—It is ascertained from Army headquarters that Gen Buchanan convenes the Louisiana Legislature, at an early day, to choose Senators, and act on the pending amendment to the U. S. Constitution, but not to go into the Federal Legislature.

The recently elected State officials will not be allowed to be inaugurated till Congresmen have been admitted. His course of action meets the approval of the military authorities here.

The Committee of Ways and Means has appointed Hooper, Maynard and Logan as a sub-committee on whisky, and Griswold, Allen and Brooks as a sub-committee on tobacco. The committees will not report on these subjects till towards the close of the present week

General O'Neill's Circular to the Fenian Head Centres.

[Washington Correspondence London Herald May 10]

I have received information which convinces me that the Fenian movement in Canada will be resumed in June or July—perhaps shortly after the meeting of the Democratic National Convention, on the fourth of July. O'Neill's purpose is to take advantage of the political excitement of the year; he reasons that party leaders will not dare to oppose him at a time when votes are sought at any sacrifice. He continues his tour of the States; he addressed the Fenian "State Convention" of Pennsylvania yesterday, in the State Senate Chamber; forty-nine "circles" were represented by delegates; an address of the customary sort was adopted. I have obtained a copy of a secret circular forwarded by O Neill to the Fenian Centres. It covers eighteen pages. I present the concluding portions, which may be accepted as a genuine expression of O'Neill's views and purposes:

"And now, brothers, on you rests the responsibility of success or failure. Fight we will, in any event; and if you but do your duty success is sure to crown your efforts. But you must do it at once, the hour is propitious: Obey the orders and instructions sent you from these headquarters. Pay no attention to counsel or advice from any other source. Beware of political tricksters, who may want to join our organization for their own selfish purpose; they have worked much mischief in the past; have nothing to do with them in the future. Our organization has only one mission—the liberation of Ireland. All side issues, introduced by designing men, are simply meant to detract and mislead from the original purpose, and must be avoided. No man traveling around and not authorized from these headquarters, has any right to organize circles, and should not be permitted to address Fenian meetings No matter what outside recommendations he may have or who he may know, or what name he may assume, authority must come from the proper source. Men who form what they call 'independent circles,' are not Fenians All who are entitled to the name of Fenians must conform to the Fenian constitution, which is the only guide for all, from the President down, and no man has a right to step outside of it. I would particularly caution you against agents who are going around the country organizing 'secret, oath-bound obligations.' They mean no good for Ireland. Brothers, it has been stated, falsely, that we are 'too virtuous' to revenge the death of the martyrs who were murdered at Manchester. 'We are not in favor of shedding blood.' Believe it not, brothers. On the night of the 1st of June, 1866, your present executive, or 'leader,' as some would call him, had about 500 men without artillery, under his command at Frenchman's Creek, Canada West. He knew he was being closely surrounded by nearly 5000 men. Did he then give any proof of being afraid to 'shed blood?' No; he was willing to sacrifice himself and every man that he commanded in "fair and honorable fight." You know the result. On the following evening, after marching nearly forty miles without a mouthful to eat, and having had two engagements with the enemy, he had a little over three hundred men at Fort Erie, and had positive information that the enemy, numbering between five and six thousand, were within an hour's march of him; their drums and bugles could be distinctly heard in his camp. Did he show any signs of being afraid to show blood? No, brothers. He then believed that the great movement for Ireland's redemption was going on elsewhere, and the men are living to-day to whom he sent the following message:

"If the movement is going on elsewhere, I will remain here until to-morrow, and will make this old fort a slaughter pen, which I know it will be, for I will never surrender."

But when word was brought him that the movement was stopped through the interference of the United States authorities, he then demanded transportation for himself and his men. When no good to the cause of Ireland could result from it, he was 'too virtuous' to 'shed one drop of blood,' either of his own or that of others. He is now waiting to shed rivers of blood in 'fair and honorable fight,' for he firmly believes that rivers of blood will have to flow before Ireland can take her place among the nations of the earth; but not one drop that he can prevent shall ever flow by the dagger of the assassin Revenge, sure and certain, not only for the murders of the Manchester martyrs, and the cruel treatment of the other Irish patriots, who are now pining in British dungeons, but for all the crimes that England has perpetrated on Ireland for the last seven hundred years But it shall be done in 'fair and honorable fight,' and in no other way.

Brothers, I have spoken plainly, and, perhaps you will say, too strongly; but I am in earnest, and shall act up to what I say. I have a lifetime and an existence to devote to the cause of Ireland, but I have not one moment of time to fritter away at the whims or fallacies of any man or set of men. I am ready for the work: You have brought us face to face with the enemy. Let who will go back or desert, we intend to go on and fight. On you be the responsibility of success or failure. But I have no fears, brothers; I know you will come to our assistance, and participate in the glorious work, for which millions yet unborn will bless both you and us, and a just God will smile upon our efforts, and crown them with success.

JOHN O'NEILL,
President Fenian Brotherhood."

TWO STORY

The Daily -Evening Leader

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1868

The Ram Stonewall's Voyage of Over Twenty Thousand Miles.

From the Washington Star, 10th inst:

An interesting private letter, received in this city from an officer on the ram Stonewall, dated Yokohama, Japan, April 24, announces that the Stonewall arrived there after a long and monotonous voyage of 9 months, having traveled 20,670 miles, the longest distance ever made by an ironclad ship without convoy. The Stonewall is the only ram that has crossed the Pacific Ocean. She touched at twelve ports, and consumed 2,050 tons of coal. She was in several gales, but rode through in safety. In one instance the port quarter boat was lost from the davits, and in several others she had her bulwarks taken away by the force of the sea. She was twenty-nine days in making the passage from Honolulu, which is 3,600 miles from Yokohama. Upon arriving at Japan they found no recognized government existing, consequently the ship is now under the protection of the American Minister The Stonewall entered Yokohama flying the Japanese flag, but was obliged to hoist the American flag in its stead, to prevent trouble While Captain Brown was on shore attending to business, the ship was boarded by about fifty of Prince Satsumai's men, as a guard, armed to the teeth, who took possession of the vessel in the name of Satsumai, the leader and most powerful of all Princes now in rebellion against the Tycoon About dusk Captain Brown returned to the ship and after a conversation of about two hours with them, through interpreters, an understanding was had, and they concluded to go on shore, but not until they were assured over and over again that the ram was an American ship (she having in the meantime changed flags) and was under the protection of the American Minister, and that orders had been given to the American Admiral to protect her in any emergency with the American Navy under his charge Also, that the two Japanese officers who went out on the Stonewall were not on board; one of them at that time being locked up in his room It was expected this state of affairs would last until one side or the other is victorious, when the Stonewall will be surrendered to the de facto government.

Ice Manufactory.

The New Orleans Picayune thus describes the process used at the "Louisiana Ice Manufactory" of that city.

"The ice is made by the use of amoniacal gas as the means of so refrigerating a bath into which cans, containing pure water, are immersed, that they are frozen in a very brief space of time.

We spent some time in looking at the process of manufacture, whereby it is seen that the water frozen is simply Mississippi water distilled, and made like that which is used by the druggists, and called by them aqua pura, or pure water, the ammonia being used over and over again, with little or no diminution or loss of it Some people have an idea that some chemicals are mixed with the water. On the contrary the water is made completely pure, before it is frozen. The ammonia does not itself mix with it at all. The water comes out in cakes about four inches thick, a foot wide, and two feet long, and is frozen as solid as any which comes to us from the North, and can be offered at a far lower price than the cost of importation."

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance. Every part inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $300 to $800.00 my25-3m

PIANO FORTES.
A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE.
(Patented February 28 1866)
WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS
Warerooms, 452 Broome St, N. Y.

The Patent Monitor-Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the [illegible] plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano. By this means the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers.

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.
Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000
Divisible Surplus, June 1, '68, $1,612,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000 000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement:

	Assets.	Increase of assets over previous year.
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217,63
1865	4,881,919 70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816.65	1,845,896.95
1867	8,774,326.01	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the select on of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the life time of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reason able objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10 000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . . $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to . . . 3,000
Fourth year, four tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to . . . 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . . 5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

THE OPENING OF THE NEW HALL over the post ffice will be celebrated this evening by a Festival which is to be given by the ladies of St. Mark's Episcopal Church The room has been decorated in a tasteful manner, and arrangements have been made to make this a delightful entertainment Ice cream, strawberries, cakes and other "goodies" have been provided in luxurious abundance, and will be distributed among the guests with the most profuse liberality It is the intention of the ladies to see that everyone present enjoy the affair, and that this Festival shall far exceed their "sociables" which have always been the pleasantest kind of little parties. A general invitation to attend has been extended, and no doubt will be as generally accepted. Remember it is this evening.

VACATION.—The School Directors have ordered a vacation of the Public School, District No 1, from Friday, the 19th, till about the middle of July.

—The idiotic, four-bit-store-pay organ says, this morning "Green river is said to be navigable for light draught steamers, for a considerable distance above the city." (Green River City.) That is the kind of information which is usually dished up by that back-action concern. Better join with "Legh" and the Index, and co-operate in publishing the "Idiot's Vindicator," at the head of navigation of Green River, which is at the confluence of Salt Creek.

NORTH PLATTE CITY is flooded. The river is gradually rising, and it threatens to take in the whole town. Capt Boyer has a ferry on the main street—the only street in the place—and is making forty to fifty dollars per day by carrying passengers. Half the town is under water; embankments several feet high have been built in some cases, but these will probably be carried away, if the river continues raising at its present rate of increase for a few days.

—Everybody goes to Boswell & Taylor's for Arctic Soda. 1t

INDIANS.—A tie camp a few miles west of Laramie city was burned yesterday by Indians, supposed to be Kiowas. The passenger train from the west this morning passed a party of seven warriors—six mounted and one afoot—between Red Buttes and the Summit. It is supposed, as the grass is now good, the ponies fat, and antelope plenty, war will soon be declared by the much abused red man.

REFRESHING is the Arctic Soda these hot days at Boswell & Taylor's. 1t

—Bob Beers has received Godey, Demorest, and other magazines for July, and a large number of new weekly, monthly and quarterly periodicals. Examine his stock but "don't sponge your reading."

SUSPICIOUS.—At about three o'clock this morning, a party supposed to number about fifty persons, some mounted and some on foot, a portion of them masked, were seen parading the streets of this city. Their business, whatever it might have been, is unknown, except to themselve, but to those who witnessed their movements they appeared to be either Vigilantes or soldiers in disguise. We have not heard of any circumstance of importance resulting from their tramp.

—It has transpired that the rumor which we yesterday noticed of an emeute between graders and Mormons on the road west, has some truth in it A man was really hung, as the story now goes, for stealing stock, and three men were arrested and taken in charge by the military at North Platte. Charley Ames, Deputy Sheriff, has gone up to bring the prisoners to this city He will return to-morrow, when we may be able to give all the facts of the case.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants; and,

WHEREAS, the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all, the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains;

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs. L. MURRIN, Mayor.

A Testimonial.

CHEYENNE, D T , June 17th, 1868

To all my Friends and the Public —I hereby testify to the great ability of Dr S B. INNES, as a Physician

I was confined to my bed, from December 12th, 1867 until May 29th 1868, at which time I applied to Dr Innes During my illness, I was treated by six, of what they call the most eminent Physicians at Cheyenne, and, if this is doubted, I can give their names Some of them would say that I had this disease, others that I had some other disease, but none of them could cure me I at last was induced by Mrs Evans, on Ferguson street, to try Dr Innes, as he had cured other ladies of her acquaintance My husband made inquiry concerning the Dr , and found that his success was spoken of by almost everyone, and with all his patients his praise was unbounded. We at length sent for him and in three weeks he has cured me I am at this time doing all my own work, after lying in bed for six months Every person wishing further information can find me on Tholmes street, between 15th and 16th.

It is at the Dr 's request that I refrain from giving the Doctors' names that treated me so unsuccessfully. Hoping that other victims of such men may read this and profit by it, I am with respect,

Mrs ELIZABETH WALF.

City Marshal's Notice!

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8 It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9 If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. Another "Coming Man."

The Democracy have become so uneasy, so uncertain and so anxious about the proper or rather the most available candidate to be nominated at the New York Convention; they have suggested and doubted so many, and of such a varied a character, that it is more than probable that one who has hardly been thought of until the past few days, has at present a better chance for the nomination than either Chase or Pendleton. Since the appointment of Reverdy Johnson as Minister to England, and a number of notices complimentary of his character and liberal views, the Democratic press has suddenly become impressed with the idea that because Republican papers spoke well of him it would prove a fine bait to run him as a Democratic candidate, who could draw more votes from the Republican party than was expected even of Chase who seems to have fallen as suddenly as he rose in the estimation of the Great Undecided. Reverdy Johnson is certainly at present the man who would be most acceptable as the nominee of the Democratic party, but the Brick Pomeroy style of Democrats would of course object to him on the ground that he is neither a violent Copperhead nor a Repudiator. He, like Chase, no doubt would accept the nomination on a platform endorsing the "living issues of the day," which means impartial suffrage, and one half or more of that party are in favor of such a platform, but it is these Repudiators who are opposed to that doctrine, and who will, if let alone, insure the election of Grant As it is now only two weeks till the time of holding the Convention, Reverdy Johnson has just that length of time to improve his chances, and that short time may also prevent another change of the Democratic mind which at present looks upon him as their coming man.

The Science of Government.

It could hardly be expected that the art of properly governing can be carried to perfection; but it might reasonably be supposed that after all the experiments which have been made by all civilized nations on the subject of taxes, that first and most important of all measures in government, should have been thoroughly understood by this time. It appears, however, that even with the example of others, and our own extensive experience, great errors have grown into our revenue laws It has lately been shown, to the apparent satisfaction of Congress, that a tax of forty cents per gallon on whisky would produce a greater revenue than the existing tax of two dollars. Of course this could not be demonstrated by the arithmetical rule of Proportion, nevertheless it seems to be a fact in this case, and perhaps in commerce, that small tariffs produce greater profits than great ones The two dollar tax has been productive of a loss to the government, a premium upon rascality and a contempt for the law. These things have been so clearly demonstrated in the present Congressional discussion on the new tax bill that no doubt the tax on whisky and tobacco will be reduced to less than half the present rates, with the effect perhaps of giving us better whisky and cigars, as well as diminishing the public debt.

SOLDIERS FOR THE PLAINS.—A party of about twenty soldiers crossed the bridge yesterday, to report at Ft. Snelling. They are from Newport Barracks, Kentucky, and are on their way to Fort Sanders, on the Central Pacific Railroad.—St. Paul Press 12th.

News Gatherings.

Garoters are in St. Joe.

Surratt's case is to be called on Monday, the 22nd.

The National Intelligencer is very fierce against McCulloch.

In the St. Joe, Missouri, district, up to the first of June 494 petitions in bankruptcy were presented.

The Denver News is an admirer of the bawdy-house Fast Life, which was frowned down in Cheyenne.

The Colorado Register says the coaches from Denver to the mountains go loaded with passengers and return vacant.

Judge Chase has just sentenced a number of parties in Richmond charged with defrauding the government in the Fourth District, Va., as follows: John H. Anderson, Collector, fine $10,000 and two years imprisonment, Robert Elrone, Inspector, $5,000 and two years imprisonment; and two Assistant Inspectors each $2,000 and two years imprisonment.

A split has taken place in the female organization called the Sorosis, which has been giving and taking dinners at Delmonico's in New York. The majority concluded there was no use trying to go it alone, they would invite a few nice gentlemen to join them, whereupon the minority have seceded and say they won't have anything to do with the men.

The Horse Fair to be held in Denver on the 30th inst is beginning to excite much attention in all parts of the Valley. It is said the daughter of the Mexican Mariano is to exhibit her unparalleled skill and grace in equestrianism, habited in a rich and costly Indian costume now being manufactured expressly for the event The dress will cost something like $2,000.

A few weeks since the Trustees of William and Mary College received from England a remittance of $8,000, the accumulated proceeds of a legacy left them by the name of Margaret Whaley. The original legacy was fifty pounds sterling, to be applied by the executors of the Whaley estate to William and Mary College, and has hitherto been unknown or forgotten until accidentally discovered by a lawyer in searching over some old papers

The New York Tribune is witty; hear it. "The Democratic leaders, just now, are in the anxious and hopeful condition of that historical old maid who went into the woods to pray. They want a candidate—she wanted a husband. Crooking her aged and stiffening knees at the foot of a hemlock tree, she prayed long and earnestly that Heaven would send her a man. A sleepy owl in the branches above just then cried out, "Hoo! Hoo! Hoo!" "Anybody, good Lord!" responded the anxious virgin.

Bogus Dispatches.

A new form of confidence has turned up, the operator obtaining money as charges upon bogus telegraph dispatches On one that we have at hand, the sum of $2 85 was charged. It was addressed to Mr Clark, Sixth street, and purported to be from St Louis, signed J. J. Adams, and written on a blank No. 2, upon which messages are sent. Some six weeks ago a firm doing business in this city received a dispatch from a St. Louis firm, ordering them to pay $150 to a certain man. A few minutes after the receipt of a dispatch, a well dressed man made his appearance advising the firm that he was the party to whom the money was to be paid.

It being early in the morning, and the clerks hurried in shipping goods, the money was paid over without suspicion. A day or two after the house in this city was surprised to learn that no such order had been given. The senior of the firm immediately proceeded to the telegraph office and laid the matter in the hands of Mr. Armstrong, who used the utmost endeavors to find the rogue. The blanks on which the despatches were written were known as Blank No. 1, and are only sent out to the party to whom the despatch is addressed

The rascal by some means obtained possession of two of these blanks, and filled them up to suit himself. A day or two ago he turned up in Philadelphia, and endeavored to play the same game, signing the name of the same St Louis firm. The parties to whom it was addressed suspecting something wrong, detained the rogue until hearing from St. Louis, when he was handed over to the authorities, and committed for trial

We would caution our citizens to be on their guard against these petty swindlers, and before paying over, see that the envelope used is one on which the card is printed; also, that the lad delivering it has a book with the same card printed on the top of each page—Cincinnati Commercial.

The yellow fever is raging in Vera Cruz.

The Minister of War had ordered the authorities of Vera Cruz to dismantle the land fortifications, store away the artillery, and rent the buildings now used as barracks.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—SENATE—Yates, from the Committee on Territories, reported a new bill to admit Colorado Laid over.

The bill, supplementary, to provide for a National Currency was taken up—the question being on the motion to strike out the first section, which was discussed all day. The bill finally passed. The twenty millions increase of circulation is not allowed, but a pro rata circulation is provided for Trumbull, from the Committee on Judiciary, recommended the indefinite postponement of several bills in relation to the establishment of a uniform system of bankruptcy. Agreed to The House proceeded to the consideration of a bill hitherto reported from the Committee on Commerce, to promote American commerce by allowing drawbacks equal to duties to be paid to ship builders on lumber, cordage, iron, copper, chains and anchors actually used in ship building. The bill was debated all day, and when the vote was reached it was laid on the table, by 82 to 45.

Cook, from the Committee on Elections, submitted a report of the contested election of McKee vs. Hugh, from the 9th District of Kentucky, with a resolution declaring McKee entitled to the seat. Laid over.

Ingersoll offered a resolution directing the Committee on Ways and Means to consider the report on the subject of a tax on the capital deposits and circulation of National and other banks, to issue in connection with the bill directed to be prepared by them.

Randall suggested to include also a tax on government deposits.

WASHINGTON, June 17th.—The Comittee on Ways and Means to-day had the details of the new tax bill before them, as submitted by the two sub-committees on whiskey and tobacco, and decided substantially to adopt the provisions of the old bill, with the exception of the amount of the tax on whisky, which will yet be settled at sixty cents. That portion of the old bill which provided for bonded warehouses for tobacco, was omitted. It is possible the bill will be reported this week.

The Montgomery (Iowa) Express tells this grasshopper story: "We met a friend of ours coming into town the other day, with a large saw-log on his wagon. Upon expressing some surprise at his being thus engaged at this time of the year, he replied with considerable emphasis: "The infernal grasshoppers are eating up everything, and I thought it best to save 'em."

GOLD IN POTTERIES.—Nearly £50,000 of gold is annually consumed in the decoration of china and earthenware in England, by far the greater part of which is in the Staffordshire potteries, and the total amount used in decorating the pottery goods, and in gilding generally, in England and France, is estimated at 40,000 ounces. This is lost to the currency forever. To a large extent, the gold is obtained from the Bank of England, in the form of clipped sovereigns. The popular impression is that the light sovereigns go to the mint, and are there recoined; but a large number of trades in England require standard gold for all sorts of purposes, and they regularly go to the bank to buy these cut sovereigns.—Mining Journal.

The Daily Evening Leader

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1868

Schenck and Washburne.

There are two men most prominent in the House in these days of late sessions and hard work: Schenck and Elihu B. Washburne. General Schenck is at the head of the Committee of Ways and Means; Washburne takes charge, in Stevens' constant absence, of the Committee on Appropriations. Neither of these places are velvet ones. To be at the head of the taxing machinery and refuse relief to people are far from enviable places. But both these men stand fast and hard, content to be unamiable in order to be useful. Schenck is a heavy, thick-set, auburn-haired man, with a great dented chin, a shuddering manner of speech, curtness, vehemence, the "scorn of scorn" He is a hard, faithful worker, a bull mastiff in his determination not to be weedled out of the public taxes. The whisky ring stands afar when he is positive; all the manifold interests of mankind shake when he distributes his percentages. He is armor proof to demagogery; all interests come to him, saying. "Send the tithe man, I pray you, everywhere but my house!" Mr. Schenck, with a grin, replies "I sent him to your house this morning!"

What would become of the land if all public men were negative? These practical committees are places for watch-hounds and not for curs. Your citizens will, many of them, gnash their teeth at the name of Schenck, but his post is the stern one of the Exactor His client is the government. He wants his per capita on your head.

Washburn's place is even more unpopular. It is not the people whom he offends, but the sordid, avaricious, revengeful jobbers, placemen and lobbyists. A dozen pseudo newspaper men are here, bent upon assisting the common rat of the Capitol. These are willing to spite Washburne every day by mail and telegraph; for he has no client but the public purse. He will not have its purse strings pulled by any cunning finger, whoever may represent it. He is a broad-shouldered, tall, gray-haired, self-reliant man, plain in his life and attire, with a warm heart for any private merit, but an inflexible contempt and hate for the citizen who neglects his private enterprise, to come here and live upon the blindness of the government. Every square mile of the country is represented here by some jobber or another A man invents a saw-horse. Straightway he wants an appropriation of five millions of dollars to civilize the Blackfoot Indians with the saw-horse. The saw-horse is well made, it is a useful thing; Congressman Starch, Judge Blastfurnace, Senator Simony endorse it All seems well. Suddenly E B Washburne arises in his place and damns the saw-horse Who can imagine the fury of the inventor. Washburne is a man without soul! Washburne is a sordid piece of persecution! And from the ends of the earth come all description of people, who can neither support themselves nor get support from their neighbors, falling back upon the common victim of us all, the United States Washburne is the flaming cherubim to all such He sweeps clean. The party thieves hate him. But he is one of the few men in the service of the United States who incorruptibly earns his money.—Wash Cor.

The citizens of Monument Creek, El Paso county, Colorado, held a meeting at which they resolved they would not "permit or suffer any Texas or Spanish cattle to pass through their neighborhood."

Governor Baker of Indiana refused to pardon Coburn and McCool. They will be compelled to serve out the time—forty days—for which they were sentenced.

Near Fort Berthold there are two stratas of coal visible on the bank of the river, from which smoke is continual issuing. It is supposed to indicate subterranean fire.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preëminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvement made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted, which the public eye might pass over, never escapes vigilance. Every part inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) in a soul breathing refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $300 to $550,00 my25-3m

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other Piano [illegible]. By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is greatly increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000
Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,642,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement.

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864 - -	$3,658,735 55 - -	$1,005,217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919.70 - -	1,223,184.15
1866 - -	6,727,816.65 - -	1,845,896.95
1867 - -	8,771,326 01 - -	2,016,509 36
Total increase . . .		$6,120,788 09

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10,000 discontinues after the second year he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . .	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . .	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . .	5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

AN ORDINANCE

Concerning Dogs.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cheyenne:

SEC. 1. That no dog, bitch or whelp shall be permitted or allowed to run or to be at large within the limits of the City of Cheyenne, unless the owner, keeper, or person having charge of such dog, bitch, or whelp, shall, before the first day of July, pay to the City Clerk, for the use and benefit of the City, the sum of three dollars for each and every male dog, and the sum of five dollars for each and every bitch, owned or kept by such person; and shall also place upon the neck of every such dog, bitch, or whelp, a collar, made of durable material, with the name of the owner, keeper, or person having charge of such dog, bitch, or whelp, legibly printed or engraved thereon.

By Order of D. J. SWEENY, City Marshal

—The ordinance concerning dogs has set the four-bit-store-pay institution into hydrophobic ravings about its friends and Crow Creek.

—A train consisting of eleven wagons of emigrants from Oregon and Washington Territory, arrived in this city this morning They left Walla Walla in April. They report that last night they captured two men who were endeavoring to steal their horses. They held these men prisoners till this morning, when they were released.

—We learn the M. E. Church Festival will not be held in the postoffice hall, but in the old Voorheis auction house.

—The committee appointed to investigate the charges against certain policemen for cruelty to a prisoner, have exonerated them from all blame

—The men who were arrested on the charge of being implicated in the hanging of the man at or near Creighton's camp recently, have not yet been brought into this city.

—Antelope are said to be plenty within a few miles of this city. We notice several very small fawns have been brought in and adopted by kind hearted families.

—We were wrong in stating that Doctor S. B. Innes was going east. It is the Doctor's intention to give our friends at Denver a chance to get cured of nearly all diseases that flesh is heir to, but more especially skin diseases of every discription, and from whatever cause. We cordially recommend the Doctor to our Denver friends. 1t

—As the passenger train was about starting for the east this morning, the engine shrieked a whoo, whoo, for up brakes, when a couple of unsuspecting "Lo's" who were sitting near the track, jumped to their feet and started for the bluffs as if they thought it was a war whoop of a bigger injin than they ever heard before or behind them.

—Attention is called to a testimonial in another column given Dr. S. B. Innes, by Mr. & Mrs. Wales. 1t

—The supply of laborers and teamsters in this city, and the surrounding country, seems to be altogether inadequate to the demand.

—Laborers wanted immediately, at the LEADER office.

—A few rich-looking new potatoes have put in an appearance in this city.

—Dan Casement arrived in town this morning.

—Wood is ten dollars per cord.

—The new Catholic Church is completed.

—A photograph of the new post office was taken to-day. Mac wants to see what kind of a picture it makes after a night of strawberry dissipation.

THE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL OF ST. MARKS last night, was socially and financially a complete success, and altogether a finer affair than was anticipated by even the most sanguine. To the committee consisting of Mrs. Cummings, Morrow and Street belongs the credit of having made the arrangements and managed the affair in such a manner as could not fail to win the admiration and praise of all who were present. A large party attended, and as the music was good, dancing was introduced, and continued for a couple of hours. The strawberries were fresh and fragrant, and although the ice cream was in a frozen condition everybody said it was excellent. Toward the close of the evening, Thos J. Street, Esq, on behalf of the committee, made a little speech of thanks to the party for their liberality, to Thos E McLeland and R. P Gahi, Esqrs, for the use of the Hall; to A R Converse, for the use of glass and queensware; to Messrs Hathaway and Shakespeare for their assistance in decorating and arranging the room; and to the LEADER and Argus offices for printing handbills and tickets The net profits of the affair will be at least $225, which is to be applied on the purchase of an organ for St Mark's Church. A number of ladies and gentlemen from Fort Russell, and members of the several religious denominations of the city were present, and all seemed pleased with the happy and prosperous result of this the first Strawberry Festival in Cheyenne

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants of said,

WHEREAS the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains,

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs. L. MURRIN, Mayor.

A Testimonial.

CHEYENNE, D. T, June 17th, 1868

To all my Friends and the Public—I hereby testify to the great ability of Dr S B INNES as a Physician

I was confined to my bed, from December 12th, 1867 until May 29th 1868, at which time I applied to Dr. Innes During my illness, I was treated by six of what they call the most eminent Physicians of Cheyenne, and if this is doubted I can give their names. Some of them would say that I had this disease, others that I had some other disease, but none of them could cure me I at last was induced by Mrs Evans, on Ferguson street, to try Dr Innes, as he had cured other ladies of her acquaintance. My husband made inquiry concerning the Dr, and found that his success was spoken of by almost everyone, and with all his patients his praise was unbounded We at length sent for him and in three weeks he has cured me I am at this time doing all my own work, after lying in bed for six months Every person wishing further information can find me on Tholmes street, between 15th and 16th

It is at the Dr's request that I refrain from giving the Doctors' names that treated me so unsuccessfully Hoping that other victims of such men may read this and profit by it, I am with respect,

MRS ELIZABETH WALF

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. Closed Out.

A special despatch to the San Francisco Times of the 6th inst gives the following account of thirty-five Indians who have been sent to their "happy hunting grounds beyond the western sky."

"A private letter from Silver City, Idaho, dated the 2d inst., says: It is rumored here. The old scout, [illegible] by Beebee General Crook's Chief's out, attacked and killed a band of thirty-five Indians, some miles from the Owyhee Ferry. This is the band of Indians that has been committing so many depredations in the Owyhee country for the last two years. As not one escaped, it is probable there will be no more Indian troubles in that section."

Here is a splendid opportunity for numerous essays and sermons by our eastern friends on the "cruelty of the warfare practiced by western men against Indians," and of course they will not fail to make a point of it. To kill thirty-five Indians out of a party of thirty-five may be called a cheerful work; it might even be called annihilation; but after all, like other questions it has two sides. The real question here for consideration is suggested by the last sentence of the despatch, which says "it is probable there will be no more Indian troubles in that section." There is at least some good in that for the whites, and also for the Indians, in the surrounding country. It will have a tendency to preserve peace. Of course it was severe on the "thirty-five" who were so reckless of the lives of whites as to draw upon themselves such merited punishment, but if this is only looked upon as an example or warning to deter other Indians from committing depredations, as in civil law a criminal is executed not for revenge but to protect the peace of the community by terror of example, or fear, where kindness is of no avail, the affair loses much of its apparent cruelty and becomes one of real kindness. It has been frequently shown that a thorough whipping to a portion of the Indians is a benefit to the remainder, as well as to the whites. It should be considered that Beebee or Gen Crooks bore no malice to the Indians, but punished them for moral effect and the preservation of peace. One or two such examples in a properly increased proportion of the murdering bands of savages on this side of the Plains, would be productive of good results, by compelling the Indian to preserve peace for his own security instead of making war for government blankets and other bounties.

The Central City Register says Prof. Hill's reduction works were destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon.

The will of the late President Buchanan bequeaths $2,000 to the poor of Lancaster, Pa., and $10,000 to the Presbyterian Church in that town. The residue of his property is divided among his relatives, with small special bequests to servants. Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnson, his niece, receives one-fourth of his estate, including the Wheatland property, for which she pays $12,000 out of her residuary share. The will is dated at Wheatland, January 27, 1866, and a codicil of the 9th of August, 1867, provides that Wm. C. Reed is to have $1,000 to pay the expenses and secure the publication of a biographical work on the deceased; and to Mrs. Mary L. Reed the deceased gives $5,000, a legacy for her separate use and benefit, as a compensation for the work Mr. Reed has undertaken to perform. All the deceased's private papers, correspondence, etc., are directed to be given to Mr. Reed for this purpose. Among the heirs is his niece, Mrs. Dunham, a daughter of Dr. C. M. Yates. Her share in the estate, we are informed, will amount to nearly or quite $20,000. Her husband died on the same day that Mr. Buchanan died.

News Gatherings.

Wm. H. Seward will support Grant and Colfax, whether anybody else does or not.

The Australian Indians who went to England to beat the British playing cricket, couldn't take a trick.

A Democratic editor wants to know who is the Col. Fox who has just been nominated with Gen. Grant.

Wm. Hancock, a lineal descendant of John Hancock, died in Worcester, Mass., died on Sunday last, aged 76.

Albert Hughes, a negro who murdered Daniel Jenkins, in Platte City, Mo., last November, has been sentenced to be hung on Friday, 24th of July.

The officers of Fort Leavenworth got up a "slow" mule race, on the 16th. Mules of all sizes and sexes, not more than one hundred years old, were admitted.

A Topeka, Kansas, paper says: We lately heard of a curious freak of nature. Seven pounds of rusty bacon furnished to the Indians swelled to twelve hundred pounds by the time the vouchers were made up for government to pay for it. Again, six Texas steers for the Indians cost $2,600 to government. Strange things sometimes happen.

According to the report of the Committee on Retrenchment, there has been an immense fraud in the government sale of the ironclads Oneonta and Catawba, by collusion between the parties who purchased them and the Navy Department. They were purchased for $40,000 each, and instantly transferred to the Government of Peru for $1,000,000 each.

The California Legislature of 1865-6 passed an act for the encouragement of silk culture in that State, offering bounties for planting and propagating mulberry trees. The act offered $250 for "each plantation of 5,000 mulberry trees of two years of age." Now comes a man from Yolo county who demands of the State the sum of $50,000 for a plantation of 1,000,000 trees. In commenting on this case, the San Francisco Times comes to the conclusion that when bounties are asked for in nine cases out of ten the arrangements to profit by them are all cut and dried before the law is passed. This appears not only to be so in the mulberry bounties of California, but judging from the bills which are introduced in Congress all public legislation is supposed to be intended for the advancement of private interests.

THE BAY OF SAMANA.—The substance of the treaty between the United States and St. Domingo regarding this bay and territory, is that it is perpetually leased to the United States as neutral territory, to prevent the necessity of fortifications, and to secure freedom of commercial intercourse with all nations. St Domingo makes absolute sale of three square leagues of ground adjoining the bay and adjacent island, for a naval station. The price of the cession is one million dollars in hand, and ten thousand dollars a year for the lease. The entire peninsula of Samana, thirty miles long by ten wide, will be neutral territory, under the protection of the United States and Europe, but its nominal sovereignty will remain with St. Domingo.

[From the St Paul Press.]

FORT TOTTEN, Devil's Lake, }
Dakota Ter., June 6, 1868. }

In my communication of May 29th I gave you an account of the "Indian raid on this post." On the 21th of May two Red River half-breeds left here with the mail for Fort Stevenson, on the Missouri River. According to arrangements made between the two military posts, the mail carriers from each should meet at a point sixty-five miles from here (Totten), exchange mails and return. When within about ten miles of the place of meeting these two men fell in with a party of Indians on the road who would not let them go any further, but ordered them to turn round and go back, which they did.

The Indians very seldom molest the Red River half-breeds, for different reasons; one of which is they are afraid of them, for in former times when they used to fight one another on meeting, the half-breeds always had the best of it. Another reason is that all these hostile Indians are supplied by half-breed traders, from the British Possessions, with powder, lead, guns, whisky, and whatever they want. Parties of these traders, who get their outfits from the large trading posts just across the line, are continually traveling from one Indian camp to the other. They sold them whisky by the barrel, on the Missouri River, last winter, both above and below Fort Buford, and at all points where the Indians were encamped. When the Indians have no robes, they trade their horses for whisky. Then again, the Indians know that they have only to go up into the British territory in case they are pursued by the soldiers from any of the military posts, which is not at all likely to occur. For the foregoing and many other reasons, the Red River men can travel through the Indian country with perfect safety, unless the Indians know they are carrying the U. S. mail, or in some other manner employed by the military.

On the 31st of May the commanding officer at Fort Totten again started the mail with orders to go through should they not meet the mail from Fort Stevenson on the road. The party was composed of ten soldiers and two mail carriers, under a sergeant, and a six-mule team to carry their rations. The soldiers were all on foot. They got about seventy-five miles from here without meeting any Indians, and were within ten miles of Sun-Ka-Tipe (Dry houses), a very hilly and broken country, when they began to see Indians appear from behind the hills. The party halted and five Indians came up to them, on horseback.

To one of the mail carriers, (a Red River half breed) who talked some Sioux, they represented themselves to be peaceable, and wanted the soldiers to proceed on their journey. They said there were seventeen lodges of them. While they were talking, the soldiers noticed that a large number of Indians were hidden behind the hills, who kept popping their heads up from time to time, watching them. There is no doubt but the Indians were trying to lead them into an ambuscade which they had laid for them and for which the country in that vicinity is so well adapted. The Sergeant in charge of the party very wisely concluded to turn back, as his party was too small to contend with the number of Indians which seemed to be in advance of them. They arrived here on the 4th of June, without further trouble.

Indians, during the last week, have been seen skulking through the woods in the vicinity of the Fort, and there is no doubt but what small parties of Sioux are constantly hovering around here, watching an opportunity to steal stock or murder whomsoever they find outside the picket lines.

From an Indian who came in here a few days ago, we learn the names of the two Indians who filed the chain of the door of the Northwestern Fur Company's stable at this place, taking four horses and packing them with wolf and fox skins, which were hanging up in one end of the stable. This occurred about three weeks since. One of the Indians is a son of Inkpadoota, of Spirit Lake notoriety, and the other is a son of White Lodge, both well known for their daring and the number of murders they have committed during the outbreak of 62 and since, and for which they are still unpunished.

Yesterday morning, June fifth, Captain Hill, at present commanding the post, sent a scout (Frank Palmer) through to Stevenson for instructions how to act in the matter of the late Indian trouble, for it seems the commanders at the different posts have no authority whatever to act against the Indians, but simply remain on the defensive. If one half the rumors that reach us here prove correct there will be lively times this summer, for the Indians are reported to have said that they will compel the soldiers to leave this post. Such stories come through the half-breeds and cannot be relied on. Still, it would seem there is something in it, as they have already cut off our communication with the Missouri River, Montana and all the country west of us. All mail matter for the latter places must go by way of St. Paul.

Old Flurzy, whom I mentioned in my last as being shot in the head by the Indians, is likely to recover.

Mr. Smith, one of the contractors for the building of the new Fort at this place, is pushing his work forward rapidly, laying foundations, burning lime, getting the brick yard ready, having wood cut and running a saw mill. He has between sixty and seventy men at work, with as many more reported on the road and within a few days travel.

Should the Indians "swing around" on the Abercrombie road and cut off our mail in that direction, you will not be likely to hear from

Yours, &c., JAS. A. GORMAM.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—A rock rock slide on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, near Summit tunnel two days since, killed several Chinese. The first through trip to Reno was made yesterday. The Company say the road will reach the crossing of the Humboldt River one hundred miles beyond Reno, early in July. Nine hundred men are employed.

WASHINGTON, June 18—The Intelligencer has another studied attack on McCulloch this morning, urging the President to remove him. The article asserts McCulloch became alarmed at the prospect of removal, and on Monday summoned Chief Justice Chase post haste from Richmond, in order that his influence with the President might be used to have him retained in office. That Chase responded at once, and on Thursday evening did call upon the President for that purpose. The article excites considerable comment in political circles, principally from the fact that the Intelligencer is recognized as the President's organ.

LIVERPOOL, June 19.—George Francis Train appeared at the Exchange, last evening, and attempted to make a speech, but was hissed down.

MANUFACTURERS,

Ware rooms, 348 Bleecker street, N. Y. City.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the BEST manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands pre-eminently to those of other makers; and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is [illegible], what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part [illegible] end out, is honestly, faithfully and [illegible] made so that it will bear the most [illegible] examination They differ from the [illegible] tone of most pianos (which [illegible] in the beginning, and grows worse [illegible]) inasmuch as it is refined and [illegible] in its vibrations, [illegible] capacity, and has all the [illegible] necessary to produce every desired effect.

They are, without [illegible] the most lasting, and [illegible] We are content with [illegible] Our prices range from $300 to $800 [illegible] my25-3m

THE

NEW YORK Life Insurance COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,642,425 50.

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of Assets over previous year.
1864 - -	$3,658,755 55 - -	$1,005,217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919.70 - -	1,223,164.15
1866 - -	6,727,816.65 - -	1,845,896.95
1867 - -	8,774,326.01 - -	2,046,509.36
Total increase ..		$6,120,788.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the life time of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of [illegible] in the community, [illegible] reasonable objection to Life Insurance [illegible] the fact that every other American Company has been [illegible] public opinion, [illegible] many cases it is [illegible] to [illegible] the vagabond [illegible] of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies [illegible] investment

By [illegible] of policies [illegible] taking out a policy [illegible] to-day for $10,000, if [illegible] the $10,000 immediately [illegible] and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insures, by this plan for $10,000 [illegible] the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of all years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to. 8,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to ... 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . .. 5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

ODD FISH.—Some men who were fishing in a little lake a few miles from this city [illegible] brought to this city a number of specimens of a variety of [illegible] which we have never seen described by naturalists, and with which nobody here seems to be acquainted. They appear to be part fish, part lizard and part [illegible]. Those which we saw are from four to six inches in length, having a head and mouth in appearance between a frog and cat-fish, and a [illegible]. They have four long fibrous legs, those behind being furnished with five, and those in front four slender claws or fingers, like those of a frog. DIED.

June 17th. John Cuthead [illegible], second son of Amos and Alice Peacock, aged 6 years and eleven months.

We miss thy busy footsteps,
Thy bright and sunny smile,
We miss thy childish prattle,
So free from sin and guile

And Thou hast called him home,
Oh! give us grace, we pray Thee,
To say "Thy will be done."

Broke Ground.

Through the kindness of President Young, we have [illegible] of the following [illegible] received [illegible] now in work in Weber Canyon:

[illegible] S. Reed, [illegible] with his men commenced work [illegible], that being the first point determined upon and permanently located. The Bishop has constructed a temporary wagon road around the slide on the north side of the river, at the mouth of the canyon, for the purpose of building the foundation of the railroad into the river some forty or fifty feet. This road the public can use while the foundation is being built, during the morning before the men commence work, at noon, and after they quit at night. After the foundation is laid permanently, the construction engineer wants a shoulder or projection left outside of the bottom of the slope; and a few feet added to the width which he has decided on will make a permanent wagon road around that point, which accommodates the public in the absence of the bridge below. The men working with the Bishop are feeling well, and are doing their best.—Deseret News, 12th.

A Testimonial.

CHEYENNE, D T, June 17th, 1868
To all my Friends and the Public—I hereby testify to the great ability of Dr S B. INNES, as a Physician

I was confined to my bed, from December 12th, 1867, until May 29th 1868, at which time I applied to Dr Innes. During my illness, I was treated by six, of what they call the most eminent Physicians of Cheyenne, and, if this is doubted, I can give their names Some of them would say that I had this disease, others that I had some other disease, but none of them could cure me I at last was induced by Mrs Evans, on Ferguson street, to try Dr Innes, as he had cured other ladies of her acquaintance. My husband made inquiry concerning the Dr, and found that his success was spoken of by almost everyone, and with all his patients his praise was unbounded We at length sent for him, and in three weeks he has cured me. I am at this time doing all my own work, after lying in bed for six months Every person wishing further information can find me on Tholmes street, between 15th and 16th

It is at the Dr.'s request that I refrain from giving the Doctors names that treated me so unsuccessfully Hoping that other victims of such men may read this and profit by it,

I am, with respect
Mrs ELIZABETH WALE

PROCLAMATION.

CHEYENNE, D T, June 2nd, 1868

WHEREAS, on the 2nd day of June, 1868, the seat of Chas Steinberger, as a member of the board of Aldermen of the City of Cheyenne, became vacant by reason of his removal from said city, and so declared by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, and,

WHEREAS, the Board of Aldermen have passed a resolution providing for an election to fill said vacancy,

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that an election to fill vacancy in Board of Aldermen, caused by removal of Chas Steinberger from the city, will be holden on June 29th, 1868 Polls opened at City Hall, at 8 o'clock, a. m, and close at 5 o'clock of said day

Attest L MURRIN,

City Clerk, Je17

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances, or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants, and,

WHEREAS, the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all, the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains;

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs L MURRIN, Mayor

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. Manufactures in the West.

It is about time for the western people to change their views and opinions on manufactures Coal and iron are the chief products of a large portion of the country west of the Mississippi, and if properly worked as good an article of iron could be manufactured here as in Pennsylvania. It is only a few years since it was generally belived good iron could not be manufactured in Pennsylvania, it was necessary to send to England for everything in the hardware line, but now much of the iron used in America is of home manufacture, and of as good quality as the foreign. The law regulating the Union Pacific Railways makes it obligatory on all companies constructing roads across the plains to use American iron, not only in rails, but even for bolts and all iron used in repairs.

The following item from the Colorado Herald is worthy of consideration, and indicates that the manufacture of iron here, to be successful, needs only capital and enterprise That paper says:

Last Saturday Langford & Co's iron furnace received a charge of 13,600 pounds, which run off, clean work, 11,400 pounds Three of the castings weighed 2,200 pounds each This firm have had an unusual amount of work to do of late.

This shows good returns, and no doubt the work was done quite as well as that imported from the east If the machinery now used, and that which will soon be required in Colorado, were manufactured in these mountains where the materials for it exists so plentifully, the iron business would soon become of far more importance than the working of mines of gold or silver. We have been shown samples of iron ore which is found near this city, and the supply of which is said to be inexhaustible, that is nearly pure metal; coal is abundant and easily to be had.

The profit lies not in simply melting ore into rough pigs, but it is the working of it into machinery that pays. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are annually expended in San Francisco for machinery, producing an important revenue for that city, which has not a tithe of the advantages possessed by any town in Colorado or Wyoming for iron working. The whole wealth of Colorado depends upon its machinery, and the money for this machinery has been expended in the east. It may be that because iron is plenty and good and easily obtained its importance and value are overlooked, while gold and silver, which are expensive to work, and uncertain in supply, are eagerly sought after for their glitter. If the money now invested in gold and silver mining in Colorado could be turned to the working of iron, there would be no difficulty about building the railway, or a dozen of them. The wealth of Pennsylvania, one of the richest States in the Union, and a great portion of the wealth of Missouri, is drawn from iron. If wealthy companies can be organized to work gold and silver, why not iron too? The first seems to draw its attraction from its uncertainty, while the other, which contains real worth is overlooked because it lacks the dazzling glitter of gold.

The Omaha Republican says Deputy U. S. Collector M. F. Masters, has been stirring up a number of illicit distillers in that city.——Six locomotives for the U. P. R. R. were brought across the river on Thursday.

Ristori has been playing to large and fashionable audiences in Washington.

Maj Chas. T. Whiting, of the 3d U S Cavalry, has been ordered to superintend their removal

A New Territory.

[From the Chicago Post. 18th.]

Mr. Yates' bill for the erection of that portion of Dakota known as Wyoming into a Territory, passed the Senate a few days ago, without opposition, and now awaits the action of the House, where it has met with opposition from those interested in the admission of Colorado. This opposition springs from the fact that the northern boundary is so run as to bring that portion of the Union Pacific Railroad included between the 104th and the 110th degrees of longitude entirely within the proposed new Territory, taking away from Colorado quite a number of its population and a large amount of taxable property That this objection, though, is likely to disappear, and all parties to act in harmony, is rendered probable by the introduction of a new bill, on yesterday, by Mr. Yates, from the Committee on Territories, for the admission of Colorado.

Congress should not adjourn without giving to Wyoming a Territorial government. A glance at any late map will show how entirely arbitrary are the present boundaries of Dakota which, though extending through nearly sixteen degrees of longitude and nine of latitude, is almost bisected by Nebraska and Montana—the northwest corner of the former and the southwest corner of the latter being not more than sixty miles apart. Now the most populous part of Wyoming is fully seven hundred miles from its Territorial Capital, Yankton. The boundaries of the new Territory are rational and natural. Its population is between thirty and forty thousand, and the probabilities of its rapid increase hardly to be overestimated. With its wool-growing capacity, its fabulous mineral wealth, and its great agricultural resources, Wyoming is destined to soon become one of the greatest and most powerful States traversed by the Pacific Road. We hope Mr. Yates' bill will go through the House without further delay.

On the 8th instant, at a meeting of the prominent citizens of Cheyenne, Dr. A. Latham, for many years a resident of the far West, and now Surgeon of the Union Pacific Railroad, was unanimously selected to go to Washington and present the claims of Wyoming to Congress. He passed through Chicago yesterday on his way to fulfill his mission. We desire to see Colorado admitted under Mr. Yates' bill—which the two Senators elect, Messrs. Chaffee and Evans, are said to favor, and to record the full success of Dr. Latham in obtaining a separate territorial organization for that portion of Dakota he will so ably represent

In appointing territorial officers there have been grave mistakes made in the past. Let them be avoided in the future. The practice of appointing old, worn out Eastern politicians should be abandoned, and intelligent Western men be selected, who are identified with, and understand Western interests

The Reed Swindle.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—A. H. Reed, clerk in the Paymaster General's office, who was arrested for sending circulars throughout the country to office holders, assessing each five dollars for the alleged purpose of defraying the expenses of the coming Presidential compaign, under instructions of the National Managing Committee, was to-day bound over to appear at the next term of the Criminal Court, and allowed his freedom until that time by giving $2,000 bail. Since Reed's arrest upwards of fifty letters have been received and detained at the post office, containing money directed to the so-called "National Managing Committee."—Special Dispatch to the Chicago Post

The Daily Evening Leader

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Leader

Yesterday's Report.

LONDON, June 21.—To-day, the anniversary of the accession of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, to the throne of England, was observed as a holiday in this metropolis. It was also duly observed by appropriate salutes throughout the realms of Britain.

OSTEND, June 20.—Admiral Farragut, after a brief visit to Brussels, has returned here again and assumed active command of the fleet. Preparations are being made for a grand review of the American squadron on Monday. The flag-ship Franklin will be draped with flags, and the Admiral will tender a grand banquet on board to their Royal Highness' the King and Queen, subsequent to the review.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—An Immigrant Aid Society has been organized, to furnish land and information to new comers.

Dispatches from Nevada announce considerable falls of snow in that State. At Austin the roofs of several houses were broken by the weight of snow.

CHICAGO, June 20—The North American Sængerbund's annual festival closes to-morrow. The next festival will be held in 1870

BERLIN, June 20—The American Minister, Bancroft, contemplates a visit to the courts of the different South German States.

WASHINGTON, June 20—The tax bill reported to the House to-day fixes the tax on whisky at sixteen cents The finest qualities of tobacco are reduced from forty to thirty-two cents. Not much change in other kinds.

The President nominated to the Senate to-day Andrew J Moulder, as Surveyor General of California.

The President pardoned H Heth, a Major General in the rebel army during the war, upon the recommendation of General Schofield and others.

The House to-day called up the bill on the Indian treaty, now pending in the Senate, whereby eight millions of acres of land of Kansas, belonging to the Great and Little Osage Indians, are transferred to the railway company. The treaty has been denounced an outrage and swindle, and everybody connected with making it was spoken of as swindler and rascal. The resolutions finally passed were unanimous in denying any one had a right to make such a treaty for the benefit of a great monopoly, charging that it was procured through corruption, and expressing the solemn opinion that it ought to be rejected by the Senate.

The Inspector General of the Freedmen's Bureau recently returned from a tour through Texas. He says the people north have little idea of the lawlessness prevailing there, and of the insecurity of life and property of Unionists. The loyalists asked Gens Hancock and Buchanan for protection, but were unable to obtain it He is convinced, from what was said, the people would take matters into their own hands, unless Congress gives them authority to protect themselves in some way.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The report of the Retrenchment Committee on the sale of the iron clads Oneonta and Catawba, to Swift & Co., who resold them to the Peruvian Government, states they have no doubt of colusion between Swift & Co. and the agent of the Navy, also intimate the Secretary of the Navy had knowledge of the circumstances.

The President to-day vetoed the Arkansas admission bill. The House this morning passed it over the veto by one hundred and nine to thirty-six.

The Senate joint resolution authorizing a change of mail service between Helena and Fort Abernethey, after a debate, passed.

The bill extending the patent for improvement in woolen printing machines, if approved by the Patent Commissioners, passed.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The tug boat Leroy exploded off the Battery this morning. Three lives were lost. The boat was racing with another tug at the time.

PORTLAND, Me., June 20—A boat containing eight men upset at the mouth of Saco river yesterday. Five men were drowned.

MANUFACTURERS,
Ware-rooms, 318 Bleecker street, N. Y. City.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the BEST manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers; and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25-3m

DOUBLE IRON FRAME,

MONITOR PLATE,

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE
(Patented February 20th 1866.)
WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.
Warerooms, 452 Broome St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers

THE

NEW YORK Life Insurance COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864 - -	$3,658,755 55 - -	$1,005,217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919.70 - -	1,223,164.15
1866 - -	6,727,816.65 - -	1,845,896.95
1867 - -	8,774,326.01 - -	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860; and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10 000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to ... $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to... 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to ... 5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

☞ADVERTISEMENTS IN THIS COLUMN, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER LINE, EACH INSERTION.

—President Heber C. Kimball died this morning at eleven o'clock.

—For Bass's East India Ale, by the cask or gallon, go to je19-3t J. G. WILLIS's.

FOR ALDERMAN.—A call for R M. Beers, Esq., to become a candidate for Councilman, at the election next Monday, is being circulated and has been very numerously signed by our citizens. Robert is a capital fellow, and we would be much gratified to see him elected.

AXES.—Best made, large assortment, at Geo. Tritch & Co.'s Hardware Store. je15-tf

—In the Police Court, this morning, several drunks and a few belligerent individuals appeared before his Honor, and contributed a few scads to the maintainance of the city government. Mayor Murrin took compassion on a county official and a newspaper man and, in consideration of their former good behavior, let them down lightly, but a pugilistic city official was discharged—upon the payment of five dollars and costs.

—"SIX MONTHS ON THE PLAINS," &c.—This book having been missent, has caused a delay quite unexpected in its being received here. It will come by express to-morrow evening, and be for sale at Beers'. A large demand at the east leaves only about 500 copies of the first edition for this city.

THE BELL HOUSE, which was formerly known as the Dodge House, has lately passed to the control and management of J. B Bell, Esq., who has made some very important improvements in the establishment, and is now prepared to furnish the best of entertainment to that portion of the traveling community who visit Cheyenne. The rooms have been thoroughly refurnished and ventilated, and the table is under the control and supervision of Mr. Bell and lady, who are determined to make this the most popular house in the city. We took dinner there to-day, and were surprised at the handsome and luxurious manner in which the meal was served. We commend the Bell House to the traveling public. See advertisement.

FURNISHED HOTEL TO RENT.—Will take the rent in board. Terms reasonable. Apply to Abney & Reel, Eighteenth street.
Cheyenne, June 16, 1868. je16tf

POSTPONEMENT.—The Strawberry Festival of the M. E. Church has been postponed until Wednesday evening. Tickets for the Festival are for sale at the drug stores and postoffice.

The Episcopal Social has also been postponed from Wednesday to Friday evening.

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY.—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R. Converse, Sixteenth street. m30tf

—A splendid specimen of moss agate now on exhibition at the LEADER office.

—T. B. H. Stenhouse, a Salt Lake editor, arrived here yesterday and goes east to-morrow. R. H. Sleater, a printer who has been in this city since last October, accompanies him from here.

—Those who are fond of blood and murder should go to the post office news depot and buy the Police News and Gazette. Harper's, Kelly's and Leslie's pictorials are also for sale at the same place.

—While it is on our mind we wish once more to say that the best materials and the finest work in native jewelry can be found at Joslin & Park's, corner of Sixteenth and Ferguson streets. 1t

PLAYING H——L.—The Deseret Salt Lake News says Gen. S. B. Reed has broken ground near the "Devil's Gate."

We knew the U. P. R. R. was approaching the Metropolis of the Mormons, but we never heard it called by that name before.

—G. E. Thompson, on Thomes street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, has just received the finest lot of French calf and kip skins ever brought to this market, and is prepared to manufacture boots and shoes in a superior style, guaranteeing a fit every time. je20-6t

ATTENTION PIONEERS.—Punctual attendance required at the regular ... of the Pioneer H. & L. Co., this evening, at eight o'clock. Business of importance will be brought before the meeting.

By order of the Foreman.
WILLIAM M. BAMBERGE,
Sec'y pro. tem.

—What has become of the water question? The line of the ditch has been staked out by the surveyor, but we have not yet heard of any work being done on it.

—On the line of the U. P. R. R., west of North Platte, Indians are said to be "thicker than fiddlers in h—."

—At sunrise, the North Platte River is said to be not very high, but towards evening it is booming.

—Friday, Saturday, yesterday and to-day are, or were the longest days in the year.

—The calaboose has been cleaned, whitewashed and renovated in a style which cannot fail to make the patronizers of that institution proud of it. It is really an inviting place in appearance, and as its hospitalities are always open for the participation of the public, it is rapidly becoming an attraction to the citizens of Chicago who visit this place.

A Testimonial.

CHEYENNE, D. T., June 17th, 1868.

To all my Friends and the Public.—I hereby testify to the great ability of Dr. S. B. INNES, as a Physician.

I was confined to my bed, from December 12th, 1867, until May 29th 1868, at which time I applied to Dr Innes. During my illness, I was treated by six of what they call the most eminent Physicians of Cheyenne, and if this is doubted, I can give their names. Some of them would say that I had this disease, others that I had some other disease, but none of them could cure me. I at last was induced by Mrs Evans, on Ferguson street, to try Dr Innes, as he had cured other ladies of her acquaintance. My husband made inquiry concerning the Dr., and found that his success was spoken of by almost everyone, and with all his patients his praise was unbounded. We at length sent for him, and in three weeks he has cured me. I am at this time doing all my own work, after lying in bed for six months. Every person wishing further information can find me on Tholmes street, between 15th and 16th.

It is at the Dr.'s request that I refrain from giving the Doctors' names that treated me so unsuccessfully. Hoping that other victims of such men may read this and profit by it, I am with respect,

Mrs ELIZABETH WALE.

PROCLAMATION.

CHEYENNE, D.T., June 2nd, 1868.

WHEREAS, on the 2nd day of June, 1868, the seat of Chas Sternberger, as a member of the board of Aldermen of the City of Cheyenne, became vacant by reason of his removal from said city, and so declared by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, and,

WHEREAS, the Board of Aldermen have passed a resolution providing for an election to fill said vacancy,

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that an election to fill vacancy in Board of Aldermen, caused by removal of Chas. Sternberger from the city, will be holden on June 29th, 1868. Polls opened at City Hall, at 8 o'clock, a. m., and close at 5 o'clock of said day.

Attest L. MURRIN,
ED ORPEN, Mayor.
City Clerk. Je17

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances, or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants, and,

WHEREAS, the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all, the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains,

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs. NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal, shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. FOR PRESIDENT,

ULYSSES S. GRANT,

OF ILLINOIS.

For Vice President,

Schuyler Colfax,

OF INDIANA

Death of Heber C. Kimball.

The name of "Heber" is almost as familiar to the public as that of Brigham, to whom he was next in rank in the Presidency of the Mormon Church which consists of a President, (Brigham), and two Counsellors, (Heber C Kimball and Daniel H Wells) For many years Kimball has held his position rather by suffrance than ability, as he was below mediorocrity in point of intellect In speech and manners he was disagreeably uncouth even to his own people, and certainly made a sorry figure whenever he was allowed to appear before distinguished visitors, but he was generous and honest in character His successor would, in the natural course of promotion by seniority and rank in other institutions, be Daniel H Wells, who stood next to him, the place of Wells to be filled by Hyde, President of "The Twelve," who ranks next to Wells But in the arbitrary course of Mormon affairs which generally shape themselves to Brigham's will, it is quite probable that Elder John Taylor, a man of positive character, natural shrewdness and considerable acquired information, will be elected to fill the place of Heber, and sit next the throne The death of Kimball is the most notable one which has occurred in the Territory, as it is the commencement of the breaking up of the patriarchal band who led the Saints across the desert to the land of promise. The immediate cause of his death was a fall creating paralysis superinduced by an old injury. The Deseret News of the 15th says:

Some few weeks ago while President Heber C. Kimball was driving into Provo in the night, he was thrown violently from his buggy. He fell partly on his head, and injured an old hurt in his side. The fall was a severe one at the time, but beyond the injuries then received nothing serious was expected to result from it But it has been noticed that he has not been so well since that fall; and during the early part of last week his fuce was considerably flushed. He was at the Mass Meeting on Wednesday, and his appearance was then remarked. On Thursday evening a sort of paralysis manifested itself, so that he was not able to use his right leg to walk with, but he still kept around. On Friday his whole side seemed to be paralyzed, beginning at the old hurt in his side. Yesterday morning there was considerable improvement, and he has been steadily improving since. He felt languid this morning, probably the reaction consequent upon the excitement caused by the numerous calls made upon him yesterday All Latter-day Saints will be rejoiced to learn that his condition to-day is quite favorable, and indicative of a speedy restoration to health.

From Sweetwater.

The Mines of the 13th says: Messrs. Tozer and Eddy have purchased a six-stamp quartz mill of Messrs Jennings, Godbe, Lawrence and others, of Salt Lake, which will cost, when put up and in running order, from $12,000 to $15,000. They will have the mill and two arastras in operation within thirty days from this date. The mill and arastras will be run by water power, and will be capable of working fifteen tons of ore, in a thorough manner, per day.——Rock Creek is paying from eight to twelve dollars per day to the hand. ——From six to eight dollars per day to the hand is made in the Summit District diggings.

The Helena Herald says the steamer Lacon, with 150 tons of freight, made the trip from St. Louis to Benton in forty-two days, which is the best time made up the river this year. ——Gov. Smith left Helena on the 12th for Kentucky via Fort Benton and the Missouri.

Negro Suffrage.

"There is every reason to expect that the southern negroes will vote in the Presidential election, and if we permit all those States to be carried by the Republicans, we may as well hang our harps on the willows It concerns us to gain a portion of the negro vote, and it would be suicidal to put into the platform any declaration which the Radical stump orators could use to turn the negro vote against us."—N. Y. World.

Either the World or the La Crosse Democrat must be accepted as the mouthpiece of the Democratic party. But as it is generally asserted by reasonable Democrats that Brick Pomeroy is shaming them out of their own party, and as he is denounced by the ex-rebel press of the South, it is safe to say the World really represents the party which expects to "hang their harps on the (weeping) willows" unless negro suffrage is endorsed by the New York Convention That the party does contemplate such a result is evident from the fact that they still entertain the idea of nominating Chase, after he has publicly and frequently stated negro suffrage must be an article of the platform on which he would accept the nomination. It is beyond a reasonable doubt that the Fourth of July Convention will endorse negro suffrage, a principle of which they might be proud were it not for the humiliating fact that they have, for years, denounced and affected to despise the very class or race with whom they now seek to affiliate

Another—to them—humiliating circumstance connected with their endorsement of negro suffrage, is that they do it, not for just or honorable motives but, for selfish ends, to advance their own interests, if possible, at the expense of the interests of every man who might be induced by false promises to poll a vote for the party which once declared war against each and every man who might be suspected of having even one-half of one per cent of African blood in his veins Now, says the World, "it concerns us to gain a portion of the negro vote" Those are words which every negro should remember when his vote is asked, as it certainly will be, by the Democratic party or by any individual member of it. They are already seeking negro votes to enable them to crush the hopes of negroes who are asking for such rights as nature intended them to enjoy, the justice of which has been acknowledged and established by the Republican party. It is time for negroes to look to their safety when they are thus surrounded and insidiously assailed by the false promises of those who have sworn to compass their destruction. Let them "hang their harps on the willow" and sit down to meditate for a few generations on the progress of that humanity which they once attempted to crush.

Change the Time.

We would suggest to the Superintendent of the Union Pacific Railroad the propriety of changing the hour of the departure of the mail train from Laramie City, as the present arrangement is decidedly inconvenient to the post master at that place, either disturbing his rest in the morning, or as is more frequently the case, sending off the train without the mail at all. "No mail from the west," is the story about every other day; and then two or three days' mail at one time, to make us even The mail arrives at Laramie from the west every day, while it arrives here but three or four times a week, although the train leaves there every morning except Sunday. If different arrangements are not soon made at Laramie, we shall call public attention to this state of facts.

A New York paper says Dr Carver, of Pittsford, Monroe county, in that State, who was in Washington twenty-one years ago advertising the Utopian scheme of a Pacific railway, left the national capital on Saturday for Fort Laramie, to enjoy his first trip over the new road. He goes, at the age of eighty, to found a new city—to bear his name—near the present terminus of the line. He claims to be the father of the Pacific road, and exhibits as curiosities the pamphlets which he published in favor of the enterprise in 1847.

The Muscatine, Iowa, Journal says the young lady at Keokuk to whom it is reported Speaker Colfax is to be married is Miss Kate Perry, daughter of a prominent and wealthy citizen of that place. She says it all depends on "Schuy."

Wheat of eight and rye of nine feet in heighth is plenty in California this year.

NOON REPORT.

ST. LOUIS, June 22—A Denver telegram says a fight had occurred at Apache Springs between forty-seven soldiers and a band of Navajoe Indians, recently. Six of the latter were killed and one soldier wounded.

The Indians are reported quite troublesome above Ft. Buford, near Ft. Benton. The Sioux are committing depredations They had driven off a considerable amount of stock at the mouth of Muscleshell river. Several wood choppers had been killed, and a number of boats fired into. A large number of Indians who participated in the Minnesota massacre were near Fort Berthold, openly hostile and defiant It is expected these hostile Indians and half-breeds will have a desperate fight this season. Hostile Indians near Ft Rice sent word they would make no treaties unless government stopped the steamboat travel and took all the soldiers out of the country There were, however, large numbers of Indians in the vicinity of Fort Rice, awaiting the arrival of the Peace Commissioners,

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The case of John H. Surratt was called in the Criminal Court before Judge Wylie to day, the District Attorney elected to try the prisoner upon a new indictment for conspiracy The court therefore ordered the discharge of the prisoner on the indictment for murder. The counsel for the defense not being ready the case was continued till next Monday. The President today nominated to the Senate William M Evarts as Attorney General, and Edward C Johnson, son of Reverdy Johnson, as assistant Secretary of the Legation at London.

HOUSE.—Loughbridge offered a resolution that in the opinion of the House the interests of the country demand that the public debt should be re-organized and reduced to a simple uniform system more easily understood by the people than the present, and that the interest on the debt should be reduced. Agreed to without a division.

The report of the Conference Committee on the bill removing political disabilities from several hundred persons in the Southern States, was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Surratt was released this afternoon on bail of $20,000.

Efforts continue to be made by certain parties to produce the resignation of McCulloch, but the President has given no intimation that it would be accepted. The relations between them continue friendly.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Minister Burlingame and a portion of the Chinese embassy arrived to-day, for the purpose of attending the public dinner to-morrow.

A special from Washington says Thad Stevens has prepared and will to-morrow introduce into the House new articles of impeachment.

ANTWERP, June 22—A mutiny broke out yesterday on the American clipper ship Nerus, lying at this port, during which the officers were severely handled by the crew, and nearly overpowered. The police were notified, and they boarded the ship. The U. S. steamer Ticonderago, which was lying near by, sent some of her crew to the assistance of the police. After a desperate fight the mutiny was suppressed.

LONDON, June 22.—Prince Milan the Fourth has been publicly proclaimed ruler of Servia.

A meeting was called by the Liberals to-night at Guildhall, to consider the Irish Church question. The hall was crowded and the Lord Mayor presided. It soon became evident the majority of those present were Tories. As soon as proceedings commenced a great disturbance was created, mingled with cheers and hisses, which rendered the voices of the speakers on the platform inaudible to all except the reporters. Mr. Lubbeck moved the first resolve declaring that the Irish Church should cease to exist, and opposing any amendment of the suspensory bill now pending in the House of Lords. A general uproar followed the reading of the resolve; fights took place in various parts of the hall, and the disturbances threatened to become serious. At this juncture, the Lord Mayor retired from the chair, and with a number of other gentlemen on the platform, left the hall. The Tories then rushed upon the platform and held it for a short time. They addressed the audience in an excited manner, declaring the bulk of the English people were opposed to the suspensory bill. After a comparative quiet had been restored speeches were made in support of the bill by several members of Parliament. They were repeatedly interrupted, and were unable to proceed with reading the resolutions. The meeting ended in disorder, and without taking any vote on the resolves.

The Great Overland Mail Robbery.

[From the Gold Hill (Nevada) News, 11th.]

About twelve o'clock last night the incoming overland stage was stopped near the mouth of Six-mile Canyon, some half a dozen miles from Virginia, by three highwaymen, and the treasure box and passengers robbed to the extent of $5,000. Baldy Green was driving, and the stage was coming at a slow rate up a rise after crossing the bridge in the canyon some two miles below the Flowery mill, where the the three robbers made their appearance from the roadside, and presented a couple of shotguns and a revolver, compelling a stoppage of the team. The driver was ordered down from his seat, and the passengers—six in number, including two ladies—made to get out of the coach, and hold up their hands, while one after the other was searched and robbed of what money or watches they had; the ladies, however, were not searched particularly, or robbed of anything. The three "road agents" were masked, and while two of them stood guard with their shotguns, the third, who was evidently the leader, and was armed with a revolver, did the "collecting." Dr. C. W. Heath lost $300 in coin, and a fine gold watch worth $300. Antone Aguayo lost $329 in coin, and a gold watch worth $250. The driver had but a few dollars in silver, which was taken from him. Mr. D. B. McGee was robbed of eight dollars in coin, but his wife had $900, all in gold coin, in the front part of her dress, concealed by her bosom, which fortunately escaped search or notice. Miss Susan J. Hodgdon had some money and a gold watch, which gallantry forbade close searching for. Barney Dougherty had been employed as ostler at one of the overland stations, and being paid off the day before, had a buckskin purse containing $200 in his pocket. This he contrived to dexterously slip down the back of his neck, unobserved, as he passed out of the coach, and thus saved it, only losing a trifling amount of silver coin which remained in his pants pocket. Dr. Heath tried to slip his watch into one of his boots, but was detected, and sternly ordered to have "no dam foolishness."

The passengers and driver were now made to walk up a neighboring ravine nearly a mile, two of the robbers accompanying, where they were left, with orders to remain where they were, and threats that in case any of them attempted to follow they would be killed. None of them being armed they deemed it wisest to obey orders The robbers took possession of the coach and drove it over a mile up the road, towards Virginia, when they stopped, tied the horses, took out Wells, Fargo & Co's treasure box, and smashing it open with an ax, took therefrom three bars of bullion weighing 287 pounds, worth $3,384.06, and four small packages of coin, amounting to $169. Green, the driver, was the first to follow after the coach, indeed, he came up before the rascals were done, and was driven back. After waiting until they thought the coast was clear, the passengers came along, and getting on board the coach, came up to Virginia, arriving about 3½ o'clock this morning.

MANUFACTURERS,

Warerooms, 348 Bleecker street, N. Y City.

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers; and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from $200 to $800 00 my25 3m

Manufacturers of the New Patent

DOUBLE IRON FRAME,

MONITOR PLATE.

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE.

(Patented February 20th 1866)

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS

Warerooms, 132 Broome St., N. Y

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,642,425 60

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement:

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year.
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217,63
1865	4,881,919,70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816.65	1,845,896.95
1867	8,774,326.01	2,046,509.36
Total Increase		$6,120,788.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows.

Second year, two-tenths of $10,0 0 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

AXES.—Best made, large assortment, at Geo. Tritch & Co.'s Hardware Store. je15-tf

—"SIX MONTHS ON THE PLAINS," &c—This book having been missent, has caused a delay quite unexpected in its being received here. It will come by express to-morrow evening, and be for sale at Beers'. A large demand at the east leaves only about 500 copies of the first edition for this city je15tf

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R. Converse, Sixteenth street. m30tf

—G. E. Thompson, on Thomes street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, has just received the finest lot of French calf and kip skins ever brought to this market, and is prepared to manufacture boots and shoes in a superior style, guaranteeing a fit every time je20-6t

—Judging from the number of improvements in the shape of new walks, awnings and wells and shade trees, it would appear that people live in Cheyenne "till yet"

—The weather is killing hot in almost all parts of the country except Cheyenne, where we have delightful showers from three to five times per week, cooling the air and reducing the number of applicants at the Police Court.

—The road from here to Denver and the mountains is lined with freight teams.

—The Strawberry Festival of the M E. Church will be held in the new post office hall to-morrow evening.

—The government having stopped the issuing of rations to the Sioux at North Platte, they have left, and are now, with their lodges, on the Republican. This will be a convenient base of operations, for both the Platte and Smoky Hill routes, and we may soon expect to hear of renewed depredations along those lines.

NOTICE—There will be a special and informal meeting of the Masonic Fraternity at their hall this evening, to receive and act upon the report of the committee in relation to getting up a Masonic Festival and Ball. All masons are invited to attend and interest themselves in the project.

A GOOD IDEA.—We notice that the lamp at the post office has the name of the street painted on the glass. This is a good idea, as it shows at night equally well as by day and may prove of service to strangers. Go thou and do likewise.

—We hear of a policeman yesterday buying eleven dollars in gold coin from a child for ten cents in greenbacks. He didn't report it either until called upon to "come out."

—The press of Omaha are in a "peck of trouble" about the morals and financial standing of Cheyenne. When the bridge is built across the Missouri at De Soto, and the branch railroad which is to be built, leaves these gentlemen out on a switch, they will have leisure, it is to be hoped, to attend to their own morals—and business.

The Water Question.

EDITOR LEADER: I notice in your issue of last evening an inquiry about "the water question." In reply, I would briefly state, for the benefit of your readers, that myself and Alderman Wise called on General Stevenson a few days ago to tender what aid we might be able to render in forwarding the work on the proposed canal. The General invited us to his quarters, where we had a long talk over the matter, and he assured us he was in no need of help from any one, but was collecting tools and material ready for the work, which in good time will be commenced. He further remarked, "Gentlemen, I have undertaken this job and you may rest assured it will be done, and in less than six weeks from this." During the interview an "orderly" entered and announced "General, the Colonel says you can have twenty-five plows to-morrow morning for the ditch."

We must bear in mind that there has been a change of troops at the post recently, and the force there is small at present, which will be increased shortly. I would suggest that we be not impatient in this matter. I have faith, not "sufficient to remove mountains," but to believe the course of Crow Creek will soon be changed. It is a matter that the military authorities can ill afford to overlook, for at present, all the water used in and about the fort is hauled from the creek, a difficulty and expense that will be overcome in turning the water of the creek in the proposed channel.

S. H. WINSOR,
City Engineer.

There is a nice batch of Indian news to-day. The local which states the Indians from the vicinity of North Platte (east) have gone to the Republican is from information by a gentleman who has just come from that place, and it may be considered reliable. The Republican river is one of the favorite summer haunts of those Indians who live on the confines of civilization and make their living by murdering emigrants and settlers. It was in that vicinity that Hancock and Auger met with such signal (for the Indians) success last year. It was there that treaties were made and presents accepted by day, and government horses and mules stolen by night, and a deserted "rancherie" was burned as the only brilliant exploit of a campaign which cost the country millions. As the rations were stopped, the Indians naturally concluded they had no further use of government or commissions, so they retire to their old stamping ground and take a new, or an old rather, view of the situation.

Where is Sanborn?

The dispatches from Denver tell of a fight at Apache Springs, the only compensating feature of which is that six Indians were killed.

Where is Sherman?

The Indians are reported troublesome about Fort Buford They are driving off stock and murdering men all along the Upper Missouri Boats have been fired into. At Fort Rice they demand boats should not ascend the Missouri, and that all soldiers should be withdrawn

Where is Tappan?

The Indians who participated in the Minnesota massacre are threatening hostilities at Fort Berthold

Where is Horace Greeley?

At the end of the track they are busy burning camps, stealing stock, and endangering the lives of the men at work upon the road

Where are the Volunteers?

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '68, $1,642,125 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000 000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement.

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217,63
1865	4,881,019 70	1,223,164 15
1866	6,727 816 65	1,845,896 95
1867	8,774,326.01	2,046,509 36
Total increase		$6,120,798.69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first preseted to the public by this Company in their well-known 'Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to. . 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . 5,000

And so on. until the tenth annual payment when all is paid

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

PROCLAMATION.

CHEYENNE, D.T., June 2nd, 1868

WHEREAS, on the 2nd day of June, 1868, the seat of Chas Sternberger, as a member of the board of Aldermen of the City of Cheyenne, became vacant by reason of his removal from said city, and so declared by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, and,

WHEREAS, the Board of Aldermen have passed a resolution providing for an election to fill said vacancy,

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that an election to fill vacancy in Board of Aldermen, caused by removal of Chas Sternberger from the city, will be holden on June 29th, 1868. Polls opened at City Hall, at 8 o'clock, a. m, and close at 6 o'clock of said day.

Attest L MURRIN,
ED. ORPEN, Mayor.
City Clerk. je17

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances, or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants: and,

WHEREAS, the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all, the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains,

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs. L. MURRIN, Mayor.

Grant and Cheyenne.

As San Francisco signifies California, and Salt Lake City is generally used as a synonym for Utah and Mormonism, so is Cheyenne the point of attraction or centre to which all travel to Colorado and other portions of the Plains is directed If one starts from New York for the mountains he buys a ticket to Cheyenne, as the point at which to establish the base of further movements

The National Horse Fair at Denver will be one of the grandest affairs in the United States, and though the facilities for arriving thus far are fully adequate to any demand, from this city to Denver the means of conveyance are decidedly limited Two stage coaches per day leave this city for that place, but even now and always, with the mere travel produced by business, these coaches are overloaded It is probable that during next week if a stage coach were to leave this city for Denver every hour in the day they would all be filled with passengers, at fairly remunerative figures This affair may be of considerable importance, not only to Cheyenne and Denver, but to Wyoming and Colorado at large. People will come from the East, and once here they cannot fail to form favorable opinions of the country. The greatness of the West depends on nothing but acquaintance—the better it is known the more favorable is the impression produced.

To-day Gen Grant—so eastern papers say—is to leave New York for Cheyenne. It might be said the arrival of Grant is an event of no more importance than the advent of any other individual, however humble; but facts pronounce against any such proposition. He is, and for years has been, the foremost man in America, or perhaps any other country, and it is useless to attempt to deny that his good or bad opinion is of great weight with all who are acquainted with it, and if he does come it should be considered the duty of the people, not to offer him roast chicken and champagne, but to furnish him all such actual information as may be of interest to the public and important to Cheyenne. Receptions and dinners are follies—vanities—unless prepared for and intended to advance, some ulterior and high purpose, and this should be borne in mind. His position entitles Grant to a certain amount of respect, but if he arrives here there are many measures of vital importance to the citizens of this Territory, which should be made to command his attention. A committee should be appointed to receive him, and see that he does not leave here without full information on all subjects of which it were proper for him to be informed.

Another.

A Nevada paper of the 9th inst. says:

"At 7½ o'clock yesterday morning we were treated to a pretty smart shock of an earthquake. It was sufficiently heavy to cause dishes, bottles, windows, etc., to rattle at a lively rate; to shake up and muddy ale at the saloons, and cut other such pranks, but not heavy enough to wake any but light sleepers. We presume we shall have one worth mentioning one of these days. They are very nice to have, and are very good for items, as a change from hay and pack-trains—there is something more exciting about them, and they are always of general interest—while they are under headway, especially."

There is no place where an editor may have such fat takes as in one addicted to earthquakes; and if there is an open sit in Virginia City, we want it.

Colorado and Pioneers.

Perhaps men who have expended the greatest portion of their lives and energies on the frontier might be excused for that amount of self-reliance, conceit and good opinion of themselves which they generally entertain and—perhaps too frequently—express. At all events they seem fond of encouragement, and to gratify those much abused individuals we print the following from a Frenchman's description of Colorado and emigrants, for which we are indebted to the Leavenworth Times:

"The professor writes:

"For three weeks we have been surveying this most wonderful Territory, now climbing the highest hills, now descending the deepest vales. Bernardines and Benedictines, had they been of our party, would have been equally satisfied, for if the first, after their master, love the vales, the second do not dislike the hills. Bernardus valles, Benedictus colles amabat

I have visited shafts and galleries, explored the placers, examined the works where gold and silver are separated from the ores, and I have learned to love and honor the pioneers of Colorado

Our excursions have been made on horseback, riding sometimes for several days consecutively I have found here those fine Mexican horses, which can travel for hours without rest and food, contenting themselves with nibbling as they go, and drinking at every brook they cross Let them quench their thirst as they please, they always do justice to their evening meals at their stable, and more often exhaust their riders than themselves

Last night, when I arrived at Georgetown, the central city of the silver mines, I slipped down from my nag and exclaimed like the Peruvian President Castella, 'No puedo mas," I can do no more

* * * * * *

In these distant mines, in these unfrequented vales, I have often met the same courageous emigrants Their cottages have been built in the woods, on the lofty hills, or in the depths of the dark valleys. You enter, and a pleasant woman welcomes you, the kind husband offers you a seat at his board; the linen is of the whitest, the viands are varied, and prepared by the delicate hands of the housewife In fact you meet signs of luxury and comfort which astonish one in such distant retreats"

From Sweetwater.

Mr John McGlinchey arrived here to-day from Sweetwater, and furnishes the following items and a few samples of ore which may be seen at this office Mr. McGlinchey has been in business at South Pass City, since May 1st, although now sold out, and is on his way east to purchase new goods for that market, The placer diggings are really good and improving, while the quartz is beyond all question the best which has ever been found anywhere. Mr. McG. ships his goods from this city by ox train, and hopes to be in Sweetwater for the fall trade. As he started from this city last spring, and has done well, we say success to John McGlinchy.

From North Platte.

Mr. Joe Dyer arrived from North Platte, where he is engaged in business, this morning, and makes the following statement as the actual state of facts recently connected with the hanging of the man near North Platte. The man executed was a gentile, in the employ of a Mormon company, working on the grade under Creighton & Co., about thirty miles this side (east) of North Platte The man, whose name was Wilson, and who had about thirteen ounces of gold on his person, demanded his wages, which, so far as reports go, was cancelled by hanging. After the hanging the outfit started in this direction and is by this time probably secure. These are the facts as reported at North Platte, and they are generally believed. Under these circumstances it is incumbent on either the Mormons or somebody else to show that nobody was hung, which they probably will not deny, or, if hung, that it was under circumstances which would excuse the Church of Latter Day Saints of Jesus Christ and satisfy those who look only for facts, and allow miracles to stand or fall, as facts may determine, and leave the result with good men.

Col Leavenworth, an old Indian agent, passed through our city yesterday, en-route for Washington. He has heretofore been foremost in shielding the Indians from blame in the troubles that have existed, protesting strongly that they are not the aggressors, and that whatever acts of hostility they have committed have been provoked by the bad faith of those against whom their enmity has been directed. But he now says these tribes have violated their treaties and obligations, and that he will advise withholding their annuities and the prosecution of the most vigorous measures toward them.—St. Joe Herald, 18th inst.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Leader

NOON REPORT:

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—New York dates only fourteen days old have been received by overland mail.

One thousand tons of Oregon pig iron have been received here recently. A rolling mill is about going into operation.

A smart rain fell last night and this morning, which is quite remarkable for the season. No wind accompanied it, and the crops will not be injured materially.

The Germans in this city have organized a large Grant club.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The President nominated Edward O. Perrin, of New York, for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in Utah.

The Senate this afternoon confirmed the nomination of Edward C Johnson as Assistant Secretary of the Legation at London. It also confirmed the number of army Second Lieutenants The nomination of S S. Cox as Minister to Austria was, it is said, rejected.

A comparison of the mining stock quotations of the same periods of last year and this, show a decline of thirteen million dollars for thirteen leading companies.

Arrived—ship Anahuac, from Boston. The steamship Sacramento arrived from Panama this evening Later advices from Arizona render probable the election of McCormick, Union delegate to Congress

WASHINGTON, June 23—In the House, Paine offered a resolution that members elect from Arkansas be sworn in. Referred to the Committee on Elections

WASHINGTON, June 23—SENATE—Sumner offered a series of resolutions for the protection of American citizens abroad.

Thayer presented the credentials of Alex McDonald and Benj. T. Rice, Senators elect from Arkansas After considerable debate, in which the election of John Jones and Jas. H. Garland was claimed, the first mentioned gentlemen were sworn in.

The consideration of the tax bill was resumed in the House, the question being on the amendment to reduce the tax on whisky from sixty to fifty cents The vote was taken on the amendment making it fifty cents, which was carried by 87 to 37.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The California delegation of the Democratic National Convention has arrived

ST. LOUIS, June 23.—All the arrivals at the mouth of the Yellowstone says that from there to Benton the Indians are very hostile They had killed many wood choppers and burned nearly all the wood along the river banks At the mouth of Milk river three wood choppers were rescued from a party of Assiniboines. The Indians had attacked their settlement and killed three of the party. At the mouth of the Manisas a party of Sioux met with a large lot of fine horses They said they intended to steal all the horses, and kill all the wood choppers, in the country, and burn all the wood piles, and thus keep the boats away.

News Gatherings.

The anniversary of the sinking of the Alabama by the Kearsage was celebrated in Boston on Friday last.

At the last trotting match at Dexter Park in Chicago the horse Silas Rich made three heats in 2:25, 2:26, and 2:27½.

The Tribune says one of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s stage drivers lately made a trip of twenty-six miles in two hours and five minutes.

In Davenport, Iowa, on the 18th inst., a man named Kid cut the throat of a Miss Jordan because she would not marry him.

A trainer of thieves has just been sent to prison in Chicago. That city is ready to supply the country with that peculiar commodity.

The Denver News of the 22d says: At high noon to-day the moon, accompanied by a bright particular star, could be seen near the zenith by good eyes.

$80,000 in gold is about to be distributed as prize money of the British ship Chesire, captured while running the blockade of Charleston in 1861.

The Colorado Herald says Judge Hallett has pronounced sentence of death on the negro George, Smith. Day of execution, 14th of next month, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

A horrible affair, growing out of a petty political dispute, occurred in Chicago on the 19th inst., wherein a man named James Elliott was beaten and burned by three blacksmiths until it is thought he will die.

A new railway, to be styled the Buffalo and Southern Railroad, is projected to connect Buffalo and Baltimore by a direct route, making the distance equal to that between Buffalo and Albany. The new road, by proper connections, will only require 120 miles of new rails to be organized, and pioneer railway engineer Wallace is instructed to survey the route.

The discovery has been made that only two words in the English language have for their last syllable "cion"—"coercion" and "suspicion." "Scion" cannot properly be added to the list, being a complete word, and the "cion" forming two syllables. The New York Mail offers a year's subscription for each and every English word ending in "cion," other than the three named.

A Profane Man Wanted.

The Gold Hill (Nevada) News in commenting on articles in some of its Democratic exchanges says:

"Like the amiable young man whose Christian rearing incapacitated him for doing justice to the subject when his load of sand was found spilled along a steep ascent up which he had labored, we confess ourself utterly unequal to such occasions as these. A young man who is entirely familiar with the profane authors, who is a good, steady single-handed swearer, and who is willing to devote his undivided time and attention to that department of literature, can obtain a good situation at fair remuneration by calling at this office and confining his attention to the political articles in our Democratic exchanges. N. B.—The duties will be laborious."

As the following items are from the Index, it may require a number of saline globules to make them go down. The town of Brownsville (North Platte), has been surveyed, and has lots for sale.——The projector of the idea of a railway across the plains is in Laramie.——Laramie river is slopping over.——Original Matter of the Index has gone east—no harm done. ——News from the Laramie gold diggings is very flattering.——The institution is on the shoot, at least it talks of branching out—the further the better.——The hybred parenthetic correspondent of the Index has again exhibited his father.

A LEARNED WITNESS.—Witnesses are often exceedingly stupid, but we don't know whether this witness ought to be called stupid or not. He was before Baron Martin. It was desired to get from him an exact account of a certain conversation with the "says I" and "says he;" but the counsel could not make him comprehend the form in which he was wanted to make his statement. So the court took him in hand. "Now, my man, tell us exactly what passed." "Yes, my lord, certainly. I said that I would not have the pig." "Well, what was his answer?" "He said that he had been keeping the pig for me, and that——." "No, no; he did not say that—he could not have said it. He spoke in the first person." "No, I was the first person that spoke, my lord." "I mean this—don't bring in the third person—repeat his exact words." "There was no third person, my lord, only him and me." "Look here, my good fellow; he did not say he had been keeping the pig; he said 'I have been keeping it." "I assure you, my lord, there was no mention of your lordship's name at all. We are on two different stories, my lord. There was no third person; and if anything had been said about your lordship, I must have heard it." So the court had to give it up, though the witness was only too ready to tell all he knew.

Go to Antwerp for Petroleum.

Petroleum goes free from the Oil Creek wells to Antwerp. Not a cent of tax is laid on it here, and by a recent decision of the Zollverein or Custom Union of nearly all the German States, it is admitted there duty free. And thus will the curious anomaly be presented of petroleum cheaper than it is in Pittsburg. Cheaper three thousand miles away than it is at our very doors. For though a temporary demand in Europe, and a temporary glut of the market here, may make it cheaper here than there, nevertheless, as soon as the equilibrium is restored, it must be cheaper to carry it free of taxation to Germany than to pay a tax of fifty cents a gallon and sell it here. But it is said that Congress is going to put an end to this strange state of things, by removing the tax from petroleum altogether.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Reno and Vicinity.

[From the Virginia (Nevada) Trespass.]

Last Saturday we managed to get conveyed to that mushroom town, with a name pronounced a thousand different ways, but correctly styled Reno—the present terminus of the great Central Pacific Railroad. Four weeks ago it was advertised that town lots would be sold to the highest bidder, and in accordance with such decree a large number of speculative people assembled and bought at prices from $50 to $1,500 certain desirable and average bunches of sage-brush. The town then was but a crysalis—known as Lake's Crossing on the Truckee, notorious only in days agone as a point for high water and moderate tolls. Last Saturday we saw Reno for the first time, and were certainly not a little surprised to find that in four short weeks one hundred and sixty houses had been erected, and at least one hundred more in active preparation. Virginia street, at present the principal thoroughfare, is compactly lined with hotels, restaurants, gin-mills, and mercantile establishments, from Dan Pine's toll-road agency at the river to First street, which runs parallel with the railroad. Many of the buildings are not yet completed, but the busy sound of saw, hammer and axe is heard from west to east. We saunter along the street and at every step meet Virginians, who are wide awake and up with the times, as are men from other localities who believe in Reno's future promise as a central point for travel and freight.

A cheerful individual named Flynn is travelling through Ireland in the interest of the Protestant Electoral Union, with the following placard attached to his side-show: "Subject of the lecturer—Transubstantiation and the mass. The lecturer will dress in priestly robes, and will give a burlesque of the mass, with bells, candles, incense, and other flummery." Whenever the cheerful and humorous Flynn arrives at a strongly Catholic town he is syringed with paving stones and brickbats.

G. & H. BARMORE, PIANO FORTE

MANUFACTURERS,

Ware-rooms, 348 Bleecker street, N. Y. City

32 Years Established, and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the BEST manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $100 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted what the public eye might pass over never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly faithfully and thoroughly made so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25-3m

SCHUTZE & LUDOLFF,

(ESTABLISHED IN 1855)

Manufacturers of the New Patent

DOUBLE IRON FRAME, MONITOR PLATE, PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE

(Patented February 20th 1860)

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Warerooms, 452 Broome St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers.

Peddlers should remember that in Cheyenne as well as in other places they cannot sell goods, under the very gaze of respectable merchants who pay liberally for the support of our city government, without contributing their quota

—The long-legged nincompoop who has been amusing himself lately in the local columns of the Argus, at our expense, over dinner and calaboose items, might do well to remember the narrow escape he made recently of graduating from the pleasant retreats of the Hotel de Sweeney, to more substantial quarters at Yankton

—"SIX MONTHS ON THE PLAINS," &c.—This book having been missent, has caused a delay quite unexpected in its being received here It will come by express to-morrow evening, and be for sale at Beers' A large demand at the east leaves only about 500 copies of the first edition for this city je15tf

—The new town which has been laid off on North Platte river, is about two miles below the present city.

MASONIC FESTIVAL —The Masonic Fraternity of this city are making arrangements for a festival to come off on the 30th inst. It is the intention to make this a very interesting and pleasant affair. Although under the auspices of Cheyenne Lodge, it will not be exclusive, at all Further notice with programme of the day, etc, will appear in due time.

FURNITURE AND CROCKERY.—The largest and most complete stock in town can be found at A. R. Converse, Sixteenth street. m30tf

THE HIGHEST BIDDER at Sumner's sale to-morrow may buy the Commercial Record printing office, which is to be sold for what it is worth, or less Don't forget it.

—G. E. Thompson, on Thomes street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, has just received the finest lot of French calf and kip skins ever brought to this market, and is prepared to manufacture boots and shoes in a superior style, guaranteeing a fit every time. je29-6t

—On Saturday night last, as we learn, Indians came within two miles of North Platte and stole a lot of stock—close ATTENTION PIONEERS. — Special meeting this evening for the transaction of special business. Every member is requested to be at the Truck House at 8 o'clock, sharp.

By order of the Foreman,
W. M. BAMBERGE,
Secretary pro tem.

—J G Willis, Esq., of the wholesale Liquor House on Sixteenth street leaves to-day to establish a branch house at North Platte. He will be absent six or eight days.

CHEYENNE, June 22, 1868.

MESSRS. FOSHER, HATHAWAY, COLLINS AND OTHERS—Gentlemen: In reply to your note of this morning, I will say that if elected to the office of Alderman of this city, I will fill it to th the best of my ability.

Yours truly,
R. M. BEERS.

—If a little knowledge is a dangerous thing, no one should feel surprised at the deplorable condition of the Argus, which, for the past few weeks, has exhibited a total want of common sense in its editorials from Hudibras and John Gilpin.

—An unusual number of passengers arrived from the west this morning. Among them were a number of officers of the 18th Infantry.

HARPING ON HARPER is an old story, but new stories and a new Harper for July has just been received and is for sale by Bob Beers, in the Postoffice.

Communicated.

CHEYENNE, June 24, 1868.

ED LEADER: As the chief executive of this city, I feel it due to the police department of this city to, not apologise but to explain an affair to which you referred yesterday.

A policeman did obtain from a boy the coin, as you stated, and as in duty bound, would have reported the case to me, were it not for the fact that he discovered both the parties in the case; that is, the loser and finder at the time of the occurance, and reported to the father of the boy, by means of which the money was restored to the loser.

As the honor of every policeman in the department is under my special charge, and as I believe the action of the officer in question is honorable and correct, in justice to him and the department, as well as to the public, I ask you to give place to this communication, and hope you may always report any dereliction of duty which may be charged against any officer of the department

Yours, respectfully,
D J, SWEENEY
City Marshal

LAST CHANCE—Bob Beers, of the new post office, says "Mac" has returned from North Platte, and will answer all communications to-morrow.

—Postmaster McLeland has returned from Laramie City.

—Those Strawberries for the Festival are splendid Go and have a pleasant time to-night.

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,425 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement,

	Assets.	Increase of assets over previous year.
1864 --	$3,658,755 55 --	$1,005,217,63
1865 --	4,881,919 70 --	1,223,164.15
1866 --	6,727,816 65 --	1 845,896 95
1867 --	8,774,326 01 --	2,046,509 36
Total Increase		$6,120,788.60

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a pure y mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances, or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants, and,

WHEREAS, the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all, the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains,

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs. L. MURRIN, Mayor.

City Marshal's Notice!

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever, are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. The New Mines.

From Doctor Irwin and Mr A O Libbt, who have just returned from the new mines beyond Laramie, we obtain the following items Only one claim has been opened thus far, which belongs to Speer and Cushman, who put in a sluice, and, as the result of a little more than a day's work for three men, cleaned up, as near as could be estimated, an ounce of beautiful gold, about as coarse as the coarsest gunpowder This mine is at the mouth of a gulch, on a river which is a fork of North Platte, called Antonia river from the circumstances of finding "Antonia, 1850," cut in the bark of a tree. The diggings are about eight miles from the northern extremity of North Park. Doctor Irwin exhibited a sample of the gold taken from the claim which is being worked He describes the county as being one of the finest mineral districts he has ever seen Both the gentlemen who have returned think well of the country, but say so far as prospecting could be done no other very rich places were found. Snow in that region is from six to ten feet in depth, making it almost impossible to cross the mountains The Doctor is not yet satisfied and says he will return and prospect the country as soon as the snow disappears Gold, silver, lead, bismuth and other metal bearing rock is abundant, and indicates that it is a rich and extensive country, but no one should go except with a good outfit and well prepared to spend considerable time prospecting.

Freaks of Lightning.

Bodies have been repeatedly killed by lightning, and they have not given the slightest trace of any wound or scar, no slight touch of a burn or a contusion, no hint of the way by which the bird sprang from its confinement. Delicate and most subtle, we have said, has often been its work. Think of its melting a bracelet from a lady's wrist, yet leaving the wrist untouched; think of its melting instantly a pair of crystal goblets, without breaking them Arago tells how the lightning one day visited the shop of a Suabian cobbler, did not touch the artisan, but magnetized all his tools. One can well imagine the immense dismay of the poor fellow; his hammer, pincers and awl attracted all the needles, pins tacks and nails, and caused them to adhere firmly to the tools The amazed shoemaker thought that everything in the shop was suddenly bedeviled or else that he was dreaming. And there are several well authenticated cases like this, showing that iron can be rendered magnetic by the electric current. We read of a merchant of Wakefield, who had placed in a corner of his room a box of knives and forks and iron tools, destined to be sent to the colonies, in came the lightning, struck open the box, spread all the articles on the floor, and it was found, when they were picked up, that every one had acquired new properties—they had all been affected by the subtle touch of the current. Some remained intact, others were melted, but they had all been rendered more or less magnetic, so that there was not a single nail in the box but might have served the purpose of a mariner's compass Such anecdotes excite the sense of the marvelous; and in popular science they become windows through which the young inquirer is able to look abroad into the astonishing fields of Nature.

The Salt Lake Reporter of the 17th inst., says: The passengers who arrived by the coach from the east last night report that about two hundred Sioux Indians were in the vicinity of Pine Grove Station, east of Bridger's Pass, when they passed, and had robbed a party of emigrants of their provisions and clothing. The coach was detained at Pine Grove station all night, through fear of an attack. Where are the Peace Commissioners?

Postal Reform.

Colorado papers say the bill has passed repealing the restrictions which, for the benefit of the overland stages, were placed on all newspapers, books and other printed matter destined for all points between the Missouri river and the eastern boundary of California That law, as it has existed for several years, would make it necessary to place letter postage on all papers to or from Cheyenne, except actual subscribers, while they might be sent to California at the same rates as through the Eastern States, In Nevada and Utah the postage on books is greater than the cost of them in the East. The bill was passed to prevent overloading the stages across the plains, but as the distance of staging is now greatly reduced and daily diminishes, it is an act which ought to be repealed; and if, as is stated, a bill has been passed reforming this matter, it is only an act of justice to western people who have so long been made to suffer for the benefit of a stage monopoly.

The Central City Register says It is fair to expect a fair representation of the fair sex at the coming Horse Fair to be held at the Fair Grounds in the fair city of Denver!

Tom Pitt says the toll on his train of forty wagons from Laramie to Salt Lake was about $1500 He instructed his teamsters to display their muscle whenever a charter could not be exhibited for the toll demanded.

Prince Alfred sent for Mr. William Vial, who saved his life, on Saturday, April 4th, and presented him with a splendid gold watch and chain, in token of the presence of mind which Mr Vial had exercised on the day of the attempted assassination at Clontarf The watch bears the following inscription. "To William Vial, in recognition of his services, in securing, at great personal risk, the man who made the attempt on my life at Clontarf, March 4, 1868—ALFRED"

The Salt Lake News says: By Hon B Young jr, in from Echo Canyon, we learn that eleven miles in that canyon are now let out in subcontracts, and the whole of Echo Canyon, with about six miles down Weber Canyon, is already spoken for by men willing to strike in and put it through There were about twelve camps in Echo, this side of where the contracts were being let, as he was coming down, which show the readiness of the men to commence work.

Singular Method of Discovering a Drowned Body.

We are informed by Mr. J. Buchman, the uncle of the young girl, Miss Kate Gruper, who drowned herself in the Mississippi river, by jumping from the bluff in Fort Pickering, that her body was recovered yesterday afternoon between four and five o'clock, and was immediately buried in Elmwood Cemetery. The body was discovered by the following strange incident It appears that a young man employed in Maistead's brewery felt confident that the body had lodged in the bottom of the river at a point about one hundred and fifty or two hundred yards below where she had jumped in, and that by keeping constant watch it would make its appearance. He had been led to this conclusion by the movement of a loaf of bread which, three days after the drowning occurred, and when every other effort to recover the body had been in vain, was loaded with a quantity of quicksilver, and set afloat near where the girl had thrown herself in. As strange as it may seem, the bread directly floated out to the same point in the river, and instantly sunk where the body made its appearance yesterday. The young man, induced by the liberal reward of one hundred dollars, which had been offered for the recovery of the body, patiently bided his time, keeping constant watch nearly the whole of the time, night and day. Yesterday, the ninth day after he had seen her drown herself, and within about fifteen minutes of the same time of the occurrence, he was suddenly startled by hearing an explosion in the river like that of a shell bursting in the distance, and on looking around, saw the body rise to the surface just where the loaf of bread had disappeared six days ago. This is indeed a strange phenomenon. —Memphis Post, June 5th,

NOON REPORT.

LONDON, June 24.—The papal allocution on the state of religion in Austria is received. The Pope declares Austria should have regarded the concordat as perpetual in effect, and he warns all persons who approve of the laws recently passed by the Reicherath concerning press and religious tolerations, civil marriage and public education, to beware of the pains and penalties attached to a violation of the sacred rights of the Church.

On the occasion of the delivery of this allocution, the Pope announced he had granted a general pardon and amnesty to all those who invaded the States of the Church last year, with a few specified exceptions.

Sunday has been appointed as a day of thanksgiving throughout Great Britain for the success of the Abyssinian expedition.

VIENNA, June 24—The Riecherath has adjourned to November 1st. Before adjournment the Prime Minister assured the members that the threats of Bishops would not hinder the rigid enforcement by Government of the law in regard to the confessional.

WORMS, June 24—Extensive preparations are being made for the coming celebration of the reformation. All Protestant denominations will unite in the celebration. Crowds of foreigners, the majority of whom are Americans, arrive in the city by every train

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The U S flag-ship Pensacola, Admiral Thatcher, proceeds to Victoria, V. I., today The Admiral will confer with the commander of the Jamestown now lying in Esquimaux Harbor, on the affairs of Alaska. The disposition of the Indians and their attitude towards the new white population makes it a consideration whether the presence of war vessels on that coast, and even a fort or two, is not necessary for the safety of traders.

Minute guns were fired to-day from the government vessels in the harbor, in honor of the memory of ex-President Buchanan.

The State Tide Land Commissioners are preparing for the survey of San Francisco water front. The opinion of commercial classes generally is opposed to any material extension into the bay.

SOUTHAMPTON, June 24—Farragut's squadron has arrived off Cowes

NEW YORK, June 24—Venezuela advices of the 7th state that Gen Gill with three hundred of his troops was killed in a recent battle in Coro Gen. Macugas was before the gates of Caraccas demanding the unconditional surrender of the town

NASSAU, June 24.—Dates of the 29th state business is stagnant, failures numerous and starvation cases frequent.

HAVANA, June 24.—A letter states an American brig has been compelled to pay two dollars duty per ton on her cargo, instead of the usual rate of fifty cents. The American Consul laid the case before the State department at Washington.

CHICAGO, June 24—A Republican special says Judge Bingham is preparing another general enabling bill to include the names of one or two thousand persons in the South who who participated in the rebellion. Many protests are coming in from loyal men of the South against the passage of bills so sweeping in character.

The Reconstruction Committee today considered Thad Stevens' bill for the division of Texas Stevens' proposition is to make two new States of Texas, one of which will contain a majority of Germans, and the other a majority of negroes; thus securing, in Stevens' opinion, two loyal States.

A terrible accident occurred in North Chicago yesterday. While the workmen were engaged in putting a heavy cornice to a new building, the entire upper portion of the wall gave way and precipitated bricks, mortar and five workmen to the ground, a distance of fifty feet. One was killed and the others badly wounded.

OTTAWA, June 24.—A reply has been received from the Colonial office to Nova Scotia, on the appeal for a dissolution of the union with Canada. It represents that the union is imperial as well as provincial in policy, and relies on the loyalty of Nova Scotia to support it,

LONDON, June 24.—It is reported that Italy has issued a circular note to her representatives abroad announcing that Italy will be strictly neutral in the event of a war between France and Prussia.

CLEVELAND, June 24.—Gen Garfield was to-day unanimously re-nominated for Congress from the 19th district.

CHICAGO, June 24.—The Republican convention of the 11th Indiana district now represented by Schuyler Colfax, to-day nominated Gen. Jasper Paskard for Congress,

Senate.—Howard introduced a bill providing for the discontinuance of the Freedman's Bureau. Referred. Conness called up the bill making eight hours a day's work for the laborers and mechanics in government employ. Sherman moved a proviso that unless otherwise provided by law the rate of wages paid by government shall be the current rate for the same labor at other places of employment. Rejected by 16 to 21. The bill then passed by 26 to 11

The special order for the legislative appropriation bill was taken up and discussed till the time of adjournment, which was ordered to be till 2 o'clock to-morrow on account of Senator Henderson's wedding.

House—Schofield, from the Committee on Elections, reported the credentials of the Arkansas Representatives were in proper form, with a resolution directing the administration of the oath of office, Brooks presented a protest against the resolution. Adopted, by 101 against 27, and the members were sworn in. The protest presented by Brooks is signed by all the Democratic members It is quite lengthy, and styles the government of Arkansas a military oligarchy and protests against going into a new co-partnership of military dictators and negroes, in the administration of this government It demands the restoration, not the reconstruction, of the Federal Constitution, which they declare Congress is seeking to overthrow.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the tax bill. A number of amendments were proposed and variously disposed of. After considerable progress had been made, the Committee took a recess.

CHICAGO, June 24.—The Masons in all parts of the country celebrated St. John's day with appropriate ceremonies.

The President to-day nominated Perry Fuller of Kansas, as Commissioner of Internal Revenue. He will probably be rejected.

The delegation to the New York Democratic Convention here is seeking to effect a conference with the friends of Senator Hendricks, on the Presidential nomination. They agree to throw their influence for Hendricks in the New York Convention, if his friends will agree to support Hoffman for Vice President.

Estimates sent by Gen Schofield to the Committee on Military Affairs state by expiration of the term of service the army will be reduced to 29,667 men, on the first of January next; and on the first of July to 17,159

Letter from Sweetwater.

SOUTH PASS June 17, 1868.

The improvements in this city since my last have been many and important. Large buildings are being erected and finished in a style which is perfectly marvelous considering the situation of affairs. On South Pass Avenue, at the crossing of the creek and the entrance of the town, a substantial bridge has been built, and a number of stores have recently been erected in that vicinity which promises to be the commercial centre of the city.

Goods are scarce again; such articles as bacon, coffee and sugar being almost out of market, and the little which is here brings high prices; but we expect a full supply presently, as Mr. McGlinchey, the leading merchant of this city, goes, in a few days, to Cheyenne for a new stock of goods.

A good many of those who were doing no good here have been seized with the Green river fever, and betaken themselves to that place of great promises which may never be fulfilled. Quite a number have also gone to the Wind River Valley, to make farms; and it is to be hoped the Indians may grant them peace, and let us derive some benefit from that excellent country which has thus far been allowed to waste its richness in the desert air of Indian possession.

Mining prospects and results are growing better every day. On Rock Creek, about four miles from here, they are making from $10 to $12 per day to the hand. In the Pacific district they are doing quite as well, and at Spring gulch a "tom" is in use, from which they daily clean up from $150 to $180. Comstock, of Washoe fame, is making $100 per day. What will the doubting Thomases and wise men, who said there were no diggings here, think of that. The fine weather, which set in only last week, has started everybody into mining or prospecting, with good results. One man here obtained two dollars from five pans of dirt, in a locality where the ground can be easily worked.

Gen. Tozer, of Idaho, has purchased a six stamp mill from a Salt Lake Company, and he has agreed to have it here within twenty-five days. The mill is a small one, certainly, but if it makes money it will not be many days before other and greater ones will be brought in and set to work. Two arastras are now in course of construction, which are calculated to grind about fifteen tons of rock daily.

Everything here indicates prosperous times, and we believe by next fall the returns from this camp will be equal to those from any mining district in the country!

DIVIDER.

McCoole and Coburn say they will fight in Virginia as soon as possible after their discharge from jail.

The Corinth Farmer states: "An acre of broom corn will produce in Mississippi from 800 to 1,000 pounds of straw, worth now in this market from seven to eight cents per pound. At this price it will pay from sixty to eighty dollars per acre, and if the seed is taken off and saved it will be worth ten dollars more. If the broom seed is mixed and ground with corn, they will fatten hogs as effectually as corn will.

The South Carolina Sand-Hillers.

Mr. Mackey, of South Carolina, recently lectured in Washington on the condition of affairs in his State, in the course of which he gave a description of the Sand-hillers, who have been always a degraded set of people, by the system under which they have lived. There were about twenty-eight thousand of them The free school is utterly unknown among them, and there is no tradition that any of their ancestors ever knew how to read and write, If they ever did, then reading and writing with them is reckoned as among "the lost arts" They eat a portion of the earth, and are so fond of eating snuff that in order to get an ounce one of them has been even known to wash himself! They all voted solid for secession, because they were told to do so, they are, in fact, natural Democrats In former times, on the eve of an election, rival candidates would make a raid among them and carry off as many as possible and lock them up in "bull pens" till voting day; and sometimes the "pens" would be assailed and the inmates captured and taken off by a rival, and held as voters, by the right of capture. Degraded as they are, they are said to be the lineal descendants of Marion's men. Early in the present month one of the Republican orators was addressing about five hundred of these people, when he was interrupted by a stalwart man, about fifty years of age, who said he would like to make a speech. He was answered that the age of free speech had at last come in South Carolina, and he was allowed to go on He said; "Feller-citizens, you all know me I was born in these hair sand hills You know I am a Democrat, and hate niggers But I'm gwine to vote the Republican ticket, and I want you uns to vote for it too. Cause why? feller-citizens, cause why? I hev hed a warnin from the Lord You know, feller-citizens, I allus raised the best dominic game cocks in South Carolina. They never give way for the cold steel, and they was lightnin' on the gaffs. Wal, Ginral Sharman started down this yer way with his company, and I went out with my rifle and with the boys to meet him They was too big for us, and drew we uns all back Wal, I reckon, when Ginral Sharman come here, I had nigh about seventy of the best dominics that ever pecked a corn seed. Wal, Ginral Sharman's men began to shoot my chickens, and they bunged them under the house, and around the house, and on the top of the house; and I reckon when they got threw I had n't mor'n ten chickens left. But, before God, they haint one of 'em crowed from that day to this; although they r'e all full game That's the reason, feller citizens, that I'm gwine to vote the Republican ticket It's time for we uns to stop crowin and to do the clean thing. Feller-citizens we ought to have as much sense as a fowl"

These Sand-hillers have now learned that the same law that elevates the negro will elevate the poor whites The late contest was one between poor and ignorant loyalty and rich and cultivated treason, and the right has triumphed.

The Paris Patrie prints what purports to be an Abyssinian version of the tragedy in Magdala The narrative is signed by Count R. du Bisson, a traveler in Abyssinia, who was always on friendly terms with its late ruler. The Count says the late number of Abyssinians buried amounted to 757, while 2,139 were wounded Among the dead were seven balantcheras, or men who had resembled Theodorus, and were purposely dressed like him. Theodorus did not commit suicide. On seeing his power fleeting from him with the blood of his soldiers, contemplating his empire destroyed, his dynasty overturned, his reign finished, two streams of tears coursed down his cheeks Two balantcheras, pistol in hand, stood silently waiting his order. He gave his will to one of them "In the bosom of the Trinity," said he to the balantcheras, "fire." One of them fired, and his bullet broke the skull of King Theodorus. In Theodorus' will he says "If the British retire I desire that my son Mechecha may succeed me; and I, Emperor, say to him: 'Be the friend of those to whom God hath given the victory, for they know how to protect their friends; be the friend of those warriors, for they are invincible'"

NEW TO-DAY.

Foreclosure of Mortgage.

BY virtue of a power of sale contained in a drafted mortgage, executed on the 13th day of April, 1868, by Henry Postler and Fritz Freeman to Henry Wagner and given to secure the payment of a certain promissory note for the sum and costs of $250 00 with twelve per cent interest thereon from the date thereof, which note is now due and unpaid, I will expose to sale to the highest bidder, on the premises, on the 7th day of July, 1868, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, the following described property, to-wit: A certain frame building, twelve feet wide by — feet in depth, situate on a part of lot 11 in block 416, in Cheyenne City and formerly known as the New York Saloon. J. R. SUMNER, Auctioneer
W. S. CRAWFORD, Attorney for Mortgagee.

AN ORDINANCE

Concerning Dogs.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cheyenne:

SEC. 1. That no dog, bitch or whelp shall be permitted or allowed to run or to be at large within the limits of the City of Cheyenne, unless the owner, keeper, or person having charge of such dog, bitch, or whelp, shall, before the first day of July, pay to the City Clerk, for the use and benefit of the City, the sum of three dollars for each and every male dog, and the sum of five dollars for each and every bitch owned or kept by such person; and shall also place upon the neck of every such dog, bitch, or whelp a collar, made of durable material, with the name of the owner, keeper, or person having charge of such dog, bitch, or whelp, legibly printed or engraved thereon

—We have received Bingham's argument on the impeachment of Johnson. It is an able speech, and makes fifty-eight pages of the usual Congressional pamphlet size.

—"SIX MONTHS ON THE PLAINS," &c.—This book having been missent, has caused a delay quite unexpected in its being received here. It will come by express to-morrow evening, and be for sale at Beers'. A large demand at the east leaves only about 500 copies of the first edition for this city. je15tf

—A genuine quartz-crusher in the shape of a stone-eater and sword-swallower has arrived in town. We recommend him to Judge Whitehead, to at least examine his iron rock.

—The boarders in the Ford House were startled from breakfast this morning by a blast in the well which is being dug in front of the hotel. They thought it was an earthquake or a volcano.

—G. E. Thompson, on Thomes street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, has just received the finest lot of French calf and kip skins ever brought to this market, and is prepared to manufacture boots and shoes in a superior style, guaranteeing a fit every time. je20-6t

—Bob Beers has received a fresh lot of newspapers and periodicals—among them Leslie's Pictorial for the Fourth of July, Nick-Nax, The Day's Doings and Harper's Bazar.

—The third attempt this week to fire the city was made last night about midnight, and but for the timely interference of two of our citizens Cheyenne this morning would be in ashes. A vacant building on the corner of Sixteenth and Thomes streets was the point of attack, and a heavy gale was blowing at the time. Policemen and private watchmen would do well to have an eye out and a revolver ready for these incendiaries.

—The biggest woman and the greatest curiosities, direct from the east, are now on exhibition on Sixteenth street, opposite the Rollins House. Everybody should go and see them.

—J. M. Pyper, Esq., has been solicited by many of our principal merchants and citizens to become a candidate for Alderman at the election next Monday, and we hope, if Mr. P. can find it convenient to sacrifice himself, he will yield to the solicitation.

EXTRA FOR DENVER.—On the 25th inst., Abney & Reel will start a coach for Denver. Those wishing seats can secure them by applying at the Elk Horn stables immediately. 2t

THE WATCHWORD in these times is go to John Kupfer's, on Eddy street, for your watches, clocks and jewelry of every description. 1t

—S. M. Preshaw, contractor and builder, is prepared to erect any kind of buildings, at reasonable rates. 1t

—The arrangements for the Masonic Festival, to be held next Tuesday, are progressing finely; and everything promises to make it a grand affair.

—A week ago last Sunday a boy called Charley, who worked at Black's Corral in this city, was stabbed in the back and through the abdomen by a man named Dick Cox, who ran and was shot in the ribs by Black. The affair occurred on Beaver Creek, between Big and Little Laramies, in the camp of a party on the way to the new mines. Charley was cook for the party. It was thought he must die. Cox escaped.

—Joslin & Park's Jewelry emporium is the great attraction now-a-days in Cheyenne. Moss Agates and native jewelry of every description constantly on hand. 1t

THE M. E. CHURCH FESTIVAL.—The Strawberry Festival last evening was well attended, although the weather was unfavorable, and passed off in an agreeable manner. These affairs are very popular with our citizens who, as we judge by the way they are patronized, consider them as of real benefit to the society of the city, as well as to the Church. To-night the affair will be repeated, at a reduced price of admission, for the special benefit of the little folks who are all going. Last night netted about $200 for the Mite Society, which is certainly good and substantial encouragement.

—To-day Capt. Winsor was engaged in locating the lines of the lot for the Episcopal Church, on the corner of Eighteenth and Ferguson streets.

—At the request of the solid merchants and citizens of Cheyenne, C. W. Smith, Esq., has consented to be a candidate for Alderman.

This afternoon, as a train was backing up the track, a hog was run over and cut into amidships. The hog got even by throwing a car loaded with iron off the track.

THE

NEW YORK Life Insurance COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,125 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000 000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets.	Increase of assets over previous year
1864 - -	$3,658,755 55 - -	$1,005 217,63
1865 - -	4,881,919 70 - -	1,223 164 15
1866 - -	6 727,816 65 - -	1,845 896,95
1867 - -	8,774,326 01 - -	2,046,509,36
Total increase		$6,120,788 60

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10 000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of all years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 5,000
And so on until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies.

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

PROCLAMATION.

CHEYENNE, D. T., June 2nd, 1868

WHEREAS, on the 2nd day of June, 1868, the seat of Chas. Sternberger, as a member of the board of Aldermen of the City of Cheyenne, became vacant by reason of his removal from said city, and so declared by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, and,

WHEREAS the Board of Aldermen have passed a resolution providing for an election to fill said vacancy,

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that an election to fill vacancy in Board of Aldermen, caused by removal of Chas. Sternberger from the city, will be holden on June 29th, 1868. Polls opened at City Hall, at 8 o'clock, a. m., and close at 5 o'clock of said day.

Attest L. MURRIN,
ED ORPEN, Mayor.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises, and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances, or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants; and,

WHEREAS the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all, the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced, in order to avoid cholera, or other epidemics, some of which have been yearly visitants to the plains;

Now, Therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of Cheyenne, hereby warn all persons interested that from and after the date hereof, the above ordinance will be strictly enforced, and those who neglect to observe the requirements of said ordinance are hereby warned that they will be promptly and severely dealt with as the ordinance aforesaid directs. The Osage Treaty.

The House Committee on Indian Affairs has made a report on the Osage Treaty, which is published in the Globe, and is certainly an interesting document. The Committee report that the treaty was prepared in Washington before the session of the council with those Indians, and they were afterward induced by threats and promises made by the commissioners to sign it. The terms of the treaty transfers to a railroad company 8,000,000 acres of land, at about nineteen cents per acre, amounting to $1,600,000, payable as follows: $100,000 cash, within three months from the ratification of the treaty, and the remaining $1,500,000 payable in instalments of $100,000 per annum for fifteen years, the principal bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, secured by railroad bonds without a mortgage. Charles W. Blair, President of the Missouri, Fort Scott & Santa Fe Railroad, offered $500,000 more for the lands than was paid by the Leavenworth, Lawrence & Galveston Road. Taylor, President of the Osage Commission, replied to Mr Blair that his proposition had been laid before the Commission, and for various reasons satisfactory to it they declined to accept it. Blair offered ample security for the fulfillment of these promises. The Indians were aware that these offers had been made, but they were told by the Commissioners if they refused to sign the treaty, government would withdraw its protection from them, and their presents, annuities, etc, would be withheld. A portion of these lands had already been settled upon by whites with the consent of the Indians, and this job, transferring the whole reservation to the railway company, would deprive those settlers of all pre-emption rights and place them within the power of this monopoly. These lands embrace about one-sixth of the entire area of Kansas, and at least one-half of the tract it is said would be settled upon and sold for $1 25 per acre within three or four years. The building of the entire road would not cost more than $3,000,000, while the territory which the company has endeavored to obtain by this treaty is worth $12,000,000, leaving a profit of $9,000,000.

The House adopted a resolution condemning the treaty and protesting against the idea that any Commission has power to execute such treaties, and asking the Senate not to ratify it.

Read This!

The Albany (Oregon) Democrat copies an article from an Illinois paper, ridiculing the proclamation of Governor Oglesby for a day of fasting—April 15th—which it calls "the anniversary of Lincoln's advent into hell." It is a pretty specimen of Democratic eloquence:

"What! fast and pray over the death of the most filthy blackguard, brutal murderer and ignominious tyrant that ever disgraced humanity? Never! Fast and pray over the demise of the tyrant that presumed to strike the first blow at the bulwark of civil liberty—the hope of the nation—the life of his country? No! No! No! Let the soft and sulphury breezes of Hades waft him quietly through the lakes of burning brimstone. Don't disturb his sweet repose. It is useless to starve your stomach of hash for one day in every year because Lincoln is in hell. It is useless to pray to extricate him."

The Register says there are 324 stamps working in Black Hawk.

A baloon ascension is to take place in Kansas City, on the Fourth of July.

Cheyenne the Florida of Invalids.

The arrival here of several persons from Massachusetts, to inhale our pure mountain air and recuperate their falling energies, suggests to us the idea of a suitable place, and its proper surroundings, to give comfort and relief to a large class of incipient consumptives, whose days are numbered in the humid atmosphere of New England. The report made by actual census of the large proportion of deaths from consumption in Massachusetts startled many, and led to causes beyond the control of municipal bodies, in the climate of that region. We do not want a hospital, but a home for invalids—a class of wealthy people, who will come here anyway as soon as it becomes known that life can be prolonged by a residence of nine out of twelve months of the year—but who would come by hundreds if a comfortable hospital were in proper order to receive them. We shall speak again of the advantages Cheyenne now has for quiet rest, mountain scenery and good society, satisfied that this region possesses all the advantages ascribed to the mountainous region of Wales, without the perils of a sea-voyage

They were driving their cattle and sheep, and appeared to be a jolly set of movers.

A Texan, writing to the St. Louis Republican, urging the construction of a railroad from St. Louis to Texas, says that between the Nueces and Rio Grande rivers there are a million head of horned cattle, and ten thousand head of horses and mules. The trade of San Antonio with Mexico amounts to $8,000,000 annually. It would take a railroad fifty years to carry all the cattle in Western Texas to St Louis. The cattle in that country are being killed for their hides alone. He says such a railroad would not only make St. Louis the stock market of America, but would develop the finest copper, coal and silver mines in the world

What It Costs.

Over two thousand millions of dollars are paid in a single year in America for intoxicating spirits. This money given for a year and a half into the United States Treasury, would extinguish the National Debt. The [illegible] (Boston) says of these awful figures: "Take this vast amount in pieces. It would purchase, a navy of one hundred monitors and twelve thousand war vessels, thoroughly equipped—the proudest armament that ever rode upon the seas. It would build a National Capital worth one hundred million dollars, and a Capitol in every State in the Union worth fifty millions each. It would rent one hundred thousand houses of worship [illegible] thousand dollars each. It would pay the expenses of all the religious, charitable and benevolent societies in our land, including the ministry, Bible, tract, Missionary Societies, etc, for the next fifty years—since all of these do not cost now over forty millions of dollars annually."

Ladies' Boots.

The Philadelphia Telegraph says: "The only real revolution in fashion is the startling innovation in boots. Instead of the invariable black to which we have been so accustomed, a mandate as severe as those before which Media and Persia trembled, has pronounced, under the terrible punishment of being 'behind the time' that the ladies must be robed 'cap-a-pie' in the same color, or rather, that the boot must harmonize in hue with the rest of the costume. Thus if the robe be trimmed with gold or silver, the boot becomes also apparently a solid casing of these precious metals. Kid and morocco are manufactured in all the tints that are used in street suits, from the color of the sky above the ladies' heads to the hue of the dust beneath their feet. The same style of very high boot, buttoned at the side, with a high heel, is also the exacted costume for the ball room, and in obedience to the same rule of uniformity, are to be had in bronze, pink, blue, and other high and light colors, as well as in all the gorgeousness of silver and gold."

Boston has the largest bathing house in America.

The choruses of the Sængerfest lately held in Chicago, numbered 1,200 voices

The Daily Evening Leader

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1868.

LAKE SUPERIOR SHIP CANAL.—Work is steadily progressing on the Portage Lake and Lake Superior Ship Canal. The entire length of the canal when completed will be a trifle over 11,000 feet, and the amount of earth to be removed is about 900,000 cubic yards. The length of the present cut is about 900 feet, commencing 200 feet outside of the shore line in a natural depth of eight feet of water. The depth of water in the cut is from six to seven feet, and admits of the free ingress and egress of the tugs and loaded scows. Mr. Wells, Secretary and Treasurer of the company, feels sanguine of connecting the cut with Lake Superior before the close of the season. The company has a force of eighty men on the canal, twenty of whom are employed on shore, grubbing, etc. The balance of the force is divided into gangs, and relieve each other every two hours.—St. Paul Press.

CURIOSITIES.—There are some curiosities at the drug store of R. H. McDonald & Co., on Sansome street, which are worthy of a visit. One is a mammoth sponge shaped like a caldron, which measures, in a dry condition, two feet five inches across the top one way, two feet the other, and nearly two feet deep. It is of the very finest quality of sponge, and was obtained by Mr. McDonald at Marseilles, France, during his recent visit there. Mr. J. C. Spencer, one of the firm, informs us that it was found in the sponge fisheries of the Mediterranean Sea, and that it was considered as a curiosity in Marseilles, the owners parting with it reluctantly. Mr. McDonald purchased at the same time and place an old Egyptian two-handled jug, which had been fished up in the eastern portion of the Mediterranean Sea from a sponge bed. The jug is similar is shape and size to those carried on the head in ancient times, by the women, and is in a good state of preservation. It is covered with a deposit of the character of lime, to which is attached growths of sponge in several places. On the outer portion of one of the handles is a dark deposit, which looks like old leather.—S. F. Times.

—Mr. Shields, Mr. McDonald, A Long, and Mr Brannard, four of the hardest looking cases imaginable, all plead guilty of being drunk last night, and His Honor Mayor Murrin discharged them upon each paying five dollars and costs. Two citizens were complained of for nuisances by keeping filthy premises, but were discharged by promising to clean them.

—The Register thinks an improved California quartz mill of twenty stamps equal to an eastern one of fifty stamps for work, and much more economical.

—"SIX MONTHS ON THE PLAINS," &c—This book having been missent, has caused a delay quite unexpected in its being received here It will come by express to-morrow evening, and be for sale at Beers'. A large demand at the east leaves only about 500 copies of the first edition for this city. je15tf

THE BANKING HOUSE OF J. A. WARE & CO—Our citizens will be pleased to learn that our townsman, Posey S. Wilson, has taken advantage of the waning confidence of the non-resident partners of this concern, to buy out, on most favorable terms, their interest in this branch, and at the same time to avail himself of a good opportunity to get rid of his interest in the much-be-praised and bottom-dropped-out town of Omaha It is a step which he will not regret, and is a mark of his confidence in Cheyenne, and the most emphatic expression which he could give of his esteem of this community, and he may rest assured that the hearty support they gave the old firm, of which he was the head and front in these parts, will be continued The usual forms and notices of dissolution will make their appearance in due time.

—G E Thompson, on Thomes street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, has just received the finest lot of French calf and kip skins ever brought to this market, and is prepared to manufacture boots and shoes in a superior style, guaranteeing a fit every time. je20-6t

—Putnam's Magazine for July, containing among many other articles of interest a sketch and portrait of Chief Justice Chase by Thomas Nast, has been received at Joseph & Sager's book store, on Eddy street. They also have Harper, Godey, Leslie, and all the other monthly and weekly publications

EXTRA FOR DENVER—On the 28th inst., Abney & Reel will start a coach for Denver. Those wishing seats can secure them by applying at the Elk Horn stables immediately. 2t

—Last night, about midnight, a young man named George Davis was arrested in the Arcade saloon for picking the pocket of a drunken man He succeeded in getting five dollars, but was immediately nabbed by a policeman who was watching him at the time. To-day Davis admits the theft but says he did it at the suggestion of another party whose names he refuses to give.

PROGRAMME OF THE DAY

All Masons in good standing are requested to meet at Masonic Hall, Tuesday, June 30th, at 2 o'clock, p m., at which place the procession will form, and march through the principal streets of the city, to the School House, where an oration will be delivered, by Hon J R Whitehead, at 4 o'clock, p m, to which the public generally are invited After which the procession will again form, accompanied by the wives, daughters and lady friends of the Brethren, and march to the Ford House

W W SLAUGHTER,
Marshal.

PERSONAL—Mr J Riechard, of the Index, arrived from Laramie this morning He returns this evening

—Jno. L Dailey, Esq, of the Denver News, is in town

THE HORSE FAIR—The Tribune says a comic masquerade of equestrians will take place at the Denver Fair on Thursday next, with the following programme

First premium of $25 to the one who is dressed in the most comic style, and performs the best on horse, mule or donkey

Second premium of a $20 hunting case watch to the second best performer.

Third premium, $15
Fourth premium, $10
Fifth premium, $5

Four or more must enter for the show, and three or more must start

Those who have ever participated in the old-fashioned "antique and horrible" companies in certain communities of the East on fourth of July mornings, will appreciate the sport that arises from such a company, and we predict this to be the most laughable incident of the fair.

Riders can dress as they please, can decorate their horses as they please, can each one make his own music, can wear as ugly a mask as they please—in fact can make themselves as horrible all over as their ingenuity will permit.

[Communication]

Candidate Recommended.

TO THE CITIZENS OF CHEYENNE, Greeting. Whereas the railroad men of Cheyenne think (and justly) that they have an interest in the welfare of this city equal to that of any other class or party, and believing they are entitled to at least one representative in the City Council of Cheyenne, and in consequence of an election to be held in this city on Monday next, to elect an Alderman to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Charles Sternberger, therefore we would recommend and shall support as candidate for the vacant office, on Monday next, Mr. Sylvanus Heermans, as a gentleman of extended experience in public life, and a thorough Union Republican, and we trust he may consent to become a candidate, and that he may receive the support of other citizens of Cheyenne, as well as of

MANY RAILROAD MEN.

Proclamation.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHEYENNE, June 26, 1868.

Whereas there is imminent danger of fire, and consequent destruction of property to be apprehended from any careless or indiscriminate display of fire-works within the limits of this city on any occasion,

And whereas the laws and ordinances of the city providing for and pertaining to the public safety and good order render it necessary that due precaution be had in the premises,

Now, therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of the City of Cheyenne, do issue this my Proclamation warning all good citizens to desist from the use of all fire-arms and fire-works within said city on the ensuing Fourth day of July, 1868; and notifying all whom it may concern that any person or persons found guilty of shooting or exploding fire-arms or fire-works, of any kind, within the limits of said city on said Fourth day of July, 1868, or at any other time, will be prosecuted according to law.

Witness my hand, this 26th day of June, A. D. 1868

L. MURRIN, Mayor.

—The Festivals of the M. E. Church were very pleasant affairs, and equal to the wishes of their friends On Wednesday evening the terrible storm prevented numbers of persons from being present, and the proceeds, $215, were less by half than might have been reasonably expected. The children had a delightful time last night, and the parents were equally pleased, and the proceeds were increased to $273. Acknowledgements are due to a number of firms for their kindness—the proprietors of the Postoffice hall, Messrs. McMurray Bros, Whipple Bros, A. R. Converse, and others—and they will no doubt be duly made by the Sociable. Regard for the modest worth of the many kind friends who contributed to these successes, causes us to omit their names, though they will be recorded in the book of bright memories

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '66, $1,612,125 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement.

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,005,217.63
1865	4,881,919 70	1,223 164.15
1866	6,727,816 65	1 845 896 95
1867	8,774,326 01	2,046 509 36
Total increase		$6,120,788 69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10 000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he should live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to. $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge, crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 80 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. FOR PRESIDENT,

ULYSSES S. GRANT,

OF ILLINOIS

For Vice President,

Schuyler Colfax,

OF INDIANA.

Our Visitors.

Gen. Grant has concluded to visit the Rocky Mountains, where it is supposed he will remain for some weeks, to escape the hot, disagreeable, sultry weather and the annoying persecutions of anxious office-seekers It was a wise conclusion of Grant's to retire from Washington and spend the Fourth of July in Cheyenne, where he might smoke his cigar in peace, or at Denver, where the great Horse Fair is to be held for the benefit of the admirers of fast time and good horsemanship Grant, whose present position is one never held by any other man in the United States, and who is a candidate for the highest office within the gift of any people, although not a seeker after indiscriminate applause, should be met here by the people with every mark of honor and respect that it may be within the power of the citizens of this outmost post of civilization to bestow.

Accompanying Grant will probably come Gen. Dodge, Oliver Ames and the Board of Directors of the Union Pacific Railway, who are to locate the terminus of the Denver Branch, and probably lay the corner stone of the machine shops, round houses and other buildings for the railway An extensive party from Fort Russell and this city will probably be organized, and proceed to Denver with the distinguished visitors from the east, and it is understood arrangements are being perfected for conducting the affair on a magnificent scale of which more will be said at another time.

The Denver P. R. R.

The report which was in circulation a few days since, to the effect that work on the Denver Pacific Railway had been suspended, is contradicted by the Denver papers. The News of Thursday gives an account of the work which is now being done, and from which it may be inferred the work will be pushed forward to the line of the Union Pacific as soon as the route from the Platte and the junction with the main line are established, which will probably be immediately after the arrival here of the Directors who are daily expected. The News says: "The grade is under contract as far as located, forty-six miles About two hundred plow and scraper teams, all belonging to men in Platte Valley, are engaged on it, and forty miles will be finished, ready for the ties, by Saturday night next. These men and others stand ready to make the rest of the grade in two months, beginning as soon as it shall be located, or as soon as the section this side of the Platte is finished, which will be by the middle of July. It is believed that the location of the northern half of the line has something to do with the presence on the Union Pacific just now of the President and Vice President and some of the Directors of that Company and road. The construction of the Denver Railway will not be detained in the grading. The gentlemen who contracted to furnish the ties for the entire road, Gilman & Carter, had some men getting them out on the Cache-a-la-Poudre, but being pressed by a contract on the Union Pacific, they took them off on the 12th; thinking, too, that the Denver Pacific were in no hurry for them."

In Canandagua, N. Y., Allen P. Hewlett has been sentenced by the U S. District Court to State's Prison for one year and eleven months, for concealing his property from his assignee in bankruptcy.

The Colorado Exploring Expedition.

The expedition projected by the Illinois Historical Association, to be headed by Prof Powell of that institution was announced to leave Chicago yesterday, for the exploration of the Colorado river from its source to the highest point attained from its mouth by Lieut. Ives A special act was passed by the present Congress authorizing the Secretary of War to issue orders on the United States forts for rations and other assistance for a party of not more than twenty-five persons; in return for which assistance, the explorers agree to furnish government with full topographic reports of the expedition The United States is also to furnish a number of guides, hunters, and mules. The party takes with it all the necessary instruments for a complete scientific survey of the country through which it is to pass The physical geography, geology, botany and hydrology of portions of Colorado and New Mexico will be carefully studied and reported They carry with them two boats and a sufficient outfit to last two years, for which length of time the party expects to be absent They expect to winter about four hundred miles southwest of Denver

The report of this expedition will be one of unusual interest, as well as of value to the country, and should be published in such form as would enable every one interested in the west to obtain a copy.

A machine has been recently invented which is capable of manufacturing two hundred strawberry boxes, of wood, per minute

The Helena Herald says that on the 13th inst. about thirty Fort Smith Crow Indians, dressed in soldier clothes and armed with Springfield rifles, made a raid and captured a band of thirty mules within a quarter of a mile of Fort Ellis The Indians were immediately pursued, and after a chase of thirty-eight miles in four hours, they were overtaken on the Yellowstone river. Two Indians were killed, the mules recovered, and Maj Horr returned to the fort by sundown, having rode seventy-five miles during the day

The Chicago Railway Review states that the two Providence Locomotive Works ten-wheeled engines, Nos. 100 and 101, constructed for the Union Pacific Railroad to be used in hauling heavy trains over the Rocky Mountains, passed through that city a week ago These engines weigh thirty-five tons each. Fifteen more passenger and freight locomotives are to follow them soon—six Providence, seven Tauntons and two McQueen coal-burners These latter two are splendid engines, and were built at Schenectady, N. Y.

St Joe is waking up to the importance of the business which is on the docket for next November. At the city election in that place, last April, the Democrats polled a large majority, but on Tuesday last an election was held in the same place, on a question of voting an appropriation of $165 000 for public expenditures, which was voted down. At the same time a vote was had for a Councilman to fill a vacancy in the second ward where a Democratic majority was given in April, resulting in this case in a majority for the Republican candidate of sixty-nine out of 317 votes.

PIANO FORTE

MANUFACTURERS,

Warerooms, 34 Bleecker street, N. Y. City

22 Years Established and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the best manufactured and [illegible] they have been introduced and [illegible] need [illegible] to say one word [illegible] their excellence stands pre-eminent to those of other makers, and from the great success achieved, and improvements made [illegible] in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first class Piano Forte at [illegible] less than is similar one can be got elsewhere.

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and Given Satisfaction

Our Pianos are made to last; the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned, and of the very best quality that can be procured. No part is slighted; what the public eye might pass over never escapes our vigilance. Every part inside and out, is honestly, faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination. They are free from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, which is had in the beginning, and grows worse every day, instead of [illegible] refined and delicate, pure in every breath, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect.

They are, without doubt, the best, the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest. We are content with a fair profit. Our prices range from [illegible] to [illegible]. my25 3m

SCHUTZE & LUDOLFF,

(ESTABLISHED IN 1835.)

Manufacturers of the New Patent

DOUBLE IRON FRAME,

MONITOR PLATE,

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE.

(Patented February 20th 1866.)

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Warerooms, 452 Broome St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano. By this means the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers.

READY FOR BUSINESS.—For the past two weeks we have been in a very unsettled and unsatisfactory condition, caused by moving the building in which our office for some time has been, and will continue to be, located Now we are pleased to announce our building has been located upon a lot on Ferguson street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth, and so altered and improved as to give us better facilities for executing any kind of printing We have also made some important additions to the material of the office, which gives us the best and most extensive varieties of plain and fancy types and inks to be found in the West, and we invite the attention of those requiring perfect printing to our office

Before leaving this subject we wish to express our obligations to our esteemed townsman, J M Pyper, Esq., for the use of his building, a portion of which we occupied during the time of moving and completing our own, as well as for other and many courtesies extended by him toward us for the past two weeks We also assure our patrons that they may in a few days look for an improvement in the "make-up" of the LEADER.

PEARLS OF GREAT PRICE cannot equal the modest beauty and economical cost of the moss agate and other native jewelry for sale at Joslin & Park's. 1t

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The festival which is to be given on Tuesday next, by the Masonic Fraternity of this city, will probably be the grandest entertainment which has ever been gotten up in any city between the Missouri river and San Francisco. The programme for the day, which will be found in another column, includes a parade in regalia, an address, a supper and a ball. Special committees have been appointed to superintend the arrangements of each department. The address is in able hands; the music is the very best that could be obtained, and the supper, which is to be prepared at the Ford House, will be served in a style of absolute magnificence. A large attendance is expected, and every arrangement has been made to provide for the comfort and convenience of all who are so fortunate as to obtain cards of invitation.

—Our enterprising fellow townsmen, Messrs. Freund & Bro., are determined to take the lead as importers and manufacturers of fire-arms and ammunition, in the west. We learn that they have recently purchased Gove's store and entire stock at North Platte. Notwithstanding they have an almost complete monopoly, yet their prices are very moderate. We also notice, by the Salt Lake Telegraph and other western papers, that their business is immense at Green River and Salt Lake City. Such enterprise deserves, as it will surely receive, success.

GRANT AND COLFAX.—This afternoon a splendid American Flag, 12x20 feet, gotten up by the "Grant Club" of this city, was thrown to the breeze, and now proudly floats over Sixteenth street, between the Ford and Rollins Houses. Across the flag, in conspicuous letters, is painted the names of the Republican chieftains, GRANT & COLFAX. As the folds of the banner spread and disclosed the names of the people's candidates, the ladies from the windows of the hotels waved their handkerchiefs, and sent up a volume of hearty cheers.

—Twelve immense sacks of "Pub Docs" were received at the post office by this afternoon's train.

EDITOR LEADER: In your paper of yesterday I notice "Candidate Recommended." I being the humble citizen referred to, must say that I have been a railroad man many years, and was one of six that was upon the first locomotive engine that ever run upon rail in the United States (this was brought from England), but with my kindest respects and best regards for him, or them, or whoever recommended me as a candidate, I must say that necessity compels me to most respectfully decline the proffered candidacy.

As for being a "Republican," I can safely say every inch of me, which is 6 feet 1½ inches inside of shoes, and every gray hair upon my head, which are many and long, is "Republican," and will ever remain so. Hurrah for Grant and Colfax!

S. HERMANS.

—News arrived in town to-day that two men had been killed and scalped on the North Platte near the city of Benton or Brownsville yesterday.

MEMBERS OF THE GRANT CLUB and Republicans of Cheyenne are requested to meet at the Schoolhouse at eight o'clock this evening to make arrangements for the reception of Gen. Grant, who is expected to arrive here by special train to-morrow morning By order of W. W. Corlett, President. J. W. HUTCHISON, Secretary.

THE PIONEER HOOK & LADDER Company give their first annual ball on Friday evening of next week, at the Dakota (formerly Wyoming) House Hall. The Pioneers are always on hand whenever their services are required, and as they have borne all their expenses thus far, it is only a matter of justice that they should be encouraged, and in such matters as their first party, they are entitled to a full attendance Let there be a general turn out on Friday evening, and show the "boys" they are appreciated.

SWEETWATER DUST.—Pope, Mack & Co., of this city, have just received fifty-two ounces of Sweetwater gold dust from Mr Pope, who is now in South Pass City

—Doctor Hamilton has received a letter from Dr. Latham, in Washington, which states there is reason to expect the Wyoming Bill to pass the House during the coming week

NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000
Divisible Surplus, June 1, '68, $1,712,125 59

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons.

and has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,775 55	$1,005,217 63
1865	4,881,919 70	1,223,161 15
1866	6,727,816 65	1,845,896 95
1867	8,773,[illegible]26 01	2,046,559 3[illegible]
Total Increase		$6,129,788 70

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan" was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860; and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance is shown by the fact that every other American Company has been compelled in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as seems only to impair its value It has received the [illegible] [illegible] of the best business men of the land, [illegible] numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. If, in paying to-day for $10,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he should live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party, after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10,000 discontinues after the second year he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to $2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to 3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to 5,000
And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a pure mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

City Marshal's Notice!
NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinance, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8 It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits

SEC. 9. If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City.

FOR PRESIDENT,

OF ILLINOIS

For Vice President,

Schuyler Colfax,

OF INDIANA

What They Say.

Yesterday President O. Ames and the Board of Directors of the U. P. R. R. arrived in this city, and were waited on by Mayor Murrin, the City Council and a number of citizens of Cheyenne, with a view of ascertaining the intentions of the Company in relation to future operations in this city. Mr. Ames, as President, assured the delegation that called on them that it was the intention of the Company to do all that had been, from the first, expected of them. The machine shops and round houses are to be built here on a somewhat more extensive scale than those in Omaha. The Directors had understood and believed, up to the time of their arrival here, that the work on those buildings was already begun, and was continually progressing. The machinery for the shops was ordered in October last, and the major portion of it is already completed. The machine shop is to be 100 x 200 feet in dimensions, and the round houses will be capable of housing forty locomotives.

The preliminary surveys for the branch from Denver had been placed in the hands of General Dodge, Chief Engineer and the junction of that branch with this road will probably be left entirely to his decision; and it would reasonably appear that as the shops were to be here, the junction would be established here also. Mr. Ames assured the citizens of Cheyenne that this would necessarily be a permanent point of importance of the Union Pacific Railway, and that every promise made by the company was made in good faith and would be observed and fulfilled to the letter. At the present time the work of constructing the main line of the National Highway which is to connect the Atlantic with the Pacific is one of the greatest importance to the whole people of the United States, and consequently one of primary consideration with the company. The people of America are anxiously looking to this as the greatest triumph of any age or nation, and the company are exerting all their energies and influence to their utmost capacity, and expending all their available capital to hasten the completion of the great work. Shops and branches, except such as are absolutely indispensable, had been considered matters of secondary importance; but one thing was certain—the railroad buildings at Cheyenne should be erected during the present summer, and the building of a branch to Denver was also certain and should be accomplished as soon as possible. Our citizens were much pleased with the appearance and manners of the President and Directors—plain, unassuming men, of few words but full of energy and work. The special train which brought them from the east, carried them west this morning.

Republican Convention.

A Convention of the Republicans of Dakota is to be held, on the 8th proximo, at Elk Point, Union county, Dakota. Nominations for the offices of Delegate in Congress, Territorial Treasurer and Territorial Auditor will be made.

While present indications foreshadow a very early organization of this particular portion of Dakota into a new and distinct Territory, and the utility of our selecting delegates to the above Convention appears so doubtful, yet it may be deemed advisable that a selection of suitable persons be made, to the end that we may not be without a voice in the nomination then to be made, in case it is our fortune to remain tied to the apron strings of Mrs. Dakota, for another year.

Our Prospects Bright.

By last evening's mail we are in receipt of a note from Dr. Latham, now in Washington as the delegate of the people here, working for the organization of Wyoming. From the tone of the Dr.'s letters, as well as by other corroborative evidence which has come into our possession, in the past few days, we are of the opinion that but a few day's time will now pass ere we receive the glad news of our Territorial existence having become a fait accompli. The following is Dr. Latham's note:

WASHINGTON, D. C., }
June 23. 1868. }

N. A. BAKER, ESQ.—Dear Sir: The skies look bright for Wyoming. I am sure that if our bill could come up to-day, on a fair vote, there would be almost no opposition to it. Everyone is asking a thousand questions about our soil, climate, grazing, coal, iron, gold and silver. An immense coal company is in process of forming, composed of Pennsylvania capitalists, to work the coal field on the Laramie Plains. I have given them all the information I could on the matter. I think a company will be formed to work the magnetic iron mines. I think parties will visit Wyoming to examine both in a short time; say as soon as Congress adjourns. I will write from time to time as events important to us transpire.

Truly, H. LATHAM.

We can but congratulate our people upon the fact of our having so active a worker at the Capital, attending to our interests, as Dr. Latham, and our citizens should accord all praise to him for his efforts in their behalf.

The Travel.

Perhaps nothing is surprising to old travelers and pioneers in the west, but strangers arriving here and remaining for any length of time invariably ask. "Where are all these people going? What is their business in this country?" The only answers which could be made to these questions are, that though many are traveling to and fro on business in Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Nevada and California, a perhaps greater portion are seekers after health and pleasure. The building of the Union Pacific Railway is inaugurating a great change in the habits and manners of the American people. It is extending their ideas and improving their opinions of their own country. They find there is something greater and better to be seen than the fol-de-rol sights of old-fashioned watering places. A trip to the Rocky Mountains is the fashion now. A journey across the Plains, which a few years ago was sufficient to make a man famous, is now considered a matter of course; a duty rather, or a necessary degree in the education and experience of every American of respectability and information.

Car and stage coaches arrive and depart loaded down with passengers. Seats in the stages from this city must be engaged in advance by those who desire them. Extras are running to Colorado, and they are crowded also. Hotels here are continually crowded, and the same news comes from Denver. As the heat, dust, and season of epidemics increase in the east, travel to the mountains increases also. City people have a longing for the free and bracing air of the mountains, and they throw away their tonics and tinctures and pills and powders, and hurry to Cheyenne, where health and happiness are guaranteed by Nature.

False Rumor.

Some days since an item, in one of the papers here, contained the name of James McNassar, as one of a party who were hung at North Platte, some days since. We were yesterday informed by one of our citizens who has just returned from there, that the report was incorrect, and last evening further evidence of the falsity of the rumor came to us in the shape of the subjoined note:

CHEYENNE, June 27, 1868.

MR. ——: In the Cheyenne Daily Argus of this date appears an item stating that James McNassar was hanged at North Platte on Thursday night last. That portion of said item referring to McNassar is utterly false and unfounded.

CHAS. G. AMES,
Deputy Sheriff Laramie Co.

We have known the family in which the above-named person is a son, for a number of years, and cheerfully testify that they have stood high in the esteem of the respectable portion of the people of Denver, in which community they have resided for the past eight years. It is unfortunate that such a report should have obtained circulation respecting Mr. McNassar, and we take pleasure in being able thus to assure our readers, and the friends of Mr. McNassar sr. of the utter falsity of the report relative to his son.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Leader

NOON REPORT.

LONDON, June 26.—Henry W. Longfellow has been elected a member of the Reform Club.

VIENNA, June 26.—During the stay of Prince Napoleon at Bucharest a deputation of Jews presented an address to Emperor Napoleon, asking an aleviation of their condition, and thanking the Emperor for his liberality to all classes.

SENATE.—Yates introduced a bill for the more economical administration of Government for Territories. Referred.

Harlow introduced a bill granting rights of way through certain public lands to the Central Pacific Railroad. Referred.

Conness offered an amendment to the bill concerning the rights of American citizens abroad providing if any American citizen be arrested by any foreign government in contravention of the interest and purpose of this act upon the allegation that naturalization does not operate to dissolve the allegiance to their native sovereign, the President be empowered, if Congress is not in session, to suspend in part or in whole, commercial relations with such government; or when no other remedy is available for the arrest or detention of any citizen, such as government found within our jurisdiction, except ambassadors, etc. to report such proceedings to Congress upon assembling.

HOUSE.—The entire session was consumed in the consideration of the tax bill. After much discussion, the tax on banks was left under the operation of the present law. The tax on imported cigars was increased from [illegible] to $2.50 per thousand. The Committee on the Whole reported the bill to the House, which was agreed to, with all the amendments down to section [illegible]. A motion to strike out this section was rejected, by 57 to 71. This section relates to taxing banks. The bill then passed without a division. Adjourned.

The Senate Finance Committee is already at work on the tax bill and will probably make many amendments, though it is not likely to alter the tax on whisky.

WASHINGTON, June 27—SENATE.—Yates called up the bill to admit Colorado. The question was on an amendment by the Committee on Territories providing for a general election of a State legislature and State officers within sixty days after the passage of this act, and legislature to meet within thirty days after the election, and imposing fundamental conditions for admission. The legislature shall ratify the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution, otherwise this act to be null and void. This was amended by inserting a proviso allowing the legislature to decide, if it chooses, against admission also, by allowing the legislature to proceed to the election of United States Senators in case they accept of admission. Conkling offered an amendment requiring the question of ratification to be submitted to the people, at the election authorized by the bill. This was opposed by Yates, Howard, Tipton, Nye and others, but was sustained by Morton. Without action on the bill or the amendments, the Senate went into executive session, and after a protracted session adjourned.

LONDON, June 27.—A telegram from Japan, via Shanghai, May 22d, is received. The Mikado had arrived with an army near Jeddo, and was threatening the city. The Tycoon had sent a flag of truce to his powerful enemy, offering to retire from Jeddo and disband his army if the city was spared. It was thought the Mikako would accept these terms.

MARSEILLES, June 27.—The steamship Sergeant, bringing General Napier and staff, arrived at Malta to-day.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Senate confirmed the nomination of Gen. McMahon as Minister to Paraguay, and rejected General Mulford for Collector of Internal Revenue for the Richmond district. No action was taken on Evart's nomination as Attorney General.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Several boss masons have conceded to the terms demanded by the brick-layers.

CHICAGO, June 28.—A Tribune's New York special says the fact has been discovered that Seymour is really the candidate for Democratic nomination. But the two-thirds rule is sure to be adopted, and neither Seymour nor Pendleton can get two-thirds. Chase's chances are improving; the pressure from Washington in his favor is immense. He may get two-thirds on the first ballot; if not, Hendricks will get the nomination. The real fight now is between Chase and Hendricks.

The Senate Finance Committee reported against the confirmation of Secretary Fuller for Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The Senate Judiciary Committee will report favorably upon Edmund's bill providing that States not represented in Congress shall not be allowed to participate in the Presidential election.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Investigating Committee has discovered that a clerk in the Second Auditor's office, in defiance of law, has paid out nearly a million of dollars to parties claiming to represent negroes who were mustered into service; said parties generally being the owners of said negroes at the time they were mustered.

Afternoon Report.

PARIS, June 28.—The Corps Legislatif has approved the contract with the Trans-Atlantic Steamship Company for carrying the mails to Panama and Chili.

NEW ORLEANS, June 28.—Gen. Buchanan yesterday received an order from Gen. Grant directing the removal of Governor Baker and Lieut. Gov. Voorhies, and the appointment of Warmouth and Dunn to their respective places. Gen. Buchanan promptly issued orders making the changes.

GALVESTON, June 28.—The News says the question of the division of the State came up in the convention to-day. Smith endeavored to have the boundaries so arranged as that Galveston would have the entire control of the harbor. For this purpose it is proposed to run a line due south from the mouth of Trinity river to the Gulf. Eastern members fought it vigorously.

Henry Chauncey, from Aspinwall, arrived.

A Herald special says Ward A. Laman has been summoned before the impeachment managers. It is understood Butler hopes to get the names of more persons supposed to have been in-strumental in assisting the acquittal of the President.

The Senate Finance Committee decided against the bill to make Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis ports [illegible], for the reason they think the bill does not sufficiently provide against frauds.

The committee to investigate the charges of fraud in the settlement of colored bounties has commenced its labors. Evidence has been obtained to warrant the arrest of several parties. The rooms containing the records in which the proofs of the alleged frauds are to be found, have been locked and placed in charge of the committee. The evidence is understood to implicate some superior officers of the department.

Results of Johnson's Acquittal.

During the course of the Presidential impeachment it was predicted by Democrats that a failure to convict Johnson would result in the dissolution and destruction of the Union Republican party. But Johnson was acquitted by Republican votes; and that acquittal, instead of diminishing has actually increased the strength, by a gain of increased confidence of Republicans throughout the land. Republicans generally did not choose to accept, at this late day, the responsibilities of Johnson's administration without having sufficient time or means to reform and counteract his many blunders, and the consequence is, even the most radical of the party are thankful that Johnson escaped, and that an opportunity will be offered the party to commence a new administration under Grant and Colfax, with sufficient time to reform the government and improve the country. Every day new evidences of these facts appear in local elections, in the formation of new Grant clubs, and in new public prints coming to the support of the People's ticket. There is at present every sign of hope and promise of the complete success of the Grant ticket in November, and it is certain that neither Chase, Pendleton, Seymour nor Hendricks can possibly offer any serious opposition to the election of Grant and Colfax.

Notice.

The Daily Evening Leader

MONDAY, JUNE 29, 1868.

CHICAGO, June 29.—A Tribune special says the House took very important action on the tax bill to-day. The Ways and Means Committee are badly beaten. One of the provisions agreed to abolish the office of special revenue agents and transfer the duties thereof to the supervisor of the internal revenue, of which there is to be one in each judicial district. Another provision restricts the work of collectors to their own districts, and thus breaks up the present system under which one or two collectors have been making returns all over the country. Price's amendment declaring no spirits be withdrawn from distillery warehouses till the tax is paid for any purpose whatever, was opposed by the committee, but finally carried by twenty majority. This affected one of the most vital parts of the measure. The sections which provided for the establishment of export warehouses made regulations for their government As matters now stand, all whisky taxes must be paid at the distillery There can be no transportation in bond. The drawback of fifty cents per gallon is allowed on all distilled spirits exported. All liquors now in bond must pay four dollars per barrel extra tax, and be withdrawn within six month or forfeited to the United States.

The Senate, in acting on the general appropriation bill adopted an amendment by a decided majority, which kills the Globe on the fourth of March next, and looks to the printing of the Congressional proceedings at the government printing office. It was done on the recommendation of the Finance Committee through Mr. Sherman, who said he had no doubt that the cost under the new arrangement would be thousands of dollars less than now.

The Daily Evening Leader

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Leader

LONDON, June 25—Midnight.—In the House of Commons this evening the Irish reform bill was read a third time and passed A government grant annually to the Presbyterian Church in Ireland was voted.

A new postal convention with the United States is still pending in the House. Government is endeavoring to make uniform terms with all the Mail Steamships.

In the House of Lords to-night a great crowd was present, as an exciting debate on the Irish Church question was expected. Many members of the House were on the floor, the galleries packed, and great interest, almost approaching feverish excitement, was manifested throughout its proceedings.

Lord Granville moved a second reading of the Irish Church appointments suspension bill. He said Fenianism had been received with approval and acquiescence by the middle and lower classes in Ireland. Discontent in that country was general Firmness and decision was necessary to put down seditious movements But long before this bill was proposed Gladstone had declared that the Irish question must be met, even if it cost their offices The bill had passed the House of Commons by an enormous majority If a similar suspensory law was proposed in Jamaica, it was still more proper in Ireland, where the Anglicans number less than 700,000 while the Roman Catholics number 4,590,000, and where there is but one diocese in which the Anglicans exceed in numbers one-fourth of the population. Thus the Irish Church was a failure as a missionary establishment To call its disestablishment a sacrilege was absurd, as its revenues had belonged successively to several different sects

Lord Palmerston said he saw that Englishmen will never concede until concession becomes surrender Why should not this be passed? It was useful, practical, and its passage would prove Parliament ready to treat the Irish case justly. Lord Grey moved moved the next reading of the bill be postponed six months, always condemning the Irish Church establishment as an outrage, but considered the present measure ill timed, inadequate and indefinite Lord Malmesbury complained of the way in which the measure had been brought on Parliament, and quoted from last year's speeches of Gladstone which he said gave government reason to expect the contest would not be brought on at so early a day; it was unjust to government Lord Clarendon thought Lord Malmesbury inconsistent in opposing the bill two years ago; he denounced the Irish Church establishment as a Church of a few, and proposed to divide the funds among all the different sects. Lord Clarendon continued by contending the Irish Church had failed to carry out its objects, and its existence was an injury to England throughout the world. He was afraid of the rejection of the bill by the House of Lords, and deplored the effect of such action on Ireland Bishop Canterbury opposed the bill because he believed its purpose was not to redress grievances, but rupture of the union. Lord Derby said Lords were ready to disregard and sacrifice all protestant interests at the bidding of a would-be Minister, and of a majority of an expiring House. He would only protest against the measure as an act of spoliation; he had always supported Papists in struggles to gain their rights, but would not suffer aggression. The bill would only foster discord in Ireland. He protested against this attack on the rights of property which hereafter would extend to England. He said he knew his course was unpopular, but he would never seek popularity for its sake only The Bishop of London said he was willing to make concessions to conciliate Ireland, but the bill would not effect such conciliation. He did not believe the people of Ireland desired the change which it contemplated. At a late hour the House adjourned.

WORMS, June 26.—The statue of Martin Luther was inaugurated yesterday. There were present a vast concourse of people from all parts of Europe and America The King of Prussia and Crown Prince witnessed the scene when the statue was unveiled. Salvos of artillery were fired when the applause subsided, and a hymn was sung by several thousand voices, with immense effect.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Governor Seymour addressed the Jackson Central Association to-night. He said all over the country there were proofs of a wide spread change in political feeling. He counseled harmony and forbearance at the July Convention, and the union of all on the single determination to drive the present dominant party from power.

Judge Nelson to-day gave a decision dismissing the Bill against the steamship Meteor charged with a violation of the neutrality laws, it having been alleged she was sold to Chili.

LONDON, June 27.—Mr. Rossan, Consul to Abyssinia, one of the party held captive by the King, had a public reception to-day

PESTH, June 27.—Prince Napoleon arrived at Bucharest

WASHINGTON, June 27—The President has nominated Henry A. Smythe, Collector of Customs of New York, to be Minister to Austria.

Senator Henderson was married today to Miss Mary Foote, daughter of one of the examining clerks in the Patent department. A large number of Congressmen were present, together with several other prominent officials

32 Years Established and 27 Prize Medals Awarded.

Our Piano Fortes are now universally acknowledged by the most distinguished artists to be the Best manufactured, and wherever they have been introduced and used, we are not required to say one word in their favor, their excellence stands preeminently to those of other makers; and from the great success achieved, and improvements made by us in the last thirty years, we can afford to sell a first-class Piano Forte at $50 to $200 less than a similar one can be bought elsewhere

Every Piano Forte Warranted for Five Years, and to give Satisfaction.

Our Pianos are made to last, the materials for every part are thoroughly seasoned and of the very best quality that can be procured No part is slighted, what the public eye might pass over, never escapes our vigilance Every part inside and out, is honestly faithfully and thoroughly made, so that it will bear the most minute examination. They differ from the loud, coarse tone of most pianos, (which is bad in the beginning, and grows worse every day,) inasmuch as it is refined and delicate, pure in its vibrations, delightful in its singing capacity, and has all the power necessary to produce every desired effect

They are, without doubt, the best the most lasting, and consequently the cheapest We are content with a fair profit Our prices range from $300 to $800,00 my25 3m

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers

TRAIN DELAYED—Owing to a terrible storm which prevailed yesterday between North Platte (east) and Julesburg, the passenger express, which is due here at 4 30 p m., did not arrive till after midnight It went on to Laramie, carrying our eastern mail, which was brought back this morning The train east this morning went out on time.

COAL—In grading the road near Rock Creek a cut was made through a vein of the finest quality of bituminous coal, eight feet in thickness Railroad men say that in a few months all the coal used from Omaha west on this road will be taken from mines on Laramie Plains, instead of being shipped from the east as at present. This coal is said to be far superior in quality to that now in use on the road.

THE ELECTION to-day passed off very quietly. Up to 2 o'clock but 340 votes were polled. There is no political question in the issue.

Proclamation.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHEYENNE, June 26, 1868.

Whereas there is imminent danger of fire, and consequent destruction of property to be apprehended from any careless or indiscriminate display of fire-works within the limits of this city on any occasion,

And whereas the laws and ordinances of the city providing for and pertaining to the public safety and good order render it necessary that due precaution be had in the premises,

Now, therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of the City of Cheyenne, do issue this my Proclamation warning all good citizens to desist from the use of all fire-arms and fire-works within said city on the ensuing Fourth day of July, 1868; and notifying all whom it may concern that any person or persons found guilty of shooting or exploding fire-arms or fire-works, of any kind, within the limits of said city on said Fourth day of July, 1868 or at any other time, will be prosecuted according to law.

Witness my hand, this 26th day of June, A. D. 1868.

THE

NEW YORK

Life Insurance

COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, '68, $1,642,425.50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000 000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement:

	Assets	Increase of Assets over previous year
1864	$2,658,755 35	$1,005,217.63
1865	4,881,919 70	1,223,164.15
1866	6,727,816 65	1,845 896 95
1867	8,774,326.01	2,046,509 36
Total Increase		$6,120,788 69

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained, notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the life time of the assured or at death Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan.

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company, in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860, and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in deference to public opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as considerably to impair its value. It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy Insuring to day for $10,000 if he should die to-morrow, the $10,000 immediately becomes a claim, and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY according to the number of full years paid, in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four tenths of $10 000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	5,000

And so on, until the tenth annual payment when all is paid

The paid up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

City Marshal's Notice!

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC 8. It shall be the duty of every person, or the owner, or keeper, having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the limits of the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the said carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits.

SEC 9. If any person, being the owner or having the possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. D. J. SWEENY,
June 3rd, 1868. City Marshal.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties and other timbers in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge crosses said stream, to include said stream for a distance of 30 miles. Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that they will not be permitted to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream without our consent, [illegible] expense.

Just the Thing.

In the communication from Dr Latham which was published in the LEADER yesterday, the Doctor states a company had been organized to commence the working of the coal mines at Laramie Plains, and that there was every reason to believe another company would soon follow to work the magnetic iron ore which abounds here in inexhaustible quantities.

It is such enterprises as these which are destined to develop Wyoming and prove it to be one of the most valuable of all the Territories and States in the Union. One responsible iron company would be of more real value to the Territory than an hundred enterprises seeking for gold and silver, and with one company established and the works of the U P R R located at this point, the manufacturing interests of the Territory would soon expand and result in making fortunes for those engaged in the [illegible] of business, and build up the Territory with marvelous rapidity. The organization of the Territory by Congress would be a desirable piece of legislation for the people who are interested in the prosperity of this place; but the organization of coal and iron working companies is of infinitely greater importance as the latter would [illegible] of themselves become an unanswerable argument in favor of the former.

A Weight to Carry.

The success of the LEADER has, as might naturally be expected, aroused the wrath of the Rocky Mountain Penny Whistle, old-news paper, of this city, which has bartered its soul in the vain hope of obtaining a political appointment in the Territory of Wyoming, and which hope has been deferred until the thing sickened and died, and is now only galvanized into a spasmodic imitation of existence which will soon close its career, as that of the Record, Fast Life, and all such concerns invariably close. This morning's issue of that concern says Pyper was not elected because, for one reason, he had "the weight of the LEADER to carry—a load which would sink the best man in the community." This is not so; but it will be found the weight of the LEADER will sink that rotten concern known as the Vigilante organ, and, if so disposed, sink all the hopes for office which have arisen in the disordered brain of that concern. In spite of any insinuations coming from that irresponsible institution, it is a fact that is known to every person who has lived in Cheyenne, that the LEADER, which is the first paper ever printed in Wyoming, was, from the first, and still is Republican, and has always advocated Republican principles. There never has been in our case, any attempt to make our political principles a means or attempt to drag the Republican party of Cheyenne to serve our individual purposes by seeking, by such or any other means, political preferment. We desire no office, but we work for the honor and glory of honest Republican principles; and that is why we have fallen under the displeasure of the would-be Governor's organ.

The Salt Lake Reporter says: "Carrots and Sich" still continue to be the circulating medium, but it is thought they will fall below par when "those greenbacks" arrive on railroad contracts. Tithing office orders are at a discount, as the payment of several has been refused.

Western Items.

General Augur and staff arrived in Salt Lake on the 22nd inst.

The funeral of Heber C. Kimball took place in Salt Lake on the 24th inst. From the time of his death, on the 22nd, till his burial flags were displayed at half mast throughout the entire city. The Deseret News was made up in mourning.

The Gold Hill (Nevada) News of the 17th says: A slide occurred on the railroad, near Coburn's, at about ten o'clock, p. m. yesterday, burying and killing eight Chinamen. The connection will be completed to-day, and the cars from Sacramento will run through to Reno to-night.

The State of California has commenced suits against Koopmanschap and others, to recover $1,000 per head for 258 passengers who arrived at San Francisco on the ship Chasee—another against them to recover $459,000 for passengers brought on the ship Lagnira; and still another to recover $152,000 for passengers by the ship China. Thus the State claims in all from these parties the sum of $849,000, being $1,000 each for 849 passengers on whom they refuse to pay the commutation tax.

The Boise Statesman of the 20th says: Idaho City was visited with another destructive fire yesterday morning at three o'clock. We learn the following facts from Mr Jones, driver of the Idaho stage. About three o'clock the store of Powell & Co., corner of Main and Wallula streets, was discovered to be on fire, which spread and consumed the entire row from Isaacs' brick store, on Commercial street, to Moore's creek. Powell & Coe and Mr. Emery are the heaviest losers. The first-named firm lost all their books, papers, money and scrip, which were in the safe. It must have been the work of an incendiary.

The Virginia (Nevada) Trespass says: The C. P. R. R. is crowding work so rapidly over the Desert that they cannot wait to sink wells. Water could be got, probably, in required quantities and places, by boring; but a certainty is better and not much more expensive, while saving time; so the company is building large tanks on platform cars, on which all the water wanted for men and animals can be carried. The distance from well to well is nowhere greater than thirty miles, but some of these wells are very deep and easily exhausted by so large a draft.

News Gatherings.

The Western Manufacturer's Association of the Northwest is to hold a grand exposition in Chicago in August. It is expected to be the largest convocation of wool-growers and manufacturers ever held in this country.

A rink has been opened in Chicago, for parlor skating.

Senator Henderson and Miss Mary Foote were married on Tuesday last.

The Boston Herald says the general impression prevails that owing to the gatherings of Weston and Tracy during the walking match, in that city, a compromise was effected by the principal backers of both men, although Weston was declared winner.

Des Moines, Iowa, will spend two million dollars in building this season.

The Des Moines Register says: About nine o'clock, Wednesday night, two men, in a state of intoxication, left Bonaparte for Bentonsport, walking along the railroad track. About a mile and a half this side of Bonaparte it seems they laid down upon the track and went to sleep. While in this drunken slumber the six o'clock freight train from Keokuk came thundering along, and passed over them—one of them being instantly killed, and the other so badly injured that his recovery is considered impossible.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil is happy to state that the discovery for the extermination of grasshoppers has recently developed itself in the shape of an insect, which may be seen with the naked eye, on the wings and on the body under the wings. The insects are of a deep red color, and a microscopic examination will show that they are destroying the lives of these pests which are now and have been doing so much damage in various parts of this State.

Mr. and Mrs McDermott were temporarily hung for stealing a carpet bag, in a town in Montana. They told where it was concealed, which speaks well for the sus per coll argument.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Leader.

NOON REPORT.

CLEVELAND, O., June 29.—John Cole, of [illegible], on Saturday murdered his two step-sons, named Quayle, with a butcher knife, and assaulted others in the neighborhood. He defied arrest by the local authorities, but was finally taken by police from the city.

FT. UNION, N. M., June 29.—The telegraph is completed to this place. It will reach Santa Fe during next week.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Judge Chase and Henry A. Wise have engaged rooms at the St. Cloud Hotel for next week.

The Plasterers' Union of Brooklyn have voted five thousand dollars per month to the striking bricklayers of New York.

The different corps of marksmen attending the Schutzenfest paraded through the principal streets to-day. The houses all along the routes were adorned with flowers and evergreens and the sidewalks thronged with spectators.

A broker's messenger was knocked down in Wall street to-day and robbed of $60,000. The assailant was arrested and the money recovered.

TORONTO, June 29.—John C. Breckinridge has arrived here from Paris.

LONDON, June 29.—Viscount F. Ferial, First Secretary of the French Legation in Washington, is transferred to England in some capacity.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The Surratt case is postponed till September 21st, when he will be tried for an attempt to abduct Mr. Lincoln, the indictment for murder being abandoned.

The Committee on Ways and Means agreed to take vote on Morrill's tariff bill this week. There is little probability of its being acted on this session.

General Grant leaves for the West to-morrow.

SENATE.—Howard, from the Military Committee, reported favorably on the bill to discontinue the Freedmen's Bureau.

Afternoon—A joint resolution directing the withholding of money due from the United States to any State, in default of payment of principal or interest on its stocks or bonds held by the United States in trust, was considered and passed.

The Senate resolved to hold an evening session, to consider the bill for the admission of Colorado.

The civil appropriation bill was taken up. Among the amendments adopted was one appropriating $150,000 for a branch mint building at Carson City, Nevada. Without action on the bill the Senate held an executive session, then took a recess till evening.

HOUSE.—Cobb offered a resolution instructing the Ways and Means Committee to report a bill levying a tax of at least 10 per cent on the interest of the bonds of the United States, to be collected annually by the Secretary of the Treasury and such subordinates as are charged with the duty of paying the interest on the bonded indebtedness of U. S. A motion to table was rejected. A motion to refer was also rejected. The resolution passed, by 92 to 52.

Stevens, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the deficiency bill, which was made the special order for Thursday.

The consideration of the river and harbor bill was resumed. The entire bill was considered by sections. Elliott moved the previous question. Washburne called for a separate vote on the several appropriations; some having been agreed to, a leave of absence was granted to several Democratic members. Without action on the bill the House adjourned.

Afternoon Report.

COPENHAGEN, June 29.—The delay in completing the transfer of St. Thomas to the United States is represented to be accidental. The King has intimated that Santa Cruz will also be disposed of to the United States as soon as the claims of France in connection with that Island are settled.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The Senate to-day ratified the free emigration and naturalization treaty with Bavaria.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of Admiral Dahlgren as Chief of Ordnance. Also, that Commanders Febiger and Crosby be Captains.

NEW ORLEANS, June 30.—The legislature convened today. The clerk read a letter from Gen. Grant, suggesting that only the test oath prescribed by the new constitution be required of newly elected officers. Lt Gov. Dunn said he could not comply with General Grant's suggestion, but would require the old test oath to be administered to Democrats. He argued the presiding officer had no authority to prescribe any oath whatever. The legislature being convened under the new constitution, no other oath than that prescribed therein could be taken. The Lt. Gov. ruled that until members had been qualified no appeal could be taken nor motion offered. He ordered the roll to be called, and the members came forward to take the oath. The Democratic members entered a protest, and refused to take the test oath. Nineteen, barely a quorum, took the oath, after which the constitutional oath was administered. The House was called to order by Gen Balstelder, of Buchanan's staff. R. H. Sabel (negro) was elected temporary chairman. He took the test oath, and announced that no member could take a seat without taking the test oath. The majority of the democrats retired. Milford (Republican) entered a protest against recognizing Gen. Buchanan's authority to interfere in the organization of the House. He said after the House was fully organized all interference on the part of the army must cease.

JACKSON, June 30.—The election is still progressing, with indications of a democratic victory.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The Erie war has broken out anew. Judge Barnard to-day granted an injunction on the complaint of Jay Gould, restraining Eldridge, President of the Erie company, from filling vacancies in the Board of Directors. It is alleged he has been acting in the interest of the Vanderbilt party.

CHICAGO, June 30.—Specials say the President has signed the eight hour bill, which takes immediate effect. It applies to government employees generally.

It is believed the President will soon issue an amnesty proclamation including all excepted in the former proclamation.

Thad Stevens has finished new impeachment articles and will present them early this week. The proof sheets were refused to members of the press.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—General Logan, Commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has issued an order to all commanders of Posts, etc., to furnish to headquarters everything pertaining to the recent ceremonies of decorating the graves of Union soldiers in all parts of the country, including newspaper accounts, editorials, &c. Frank Moore, editor of the Rebellion Record, has been appointed, under a resolution of Congress, to edit these documents for preservation in book form.

Senator Trayer's bill to regulate and fix the military establishments by repealing the act which fixes the number of Captains in the Quartermaster's Department at thirty, and the number of Majors at fifteen, prohibits the filling of vacancies until the number of such officers are so reduced.

Rattlesnake's Bite.

As the season for snakes has arrived, and as the varmints may be met just when you don't desire to see them, it would be a good idea to remember this remedy, which we clip from an exchange:

Ammonia or hartshorn, is doubtless the best remedy known for the bite of the rattlesnake. Alcohol is good, but not to be relied upon for a certain cure in all cases. So with several kinds of vegetable remedies; they cure in some cases, but not all. Next to ammonia, mud is probably the best. A son of Mr. A. D. Sharp, of Spring Valley Minnesota, was bitten on the foot by a rattlesnake. Several remedies were applied, each said to be a certain cure; but they all failed. He grew spotted, like a rattlesnake; they said became very sick, and likely to die. At length they put his foot in a bucket of mud. He was relieved in fifteen minutes, and continued to improve until he was well. If one has such a bite to treat, and cannot get ammonia, let him have whisky, or some other stimulant internally, and apply mud to the part bitten, changing it once in three hours during the day.

TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1868.

SOMETHING NEW.—The Bulletin mentions a new industry inaugurating in San Francisco. We have read of salt and alum being injected into wood by means of force pumps. The new establishment is thus noticed:

The North American Wood Preserving Company has an establishment in process of construction on Berry street, near Fourth, which is very novel, and promises the most favorable results in the operation of preserving wood from the effects of decay, and the depredations of the toredo. The process was invented by Mr. Samuels, and is, of course, a secret. A huge wrought iron boiler plate, cylinder or tube, has been manufactured, in which the timber is to be operated upon. It is 75 feet long and 54 inches in diameter. At its side stands a steam boiler and engine. The timber to be preserved will be pushed into the cylinder from a runway, and the door at one end closed air and steam tight. The timber will be first subjected to the action of steam, which will be condensed in the cylinder, and the air exhausted. Above and below the iron tube are large wooden reservoirs, which are to contain a peculiar fluid preparation which will be thrown into the tube by means of force pumps till a pressure is exerted on the cylinder of 175 pounds to the square inch, and on the wood with sufficient force to drive it into the wood. The engine is about 20 horse power, and will work the force and air pumps. The building enclosing the boiler, tube and machinery, is nearly completed, and the establishment will be in working order in a short time.

GOPHER SCALPS.—An Iowa paper says the "professional" gopher trappers of Marshall county, skin the sides of the little rodents—cut them in pieces about the size of the animal's scalp—cut ear holes through them with a shoemaker's punch—dry them in a rounded up shape—and then palm them off on the innocent and unsophisticated Justices of the Peace and Clerk at the county office, as genuine gopher scalps.

PIANO FORTES.

A COMPLETE PROTECTION AGAINST WET, COLD OR HOT CLIMATE
(Patented February 16th, 1863)
WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Warerooms, 452 Broome St., N. Y.

The Patent Monitor Plate Pianos, by their peculiar construction, are superior to all others, and their merit consists in the wrest plank being supported by the iron frame, allowing a larger space for the sounding board than is possessed by any other kind of Piano By this means, the quantity as well as the quality of the tone is largely increased.

These Pianos have been pronounced by the best judges to be unrivalled for

Power and Sweetness of Tone, Easy and Agreeable Touch and Beauty of FINISH.

Most flattering certificates of excellence from Thalberg, Gottschalk, Strakosch, Vieuxtemps, and a large number of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs. From long experience and superior facilities for manufacturing, we are enabled to offer our Pianos at as low prices as are asked by inferior makers

Foreclosure of Mortgage.

BY virtue of a power of sale contained in a drafted mortgage, executed on the 14th day of April, 1868, by Henry Postler and Fritz Freeman to Henry Wagner, and given to secure the payment of a certain promissory note for the sum and costs of $250 00 with twelve per cent interest thereon from the date thereof, which note is now due and unpaid, I will expose to sale to the highest bidder, on the premises, on the 7th day of July, 1868, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, the following described property, to-wit A certain frame building, twelve feet wide by — feet in depth, situate on a part of lot 11 in block 416, in Cheyenne City, and formerly known as the New York Saloon. J. R. SUMNER, Auctioneer

W. S. CRAWFORD, Attorney for Mortgagee.

AN ORDINANCE
Concerning Dogs.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cheyenne:

SEC. I. That no dog, bitch, or whelp shall be permitted or allowed to run or to be at large within the limits of the City of Cheyenne, unless the owner, keeper, or person having charge of such dog, bitch, or whelp, shall, before the first day of July, pay to the City Clerk, for the use and benefit of the City, the sum of three dollars for each and every male dog, and the sum of five dollars for each and every bitch, owned or kept by such person; and shall also place upon the neck of every such dog, bitch, or whelp a collar, made of durable material, with the name of the owner, keeper, or person having charge of such dog, bitch, or whelp, legibly printed or engraved thereon.

By Order of D. J. SWEENY, City Marshal
Cheyenne, D. T. June 15th 1868.

PROCLAMATION.

CHEYENNE, D.T., June 2nd, 1868.

WHEREAS, on the 2nd day of June, 1868, the seat of Chas. Sternberger, as a member of the board of Aldermen of the City of Cheyenne, became vacant by reason of his removal from said city, and so declared by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, and,

WHEREAS, the Board of Aldermen have passed a resolution providing for an election to fill said vacancy,

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that an election to fill vacancy in Board of Aldermen, caused by removal of Chas. Sternberger from the city, will be holden on June 29th, 1868. Polls opened at City Hall, at 8 o'clock, a. m., and close at 5 o'clock of said day.

Attest L. MURRIN,
ED. ORPEN, Mayor.
City Clerk. jo17

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, an Ordinance concerning nuisances has been passed by the City Council, in which all persons are required to remove from their premises and from the alleys adjoining thereto, all filth, nuisances, vegetable or animal substances, or any matter whatever, prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants; and,

WHEREAS, the absolute necessity of the most perfect cleanliness is apparent to all the season being now close at hand when the above ordinance must be strictly enforced in order to avoid cholera, or other [illegible] of which have been yearly [illegible] n places.

THE ETERNAL FITNESS OF THINGS.—The advantage of having the right man in the right place was never more forcibly or more beautifully illustrated than in the case of the triumphant Bob Beers. Yesterday afternoon when it was announced that Bob was elected Alderman of the 16th Ward, he immediately rushed from the congratulations and embraces of his admiring friends to the hay scales, and found that he weighed but 149 pounds. In an hour afterwards, and after having eaten his first Aldermanic supper, he surprised himself and friends by "pulling down" 162. At bed time he weighed 174; this morning this bad increased to 183, and after dinner he weighed 204. He has issued an edict that all hotels in the city serve green turtle soup three times per day. His rotundity is immense; his tailors are making patent extension pants for him, and his counter has been moved out a little further to make room for him to get behind it. He is as round, sleek and fat as a (city) seal. He is the centre of public admiration, and will soon become an ornament to the city, and still he grows. Verily he is filled with Aldermanic honors, and all day he laughs, ha! ha! ha! ha!

—Oranges, Lemons and other fruit at Whipple Bros 1t

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Cheyenne and the public generally, that he intends giving an anniversary dinner, at 2 o'clock, precisely, on Saturday, July 4th, provided, however, that there is a guarantee of 75 or 100 tickets being sold Price of tickets, $2.00. And if he does not give the best and finest dinner ever seen west of the Missouri river, and such as to give credit to any hotel on the American continent, he will not charge one cent The place of dinner is not yet located. That, as well as the bill of fare, will appear in the next issue. Respectfully, Passengers taking Wells, Fargo & Co.'s stages at Virginia for Reno at 12 o'clock—midnight—will arrive at Reno in time to take the cars at 3½ o'clock next morning for Sacramento, arriving at 1½ o'clock p m —11½ hours from Virginia At 2 p. m they can take the steamer for San Francisco, arriving there at 10 o'clock the same evening—19½ hours from Virginia. The fare is as follows: From Virginia to Reno, $3; from Reno to Sacramento, $15; from Sacramento to San Francisco, $5—total, $23 The distance by stage from Virginia to Reno is 19 miles; by railroad from Reno to Sacramento, 155½; by steamer from Sacramento to San Francisco, 120 Total, 294½ miles —Gold Hill News.

Wooden Railroads.

The people of Virginia City are agitating the project of building a wooden railroad from Reno, the station of the Central Pacific, to within seven miles of their city. A road of this kind could be built very cheaply, and would be very serviceable, not only for the conveyance of the Virginia freight and passengers, but in carrying ores, wood and mining lumber The Trespass gives the following estimate of cost per mile, which it says is very liberal:

1,760 ties delivered, at 30 cts	510
22,000 feet of rails, at $30	660
Notching ties, track laying, etc	500
	$1,670
Add grading	600
Total	$2,270

At this rate the fourteen miles of road would cost but $31,780, a comparatively insignificant sum These tramways are said to be durable when made of good timber, sand and gravel becoming imbedded in the rails, which grow very hard by use Of course the locomotives used must be light, but it is said that a speed of twenty miles can be obtained with safety, and that one locomotive can draw easily one hundred tons. Wherever good timber is cheaply attainable, these wooden railways would seem to offer to our farmers and miners a ready means of solving the transportation problem —S F Times

Proclamation.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, }
CHEYENNE, June 26, 1868. }

Whereas there is imminent danger of fire, and consequent destruction of property to be apprehended from any careless or indiscriminate display of fire-works within the limits of this city on any occasion,

And whereas the laws and ordinances of the city providing for and pertaining to the public safety and good order render it necessary that due precaution be had in the premises,

Now, therefore, I, Luke Murrin, Mayor of the City of Cheyenne, do issue this my Proclamation warning all good citizens to desist from the use of all fire-arms and fire-works within said city on the ensuing Fourth day of July, 1868, and notifying all whom it may concern that any person or persons found guilty of shooting or exploding fire-arms or fire-works, of any kind, within the limits of said city on said Fourth day of July, 1868 or at any other time, will be prosecuted according to law.

Witness my hand, this 26th day of June, A. D. 1868

THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance
COMPANY.

Accumulated Capital, over $9,000,000

Divisible Surplus, June 1, 68, $1,9[illegible],125 50

During the twenty-three years of its existence this Company has issued policies upon the lives of more than

Fifty Thousand Persons,

And has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company

The Progress of the Company for the past four years will be seen in the following statement

	Assets	Increase of assets over previous year
1864	$3,658,755 55	$1,003,217 64
1865	4,881,919.70	1,223,164 15
1866	6,727,816 65	1 845 896.95
1867	8,774,126 01	2,046,309 36
Total Increase		$6,120,785 60

This increase of over Six Million Dollars in the Assets during the past four years has been attained notwithstanding that nearly Two Million Dollars for losses, and over One Million Dollars for Dividends, have been actually paid out during that period.

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a safe and judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize its management.

Policies are issued in all the forms which experience has indicated as favorable to the assured, and can be made payable at a specified time during the lifetime of the assured, or at death. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly

Ten-Year Non-Forfeiture Plan

The system popularly termed "The Non-Forfeiture Plan," was originated and first presented to the public by this Company in their well-known "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Policy," in the year 1860; and its perfect adaptation to the wants of every class in the community, obviating every reasonable objection to Life Insurance, is shown from the fact that every other American Company has been compelled, in due, not to [illegible] opinion, to adopt it, although in many cases it is done in such a way as consequently to impair its value It has received the unqualified approval of the best business men of the land, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it simply as an investment.

By the table on which this class of policies are based, a person incurs no risk in taking out a policy. Insuring to-day for $1,000, if he should die to-morrow, the $1,000 immediately becomes a claim; and if he shall live ten years, and make ten annual payments his policy will be paid for, and his dividends still continue, making

A Source of Income to Him while Living.

By the specific terms of these policies, and not by vague and indefinite statements made in circulars, a party after the second year does not forfeit what he has paid in premiums

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $10 000 discontinues after the second year, he is entitled to a PAID-UP POLICY, according to the number of full years paid in as follows:

Second year, two-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . .	$2,000
Third year, three-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured) amounting to	3,000
Fourth year, four-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to	4,000
Fifth year, five-tenths of $10,000 (amount insured), amounting to . . .	5,000

And so on until the tenth annual payment when all is paid.

The paid-up policies, for the proportionate partial payments, as well as for the full amount, participate in the Dividends of the Company during the whole existence of the policies,

This being a purely mutual Company, all its profits are divided among the assured.

City Marshal's Notice!

NUISANCES!

The following provisions of the City ordinances, relating to the carcasses of dead animals, will be strictly enforced. Owners of animals dying, and draymen removing the same, and all other persons, in any manner connected therewith, are liable under these sections of the law. The health of the City demands their strict enforcement.

SEC. 8 It shall be the duty of every person being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control or charge, any horse, ox, or any other animal, which shall in any manner come to its death, within the City of Cheyenne, immediately to remove the body or carcass of such horse, ox, or other animal, beyond the City limits

SEC. 9 If any person, being the owner, or having in his possession, or under his control, or charge, any horse, ox, or other animal shall permit or suffer the same to run, or be at large, and such horse, ox, or other animal, shall die within the limits of the city, while so at large, it shall be the duty of such person immediately to remove the body or carcass of such animal beyond the limits of the City. D. J. SWEENY,
June 3rd, 1868 City Marshal. 4t

NOTICE

IS hereby given that we, Robert Bailey and Walter Sinclair, of Laramie county, Dakota Territory, claim the exclusive right of floating down ties, and other timbers, in the waters of ROCK CREEK, on the Laramie plains, in said County, for a period of FIVE YEARS, from the point where the Railroad bridge crossing said stream, is located, up said stream for a distance of 30 miles Having been at great expense in clearing said stream of rocks and other obstructions that impeded the floating of ties and other timbers, all persons whomsoever are notified that we will not permit any one to float TIES or any other kind of TIMBERS down said stream, where we have cleared the same from obstructions at our individual expense. BAILEY & SINCLAIR.
